9. Removal and impoundment

- (1) An official who reasonably suspects that property is being used or intended to be used in, or in connection with, street trading, whether or not the property is in possession or under the control of any person may, subject to subsection (2), remove and impound the property which he or she finds at a place where street trading is restricted or prohibited and which constitutes an infringement of any such restriction or prohibition.
- (2) An official who acts under subsection (1) must, except in the case of goods that have been left or abandoned, issue to the street trader a receipt for the property so removed and impounded and the receipt must contain the following particulars:
 - (a) the address where the impounded property will be kept and the period it will be kept;
 - (b) the conditions for the release of the impounded property; and
 - (c) that unclaimed property will be sold by public auction.

- (3) If any impounded property is attached to immovable property or a structure, and the impounded property is under the apparent control of a person present at that place, an official may order the person to remove the impounded property.
- (4) When a person fails to comply with an order to remove the impounded property, an official may take such steps as may be necessary to remove the impounded property.
- (5) A person who hinders or obstructs an official in the performance of his or her duties under this section, or who refuses or fails to remove the object when ordered to do so by an official, commits an offence.

10. Impoundment of goods

- (1) Any perishable goods removed and impounded may at any time after the impoundment thereof be sold or destroyed by the municipality and in the case of a sale of such goods, the proceeds thereof, less any expenses incurred by the municipality in connection with the removal and impoundment thereof. The balance thereof is to be paid to the person who was the owner thereof when it was impounded. If such owner fails to claim the said proceeds within three months of the date on which it was sold, the proceeds may be forfeited to the municipality.
- (2) The owner of any goods other than perishable goods already dealt with by the municipality in terms of subsection (1) who wishes to claim the return thereof must, within a period of one month of the date of the impoundment thereof, apply to the municipality; failing which the goods may be sold by the municipality and in the event of a sale thereof the provisions of subsection (1) relating to the proceeds of a sale likewise apply to the proceeds of the sale.
- (3) If the owner of any goods impounded claims the return of the goods from the municipality and he or she is unable or refuses to refund any expenses incurred by the municipality in connection with the removal and impoundment, the goods may be sold by the municipality and the proceeds of any sale thereof, less any expenses shall be paid to him or her.
- (4) In the event of the proceeds of any sale of goods contemplated by this section not being sufficient to defray any expenses incurred by the municipality, the owner thereof shall remain liable for the difference.

11. Duty and liability of the municipality

- (1) In the event that an authorised official removes and impounds any property in terms of the preceding section, the authorised official shall take reasonable steps to ensure that such property is not damaged or lost.
- (2) The municipality shall not be liable for any damage or loss caused to any such property that is removed and impounded, unless such damage or loss is caused as a result of the negligence of the municipality.

12. Vicarious responsibility of persons carrying on business

- (1) When an employee or agent of a street trader contravenes a provision of this by-law, the street trader shall be deemed to have committed such contravention him- or herself unless such street trader satisfies the court that he or she took reasonable steps to prevent such contravention.
- (2) The fact that the street trader issued instructions to the employee or agent, prohibiting such contravention, shall not in itself constitute sufficient proof of such reasonable steps.

- (2) An admission of guilt fine may be paid by any person in respect of whom a summons or written notice has been issued for any contravention of this by-law, as contemplated in terms of Sections 56 and 57 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

14. Responsible person

When an employee of a person who performs an act which contravenes a provision of this by-law, the employer is deemed to have committed the contravention himself or herself, unless he or she proves that-

- (a) he or she did not permit such act;
- (b) he or she took all reasonable steps to prevent the performance of the act; and
- (c) it was not in the scope of the authority or the course of employment of the employee to perform an act which contravenes this by-law.

15. Appeal

A person whose rights are affected by a decision of the municipality may appeal against that decision by giving written notice of the appeal and the reasons therefore in terms of section 62 of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, Act 32 of 2000 to the municipal manager within 21 days of the date of the notification of the decision.

16. Liason forums in community

- (1) The municipality may establish one or more liaison forums in a community for the purposes of-
 - (a) creating conditions for a local community to participate in the affairs of the municipality; and
 - (b) promoting economic development.
- (2) A liaison forum may consist of-
 - (a) a member or members of an interest group, or an affected person;
 - (b) a member or members of a community in whose immediate area commonage has been established;
 - (c) a designated official or officials of the municipality; and
 - (d) a councillor.
- (3) The municipality may, when considering an application for an approval, or exemption certificate in terms of this by-law, request the input of a liaison forum.

17. Application of by-law

This by-law shall be binding on all persons who own or occupy premises within the jurisdiction of the municipality.

18. Regulations

- (1) The municipality may make regulations regarding-
 - (a) the provision or approval of any structure for purposes of providing shelter;
 - (b) the declaration of any place to be an area in which street trading is restricted or prohibited, and the prescription or making of signs, markings or other devices;
 - (c) the leasing of any verge or any portion thereof, and the setting apart, demarcation, letting or allocation of stands or areas for the purposes of street trading, and the extension, reduction or disestablishment thereof;
 - (d)
 - (i) the disposal of any property which has been removed and impounded;
 - (ii) the liability of any person for any reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such removal, impoundment and disposal;
 - (e)
 - (i) the prescription of penalties for the offences;
 - (ii) the issuing of any summons or written notice and payment of an admission of guilt fine; and
 - (iii) the amendment of such penalties or fines from time to time;
 - (f) any matter which may be prescribed in terms of this by-law, and any matter which may facilitate the application of this by-law.
- (2) The municipality shall, not less than 1 (one) month before promulgating a regulation in terms of subsection [1], cause a draft of the regulation to be communicated to the local community and to be made public in terms of Sections 21 and 21A of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No. 32 of 2000), together with a notice declaring the intention of the municipality to issue such a regulation and inviting comments or representations.
- (3) if the municipality decides to alter the draft regulation as a result of comments or representations received pursuant to such invitation, then it shall not be necessary to communicate and make public the alteration before the amended draft is promulgated as a regulation.
- (4) In addition the municipality may make regulations regarding-
 - (a) any matter required, or permitted, to be prescribed in terms of this by-law; and
 - (b) generally, all matters which, in the reasonable opinion of the municipality, are necessary, or expedient, to be prescribed, in order to achieve the objects of this by-law.

19. Repeal of by-laws

Any by-laws relating to street trading adopted by the municipality or any erstwhile municipal council now comprising an administrative unit of the municipality shall be repealed from the date of promulgation of this by-law.

20. Short title

This by-law is called the Street Trading By-law, 2016, and takes effect on a date determined by the municipality by proclamation in the Provincial Gazette.
