JUDGMENT (Leave to Appeal Application)

SENYATSI J:

- [1] This is an application for maybe leave to appeal the judgment granted on 11 October 2021 which was followed by reasons provided on 18th October 2022.
- [2] The grounds for leave to appeal the judgment have been fully set out in the notice of application and will not be repeated in this judgment.
- [3] The requirement and the test for granting leave to appeal are regulated by section 17(1)(a) of the Superior Courts Act No. 10 of 2013 which states as follows:
 - "(1) Leave to appeal may only be given where the judge or judges concerned are the opinion that –

(a)(i) the appeal would have a reasonable prospect of success;

or

(ii) there is some other compelling reason why the appeal should be heard, including conflicting judgments on the matter under consideration."

[4] In Mont Chevaux Trust v Goosen and Others¹ Bertelsman J interpreted the test as follows:

"It is clear that the threshold for granting leave to appeal against a judgment of a High Court has been raised in the new Act. The former test whether leave to appeal should be granted was a reasonable prospect that another court might come to a different conclusion...The use of the word 'would' in the new statute indicates a measure of certainty that another court will differ from the court whose judgment is sought to be appealed against."

- [5] In Acting National Director of Public Prosecutions and Others v Democratic Alliance: In re: Democratic Alliance v Acting National Director of Public Prosecutions² the court acknowledged the test by Bestertsman J.
- [6] In Mothule Inc Attorneys v The Law Society of the Northern Provinces and Another³, the Supreme Court of Appeal stated as follows regarding the trial court's liberal approach on granting leave to appeal:

"It is important to mention my dissatisfaction with the court a quo's granting of leave to appeal to this court. The test is simply whether there are any reasonably prospects of success in an appeal. It is not whether a litigant has an arguable case or mere possible of success."

- [7] Having considered the grounds of appeal and the heads of arguments by both counsel, I am not persuaded that the requirements of section 17(1) (a) of the Act have been met. I am also not convinced that there is a compelling reason to grant the application for leave to appeal. There is therefore no prospect that the appeal would succeed.
- [8] Accordingly, the application for leave to appeal must fail.

ORDER

- [9] The following order is issued:
 - (a) The application for leave to appeal is dismissed with costs.
