FLATELA J

1. This is an application for leave to appeal brought by the Applicant against order number 3 granted by me on the 29 December 2023.

2. The applicant was a defendant in a divorce action that was brought by the respondent. I granted a forfeiture order against the applicant to the effect that applicant was to forfeit his claim of 50% of the plaintiff's pension interest held in the Government Employees Pension Fund.
3. The principles governing the leave to appeal are well established, but I summarise them for convenience.
4. The test for the granting of leave to appeal is set out in section 17(1) of the Superior Courts Act 10 of 2013 as follows:

“(1) Leave to appeal may only be given where the judge or judges concerned are of the opinion that:

(a)(i) the appeal would have a reasonable prospect of success or

(ii) there is some other compelling reason why the appeal should be heard, including conflicting judgments on the matter under consideration”

5. Having considered the grounds of appeal submissions from both counsel for the applicant and respondent, I am of the opinion that there is a reasonable prospect of success on appeal that another court may find that the applicant is entitled to a share in the Respondent's s pension interest held in the Government Employees Pension Fund.
6. In the circumstances, I make the following order:
  1. The application for leave to appeal is granted to the Full Bench of this Division against order 3 dated 29 December 2023.
  2. Costs will be costs on appeal.
