SCHEDULE

Definitions

1. In these Regulations, “the Act” means the KwaZulu-Natal Amafa and Research Institute Act, 2018 (Act No. 5 of 2018), and any word or expression to which a meaning is assigned in the Act bears the meaning so assigned to it, and, unless the context indicates otherwise

“application” means any application lodged with the Institute in terms of chapters 8 and 9 of the Act;

“archaeological site” means a site containing —

- (a) material remains resulting from human activity which are in a state of disuse and are in or on land and which are older than 100 years, including artefacts, ecofacts, human and hominid remains, and artificial features and structures;
- (b) rock art, being any form of painting, engraving or other graphic representations on a fixed rock surface or loose rock or stone, which was executed by human agency and which is older than 100 years, including any area within 50 metres of such representation; or
- (c) features, structures and artefacts associated with military history and the sites on which they are found, including sites connected with victims of conflict.

“development” means any physical intervention, excavation, or action, other than those caused by natural forces, which may, in the opinion of the Institute, in any way result in a change to the nature, appearance or physical nature of a place, or influence its stability and future well-being, including—

- (a) construction, alteration, demolition, removal or change of use of a place or a structure at a place;
- (b) carrying out any works on or over or under a place;
- (c) subdivision or consolidation of land comprising a place, including the structures or airspace of a place;
- (d) constructing or putting up for display signs or hoardings;

- (e) any change to the natural or existing condition or topography of land; and
- (f) any removal or destruction of trees, or removal of vegetation or topsoil.

“disturb” means any impact or activity that has the potential to compromise, damage, alter or in any other manner affect the chemical or structural composition, the appearance, location or significance of a heritage resource;

“grave” means a place of interment and includes the contents, headstone or other marker of such a place, and any other structure on or associated with such place;

“Hoardings” means a large board in a public place, used to display advertisements or a temporary board fence erected round a building site.

“palaeontological sites” means a site containing fossilised remains or fossil traces of animals or plants which lived in the geological past, other than fossil fuels or fossiliferous rock intended for industrial use, and any site which contains such fossilised remains or trace;

“site” means any area of land, including land covered by water, and including any structures or objects thereon; and

“structure” means any building, works, device or other facility made by people and which is fixed to land, and includes any fixtures, fittings and equipment associated therewith.

General Provisions for Permit Applications

2.(1) A permit application must be made to the Institute in the prescribed form and as set out in these regulations and must include the information required in terms of these regulations and any applicable guidelines.

- (2) The Institute may prescribe other requirements for permit applications, including –
- (a) any particulars or information to be furnished in the application and any documents, drawings, plans, photographs, amongst other things, to be submitted with the application;

(b) the knowledge, skills, minimum qualifications and standards of practice required of persons who will perform specified actions, in relation to particular categories of protected heritage resources; and

(c) the administration fee payable for the processing of the application, which fee must be published by Notice in the Provincial Gazette by the Institute from time to time.

(3) The Institute must acknowledge receipt of the application within 10 working days and notify the applicant whether the application is complete or whether additional information is required

(4) The Institute must inform the Applicant of the permit fee payable where a permit is granted by the Institute. The permit fees payable must be gazetted by the Institute from time to time.

(5) (a) The Institute may, at its discretion, refer an application to external experts, or a committee of experts in the field, for advice on the application.

(b) If an application is referred for external advice, the applicant must be informed thereof.

(6) A permit will only be issued for actions that are demonstrated to be in accordance with the general principles for heritage resources management, as set out in section 51 of the Act, and any principles prescribed under sections 6 and 10 of the National Heritage Resources Act, 1999 (Act No. 25 of 1999), and the permit may contain any conditions prescribed, including the –

(a) standards and conditions for the excavation and curation of archaeological and palaeontological objects, material and meteorites recovered;

(b) conditions under which a financial deposit must be lodged and held in trust for the duration of the permit or such period as the Institute may specify, and conditions of forfeiture of such deposit;

(c) methods and standards of protection of heritage resources to be implemented whilst work proceeds on the site, including but not limited to, the creation of buffer zones;

(d) submission of reports on work done under authority of a permit;

(e) responsibilities of the Institute regarding monitoring of work done under authority of a permit;

(f) identification of salvageable fabric from buildings to be delivered to the Institute's conservation materials bank; and

(g) stipulation for design proposals and drawings to be revised.

(7) A permit is not transferable and expires 36 months after the date of issue but may be renewed or extended at the discretion of the Institute.

(8) On receipt of representations and submissions following the public consultation process, the Institute must, within ten working days, assess the application and make a decision whether to grant or refuse the permit, and must give written notice to the interested and affected parties of its decision.

(9) Any person or bodies who believes or believe they are affected by an application to the Institute, may lodge an objection with the Institute, and the objection must be considered during the process of considering the application.

Application to Institute for demolition, alteration or addition to a structure which is, or which may reasonably be expected to be, older than 60 years in terms of section 37(1)(a) of Act

3.(1) No structure which is, or which may reasonably be expected to be, older than 60 years, may be demolished, altered or added to without the prior written approval of the Institute having been obtained on written application to the Institute, as provided for in section 37(1)(a) of the Act.

(2) The application contemplated in sub-regulation (1) must be made in writing on the prescribed form, available on the Institute's website www.amafainstitute.org.za, and must include the following –

(a) the full property description, including the title deed number, the farm, erf or lot number, the size of the site, the district and the local municipal area where the structure is situated, the GPS co-ordinates, and the current use and zoning of the land where the structure is situated;

- (b) An assessment of the heritage significance of the site and the resources thereon, including the date of the original approved drawings/estimated date of construction, and the historical, architectural, and contextual significance;
- (c) the details of and purpose for the demolition, alteration of, or addition to, such a structure, and an estimated cost of the proposed work;
- (d) the full names, address, contact numbers, and signature of the applicant;
- (e) the names, qualifications and contact details of the author of the plans;
- (f) bodies or interest groups consulted by the applicant, and the outcome thereof;
- (g) the estimated value of the proposed work; and
- (h) the estimated number of jobs to be created during the duration of the project.

(3) The application form must be accompanied by the –

- (a) signed and numbered drawings or plans for the alterations or additions or the concept drawings or plans for the replacement building in the case where it is proposed to demolish the existing structure or structures, and the drawings must include a site plan with a north point and the footprint of any buildings proposed to be demolished must be shown in dotted lines with the footprint of the proposed structure superimposed thereon;
- (b) photographs of all existing structures on the site and close up views of the features or structures to be demolished, altered or added to (including internal spaces), as well as views of the surrounding buildings or streetscape;
- (c) any other supporting documentation that may be required to substantiate the needs and desirability of the proposed action;
- (d) title deeds, power of attorney, any other proof of legitimacy or ownership from a traditional authority or written authority from the owner to submit the application and carry out the proposed work; and
- (e) proof of payment of the prescribed fee for the processing of the application, as gazetted by the Institute from time to time.

(4) Once all the required documents and information as set out in sub-regulations (2) and (3) have been submitted to the Institute, and proof that the prescribed fee has been paid into the Institute's bank account, an application will be regarded as duly lodged.

(5) The Institute may require the applicant to consult with persons or interest groups that it deems interested or affected by the application and may determine the manner of such consultation and require proof of such consultation.

(6) The Institute may consult interested and affected persons or groups prior to making a decision.

(7) The Institute must consider the application lodged in terms of sub-regulation (1) within 10 working days after receipt of all required documentation, information, and further requirements.

(8) Where there have been objections to the application lodged by interested and affected persons or groups, and the Institute, after consideration of the objections, grants approval in terms of section 37(1)(a) of the Act, the Institute must give notice to such interested or affected persons or groups, of its approval.

(9) Where the Institute grants the permit, the Institute may stipulate specific conditions under which the permit is granted, including but not limited to requirements that –

- (a) a person determined by the Institute to be suitable, must supervise the work;
- (b) the work be conducted in terms of stipulated professional standards;
- (c) the work be monitored by a professional in the relevant field; and
- (d) reports are submitted to the Institute by the person undertaking or monitoring the work, in the form, and at intervals, determined by the Institute.

(10) Where the Institute decides to approve an application, it must inform the applicant of the fee payable for the issuing of the permit.

(11) The permit must be issued within seven working days of receipt of payment of the permit fee.
