Part 1*Interpretation and Application of the provisions of the Municipal Structures Act, No. 117 of 1998*1. Introduction

The Municipal Structures Act, No. 117 of 1998, enacted by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa on the 18th December 1998 as follows:

To provide for the establishment of municipalities in accordance with the requirements relating to categories and types of municipalities; to establish criteria for determining the category of municipality to be established in an area; to define the types of municipality that may be established within each category; to provide for an appropriate division of functions and powers between categories of municipality; to regulate the internal systems, structures and office-bearers of municipalities; to provide for appropriate electoral systems; and to provide for matters in connection therewith.

2. Provisions of the Act

- (1) Section 72 (1) of the Municipal Structures Act provides that metropolitan or local municipalities of certain types may choose to establish Ward Committees. The object of a ward committee is to enhance participatory democracy in local government.
- (2) Section 73 of the Act provides that if the metropolitan or local municipality decides to have Ward Committees it must establish a ward committee for each ward in the municipality.

Part 2*Purpose of the Establishment Notice for Ward Committees*3. Establishment Notice

- (1) Makhado Municipality is herein establishing 35 Ward Committees from Ward 1 to Ward 35 as determined by the Municipal Demarcation Board and regulated in the Northern Provincial Gazette No. 579 of 25 July 2000 based on the provisions of Municipal Structures Act.
- (2) The established Ward Committees shall therefore serve as official specialised participatory structures within the municipal area of jurisdiction.

Part 3*Functions and Powers of Ward Committees*4. A Ward Committee—

- (1) will create functional communication channels and co-operative partnerships between the municipality and the community within a ward;
- (2) will ensure contact between municipality and community through the use of and payment for services rendered;
- (3) will create harmonious relationship between residents of a ward, the ward councillor, geographic community and the municipality;
- (4) will facilitate public participation in the process of drafting the Integrated Development Plan of the municipality;
- (5) will act as advisory body on Council policies affecting the ward;
- (6) will serve as official specialised participatory structures in the municipality;
- (7) may receive and record complaints from community within the ward and provide feedback on Council's responses;
- (8) may make recommendations on any other matter affecting the ward to the ward councillor, the Mayor, the Executive Committee or the Council;
- (9) may execute other functions as delegated by the municipality.

PART 4*ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE*5. The Local Council—

- (1) shall make administrative arrangements to as far as possible enable the Ward Committees to perform the functions and exercise their powers effectively;
- (2) will be politically and administratively accountable, as far as possible, for the smooth running of the Ward Committees;
- (3) will provide meeting venues where possible and assist in acquiring such venues where necessary;
- (4) will provide record books which will remain the property of the council for each member to ensure safekeeping of information and reports;
- (5) will be responsible to administer the elections and by-elections of the Ward Committees.

PART 5*ELECTION PROCEDURES*6. Application of rules

The Municipal Structures Act provides that a local council must make rules regulating the procedure to elect the members who constitutes the Ward Committees, taking into account the need—

- (1) for women to be equitably represented in a ward committee; and
- (2) for diversity of interest in the ward to be represented.

- (1) All registered voters including municipal officials, within a particular ward are eligible to elect or to be elected to serve as members of the Ward Committee. Councillors may also vote.

- (2) The Ward Councillor shall notify the Municipal Manager or an Official with delegated authority of the date for elections or by-elections at least seven days before the actual date for the municipality to make necessary arrangements.
- (3) Any registered voter in the ward may nominate his/her preferred nominee to stand for elections in the ward committee. The Ward Councillor, the proportional representative Councillor and a local community structure may identify village clusters and interested groups. The nomination list must be furnished to the Municipal Manager.
- (4) Elections of ward committee members shall be conducted in a meeting held within the ward area of jurisdiction and be presided over by the Ward Councillor or delegated Municipal Official.
- (5) The nominated registered voter shall confirm his/her availability for position in the ward committee.
- (6) The Ward Councillor or delegated Municipal Official shall report the outcome of the elections with full details of the elected members to the Municipal Manager or the Official with delegated authority at least within 72 hours after the elections for record purpose.
- (7) Objections against any member elected in the committee must be lodged with the Office of the Municipal Manager or Official with delegated authority with full reasons and details of the person objecting within 10 working days after the date of elections.
