PREAMBLE

The Municipality acknowledge that it is committed to the development of a culture of municipal governance. The municipality has legislative authority to make by-laws about public participation pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act (No. 32 of 2000), and therefore recognises its mandate as contemplated in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996;

The Rustenburg Local Municipality is committed to good governance and democratic principles. It understands that public participation is an essential ingredient for good governance in any democratic country. It believes that public participation is a means to improve 'democratic performance' i.e. the degree to which a government decision making process live up to democratic ethos. It understands that it cannot, on its own, find solutions to address the complex challenges facing the municipality. Thus, it believes that it can improve this 'By-Law performance' and the delivery thereon by working closely with citizens, communities, civil society organisations, Interests groups, businesses, faith based organisations, traditional leaders and other stakeholders. Through this By-Law the Rustenburg Local Municipality commits itself to establish appropriate mechanisms, processes and procedures to enable the local community to participate in the affairs of the municipality in terms of the provisions of Local Government: Municipal Systems Act No. 32 of 2000.
