- (b) one of the members of the board as the deputy chairperson.

(8) The responsible Member must publish the names of the persons appointed to the board of in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers circulating in the Province, immediately after such persons have been notified, in writing, of their appointment to the board.

(9) The responsible Member must, within two months after the appointment of members of the board, inform the Executive Council and the Portfolio Committee of the names of the appointed members including the term of their appointment.

(10) The Code of Conduct contained in Schedule 1 and the Declaration of Interests and Gifts by Members of board, contained in Schedule 2 to this Act apply to all members of the board.

(11) This section applies, with the necessary changes, to the filling of a vacancy on the board.

Disqualification from being appointed to board

8.(1) A person is disqualified from being appointed to the board or from remaining on the board, by reason that he or she –

- (a) is or becomes an unrehabilitated insolvent;
- (b) is or has been declared by a competent court to be of unsound mind;
- (c) has a direct or indirect interest in any contract with the Board and fails to declare the interest and the nature thereof in the manner required by this Act;
- (d) is a person under curatorship;
- (e) has at any time been removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct involving theft or fraud;
- (f) has been convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine, except that the responsible Member may, upon a person who is nominated for appointment disclosing full details of an offence in an affidavit, condone a conviction in a manner that is consistent with section 106(1)(e) of the Constitution; and
- (g) fails to disclose an interest in accordance with section 10 or attended or participated in the proceedings of the board while having an interest contemplated in section 10.

(2) A disqualification in terms of subsection (1)(f) ends five years after the sentence has been completed.

Term of office of members of board

9.(1) Persons appointed to the board hold office for a period of three years or such lesser period as the responsible Member may determine and are, subject to section 7, eligible for reappointment at the expiration of such period.

(2) No person may be reappointed after having served on the board for two consecutive terms.

Declaration of financial or other interests by nominees to board

10.(1) A nominee to the board must –

(a) within 10 days of having accepted an appointment to the board, submit to the responsible Member a written declaration of any financial or other interests in the biodiversity, hospitality and tourism sectors or related sectors which could be related to or may be in conflict with an appointment as a member of the board, which declaration must include relevant information about any conviction for a Schedule 1 offence in terms of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977); and

(b) in the declaration referred to in paragraph (a), include financial and other interests in the activities of the board or related sectors of family members or close associates, which could be related to or may be in conflict with an appointment as a member of the board.

(2) Any failure by the nominee to disclose financial and other interests in terms of subsection (1) disqualifies such nominee in terms of section 8 to be considered for the position of the member of the board.

(3) Every member of the board must, upon assuming office and at the beginning of every financial year, submit a written declaration of his or her direct or indirect interest in any company or other business interest in the manner provided for in section 75 of the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008).

(4) Where a member of the board or family member or close associate experiences a change in financial or any other circumstances and acquires an interest in the activities of the Board or has reason to know of any changed circumstances, the member of the board must, within 10 days of the date of the changed circumstances, submit a written declaration of change of financial or other interests to the responsible Member.

(5) The responsible Member must –

(a) keep a register of the interests of members of the board disclosed in terms of this section; and

(b) update that register from time to time.

Failure to declare financial or other interests

11.(1) A member of the board who fails to make a declaration envisaged in section 10 commits an offence.

(2) The responsible Member, on becoming aware that a member of the board has failed to comply with the provisions of section 10, must investigate the matter and consider appropriate disciplinary action.

Recusal of member of board

12.(1) A member of the board must recuse himself or herself in any matter or proceeding where he or she, a family member or close associate has or reasonably could be expected to have, a financial or other interest in the outcome of a decision by the board.

(2) Any person may make an application, orally or in writing, for a member of the board to recuse himself or herself where that person has reason to believe that the member of the board, a family member or close associate has or could reasonably be expected to have a financial or other conflict of interest in the outcome of a decision by the board.

(3) A person making an application referred to in subsection (2) must give reasons for his or her request.

(4) In the event of an application referred to in subsection (2), the chairperson of the board must decide on the matter, save that in cases where the application concerns the chairperson of the Board the matter must be decided on by the deputy chairperson.

(5) Any disclosure made in terms of subsection (1) must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting in question.

(6) If it subsequently emerges that the board took a decision on a matter in respect of which a member has failed to disclose an interest contemplated in subsection (1), such decision by the board is invalid.

Vacancies, removal and resignation from office of members of board

13.(1) A member of the board must vacate office if he or she becomes subject to a disqualification contemplated in section 10.

(2) The responsible Member may, after having afforded a member the opportunity to state his or her case, at any time terminate the term of office of such member if, in his or her discretion, there are good reasons for doing so.

(3) A member must vacate office if he or she is absent, without a leave of absence having first been granted by the board, from two consecutive meetings of the board for which reasonable notice was given to that member personally or by post.

(4) A member may resign from office in writing by giving not less than 30 days notice to the responsible Member.

(5) The responsible Member may waive the resignation notice contemplated in subsection (4), if such waiver would not be detrimental to the efficient functioning of the Board.

(6) Whenever a vacancy occurs on the board, the responsible Member must, subject to section 7, appoint a person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the member in whose place such person is appointed.

Meetings of board

14.(1) The board must hold routine quarterly meetings and may convene special meetings as required and the chairperson may direct how the meetings should be held.

(2) Every member of the board must be notified of each meeting in writing, at least 14 days prior to such meeting, and such notification must contain an agenda for the proposed meeting.

(3) In the event that the chairperson or the deputy chairperson of the board is absent from any meeting of the board, the members present at that meeting may elect one member present to preside at that meeting.

(4) A special meeting of the board may be called at the request of –

(a) the chairperson; or

(b) the majority of the members of the board by written petition, whereupon the chairperson must, in writing, notify every member of the board of the time and place of the special meeting.

- (5) A quorum for a meeting of the board is a majority of its members.
- (6) Any decision of the board must be taken by resolution of the majority of the members present at any meeting of the board and, in the event of an equality of votes on any matter, the member presiding at the meeting in question will have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote as a member of the board.
- (7) No decision of the board is invalid merely by reason of a vacancy in the board: Provided that the decision is taken by the required majority of the members of the board present and entitled to sit as members of the board.
- (8) The proceedings of all meetings of the board must be duly recorded, minuted and retained on file.
- (9)(a) The minutes of the previous meeting must be read at the commencement of each meeting.
- (b) The minutes may be regarded as read if copies thereof were furnished to the members of the board prior to the meeting.
- (c) The chairperson may only sign the minutes once objections or corrections have been dealt with.
- (10) The chairperson must decide on issues of order or procedure: Provided that if any member objects to any such decision, the issue must be put to the vote and the decision of the majority of the members is final and binding on the board.
- (11) A member of staff of the Board may, on invitation by the board, attend a meeting of the board.
- (12) The board may invite any person to attend any of its meetings.

Committees of board

- 15.(1) The board may appoint one or more committees, not limited to its own members, to assist it in the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties and functions.
- (2) Any committee appointed in terms of subsection (1) must be chaired by a member of the board.
- (3) A committee contemplated in subsection (1) must perform such duties and functions as the board may determine.

(4) The board may, at any time, dissolve or reconstitute such a committee.

(5) The board –

- (a) may delegate any of its powers or assign any of its duties or functions to a committee appointed in terms of subsection (1);
- (b) is not absolved from exercising or performing any power, duty or function so delegated or assigned; and
- (c) may amend, review or rescind any decision of a committee.

(6) Any delegated or assigned power, duty or function exercised or performed by a committee is regarded to have been exercised or performed by the Board.

(7)(a) The Chief Executive Officer may attend and take part in, but may not vote at, a meeting of a committee.

(b) A member of staff of the Board may, on invitation by the relevant committee, attend a meeting of that committee.

Remuneration of members of board

16.(1)(a) A member of the board may be paid such remuneration or allowances as may be determined by the responsible Member in consultation with the Member of the Executive Council responsible for finance.

(b) A member of the board who receives remuneration, allowances or other benefits by virtue of his or her post or employment in –

- (i) the national government;
- (ii) a provincial government;
- (iii) a municipality; or
- (iv) a corporation, body or institution in which the national or a provincial government has a controlling interest, who continues to receive such remuneration, allowances or other benefits while serving as a member of the board, may only receive remuneration and allowances referred to in paragraph (a) to the extent required to place such member in the financial position in which he or she would have been were it not for such post or employment.

(2)(a) A member of the board and a member of a committee of the board may, in respect of his or her functions as a member, receive reimbursement for reasonable actual subsistence and traveling expenses necessitated by the actual attendance of a meeting of the board or a committee of the board.

(b) The responsible Member must determine procedures, including control measures, for the management, handling and processing of claims for subsistence and traveling expenses contemplated in paragraph (a).

CHAPTER 3 CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND OTHER STAFF OF BOARD

Chief Executive Officer of Board

17.(1) The Board must, through its board, with the approval of the responsible Member and using a method which will, in the opinion of the responsible Member, reach the greatest number of residents of the Province, invite applications for the position of the Chief Executive Office.

(2) The board must, with the approval of the responsible Member, appoint a selection panel to review all the applications, shortlist and interview applicants.

(3) The board must, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) and with the approval of the responsible Member, appoint a suitably qualified, skilled and experienced person as the Chief Executive Officer of the Board.

(4)(a) The Chief Executive Officer is appointed for a period not exceeding five years.

(b) The Chief Executive Officer may be reappointed.

(5)(a) The appointment of the Chief Executive Officer is subject to the conclusion of a written performance agreement entered into between that person and the board.

(b) The board and the Chief Executive Officer may, in writing and by agreement, amend the performance agreement.

(6)(a) For purposes of the declaration of financial or other interests, the provisions of section 10 apply with the necessary changes to the Chief Executive Officer except that the Chief Executive Officer must declare his or her interests to the board.

(b) The board must keep and maintain a register of financial or other interests declared by the Chief Executive Officer.

Functions of Chief Executive Officer

18.(1) The Chief Executive Officer is an ex officio member of the board and performs his or her functions as assigned or delegated by the board.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer is not an accounting officer of the Board.

(3) If the Chief Executive Officer is for any reason unable to perform any of his or her functions, the board must, in writing, and with the approval of the responsible Member, appoint another person as Acting Chief Executive Officer until the Chief Executive Officer is able to resume those functions.

Resignation and removal from office of Chief Executive Officer

19.(1) The Chief Executive Officer vacates office –

- (a) in the case of resignation, when the resignation takes effect;
- (b) when, in terms of the Companies Act 2008, (Act No. 71 of 2008), the person holding that office has become disqualified to serve as director of a company; and
- (c) upon having been removed from office in terms of subsection (2).

(2) The board may, with the approval of the Member of the Executive Council, terminate the Chief Executive Officer's employment in accordance with applicable employment and labour law.

Staff of Board

20.(1) The board must, subject to subsection (2), employ management staff of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer must subject to subsection (2), employ members of staff of the Board.

(2) The board must determine human resources policies for the staff, including the Chief Executive Officer.

Secondment or transfer of staff to Board

21. The Board may utilise the services of persons seconded or transferred from the public service in accordance with the provisions of the Public Service Act 1994, (Proclamation No. 103 of 1994), or from a municipality, other organs of state and the private sector.

CHAPTER 4 FUNDING AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT OF board

Funds of Board

22.(1) The funds of the Board consist of –

- (a) money appropriated by the Provincial Legislature;
- (b) donations or contributions or income lawfully received by the board from any source;
- (c) interest on investments of the Board; or
- (d) fees received by the Board in payment for the provision of services by the Board.

(2) The Board must utilise its funds –

- (a) for the payment of remuneration, allowances and subsistence and travelling expenses of the –
 - (i) members of the board;
 - (ii) Chief Executive Officer; and
 - (iii) members of staff of the Board;
- (b) to cover costs in connection with the –
 - (i) day to day operation and administration of the Board;
 - (ii) performance of the duties and functions of the board, and
 - (iii) exercise of its powers in terms of this Act.

(3) The board must, with the concurrence of the responsible Member –

- (a) open an account in the name of the Board with an institution registered as a bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990); and
- (b) deposit therein all money received in terms of subsection (1).

Financial management

23.(1) The board must cause full and proper books of account and all the necessary records in relation thereto to be kept.

(2) The board must ensure that the Board's annual budgets, corporate plans, annual reports and audited financial statements are prepared and submitted in accordance with the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999).

(3) The board must, in each financial year at such time as the responsible Member determines, submit to the responsible Member for approval –

- (a) a business plan for the Board, containing measurable objectives and the other information contemplated in section 24(3)(b) and such further information as the responsible Member determines; and
- (b) a statement of the Board's estimated income and expenditure, in respect of the following three financial years or such longer or shorter period as the Member of the Executive Council determines.

(4) In any financial year the board must submit to the responsible Member, for approval, supplementary statements of the Board's estimated income and expenditure for that financial year.

(5) The board may not enter into any financial commitment beyond its approved budget and its accumulated reserves.

(6) The board may, with the approval of the responsible Member, and subject to the provisions of section 154 of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 –

(a) invest any unexpended portion of its funds in a registered bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990); or

(b) with the approval of the responsible Member dispose of that portion in any other manner.

(7) Subject to the provisions of section 154 of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999, the board may establish such reserve funds, and deposit therein such amounts, as the responsible Member approves.

(8) The board may only invest or dispose of funds as contemplated in subsection (6) and establish a reserve fund as contemplated in subsection (7), with the prior written approval of National Treasury, as required by section 53 of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999).

Audit and annual report

24.(1) Subject to the provisions of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999), the Auditor-General must audit the financial statements of the Board.

(2) The Board must, through the responsible Member, table the report on its activities in the Provincial Legislature within five months after the end of each financial year.

(2) The report must –

(a) include a balance sheet and a statement of income and expenditure certified by the Auditor-General;

(b) state the extent to which the board has achieved or advanced its objectives referred to in sections 5 and 6, and the measurable objectives as set out in its business plan as contemplated in section 24(3)(a) during the financial year concerned; and

(c) contain relevant performance information regarding the economic, efficient and effective use of resources and specifically a comparison between planned and actual performance indicators as set out in that business plan.

Financial year of Board

25. The financial year of the Board commences on 1 April of a particular year and ends on 31 March of the following year.

CHAPTER 5 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Immovable property

26. The board must, consistent with relevant laws, determine the policies and procedures with regard to the acquisition and disposal of immovable property.

Legal proceedings against Board

27.(1) Any legal proceedings against the Board must be instituted in accordance with the Institution of Legal Proceedings against Certain Organs of State Act, 2002 (Act No. 40 of 2002).

(2) The Board is, for purposes of subsection (1), regarded as an organ of state contemplated in section 239 of the Constitution.

Security of confidential information held by Board

28.(1) Subject to the Constitution and the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000), no person may disclose any information submitted to the board in connection with any legal brief or instruction, unless he or she is ordered to do so by a court of law or unless the person who gave such brief or instruction consents thereto in writing.

(2) No person may disclose any information kept in the registers contemplated in sections 10(5), 17(6) and 20 (4) unless such disclosure is –

- (a) in terms of any law that compels or authorises such disclosure;
- (b) materially necessary for the proper functioning of the board; or
- (c) made for purposes of monitoring, evaluating, investigating or considering any activity relating to the board.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence.

Dissolution of Board

29. The Board may only be dissolved in terms of an Act of the Provincial Legislature.

Use of name of Board

30.(1) Unless authorised in writing by the Board to do so, no person may in any way represent or make use of the name, acronym, logos, plaques, designs or other material used or owned by the Board.

(2) No person may falsely claim to be acting on behalf of the Board.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsections (1) or (2) commits an offence.

Regulations and notices

31. The responsible Member may, by notice in the Gazette and after consultation with the board, make regulations prescribing –

- (a) any matter which is required or permitted to be prescribed in terms of this Act; or
- (b) any administrative or procedural matter necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

Delegations

32.(1) The responsible Member may delegate to the Head of Department –

- (a) any power conferred on the responsible Member by this Act, except the power to make regulations, in terms of section 32, or
- (b) any duty imposed on the responsible Member by this Act, except any duty regarding the appointment, and termination of office, of the members of the board contemplated in sections 7 and 13.

(2) The board may delegate to the Chief Executive Officer any power or duty conferred or imposed on the board by this Act.

(3) Any power or duty delegated in terms of subsection (1), or (2) must be exercised or performed subject to such conditions as the person or body that made the delegation considers necessary.

(4) Any delegation in terms of subsection (1) or (2) –

- (a) must be in writing;
- (b) must not prohibit the person or body that made the delegation from exercising that power or performing that duty; and
- (c) may at any time be withdrawn or amended in writing by that person or body.

General offences pertaining to Board

33.(1) A member of the board, a member of staff, advisor, agent or other person employed by or acting on behalf of the Board commits an offence if he or she directly or indirectly accepts any unauthorised fee or reward from any person in respect of or in connection with any service rendered or anything done or offered by the Board.

(2) Any person commits an offence if he or she, in respect of or in connection with any service rendered or anything done or offered by the Board, bribes or attempts to bribe, or corruptly influences or attempts to corruptly influence, any member of staff or any adviser, agent or other person employed by or acting on behalf of the Board or board.

(3) Any person who falsely claims that he or she is authorised to charge or collect fees on behalf of or by direction of the Board, commits an offence.

(4) Any person who obstructs the board, including any officer or agent of the Board, in the exercise of any powers of the Board or board in terms of this Act, commits an offence.

Penalties

34. Any person convicted of an offence in terms of this Act is liable to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 5 years.

Transitional arrangements and validation in respect of repeal of North West Parks Board Act and North West Tourism Board Act

35.(1)(a) Since the North West Parks and Tourism Board is the legal successor in law to the North West Parks Board and the North West Tourism Board, all assets, liabilities and responsibilities of the North West Parks Board and the North West Tourism Board accrue to the North West Parks and Tourism Board; and

(b) Persons who, on the day before the date of commencement of this Act, were members of staff of the North West Parks Board and the North West Tourism Board are regarded as having been appointed in terms of section 20 of this Act with the retention of all rights and benefits.

(2) Any act, determination, designation, decision, matter or any other thing done, made, taken, executed or carried out or purported to have been done, made, taken, executed or carried out by the North West Parks Board and the North West Tourism Board, the Chief Executive Officers, officers or members of staff of the North West Parks Board and the North West Tourism Board or the responsible Members in terms of or in pursuance of the repealed Acts, to the date of commencement of this Act, is not invalid by reason of –

(a) the regulations referred to in the repealed Acts not having been published by the responsible Members; or

(b) any procedure, process, requirement, condition or detail referred to in the repealed Acts not having been determined or prescribed by regulation, as contemplated in the repealed Acts.

(3) In achieving the objects contemplated in subsections (1) and (2) the responsible Member may establish a task team to deal with matters related thereto.

Repeal of laws

36. This North West Parks Board Act, 2015 (Act No 3 of 2015) and the North West Tourism Board Act, 2015 (Act No 2 of 2015), are hereby repealed.

Short title

37. This Act is called the North West Parks and Tourism Board Act, 2019 and comes into operation on a date to be determined by the responsible Member.

SCHEDULE 1
CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BOARD MEMBERS
(Section 8(10))

General conduct of board members

1. A board member –

- (a) must perform the functions allocated to him or her in good faith, diligently, honestly and in a transparent manner;
- (b) must fulfil his or her role in an efficient manner;
- (c) may not conduct himself or herself in a disgraceful, improper or unbecoming manner;
- (d) must comply with any applicable legislation;
- (e) must act in the best interest of the board;
- (f) may not embark on actions that would create division within the board;
- (g) may not refuse to provide any service to a person on political or ideological grounds;
- (h) must foster good relations with the organs of state with whom he or she interacts; and
- (i) must disclose gifts received.

Attendance at meetings

2. A member of the board must attend each meeting of the board and of a committee of which that member of the board is a member, except when –

- (a) leave of absence is granted in terms of an applicable law or as determined by the rules of the board; or
- (b) that member of the board is required in terms of this Code to withdraw from the meeting.

Sanctions for non-attendance of meetings

3.(1) The responsible Member may impose a sanction as determined by the responsible Member on a member of the board for –

- (a) not attending a meeting which that member of the board is required to attend in terms of item 2; or
- (b) failing to remain in attendance at such a meeting.

(2) A member of the board, who is absent from three or more consecutive meetings of the board, or from three or more consecutive meetings of a committee of the board, which that member of the board is required to attend in terms of item 2, must be removed from office as a member of the board, by the responsible Member.

(3) The responsible Member must inform the Premier of the removal of the member of the Board.

Disclosure of interests

4.(1) A member of the board must –

(a) disclose to the board; or to any committee of the board of which that member of the board is a member, any direct or indirect personal or private business interest that that member of the board, or any spouse, partner or business associate of that member of the Board, may have in any matter before the board or the committee of the board; and

(b) withdraw from the proceedings of the board or committee of the board when that matter is considered by the board or its committee, unless the board or its committee decides that the member of the board's direct or indirect interest in the matter is trivial or irrelevant.

(2) A member of the board who, or whose spouse, partner, business associate or close family member, acquired or stands to acquire any direct benefit from a contract concluded with the board, must disclose full particulars of the benefit of which the member of the board is aware at the first meeting of the board at which it is possible for the member of the board to make the disclosure.

(3) This item does not apply to an interest or benefit which a member of the board, or a spouse, partner, business associate or close family member has or acquires in common with other members of the board.

Personal gain

5.(1) A member of the board may not use the position or privileges of a member of the board, or confidential information obtained as a member of the Board, for private gain or to improperly benefit another person.

(2) Except with the prior consent of the board, a member of the board may not –

(a) be a party to or beneficiary under a contract for –

(i) the provision of goods or services to the Board; or

(ii) the performance of any work otherwise than as a member of the Board and for the board;

(b) obtain a financial interest in any business of the board; or

(c) for a fee or other consideration appear on behalf of any other person before the Board or its committee.

(3) If more than one quarter of the members of the board object to consent being given to a member of the board in terms of sub-item (2), such consent may only be given to the member of the Board with the approval of the responsible Member.

Declaration of interests

6.(1) When appointed, a member of the board must, within 10 days, declare, in writing, to an officer of the board designated by the responsible Member the following financial interests held by that member of the Board –

- (a) shares and securities in any company;
- (b) membership of any close corporation;
- (c) interest in any trust;
- (d) directorships;
- (e) partnerships;
- (f) other financial interests in any business undertaking;
- (g) employment and remuneration;
- (h) interest in property;
- (i) pension; and
- (j) subsidies, grants and sponsorships by any organisation.

(2) Any change in the nature or detail of the financial interests of a member of the board must be declared, in writing, to the officer referred to in sub-item (1) annually.

(3) Gifts received by a member of the board in excess of an amount as may be prescribed by notice in the Provincial Gazette from time to time, must also be declared in accordance with sub-item (1).

(4) The board must determine which of the financial interests referred to in sub-item (1) must be made public, having regard to the need for confidentiality and the public interest for disclosure.

(5) The declaration of interests and gifts contemplated in this item must substantially comply with the format of Annexure A to this Schedule, and must be completed annually where necessary, in order to comply with the provisions of sub-item (2).

Rewards, gifts and favours

7. A member of the board may not request, solicit or accept any reward, gift or favour for

- (a) voting or not voting in a particular manner on any matter before the board or before a committee of the board of which that member of the board is a member;
- (b) persuading the board or any committee of the board in regard to the exercise of any power, function or duty;
- (c) making a representation to the Board or any committee of the board; or
- (d) disclosing privileged or confidential information.

Unauthorised disclosure of information

8.(1) A member of the board may not, without the permission of the board or a committee, disclose any privileged or confidential information of the Board or committee to any unauthorised person.

(2) For the purpose of this item "privileged or confidential information" includes any information –

- (a) determined by the board or committee of the board to be privileged or confidential;
- (b) discussed in closed session by the board or its committee;
- (c) of which disclosure would violate a person's right to privacy; or
- (d) declared to be privileged, confidential or secret in terms of the law.

(3) This item does not derogate from the right of any person to access information in terms of national legislation.

Breach of Code of Conduct

9.(1) If the board, on reasonable suspicion, is of the opinion that a provision of the Code of Conduct has been breached, the board must report such breach to the responsible Member.

(2) The responsible Member may appoint a person or a committee to investigate any alleged breach of a provision of this Code and to make recommendations on whether the member of the board should be suspended or removed from office.

(3) If the responsible Member is of the opinion that a member of the board has breached a provision of this Code, and that such contravention warrants a suspension or removal from office, the responsible Member may –

- (a) Warn, reprimand or suspend the member of the board for a period and on conditions determined by the responsible Member; or
- (b) remove the member of the board from office.

(2)(a) Any member of the board who has been warned, reprimanded, suspended or removed in terms of sub-item (3) may, within 14 days of having been notified of the decision of the responsible Member, appeal to the Premier in writing, setting out the reasons on which the appeal is based.

(b) A copy of the appeal must be provided to the responsible Member.

(c) The responsible Member may, within 14 days of receipt of the appeal referred to in paragraph (b), make any representation pertaining to the appeal to the Premier in writing.

(d) The Premier may, after having considered the appeal, confirm, set aside or vary the decision of the responsible Member and inform the member of the board, the board and the responsible Member of the outcome of the appeal.

(4) Any investigation in terms of this item must be conducted in accordance with the rules of natural justice.

(5) The secretary of the board must ensure that each member of the board, when taking office, is given a copy of this Code and that a copy of this Code is available in every room or place where the board or a committee of the board meets.
