PROVINCIAL NOTICE

P.N.322/2013 27 September 2013

DRAFT REGULATIONS ON THE DUTIES OF SCHOOL ATTENDANCE OFFICERS

The Provincial Minister for Education in the Western Cape, under section 63(1) of the Western Cape Provincial School Education Act, 1997 (Act 12 of 1997), intends to make the regulations set out in the Schedule.

SCHEDULE

Definitions

1. In these regulations, unless stated otherwise, a word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act has the same meaning and, unless the context indicates otherwise—

"district official" means an official of the Western Cape Education Department who works in an education district;

"education district" means an administrative unit of the Western Cape Education Department;

"medical practitioner" means a person registered as a medical practitioner in terms of the Health Professions Act, 1974 (Act 56 of 1974);

"midwife" means a person registered as a midwife in terms of the Nursing Act, 2005 (Act 33 of 2005);

"Policy on Learner Attendance" means the Policy on Learner Attendance of the Western Cape Education Department;

"school" means a public school;

"the Act" means the Western Cape Provincial School Education Act, 1997 (Act 12 of 1997);

"traditional health practitioner" means a person registered in terms of the Traditional Health Practitioners Act, 2007 (Act 22 of 2007);

"valid reason" means a valid reason as contemplated in regulation 3 of these regulations.

Duties of school attendance officers

2. (1) A school attendance officer must—

(a) work co-operatively with educators, principals, counsellors, social workers, parents and district officials to ensure compliance with section 3(1) of the South African Schools Act and the Policy on Learner Attendance;

(b) collate information provided by educators, the principal, counsellors, social workers, the parents and district officials relating to a learner who is repeatedly absent from school without a valid reason;

(c) on the instruction of the Head of Department, investigate the circumstances of a learner referred to in paragraph (b);

(d) offer support and advice to the parents of a learner referred to in paragraph (b) to ensure that the learner attends school regularly;

(e) work with selected individual learners and groups of learners and their parents to develop positive attitudes towards school attendance and academic success;

(f) liaise with the provincial departments responsible for social development and health, and the South African Police Service, in the investigation of cases of repeated absence without a valid reason;

(g) keep written records of all contact with learners, parents, principals, counsellors, social workers and district officials relating to the school attendance of learners;

(h) submit quarterly written reports to the principal concerned on progress made with learners referred to in paragraph (b) or (e) and on compliance with the Policy on Learner Attendance; and

(i) at schools where quarterly school attendance does not comply with the expected attendance percentage, work with the relevant principals and district officials to develop strategies to improve the school attendance.

(2) Subregulation (1) does not exempt a school from carrying out its duties with regard to the Policy on Learner Attendance.

Valid reasons for absence

3. Any of the following is a valid reason for absence of a learner from school:

(a) physical or psychological illness of the learner, for which a principal may require communication from the parent that the learner is unable to attend school, or, if the illness lasts longer than three days, written confirmation of illness by a medical practitioner or a traditional health practitioner;

(b) religious or cultural observances approved by the governing body in terms of the National School Calendar Policy;

(c) death of a family member;

(d) acts of nature or other events beyond human control;

(e) study leave taken by a Grade 12 learner five days before the start of the National Senior Certificate examination at the end of the year;

(f) an appointment at court, social services or other public-service agency, for which a principal may require documentary proof;

(g) suspension by the governing body;

(h) giving birth, subject to written confirmation by a medical practitioner or a midwife; and

(i) exceptional circumstances for which, in the view of the principal, temporary absence from school is in the best interest of the learner or is unavoidable.

Written notice to parent

4. (1) A school attendance officer must inform the Head of Department when he or she is of the opinion that a written notice contemplated in section 3(5)(c) of the South African Schools Act should be issued to a parent.

(2) A written notice to a parent in terms of section 3(5)(c) of the South African Schools Act must include an account of—

(a) detailed dates of repeated absence of the learner without a valid reason;

(b) measures taken to remedy the situation;

(c) the period by which a parent must comply with the notice; and

(d) the consequences of failing to comply with the written notice, as contemplated in section 3(6) of the South African Schools Act.

(3) The written notice must be sent by registered post to the parent.

(4) A copy of the written notice must be kept in the learner's profile.

(5) If the parent fails without just cause to comply with the written notice within the period specified in the notice, the Head of Department must report the matter to the South African Police Service.
