Knysna South Africa

Informal Trading By-law, 2017

Published in Western Cape Provincial Gazette 7854 on 8 December 2017

Commenced on 8 December 2017

[This is the version of this document from 8 December 2017 and includes any amendments published up to 12 April 2024.]

1. Preamble

WHEREAS in terms of the Constitution, the municipality is responsible for "trading regulations", "markets", "street trading" and "beaches" within its area of jurisdiction. One of Knysna Municipality's objects is to promote social and economic development.

WHEREAS Knysna Municipality recognises the key role that informal trading plays in poverty alleviation, income generation and entrepreneurial development and, in particular, the positive impact that informal trading has on historically disadvantaged individuals and communities.

WHEREAS the municipality acknowledges the need to adopt a developmental approach to the informal trading sector in order to create an environment that is conducive to the growth of businesses in the informal trading sector.

WHEREAS the municipality further acknowledges the need for a balanced relationship between the informal sector in order to promote social and economic development within a well-managed municipal area.

This by-law accordingly aims to:

- (i) consolidate in a single by-law, the by-laws passed by the predecessors in law of the Municipality of Knysna; and
- (ii) govern informal trading activities within its area of jurisdiction.

4. Freedom to engage in informal trading

Informal trading is permitted in any area within the jurisdiction of the municipality, subject to any trading zones adopted by the municipality, provisions of this by-law and any other applicable law.

5. Adoption of trading zones

- (a) The municipality must, where appropriate, adopt trading zones, particularly in areas where there is a significant overlap between formal and informal trading. A trading zone may allow and regulate on non-municipal property, subject to the rights of the owners of such property.
- (b) A trading zone must:
 - (i) define the geographic boundary of the trading area; and
 - (ii) demarcate informal trading bays market whether informal trading is permitted, outside of which informal trading shall be prohibited in that trading area.
- (c) A trading zone may include any other matters governing informal trading in the relevant trading area, such as—
 - (i) prescribing any informal trading conditions, including such terms and conditions to be imposed in terms of permits to be issued by the municipality in terms of section 8 and subject to any requirements of this by-law;
 - (ii) the manner in which social and economic development will be promoted through the trading plan;
 - (iii) the manner in which sensitive heritage and environmental areas within the proposed trading area will be protected;
 - (iv) matter relating to a market which may be located within the relevant trading area, including, but not limited to:
 - (aa) the demarcation of the area within the trading area which constitutes a market;
 - (bb) where appropriate, the demarcation of trading bays within the market;
 - (cc) the legal arrangement between the municipality and any third party in respect of obligations relating to the general management of the market in terms of which the third party is responsible for at least the following:
 - the management of operations market;
 - the management of informal traders operating within the market;
 - ensuring that all relevant persons participate in appropriate decisions;
 - providing guidance to the informal traders within the market with business support and development services; and
 - any service, which is in addition to services provided by the municipality.
- (d) A trading zone must comply with sections 11, 12 and 13 of this by-law and with any other applicable law.
- (e) Any person shall be entitled to request that the municipality consider the adoption of a particular informal trading area; provided that where a proposed trader contemplates trading taking place on non-municipal property, the request is accompanied by the written consent of the owner of such non-municipal property. The municipality must consider and decide upon the request within a reasonable period.

- (f) When considering a request for the adoption of a trading area, the municipality shall have due regards to any existing and proposed trading zones in the vicinity of the proposed trading area in order to determine the desirability of the adoption of an additional informal trading area.

6. Public participation in respect of the adoption of a trading zone

Public Notice requesting comments and objections

Before adopting a trading zone, the municipality is obliged to—

- (a) consult with interested and affected role players including the informal and formal sectors with the view to compiling a draft trading zone map;
- (b) compile draft trading zone maps following the consultation process in terms of section 6\(a\);
- (c) publish notices in 2 (two) local daily newspapers that are circulated in the area in which the proposed trading zones is situated, unless a community newspaper which is free to the public is circulated in such area in which case 1 (one) of the 2 (two) notices must be published in such community newspaper, that—
 - (i) contains the key aspects of the draft trading zones and which notifies the public that the draft trading zone maps is available for inspection at a specified location; and
 - (ii) invites comments and objections from the public in relation to such draft trading zone maps, to be received by the municipality within 30 (thirty) days from the date of publication of the notice.

Public Meeting

- (d) In the notice referred to in section 6\(c\), the municipality must invite interested and affected parties to a public meeting.
- (e) At the public meeting, the municipality must—
 - (i) be represented by a person duly authorised by the municipality who must make a presentation to the public present at the meeting in which the draft trading plan is explained;
 - (ii) reasonably respond to any queries related to the draft trading zone which may be posed by the public at the public meeting; and
 - (iii) give interested and affected parties an opportunity to make comments and objections at the public meeting, and such comment and objections must be recorded.

Consideration of options prior to adoption of a trading zone

- (f) The municipality must consider all objections or comments that the municipality may receive pursuant to the process outlined in this section.
- (g) After having considered the comments and objections, the Council must, within a reasonable period from the commencement of the public participation process in respect of the relevant draft trading zone, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, and at a meeting of the Council—
 - (i) adopt the draft trading zone;
 - (ii) amend and adopt the draft trading zone; or
 - (iii) reject the draft trading zone.
- (h) Notwithstanding the provision of section 59 of the Systems Act, the Council may not delegate the decision-making powers referred to in section 6\(g\).
- (i) In the event that the municipality adopts a draft trading zone, a notice must be published in (two) daily newspapers circulated in the trading area, unless a community newspaper which is free to the public is circulated in such area in which case 1 (one) of the 2 (two) notices must be published in such community newspaper, and the Provincial Gazette, which informs the public:

- (i) that the draft trading zone has been adopted as a trading zone;
- (ii) of the key aspects of the trading zone including the date upon which it shall become effective; and
- (iii) that the trading zone map is available for inspection at a specified location.

7. Amendment, revocation and review of trading plans

The municipality—

- (a) may amend or revoke an adopted trading zone, provided that:
 - (i) if the amendment deviates materially from the trading zone, the municipality must comply with section 6 with the necessary changes required by the context, provided further that where persons are adversely affected by a proposed amendment that does not require compliance with section 6, such persons will be afforded their just administrative rights; or
 - (ii) in the case of revocation, the municipality shall afford all affected persons their administrative justice rights.
- (b) The municipality must review trading zones from time to time as the Municipality deems fit.

8. Permits

- (a) No person may conduct informal trading on municipal property in a trading area without a valid permit from the municipality.
- (b) The municipality is entitled to charge a permit-holder:
 - (i) a trading fee;
 - (ii) an application fee; and
 - (iii) an additional fee or tariff, which is to be determined by the municipality in its sole discretion, in respect of additional costs incurred or services provided by the municipality, including but not limited to circumstances where the permit-holder trades within a market.
- (c) In the event that a person qualifies for a permit, but has motivated in writing the inability to pay the fee contemplated in section 8\(b\) and has provided sufficient proof thereof to the reasonable satisfaction of the municipality, the municipality may waive the fee in whole or in part.
- (d) In order to qualify for a permit, the applicant—
 - (i) must be an informal trader;
 - (ii) may not already hold a permit in respect of the trading area in respect of which a permit is being applied;
 - (iii) must be a South African citizen, failing which, must be in possession of a valid work permit which includes, but is not limited to, a refugee permits; and
 - (iv) must not employ and actively utilise the services of more than 20 (twenty) persons.
- (e) The municipality must take into account the following factors when considering an application for a permit—
 - (i) the applicant's ability to meet the trading hours for the relevant trading area as the municipality may determine;
 - (ii) the need to give preference to applicants that are historically disadvantaged individuals;

- (iii) where there are a limited number of trading bays available in the trading area in respect of which a permit is sought, the need to give preference to applicants that would be new entrants to informal trading within the municipality;
 - (iv) the nature of the trading goods which the applicant intends selling, or the services which the applicant intends rendering, bearing in mind the nature of the businesses within that trading area or in its immediate vicinity;
 - (v) the need to give preference to unemployed applicants;
 - (vi) the need to give preference to applicants who do not share a household with an existing permit-holder, unless—
 - the number of available trading bays for the relevant trading area is more than the number of applicants seeking permits for those trading bays; or
 - the applicant who shares a household with a permit-holder is not a dependant or financially reliant upon such permit-holder;
 - (vii) whether the applicant has, in terms of this by-law, been convicted of an offence and/or had a permit revoked or suspended;
 - (viii) whether the applicant is a suitable person to carry on the lawful business at the allocated site, whether by reason of his character, having regards to any conviction recorded against him, or his previous conduct for any reason;
 - (ix) where trading plans are adopted in areas previously not subjected to such plans, the need to give preference to applicant who have an established informal trading operation in the location for which a new trading area is adopted.
- (f) The municipality is entitled to impose such terms and conditions in respect of permits as it deems fit, subject to the provisions of the applicable trading zone, including but not limited to the right to —
- (i) specify the:
 - trading hours during which the permit-holder may trade;
 - nature of goods or services the permit-holder is permitted to trade; and
 - permit-holder's trading bay number;
 - (ii) allocate the informal trader an alternative bay in the same trading area;
 - (iii) specify the type of structure(s), if any, which may be erected on a trading bay and/or in a trading area;
 - (iv) impound trading goods in terms of section 19\(b\) or section 19\(h\) in the event of a contravention of any provision of this by-law or any other law;
 - (v) suspend a permit for a special event on reasonable prior notice where practicable to the informal trader, with no compensation payable to the informal trader, notwithstanding that informal trading may be permitted by the municipality at the special event in terms of section 14;
 - (vi) on reasonable prior notice to the informal trader and after affording the relevant informal trader an opportunity to make written representations, revoke or suspend a permit in the event of an informal trader—
 - breaching any provisions of the permit and/or the by-law or any other law;
 - being convicted of trading in illegal goods or providing a service unlawfully;

- wilfully supplying incorrect information when required to provide the municipality with information; or
 - being found to be unsuitable as contemplated in section 8\(e\)\(viii\) with the necessary changes required by the context.
- (g) Notwithstanding the contents of the relevant trading zone, the municipality has the right to, upon reasonable prior notice to the informal trader and with no compensation payable by the municipality to the permit-holder, temporarily:
- (i) relocate a permit-holder;
 - (ii) suspend the validity of a permit; or
 - (iii) prohibit a permit-holder from trading at the relevant trading bay;
- Should it be necessary to do so because of the performance of activities which renders the continuation of trading from the relevant trading bay impractical or severely inconvenient.
- (h) Activities referred to in section 8\(g\) shall include, but not be limited to, maintenance or construction of infrastructure or buildings performed by the municipality, property developments, alterations or refurbishments by any entity, or activities by public entities conducted in terms of their powers and functions.

9. Transfer of permits

- (a) A permit may be permanently transferred, with the written approval of the municipality to a dependant, or an assistant acting on behalf of the dependant, who will continue trading until the permit is no longer valid, in the event of—
- (i) the death of the permit-holder; and
 - (ii) if the loss of income generated by the informal trading would place the dependant under undue or severe economic hardship.
- (b) A permit may be temporarily transferred, with the written approval of the municipality, to a dependant or, where there is no dependent, to an individual nominated by the permit holder, where the permit-holder—
- (i) is incapable of trading because of an illness, provided that:
 - (aa) proof from a medical practitioner is provided to the municipality which certifies that the permit-holder is unable to trade; and
 - (bb) the dependant or assistant is only permitted to replace the permit-holder for the period stipulated by the medical practitioner in the certificate for which the permit-holder will be incapable of trading;
 - (ii) has to be absent for an extended period in order to fulfil religious or cultural duties, provided that where the validity of the permit extends beyond 1 (one) month, unless the municipality consents to a long period in exceptional circumstances.
- (c) Subject to section 9\(b\), a permit-holder may not transfer a permit to any other person in any manner, including but not limited to, by the way of lease or sale.
- (d) A permit must immediately be returned to the municipality should the municipality revoke such permit in the event of the permit-holder—
- (i) being refused permission to transfer the permit and the permit-holder failing to resume trading; and
 - (ii) no longer wishing to trade as an informal trader from the relevant trading bay.

10. Obligations on owners of non-municipal property

An owner of non-municipal property, which has been demarcated in a trading zone as land where informal trading is permitted, must—

- (a) ensure that all informal trading that takes place on the owner's property complies with the applicable trading plan and this by-law;
- (b) permit any officer access to the owner's property to enforce the provisions of this by-law;
- (c) ensure, at the owner's cost, that sufficient services are provided to maintain acceptable hygienic conditions in respect of the informal trading;
- (d) ensure that trading from formal business premises do not encroach upon the property of another property owner.

11. General prohibitions on informal trading

Informal trading may not be conducted:

- (a) in a garden or park under the control of the municipality and to which the public has the right of access, unless such area has been declared by the municipality as a trading zone;
- (b) on a verge or sidewalk next to—
 - (i) a building belonging to or occupied solely by the state or municipality, unless the municipality has given its prior written consent after it has—
 - (aa) duly considered any relevant trading zone activities; and
 - (bb) consulted with the relevant property owner and, where relevant, the tenant of such property;
 - (ii) a place of worship such as a church, synagogue or mosque unless a trading zone permits informal trading at that area; or
 - (iii) a national monument as determined in accordance with the provisions of the National Heritage Resources Act, 25 of 199, as amended;

 - (x) obscures any road traffic sign;
 - (xi) obstructs access to an automatic teller machine;

- (xii) limits access to parking or loading bays or other facilities for vehicular traffic;
 - (xiii) obstructs access to a pedestrian arcade or mall;
 - (xiv) obstructs the view of CCTV cameras; or
 - (xv) falls below the high water mark, unless a trading zone expressly provides for informal trading at that area;
- (d) on the half of a public road which is next to a building that is being used for residential purposes, if the owner or occupier of that building objects to the informal trading taking place at that location.

12. Restrictions on informal trading

No person shall:

- (a) obstruct access to any services of the municipality or municipal service works;
- (b) unless prior written approval is granted by the municipality, at any public road or public place—
 - (i) stay overnight at the place where informal trading is conducted; or
 - (ii) erect any structure, other than stipulated in the relevant trading area plan and/or permit conditions, for the purpose of providing shelter;
- (c) carry on business as an informal trader in a manner which—
 - (i) creates a nuisance;
 - (ii) damages or defaces the surface of any public road or public place or any other property belonging to the municipality; or
 - (iii) creates a traffic hazard;
- (d) attach an object to any building, structure, pavement, footway, tree, parking meter, lamp pole, telephone booth, post-box, traffic sign, bench or any other street furniture or device in or on a public road or public place that is generally intended for public use;
- (e) make a fire at any place or in circumstances where it could harm any person or damage a building or vehicle or any structure referred to in section 12\(d\), unless authorised to prepare foodstuffs by utilising open-flame fire or gas-fired equipment;
- (f) deliver or provide goods or equipment to an informal trader if that trader trades in contravention of this by-law;
- (g) after having been requested to do so by any person carrying out an activity contemplated in section 8\(g\) who requires access to a facility or area, fail to remove or move any goods, or refuse to do so; and
- (h) if permitted to conduct beach trading:
 - (i) sell or promote alcoholic products;
 - (ii) use bells, hooters, amplified equipment or similar devices, which emit sound, in order to attract customers; or
 - (iii) use any electrical supply or power generator, unless expressly approved and provided for in the relevant permit.

13. Waste removal, cleansing and hygiene

- (a) Informal traders must—
 - (i) maintain the informal trader's allocated informal trading site in a clean and sanitary condition;
 - (ii) on a daily basis and at the conclusion of trading, collect and remove from any public road or public place all waste, packaging material, stock and equipment that are utilised in connection with or produces by the informal trader's business, unless the municipality grants a written exemption in this regard;
 - (iii) carry on business in a manner which does not cause a threat to public health or public safety; and
 - (iv) at the request of an officer or duly authorised employee of the municipality, move or remove any object so that the area or site from which informal trading is conducted may be cleaned.
- (b) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section or the lawful request of an officer in terms of this section, will be regarded as a contravention of the by-law and the informal trader shall be subject to the enforcement provisions of this by-law.

14. Special events

The municipality may permit or prohibit informal trading for purposes of special events on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit, notwithstanding the terms of any trading plan or any permits issued in respect of the relevant trading area.

15. Guidelines and policies

The municipality may at any time publish or amend guidelines or policies in respect of informal trading in the municipal area.

16. Powers and functions

- (a) Subject to section 16\(c\), the Municipal Manager shall be responsible for:
 - (i) all functions and decisions contemplated in this by-law; and
 - (ii) the administration of this by-law.
- (b) The Municipal Manager may delegate any of his powers and functions to an appropriate official with the power to sub-delegate in order to maximise administrative and operational efficiency.
- (c) The decisions contemplated in sections 6\(h\), 7\(a\)\(i\) and 7\(a\)\(ii\) must be taken by Council and may not be delegated.

17. Limitation of liability

Any informal trader does so at his or her own risk and the municipality is not liable for any damage or loss caused by the exercise or failure to exercise any power or the performance of any duty in good faith under this by-law.

18. Appeals

A person whose rights have been affected by a decision taken by the municipality in terms of this by-law under a duty or power which has been delegated or sub-delegated, may appeal against that decision by giving written notice of the appeal and the reasons thereof in terms of section 62 of the Municipal Systems Act, Act 32 of 2000, to the Municipal Manager within 21 days of the date of the notification of the decision.

19. Enforcement

- (a) An officer may issue a person with a written warning if, in the opinion of the officer, that person has traded in goods or provided services in contravention of this by-law or that person has contravened this by-law in any other manner, including but not limited to, in violation of a permit condition, or any other applicable law.
- (b) In the event of a person continuing or repeating a contravention in respect of which a written warning has already been issued to that person, then an officer may impound, in the case of an informal trader, any property used by the informal trader in conducting the informal trade, and in the case of any other person, any property, including but not limited to, goods, equipment, structures and motor vehicles, in which case the officer must—
 - (i) complete a full inventory of all the property that has been impounded and such inventory must include information on the consequences of such impoundment should the person fail to pay the impoundment costs and collect the goods;
 - (ii) provide the person with a copy of the inventory; and
 - (iii) immediately store the impounded property in an area designated by the municipality for the storage of impounded property.
- (c) Property which has been impounded from a person may be released after the presentation by the person of the inventory contemplated in section 19\(b\) and the payment of the impoundment costs, provided that the municipality is reasonably satisfied that the relevant person will not, upon the release of the property, continue to commit any contravention which led to the goods being impounded; provided further that, where the municipality is not so satisfied, it may withhold the goods for up to 30 (thirty) days after payment of any fine and/or impoundment costs.
- (d) Perishable goods that have been impounded may, at any time after the impoundment, be sold or otherwise disposed of by the municipality, the municipality may destroy the goods if the condition of those goods renders them unfit for human consumption.
- (e) Impounded property other than perishable goods, may be sold by the municipality if the owner does not, or is unable to, pay the impoundment costs within 1 (one) month from the date of impoundment of that property.
- (f) In the event of the impounded property being sold by the municipality in terms of sections 19\(d\) or 19\(e\), and upon the presentation of the inventory as contemplated in section 19\(b\) by the owner, the municipality must pay to that owner—
 - (i) the proceeds of the sale less the impoundment costs; or
 - (ii) if the owner has previously paid the impoundment costs, the proceeds must be paid to the owner free of any such deduction.
- (g) If the owner does not claim the proceeds derived from the sale of the impounded goods within 3 (three) months from the date of impoundment, then the proceeds will be forfeited to the municipality.
- (h) If in the reasonable opinion of an officer, an informal trader is suspected of trading in illegal goods or that a supplier as contemplated in section 12\(f\) is supplying the trader with illegal goods, then such goods may be immediately confiscated. In the event of such a confiscation, the officer must:
 - (i) complete a full inventory of all the property that has been confiscated;
 - (ii) provide the informal trader or person contemplated in section 12\(f\) with a copy of the inventory; and
 - (iii) immediately surrender the suspected illegal goods to the possession of the South African Police Service.
