- (2) Any person may, at the invitation of the chairman of the co-ordinating council, attend a meeting of the council and take part in the discussions at such meeting.

7. Annual report on activities of co-ordinating council

- (1) The Director-General shall as soon as is practicable after 31 December of each year frame a report on the activities of the co-ordinating council during the year which ended on that date, and every report framed in terms of this section shall be sent to the Minister and shall be laid upon the Table in the House of Assembly within 14 days after receipt thereof, if Parliament is then in ordinary session, or, if Parliament is not then in ordinary session, within 14 days of the commencement of its next ensuing ordinary session.
- (2) Such annual report shall contain a summary of all recommendations submitted by the co-ordinating council to the Government during the year in question.

Chapter IA

Demarcation Board for Local Government Areas

Chapter IA inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7A. Establishment of Demarcation Board for Local Government Areas

- (1) There is hereby established a board, to be called the Demarcation Board for Local Government Areas, which shall exercise the powers and perform the functions entrusted or assigned to it in terms of this Act.
- (2) The demarcation board shall consist of the number of members appointed by the Minister after consultation with the action committee of the co-ordinating council and with the concurrence of the Ministers referred to in section 3\(2\)\(aB\).
subsection (2) substituted by section 3 of [Act 79 of 1986]
- (3) The Minister shall designate one of the members of the demarcation board as chairman of that board and another member as vice-chairman thereof.
- (4) Whenever the chairman is absent or unable to fulfil any of his functions, the vice-chairman may act in his stead.
- (5) A member of the demarcation board shall occupy his office for such period not exceeding five years as the Minister may determine at the time of his appointment, but shall, subject to the provisions of subsection \(6\) or \(7\), be eligible for reappointment.
- (6) The provisions of paragraphs \(a\) to \(d\) of section 3\(8\) shall mutatis mutandis apply to a member of the demarcation board.
- (7) A member of the demarcation board may at any time be removed from office by the Minister if the Minister is of the opinion that there are sufficient reasons for doing so.
- (8) A member of the demarcation board who ceases to be a member in terms of subsection \(6\) or \(7\) shall not again be appointed as a member of that board.
- (9) If a member of the demarcation board dies or ceases to be a member in terms of subsection \(6\) or \(7\), the Minister may, subject to the provisions of subsection \(2\), appoint any person in the place of such member for the unexpired period of office of such member.
- (10) A member of the demarcation board who is not in the full-time employment of the State shall receive in respect of his services as such a member, out of moneys appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance determine, either in general or in any particular case.
- (11) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the conditions of service of a member of the demarcation board who is not an officer in the public service as defined in section 1(1) of the Public Service Act, 1984 (Act No. 111 of 1984), shall be determined by the Minister.
- (12) The Minister shall appoint an officer in the Department to act as secretary of the demarcation board.

section 7A inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7B. Co-option of persons to serve in demarcation board

- (1) The demarcation board may co-opt not more than three persons to serve on that board or to attend a particular meeting thereof in connection with a particular matter being considered by the said board.

- (2) A person co-opted under this section may participate in the proceedings of the demarcation board in connection with the matter or at the meeting in respect of which he was co-opted, and is entitled to vote in respect of any decision of that board.
- (3) A person so co-opted who is not in the full-time service of the State, may be paid such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance determine either in general or in any particular case.

section 7B inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7C. Executive committee of demarcation board

- (1) There shall be an executive committee of the demarcation board consisting of the chairman, the vice-chairman and so many other members of that board as the Minister, with the concurrence of the Ministers referred to in section 3\(2\)\(aB\), may determine.
- (2) The chairman and vice-chairman of the demarcation board shall be the chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the executive committee.
- (3) The executive committee may, subject to the direction of the demarcation board, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of that board during periods between meetings of that board, but shall not have the power, save in so far as that board may otherwise direct, to set aside or vary any decision of that board.
- (4)
 - (a) The executive committee shall meet at such times and places as the chairman of that committee may direct.
 - (b) A quorum for a meeting of the executive committee shall be three of the members thereof.

section 7C inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7D. Committees of demarcation board

- (1) The demarcation board may appoint one or more committees consisting of one or more members of that board and such other persons as that board may co-opt as it deems fit to serve in any such committee, to hold an enquiry referred to in section 7F\(1\), and shall, where such committee consists of more than one member of that board, designate one such member to be chairman of such committee, and any such committee shall for the purposes of any such enquiry exercise all the powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed upon that board in respect of any such enquiry.
- (2) A committee appointed under this section shall submit to the demarcation board a written report in respect of any enquiry held by it in regard to any matter which the demarcation board is in terms of section 7F\(1\) required to investigate, and the board may thereupon act in regard to that matter as provided in the said section as if the board had itself held such enquiry.
- (3) A member of any such committee who is not in the full-time employment of the State shall, in respect of his services as a member of such committee, receive out of moneys appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, determine, either in general or in any particular case.

section 7D inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7E. General powers of demarcation board

- (1) The provisions of sections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Commissions Act, 1947 (Act No. 8 of 1947), shall mutatis mutandis apply to the demarcation board and its executive and other committees.
- (2) A member of the demarcation board or of any such committee of the demarcation board may, after due notice to the occupant, at all reasonable times enter upon and inspect any land or premises for the purposes of an enquiry being held, and the chairman of the demarcation board may authorize any other person so to enter upon and inspect any land or premises.

section 7E inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7F. Functions of demarcation board

- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4), the demarcation board shall at the request of—
 - (a) an Administrator hold an enquiry and advise him by means of a written report on the desirability or otherwise of demarcating, altering or withdrawing the demarcation of the area of jurisdiction of a local authority; or
 - (b) the Minister, the Minister appointed to administer local government affairs in respect of Black communities, the Ministers referred to in section 3\(2\)\(aB\) or an Administrator, hold an enquiry and advise the said Minister, Ministers or Administrator by means of a written report on any other particular demarcation, redemarcation or withdrawal of the demarcation of any area pertaining to local government affairs.

subsection (1) amended by section 4(a) of [Act 79 of 1986]

- (2) When the demarcation board advises an Administrator as contemplated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1), any directions issued in terms of section 17A shall be taken into account.
- (3) Whenever a power conferred by or under any law upon an Administrator to determine or change the area of jurisdiction of a local authority, is exercised by the Administrator concerned, that power shall, notwithstanding the provisions of the law in accordance with which it is exercised, but subject to the provisions of subsection (4), only be exercised—
 - (a) after consideration of a written report of the demarcation board in terms of subsection (1) which contains proposals regarding the demarcation, alteration or withdrawal of the demarcation of the area of jurisdiction concerned; and
 - (b) after consultation with the Minister appointed to administer local government affairs in respect of Black communities or the Ministers referred to in section 3\(2\)\(aB\), according to the population group which is directly affected by the demarcation.

subsection (3) amended by section 4(b) of [Act 79 of 1986]

- (4) The Administrator concerned may alter the area of jurisdiction of a local authority without the holding of an enquiry contemplated in subsection (1) if—
 - (a) all local authorities which have an interest in the proposed alteration signify in writing—
 - (i) that the holding of such enquiry is, as far as they are concerned, not necessary; and
 - (ii) that they have no objection to the proposed alteration; and
 - (b) no objections against the proposed alteration were lodged after a notice was published in terms of any law requiring the publication of such notice.

subsection (4) added by section 4(c) of [Act 79 of 1986]

section 7F inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7G. Investigation by demarcation board

- (1) On receipt of a request for advice called for by an Administrator or a Minister as contemplated in section 7E\(1\)\(a\) or (b), but subject to the provisions of subsection (3), the secretary of the demarcation board shall cause to be published in both official languages, once in the Official Gazette of the province concerned and once in a newspaper circulating in the area concerned in the proposed demarcation, alteration or withdrawal of a demarcation, a notice stating that such a request for advice had been received, that it is open to inspection at the office of the secretary and at any other place or places, if any, mentioned in the notice and that objections against or representations in connection with the proposed demarcation, alteration or withdrawal of a demarcation may be lodged with the secretary of the demarcation board on or before a specific date, which shall not be less than 21 days after the date of the publication of the notice, and the secretary shall cause a copy of the notice to be served on every local authority directly affected by the proposed demarcation, alteration or withdrawal of a demarcation and on every Director-General referred to in section 3\(2\)\(eA\), according to the population group concerned, and such service shall be effected by registered post or by hand.

subsection (1) substituted by section 9(a) of [Act 43 of 1988]

- (2) On the expiration of the period within which objections or representations may be lodged in terms of the notice referred to in subsection (1), the secretary of the demarcation board shall refer the request together with all objections and representations and all relevant documents and particulars to the demarcation board for investigation and its recommendation: Provided that in the event of no objection or representations having been received in terms of the provisions of subsection (1), the demarcation board may dispense with any hearing or inspection if it is of the opinion that such hearing or inspection is not necessary.
- (3) (a) If an Administrator calls for advice from the demarcation board in respect of the proposed alteration of the area of jurisdiction of a local authority in a case where—
 - (i) particulars of the proposed alteration have been published in terms of any law in the Gazette, or in the Official Gazette of the province concerned, and in a newspaper circulating in the area concerned; and
 - (ii) objections against or representations in connection with the proposed alteration have been received by the Administrator, the Administrator shall refer the objections and representations to the demarcation board, which must then hold a hearing before giving the advice.

- (b) Not less than 14 days before the date of the hearing, the secretary of the demarcation board shall cause to be published in both official languages, once in the Official Gazette of the province concerned and once in a newspaper circulating in the area concerned, a notice in which the place and date of the hearing are made known and interested parties are invited to attend the hearing, and the secretary shall cause a copy of the notice to be served on every local authority directly affected by the proposed alteration and on every Director-General referred to in section 3\(2\)\(eA\), according to the population group concerned, and such service shall be effected by registered post or by hand.

subsection (3) added by section 9(b) of [Act 43 of 1988]

section 7G inserted by section 2 of [Act 110 of 1985]

7H. Meetings of demarcation board

- (1) The meetings of the demarcation board shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), be held at such times and places as that board or, if authorized thereto by that board, the chairman of that board may determine.
- (2) The chairman may at any time call a special meeting of the demarcation board to be held at such time and place as he may direct.
- (3) A quorum for a meeting of the demarcation board shall be three of the members thereof.
- (4) In the absence from any meeting of the demarcation board of both the chairman and the vice-chairman, the members present at that meeting may elect one of their number to preside at that meeting.

- (5) The decision of the majority of the members present at a meeting of the demarcation board shall be the decision of that board, and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

Chapter II

Development aid and advice to local authorities

8. Municipal development boards

The Minister may determine regions and may in respect of each such region establish a board for the rendering of development aid and advice to local authorities situated within the region in question.

9. Constitution of municipal development boards

- (1) A municipal development board shall consist of such number of members as may be determined by the Minister from time to time.
- (2) (a) The Minister shall appoint as members of a municipal development board persons who in his opinion are experts on any aspect of local authorities and who in his opinion are capable of making a substantial contribution towards the rendering of development aid to local authorities.
- (b) At least one of the members appointed under paragraph (a) shall be an experienced municipal councillor.
- (3) The Minister shall designate one of the members of a municipal development board as chairman of the development board and another member as deputy chairman thereof.
- (4) A member of a municipal development board shall hold office for such period as may be determined by the Minister at the time of the appointment of such member, but shall be eligible for reappointment: Provided that if in the opinion of the Minister good reasons exist for doing so, he may at any time remove a member from office.
- (5) Any member of a municipal development board appointed under subsection (2) or co-opted under section 11\(2\) who is not in the full-time employment of the State shall in respect of his services as a member of a municipal development board or a committee thereof, receive, out of money appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, determine either in general or in any particular case.

10. Object and functions of municipal development boards

The object of a municipal development board shall be to render to local authorities situated in the region in respect of which it has been established development aid so as to render such authorities as soon as is practicable as self-sufficient as possible, and a municipal development board may to that end submit to the Department proposals as to the steps which should be taken.

11. Committees

- (1) A municipal development board may, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), from among its own number establish one or more committees to perform any function of the development board.
- (2) A municipal development board may with the consent of the Minister co-opt any person who is not a member of that development board as a member of a committee established under subsection (1), whether for a definite or for an indefinite period or for a particular purpose.

- (3) The municipal development board concerned shall designate one of the members of a committee as the chairman of such committee.

12. Meetings

A meeting of the municipal development board or of any committee thereof shall be held at such time and place as the chairman of the development board or committee in question may from time to time determine.

13. Annual reports by municipal development boards

The chairman of a municipal development board shall annually submit a report to the Director-General in connection with the activities of the board during the previous year.

Chapter III General provisions

14. Designation of persons or institutions for purposes of membership of co-ordinating council

If the Minister is of the opinion that any person or institution is capable of making a substantial contribution towards promoting the object of the co-ordinating council and should be appointed to or represented on the council, the Minister may by notice, in the Gazette designate such person or institution for the purpose of paragraph (h) of section 3\(3\).

15. Delegation

The Minister may, subject to such conditions as he may determine, delegate to an officer in the Department (with a rank not lower than that of deputy director) any or all of the powers conferred upon him by sections 3\(12\), 6\(1\)\(b\), 7A\(12\) and 11\(2\).

section 15 substituted by section 3 of [Act 110 of 1985]

16. Performance of administrative work

The administrative work connected with the performance of the functions of the co-ordinating council, a municipal development board, the demarcation board and any committee of the co-ordinating council, a municipal development board or the demarcation board shall be performed by officers and employees in the public service.

section 16 substituted by section 4 of [Act 110 of 1985 and by section 4 of Act 82 of 1988]

17. Improvement of communication between local authorities and certain committees

- (1) The Minister may in consultation with the Administrator of any province make regulations which shall be applicable to local authorities situated within the province concerned and which provide for the application by such local authorities of measures aimed at the improvement of communication between such authorities and Coloured and Indian consultative, local affairs and management committees.
- (2) Any such regulation may authorize the Administrator to apply any such measure referred to in subsection (1) himself or to take other appropriate steps in its stead if any such authority has failed, after having been directed by the Administrator to do so and on the expiry of a reasonable period after such direction, to apply that measure, and may authorize the Administrator to recover the cost connected with the application of such measure or the taking of such steps from the local authority concerned.

- (3) In the event of a conflict between a regulation under this section and an ordinance or a regulation under an ordinance, the first-mentioned regulation shall prevail.
- (4) subsection (4) added by section 24 of [Act 103 of 1988 and deleted by section 53 of Act 108 of 1991]
- (5) subsection (5) added by section 24 of [Act 103 of 1988 and deleted by section 53 of Act 108 of 1991]

17A. Certain powers to be exercised by Administrator in accordance with directives determined by Minister

- (1) Whenever a power conferred by or under any law upon an Administrator—
 - (a) to establish or dissolve any local authority or to combine two or more local authorities into a single local authority;
 - (b) to determine or alter the area of jurisdiction of a local authority; or
 - (c) to classify local authorities or any category of local authorities according to grades,is exercised by the Administrator, that power shall be exercised by the Administrator in accordance with such general directives setting out the criteria, norms and standards to be taken into account by an Administrator in any decision in respect of the above matters as the Minister may, after consultation with the co-ordinating council, determine by notice in the Gazette.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not derogate from a provision of a law therein referred to in so far as that provision is not contrary to the directives determined under that subsection.

section 17A inserted by section 2 of [Act 116 of 1984]

17B. Additional rights, powers, functions, duties and obligations of management bodies

- (1) An Administrator may from time to time by notice in the Official Gazette concerned invest and charge management bodies generally or any particular management body specified in the notice, in respect of its area of jurisdiction, with any right, power, function, duty or obligation which by or under any law has been or may be assigned to any local authority within whose area of jurisdiction such a management body is situated.
- (2) Unless a notice referred to in subsection (1) provides otherwise, the right, power, function, duty or obligation with which a management body is invested and charged under that notice, shall in respect of the area of jurisdiction of that management body devolve upon that management body to the exclusion of any local authority which immediately before the publication of the notice was invested and charged in respect of that area with that right, power, function, duty or obligation.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) may, in addition—
 - (a) contain directions regarding the manner in which, the conditions on which or the circumstances in which any such right, power, function, duty or obligation may be exercised or shall be performed or fulfilled by the management body;
 - (b) provide that a provision of any law creating, describing or determining any such right, power, function, duty or obligation shall be deemed to be amended in a manner specified in the notice in so far as that right, power, function, duty or obligation is exercised, performed or fulfilled by the management body.
 - (c) provide that any assets or obligations of the local authority as may be specified in the notice and as were vested in the local authority in connection with the exercise of any such power or the performance of any such function or duty before the management body was invested and charged with that power, function or duty shall devolve upon the management body, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notice, including conditions (if any) regarding the payment of compensation by the management body;

- (d) provide for any officer or employee in the employment of the local authority to be transferred to or seconded to or that his services are placed at the disposal of the management body.
- (4) A notice referred to in subsection (1) may at any time be amended or substituted by the Administrator.
- (5) An Administrator shall direct the issue of a notice in terms of subsection (1) read with subsection (3) or the amendment or substitution of a notice in terms of subsection (4) only—
 - (a) with the concurrence of the Ministers referred to in section 3\(2\)\(aB\), according to the population group concerned;
 - (b) after consultation with—
 - (i) the local authority concerned; and
 - (ii) the management body concerned.
- (6) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of the Regional Services Councils Act, 1985, relating to the transfer or secondment to or placement of their services at the disposal of, of officers or employees and of the transfer or devolution of assets or obligations to a regional services council in terms of the said Act, shall mutatis mutandis apply in the case of the transfer or secondment to or placement of their services at the disposal of, or transfer or devolution of assets or obligations to a management body in terms of this section.
- (7) (a) A notice issued in terms of subsection (1) which provides that any law shall be deemed to be amended in a manner determined in subsection (3)(b), shall be Tabled in Parliament by the Minister within 14 days after the date thereof if Parliament is then in session or, if Parliament is then not in session, within 14 days after its ensuing session.
- (b) If Parliament disapproves of any such notice or of any provision in any such notice, such notice or such provision thereof shall thereafter cease to be of force and effect to the extent to which it is so disapproved, but without prejudice to the validity of anything done in terms of such notice or of such provision thereof up to the date upon which it so ceased to be of force and effect, or to any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred as at the said date under and by virtue of such notice or such provision thereof.
- (8) A management body which—
 - (a) is at the commencement of this Act not yet vested with corporate personality, is as from such commencement a juristic person under its existing name;
 - (b) comes into existence after the commencement of this Act, is as from its coming into existence a juristic person under the name under which it so comes into existence.
- (9) For the purposes of the preceding provisions of this section “management body” means a committee referred to in section 17\(1\).
subsection (9) substituted by section 25(a) of [Act 103 of 1988]
- (10) subsection (10) added by section 25(b) of [Act 103 of 1988 and deleted by section 54 of Act 108 of 1991]

17C. Assignment of functions by local authorities

- (1) Subject to the provisions of any law which deals with the delegation of any power by a local authority in any particular case, the local authority may delegate to any committee of, or any officer or employee in the service of, the local authority any power conferred upon the local authority by or under any Act of Parliament, excluding the power—
 - (a) to make regulations or by-laws;

- (b) to fix fees, tariffs or other charges; and
 - (c) to impose levies or other taxes, on such conditions as the local authority may determine.
- (2) A local authority may authorize any committee of, or any officer or employee in the service of, the local authority to perform any duty assigned to the local authority by or under any Act of Parliament.
- (3) Any delegation under subsection (1) shall not prevent the exercise of the relevant power by the local authority itself.
