- (3) A party shall not question or cross-examine any other party to the proceedings in question or a witness called by the latter party, but the presiding commissioner shall proceed inquisitorially to ascertain the relevant facts, and to that end he may question any party or witness at any stage of the proceedings: Provided that the commissioner may in his discretion permit any party to put a question to any other party or any witness.

27. Evidence

- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), a party may call one or more witnesses to prove his claim, counterclaim or defence.

28. Evidence to be given under oath

No person shall testify or be questioned in a court unless the prescribed oath has been administered to him or the prescribed affirmation has been accepted from him by the presiding commissioner or by the clerk of the court, or any person acting in his place, in the presence of that commissioner, or, if the person concerned is to give his evidence through an interpreter, by the commissioner through the interpreter.

29. Institution of actions

- (1) The plaintiff shall deliver a summons as prescribed personally or through his authorized representative to the clerk of the court, together with a copy of a written demand which was on a prior occasion delivered to the defendant by the plaintiff by hand or by registered post and in which the defendant was, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, allowed at least 14 days, calculated from the date of receipt of that demand by the defendant, to satisfy the plaintiff's claim.
- (2) Upon production of the prescribed proof that the reminder contemplated in subsection (1) was delivered to the defendant, and if the clerk of the court is satisfied that the plaintiff is a natural person and that his summons complies with the prescribed requirements, the clerk of the court shall set a date and time for the hearing of the action and issue the summons and hand it to the plaintiff or his authorized representative, who shall personally serve it on the defendant, or deliver it to the messenger of the court for service on the defendant.

- (3) Apart from the summons no pleadings shall be required of the parties, but the defendant may at any time before the hearing lodge with the clerk of the court a written statement setting forth the nature of his defence and particulars of the grounds on which it is based, and a copy of that statement shall be furnished to the plaintiff by the defendant.

30. Withdrawal of claims

- (1) A plaintiff may at any time, whether before or during the hearing of his action, withdraw his claim with the consent of the court and on such conditions as the court may determine, whereupon the proceedings shall be ceased.
- (2) If proceedings are ceased as contemplated in subsection (1), the plaintiff may bring a fresh action with the consent of the court.

31. Joinder of plaintiffs

- (1) Any number of persons each of whom has a separate claim against the same defendant, may join as plaintiffs in one action if the right of each to relief depends upon the determination of some question of law or fact which, if separate actions were instituted, would arise in each action: Provided that if such a joint action is instituted the defendant may apply to the court that separate trials be held, and the court may in its discretion make such order as it may deem just and expedient.
- (2) In a joint action judgment may be granted for one or more of the plaintiffs.

32. Joinder of defendants

Two or more defendants may be sued in the alternative or both in the alternative and jointly in one action, if the plaintiff alleges that he is uncertain which of the defendants is in law liable for his claim: Provided that on application by one or more of the defendants the court may in its discretion order that separate trials be held, or make such other order as it may deem just and expedient.

33. Amendment of documents

- (1) A court may at any time before judgment amend any summons or other document in connection with a case: Provided that no amendment shall be made if any party other than the party applying for the amendment may be prejudiced thereby in his case.
- (2) The amendment may be made upon such conditions as the court may deem reasonable.
- (3) In documents before the court the name of any person or place as commonly known may be employed, and the court may, on application, at any time before or after judgment substitute the correct name for that name.
- (4) If an unmarried woman is summoned for a debt based on contract and is thereafter married in community of property, or if a married woman is summoned for such a debt and it subsequently appears that she was married in community of property, the court may at any time, on application, before or after judgment, substitute the husband of that woman as defendant or judgment debtor.
