ACT

To provide for protection of the health and safety of employees and other persons at mines and, for that purpose—

- to promote a culture of health and safety;
 - to provide for the enforcement of health and safety measures;
 - to provide for appropriate systems of employee, employer and State participation in health and safety matters;
 - to establish representative tripartite institutions to review legislation, promote health and enhance properly targeted research;
 - to provide for effective monitoring systems and inspections, investigations and inquiries to improve health and safety;
 - to promote training and human resources development;
 - to regulate employers' and employees' duties to identify hazards and eliminate, control and minimise the risk to health and safety;
 - to entrench the right to refuse to work in dangerous conditions; and
 - to give effect to the public international law obligations of the Republic relating to mining health and safety;
- and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa as follows:—

Chapter 1

Objects of Act

1. Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to protect the health and safety of persons at mines;
- (b) to require employers and employees to identify hazards and eliminate, control and minimise the risks relating to health and safety at mines;
- (c) to give effect to the public international law obligations of the Republic that concern health and safety at mines;
- (d) to provide for employee participation in matters of health and safety through health and safety representatives and the health and safety committees at mines;
- (e) to provide for effective monitoring of health and safety conditions at mines;
- (f) to provide for enforcement of health and safety measures at mines;
- (g) to provide for investigations and inquiries to improve health and safety at mines; and
- (h) to promote—
 - (i) a culture of health and safety in the mining industry;
 - (ii) training in health and safety in the mining industry; and
 - (iii) co-operation and consultation on health and safety between the State, employers, employees and their representatives.

Chapter 2 Health and safety at mines

2. Employer to ensure safety

- (1) The employer of every mine that is being worked must—
 - (a) ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the mine is designed, constructed and equipped—
 - (i) to provide conditions for safe operation and a healthy working environment; and
 - (ii) with a communication system and with electrical, mechanical and other equipment as necessary to achieve those conditions;
 - (b) ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the mine is commissioned, operated, maintained and decommissioned in such a way that employees can perform their work, without endangering the health and safety of themselves or of any other person;
 - (c) compile an annual report on health and safety at the mine including the statistics on health and safety that must be kept in terms of this Act and the annual medical report referred to in section 16; and
 - (d) if the employer is a body corporate, and employs more than 50 employees, publish and distribute the report referred to in paragraph (c), in an appropriate form, to the body corporate's shareholders or members.

paragraph (d) substituted by section 1 of [Act 72 of 1997]
- (2) The employer of a mine that is not being worked, but in respect of which a closure certificate in terms of the Minerals Act has not been issued, must take reasonable steps to continuously prevent injuries, ill-health, loss of life or damage of any kind from occurring at or because of the mine.

2A. Chief executive officer charged with certain functions

- (1) Every chief executive officer must take reasonable steps to ensure that the functions of the employer as contemplated in this Act, are properly performed.
- (2) Without derogating from any responsibility or liability of the chief executive officer in terms of subsection (1), the chief executive officer may entrust any function contemplated in the said subsection to any person under the control of the chief executive officer, which person must act subject to the control and directions of the chief executive officer.
- (3) If the employer is a body corporate, the functions of the chief executive officer contemplated in subsections (1) and (2) may be performed by a member of the board of the body corporate designated by the board.
- (4) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) do not relieve an employer of any duty imposed on employers by this Act.
- (5) Every person appointed in terms of section 3 or 4(1) must perform their functions subject to the control and direction of the chief executive officer or the person contemplated in subsection (3).

section 2A inserted by section 2 of [Act 72 of 1997]

3. Employer must appoint manager

- (1) The employer of every mine that is being worked must—
 - (a) appoint one or more managers with the qualifications as may be prescribed to be responsible for the day to day management and operation of the mine, and if more than one manager is appointed, ensure that the managers' functions do not overlap;
[paragraph (a) substituted by section 3 of Act 72 of 1997]
 - (b) supply the managers with the means to perform their functions; and
 - (c) take reasonable steps to ensure that the managers perform their functions.
- (2) The appointment of a manager does not relieve the employer of any duty imposed on employers by this Act or any other law.
- (3) If no manager is appointed in terms of subsection (1), the employer must perform the functions of a manager in terms of this Act.

4. Employer may entrust functions to another person

- (1) An employer may appoint any person except a manager to perform any function entrusted to the manager by sections 2 and 3 of this Act.
[subsection (1) substituted by section 4 of Act 72 of 1997]
- (2) An employer who appoints a person under subsection (1) must notify the Chief Inspector of Mines of that appointment within seven days, and must include in that notice—
 - (a) the name of the person appointed;
 - (b) the nature of the person's functions; and
 - (c) the names of the manager or managers over whom that person has control.
- (3) An employer who appoints a person under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) supply each person appointed with the means to perform their functions; and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that they perform their functions.
- (4) The appointment of a person under subsection (1) does not relieve the employer of any duty imposed on employers by this Act or any other law.

5. Employer to maintain healthy and safe mine environment

- (1) As far as reasonably practicable, every employer must provide and maintain a working environment that is safe and without risk to the health of employees.
- (2) As far as reasonably practicable, every employer must—
 - (a) identify the relevant hazards and assess the related risks to which persons who are not employees may be exposed; and
 - (b) ensure that persons who are not employees, but who may be directly affected by the activities at the mine, are not exposed to any hazards to their health and safety.

[section 5 substituted by section 5 of Act 72 of 1997]

6. Employer to ensure adequate supply of health and safety equipment

- (1) Every employer must—
 - (a) supply all necessary health and safety equipment and health and safety facilities to each employee; and
 - (b) maintain as far as reasonably practicable, that equipment and those facilities in a serviceable and hygienic condition.

subsection (1) substituted by section 6(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) Every employer must ensure that sufficient quantities of all necessary personal protective equipment are available so that every employee who is required to use that equipment is able to do so.
- (3) Every employer must take reasonable steps to ensure that all employees who are required to use personal protective equipment are instructed in the proper use, the limitations and the appropriate maintenance of that equipment.

subsection (3) substituted by section 6(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

7. Employer to staff mine with due regard to health and safety

- (1) As far as reasonably practicable, every employer must—
 - (a) ensure that every employee complies with the requirements of this Act;
 - (b) institute the measures necessary to secure, maintain and enhance health and safety;
 - (c) provide persons appointed under subsections (2) and (4) with the means to comply with the requirements of this Act and with any instruction given by an inspector;

paragraph (c) substituted by section 7(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (d) consider an employee's training and capabilities in respect of health and safety before assigning a task to that employee; and
- (e) ensure that work is performed under the general supervision of a person trained to understand the hazards associated with the work and who has the authority to ensure that the precautionary measures laid down by the employer are implemented.

subsection (1) amended by section 7(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) The employer may appoint any person with qualifications as may be prescribed to perform any function of the employer in terms this Act.

subsection (2) substituted by section 7(c) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (3) The appointment of a person under subsection (2) does not relieve the employer of any duty imposed on employers by this Act.
- (4) an employer may appoint any person with qualifications as may be prescribed to perform any function of the employer in terms of this Act.

subsection (4) added by section 7(d) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (5) The appointment of a person under subsection (4) does not relieve the employer of any duty imposed on employers by this Act.

subsection (5) added by section 7(d) of [Act 72 of 1997]

8. Employer must establish health and safety policy

- (1) Every employer must prepare a document that—
 - (a) describes the organisation of work;
 - (b) establishes a policy concerning the protection of employees' health and safety at work;
 - (c) establishes a policy concerning the protection of persons who are not employees but who may be directly affected by the activities at the mine; and paragraph (c) substituted by section 8 of [Act 72 of 1997]
 - (d) outlines the arrangements for carrying out and reviewing policies.
- (2) The employer must consult with the health and safety committee on the preparation or revision of the document and policies referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The employer must—
 - (a) prominently and conspicuously display a copy of the document referred to in subsection (1) for employees to read; and
 - (b) give each health and safety representative a copy of the document.

9. Codes of practice

- (1) Any employer may prepare and implement a code of practice on any matter affecting the health or safety of employees and other persons who may be directly affected by activities at the mine.
- (2) An employer must prepare and implement a code of practice on any matter affecting the health or safety of employees and other persons who may be directly affected by activities at the mine if the Chief Inspector of Mines requires it.
- (3) A code of practice required by the Chief Inspector of Mines must comply with guidelines issued by the Chief Inspector of Mines.
- (4) The employer must consult with the health and safety committee on the preparation, implementation or revision of any code of practice.
- (5) The employer must deliver a copy of every code of practice prepared in terms of subsection (2) to the Chief Inspector of Mines.
- (6) The Chief Inspector of Mines must review a code of practice of a mine if requested to do so by a registered trade union with members at the mine, or a health and safety committee or a health and safety representative at the mine.
- (7) At any time, an inspector may instruct an employer to review any code of practice within a specified period if that code of practice—
 - (a) does not comply with a guideline of the Chief Inspector of Mines; or
 - (b) is inadequate to protect the health or safety of employees.

10. Employer to provide health and safety training

- (1) As far as reasonably practicable, every employer must—
 - (a) provide employees with any information, instruction, training or supervision that is necessary to enable them to perform their work safely and without risk to health; and
 - (b) ensure that every employee becomes familiar with work-related hazards and risks and the measures that must be taken to eliminate, control and minimise those hazards and risks.

- (2) As far as reasonably practicable, every employer must ensure that every employee is properly trained—
 - (a) to deal with every risk to the employee's health or safety that—
 - (i) is associated with any work that the employee has to perform; and
 - (ii) has been recorded in terms of section 11;
 - (b) in the measures necessary to eliminate, control and minimise those risks to health or safety;
 - (c) in the procedures to be followed to perform that employee's work; and
 - (d) in relevant emergency procedures.
- (3) In respect of every employee, the provisions of subsection \(2\) must be complied with—
 - (a) before that employee first starts work;
 - (b) at intervals determined by the employer after consulting the health and safety committee;
 - (c) before significant changes are introduced to procedures, mining and ventilation layouts, mining methods, plant or equipment and material; and
 - (d) before significant changes are made to the nature of that employee's occupation or work.

11. Employer to assess and respond to risk

- (1) Every employer must—
 - (a) identify the hazards to health or safety to which employees may be exposed while they are at work;
 - (b) assess the risks to health or safety to which employees may be exposed while they are at work;
 - (c) record the significant hazards identified and risks assessed; and
 - (d) make those records available for inspection by employees.
- (2) Every employer, after consulting the health and safety committee at the mine, must determine all measures, including changing the organisation of work and the design of safe systems of work, necessary to—
 - (a) eliminate any recorded risk;
 - (b) control the risk at source;
 - (c) minimise the risk; and
 - (d) in so far as the risk remains—
 - (i) provide for personal protective equipment; and
 - (ii) institute a programme to monitor the risk to which employees may be exposed.
- (3) Every employer must, as far as reasonably practicable, implement the measures determined necessary in terms of subsection \(2\) in the order in which the measures are listed in the paragraphs of that subsection.
- (4) Every employer must—
 - (a) periodically review the hazards identified and risks assessed, including the results of occupational hygiene measurements and medical surveillance, to determine whether further elimination, control and minimisation of risk is possible; and

- (b) consult with the health and safety committee on the review.
- (5) Every employer must—
- (a) conduct an investigation into every—
 - (i) accident that must be reported in terms of this Act;
 - (ii) serious illness; and
 - (iii) health-threatening occurrence;
 - (b) consult the health and safety committee on investigations in terms of this section;
 - (c) conduct an investigation in co-operation with the health and safety representative responsible for the working place in which the investigation takes place;
 - (d) on completion of each investigation, prepare a report that—
 - (i) whenever possible, identifies the causes and the underlying causes of the accident, serious illness or health-threatening occurrence;
 - (ii) identifies any unsafe conditions, acts, or procedures that contributed in any manner to the accident, serious illness or health-threatening occurrence; and
 - (iii) makes recommendations to prevent a similar accident, serious illness or health-threatening occurrences; and
 - (e) deliver a copy of the report referred to in paragraph (d) to the health and safety committee. If there is no health and safety committee the employer must deliver a copy of the report to the health and safety representative responsible for the working place.
- (6) An investigation referred to in subsection (5) may be held jointly with an investigation conducted by an inspector in terms of section 60.
- (7) If there is no health and safety committee at a mine, the consultations required in this section must be held with—
- (a) the health and safety representatives; or
 - (b) if there is no health and safety representative at the mine, with the employees.

12. Employer to conduct occupational hygiene measurements

- (1) The employer must engage the part-time or full-time services of a person qualified in occupational hygiene techniques to measure levels of exposure to hazards at the mine—
- (a) if required to do so by regulation or a notice in the Gazette; or
 - (b) if, after assessing risks in terms of section 11\(1\), it is necessary to do so.
- (2) Every system of occupational hygiene measurements must—
- (a) be appropriate, considering the hazards to which the employees are or may be exposed; and
 - (b) be designed so that it provides information that the employer can use in determining measures to eliminate, control and minimise the health risks and hazards to which employees are or may be exposed.
- (3) The employer must keep a record of all occupational hygiene measurements in terms of subsection (1) in a manner that can be linked as far as practicable to each employee's record of medical surveillance.

13. Employer to establish system of medical surveillance

- (1) The employer must establish and maintain a system of medical surveillance of employees exposed to health hazards—
 - (a) if required to do so by regulation or a notice in the Gazette; or
 - (b) if, after assessing risks in terms of section 11\(1\) it is necessary to do so.
- (2) Every system of medical surveillance must—
 - (a) be appropriate, considering the health hazards to which the employees are or may be exposed;
 - (b) be designed so that it provides information that the employer can use in determining measures to—
 - (i) eliminate, control and minimise the health risk and hazards to which employees are or may be exposed; or
 - (ii) prevent, detect and treat occupational diseases; and
 - (c) consist of an initial medical examination and other medical examinations at appropriate intervals.
- (3) Every employer who establishes or maintains a system of medical surveillance must—
 - (a) engage the part-time or full-time services of—
 - (i) an occupational medical practitioner; and
 - (ii) in so far as it is necessary, other practitioners holding a qualification in occupational medicine recognised by the Interim National Medical and Dental Council of South Africa or the South African Interim Nursing Council;
 - (b) supply the practitioners with the means to perform their functions; and
 - (c) keep a record of medical surveillance for each employee exposed to a health hazard.
- (4) An employer may engage the services of a medical practitioner to perform, the functions of an occupational medical practitioner in terms of this Act until the services of an occupational medical practitioner can be obtained.
- (5) An occupational medical practitioner must take every measure that is reasonably practicable to—
 - (a) promote the health and safety of employees at the mine; and
 - (b) assist employees in matters related to occupational medicine.
- (6) If any employee is declared unfit to perform work as a result of an occupational disease, the employer must conduct an investigation in terms of section 11\(5\).
- (7) If an employee is temporarily unfit to perform work as a result of any occupational disease, but there is a reasonable expectation that the employee's health will improve so that the employee can return to work, the occupational medical practitioner must record that fact and notify both the employer and employee of it.
- (8) The employer must—
 - (a) retain the records referred to in sections 12\(3\), 13\(3\)\(c\) and 14\(1\) until the mine closes; and
 - (b) when the mine closes, deliver those records to the Medical Inspector.

14. Record of hazardous work

- (1) The employer at every mine must keep a service record, in the prescribed form, of employees at the mine who perform work in respect of which medical surveillance is conducted in terms of section 13.
- (2) The employer must deliver to the Medical Inspector a copy of the relevant part of the record kept in terms of subsection (1)—
 - (a) when an employee whose name appears in that record ceases to be employed at that mine; or
 - (b) when required to do so by the Chief Inspector of Mines.

15. Record of medical surveillance

- (1) An employee's record of medical surveillance kept in terms of section 13\(3\)\(c\) must be kept confidential and may be made available only—
 - (a) in accordance with the ethics of medical practice;
 - (b) if required by law or court order; or
 - (c) if the employee has consented, in writing, to the release of that information.
- (2) Any person required to maintain an employee's record of medical surveillance must—
 - (a) store it safely; and
 - (b) not destroy it or dispose of it, or allow it to be destroyed or disposed of, for 40 years from the last date of the medical surveillance of that employee.

16. Annual medical reports

- (1) Every occupational medical practitioner at a mine must compile an annual report covering employees at that mine, giving an analysis of the employees' health based on the employees' records of medical surveillance, without disclosing the names of the employees.
- (2) The annual report compiled in terms of subsection (1) must be given to the employer, who must deliver one copy of the report to each of—
 - (a) paragraph (a) deleted by section 9 of [Act 72 of 1997]
 - (b) the health and safety committees, or if there is no health and safety committee, the health and safety representatives; and
 - (c) the Medical Inspector.

17. Exit certificates

- (1) If an employee was subject to, or was required to be subject to, medical surveillance in terms of this Act and such employee's employment at a mine is terminated for any reason, the employer must arrange an exit medical examination of the employee.
subsection (1) substituted by section 10 of [Act 72 of 1997]
- (2) The examination referred to in subsection (1) must be held before, or as soon as possible after, termination of employment.
- (3) The employee must attend the examination.

- (4) The occupational medical practitioner conducting the examination must—
 - (a) produce an exit certificate with respect to that employee indicating the results of all medical surveillance and the presence or absence of any occupational disease; and
 - (b) enter a copy of the exit certificate into the employee's record of medical surveillance.

18. Costs of examination

The employer must pay the costs of all clinical examinations and medical tests performed in terms of this Act unless this Act expressly provides otherwise.

19. Employees' right to information

- (1) An employee may request, and the employer must then provide, a copy of the record or of any part of it that—
 - (a) is being kept in terms of sections 12\(3\) and 13\(3\)\(c\); and
 - (b) relates to that employee.
- (2) The occupational medical practitioner conducting an examination in terms of section 17 must provide the employee with a copy of the exit certificate prepared as a result of that examination.

20. Employee may dispute finding of unfitness to perform work

- (1) An employee may appeal to the Medical Inspector against—
 - (a) a decision that the employee is unfit to perform any particular category of work; or
 - (b) any finding of an occupational medical practitioner contained in an exit certificate prepared in terms of section 17.
- (2) An appeal under subsection \(1\) must—
 - (a) be lodged with the Medical Inspector within 30 days of the relevant decision or finding, or such further period as may be prescribed, and paragraph (a) substituted by section 11 of [Act 72 of 1997]
 - (b) state the grounds of the appeal.
- (3) When the Medical Inspector receives an appeal under subsection \(1\), the Medical Inspector must choose a medical practitioner who is not employed by the employer of the employee, and arrange for that employee to be re-examined by that medical practitioner, at the cost of the Chief Inspector of Mines.
- (4) The medical practitioner referred to in subsection \(3\) must report to the Medical Inspector, who must then consider the appeal and—
 - (a) confirm, set aside or vary the decision or finding of the occupational medical practitioner; or
 - (b) substitute any other decision or finding for that decision or finding.
- (5) Nothing in this section precludes an employee from—
 - (a) obtaining and paying for a medical opinion from any other medical practitioner; or
 - (b) pursuing any other legal remedy.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, "employee" includes any applicant for employment who has previously been employed at a mine.

21. Manufacturer's and supplier's duty for health and safety

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) designs, manufactures, repairs, imports or supplies any article for use at a mine must ensure, as far as reasonably practicable—
 - (i) that the article is safe and without risk to health and safety when used properly; and
 - (ii) that it complies with all the requirement in terms of this Act;
 - (b) erects or installs any article for use at a mine must ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that nothing about the manner in which it is erected or installed makes it unsafe or creates a risk to health and safety when used properly; or
 - (c) designs, manufactures, erects or installs any article for use at a mine must ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that ergonomic principles are considered and implemented during design, manufacture, erection or installation.
- (2) Any person who bears a duty in terms of subsection (1) is relieved of that duty to the extent that is reasonable in the circumstances, if—
 - (a) that person designs, manufactures, repairs, imports or supplies an article for or to another person; and
 - (b) that other person provides a written undertaking to take specified steps sufficient to ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the article will be safe and without risk to health and safety when used properly and that it complies with all prescribed requirements.
- (3) Any person who designs or constructs a building or structure, including a temporary structure, for use at a mine must ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the design or construction is safe and without risk to health and safety when used properly.
- (4) Every person who manufactures, imports or supplies any hazardous substance for use at a mine must—
 - (a) ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the substance is safe and without risk to health and safety when used, handled, processed, stored or transported at a mine in accordance with the information provided in terms of paragraph (b);
 - (b) provide adequate information about—
 - (i) the use of the substance;
 - (ii) the risks to health and safety associated with the substance;
 - (iii) any restriction or control on the use, transport and storage of the substance, including but not limited to exposure limits;
 - (iv) the safety precautions to ensure that the substance is without risk to health or safety;
 - (v) the procedure to be followed in the case of an accident involving excessive exposure to the substance, or any other emergency involving the substance; and
 - (vi) the disposal of used containers in which the substance has been stored and any waste involving the substance; and
 - (c) ensure that the information provided in terms of paragraph (b) complies with the provisions of the Hazardous Substances Act, 1973 (Act No. 15 of 1973).

22. Employees' duties for health and safety

Every employee at a mine while, at that mine, must—

- (a) take reasonable care to protect their own health and safety;
- (b) take reasonable care to protect the health and safety of other persons who may be affected by any act or omission of that employee;
- (c) use and take proper care of protective clothing, and other health and safety facilities and equipment provided for the protection, health or safety of that employee and other employees;
- (d) report promptly to their immediate supervisor any situation which the employee believes presents a risk to the health or safety of that employee or any other person, and with which the employee cannot properly deal;
- (e) co-operate with any person to permit compliance with the duties and responsibilities placed on that person in terms of this Act; and
- (f) comply with prescribed health and safety measures.

23. Employees' right to leave dangerous working place

(1) The employee has the right to leave any working place whenever—

- (a) circumstances arise at that working place which, with reasonable justification, appear to that employee to pose a serious danger to the health or safety of that employee; or
- (b) the health and safety representative responsible for that working place directs that employee to leave that working place.

(2) Every employer, after consulting the health and safety committee at the mine, must determine effective procedures for the general exercise of the rights granted by subsection (1), and those procedures must provide for—

- (a) notification of Supervisors and health and safety representatives of dangers which have been perceived and responded to in terms of subsection (1);
- (b) participation by representatives of employer and representatives of the employees in endeavouring to resolve any issue that may arise from the exercise of the right referred to in subsection (1);
- (c) participation, where necessary, by an inspector or technical adviser to assist in resolving any issue that may arise from the exercise of the right referred to in subsection (1);
- (d) where appropriate, the assignment to suitable alternative work of any employee who left, or refuses to work in, a working place contemplated in subsection (1); and

paragraph (d) substituted by section 12 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (e) notification to any employee who has to perform work or is requested to perform work in a working place contemplated in subsection (1) of the fact that another employee has refused to work there and of the reason for that refusal.

(3) If there is no health and safety committee at a mine, the consultation required in subsection (2) must be held with—

- (a) the health and safety representatives; or
- (b) if there is no health and safety representative at the mine, with the employees.

24. Employees not to pay for safety measures

No person may make any deduction from an employee's wages, or permit an employee to make any payment to any person, in respect of anything which the employer is obliged to provide or to do in terms of this Act in the interest of the health and safety of an employee.

Chapter 3 Health and safety representatives and committees

25. Health and safety representatives and committees

- (1) Every mine with 20 or more employees must have a health and safety representative for each shift at each designated working place at the mine.
- (2) Every mine with 100 or more employees must have one or more health and safety committees.
- (3) A health and safety representative or a member of a health and safety committee does not incur any civil liability only because of doing or failing to do something which a health and safety representative or a member of a health and safety committee may do or is required to do in terms of this Act.

26. Negotiations and consultations before appointment of representatives

- (1) The employer of any mine where there must be a health and safety representative in terms of section 25 must meet, within the prescribed period, with the representative trade union of the mine to enter into negotiations to conclude a collective agreement concerning—
 - (a) the designation of sorting places;
 - (b) the number of full-time health and safety representatives;
 - (c) the election or appointment of health and safety representatives;
 - (d) the terms of office of health and safety representatives and the circumstances and the manner in which they may be removed from office;
 - (e) the manner in which vacancies are to be filled;
 - (f) the manner in which health and safety representatives must perform their functions in terms of this Act;
 - (g) the procedures for the effective exercise of the right to withdraw from serious danger in terms of section 23;
 - (h) circumstances and the manner in which meetings referred to in sections 30\(1\)\(i\) and 31\(2\) must be held;
 - (i) the facilities and assistance that must be provided to a health and safety representative in terms of section 31\(3\);
 - (j) the training of health and safety representatives;
 - (k) a procedure that provides for the conciliation and arbitration of disputes arising from the application or the interpretation of the collective agreement or any provision of this Chapter;
paragraph (k) substituted by section 13(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]
 - (l) any prescribed matter; and

- (m) any other matter which the parties believe will promote health and safety at the mine or mines concerned.
- (2) Before concluding a collective agreement referred to in subsection (1) with the representative trade union, the employer must consult on the matters referred to in that subsection with all other registered trade unions with members at that mine.
- (3) A collective agreement referred to in subsection (1) may include two or more employers as parties to the agreement.
- (4) To the extent that an agreement concluded in terms of subsection (1) deals with any matter regulated by this Chapter or by any regulation regarding any matter regulated by this Chapter, the provisions of this Chapter or such regulation do not apply.
[subsection (4) substituted by section 13(b) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (5) The provisions applicable to collective agreements in terms of the Labour Relations Act, read with the changes required by the context, apply to agreements concluded in terms of subsection (1).
- (6) If there is no representative trade union at the mine, the employer must within the prescribed period—
 - (a) consult with the registered trade unions with members at the mine on the matters referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) endeavour to reach agreement on the number of full-time health and safety representatives at the mine.
- (7) If there is no registered trade union with members at the mine, the employer must, within the prescribed period—
 - (a) consult with the employees or any elected representative of the employees on the matters referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) endeavour to reach agreement on the number of full-time health and safety representatives at the mine.
- (8) A dispute exists if either—
 - (a) no collective agreement in terms of subsection (1) is concluded on the number of full-time health and safety representatives at a mine; or
 - (b) no agreement is reached in terms of either subsection (6)(b) or (7)(b).
- (9) When a dispute exists in terms of subsection (8), any party to the dispute may refer it to the Commission.
- (10) When a dispute is referred to the Commission under subsection (9), the Commission must attempt to resolve it through conciliation.
- (11) If a dispute remains unresolved, any party to the dispute may request that it be resolved through arbitration, in which case the Commission, taking into account the guidelines in Schedule 1, must determine the number of full-time health and safety representatives.
- (12) Nothing in this section precludes the employer from consulting with any employee who is not a member of a registered trade union or any representative of those employees concerning the matters referred to in subsection (1).

27. Designation of working places

- (1) If a collective agreement is concluded after the negotiations and consultations referred to in section 26, the employer must designate working places at the mine in accordance with that agreement.

- (2) If no collective agreement is concluded after the negotiations and consultations referred to in section 26, the employer must designate working places at the mine so that—
 - (a) every working place at the mine is designated;
 - (b) no health and safety representative is responsible for more than 100 employees; and
 - (c) no health and safety representative is responsible for more than 50 employees if the designated working place includes separate working places.

28. Qualifications of representatives

- (1) To qualify to serve as a health and safety representative referred to in section 25\(1\), an employee must—
 - (a) be employed in a full-time capacity in the designated working place; and
 - (b) be acquainted with conditions and activities at the designated working place.
- (2) To qualify to serve as a full-time health and safety representative an employee must—
 - (a) be employed in full-time capacity at the mine;
 - (b) comply with any other qualifications which may be—
 - (i) agreed by a health and safety committee; or
 - (ii) prescribed.

29. Election and appointment of representatives

- (1) At a mine referred to in section 25\(1\), the employees in a designated working place may elect from among themselves health and safety representatives.
- (2) The employees at the mine may elect from among themselves any full-time health and safety representatives that may be agreed or determined in terms of section 26.
- (3) The elections referred to in subsections (1) and (2) must be conducted in the prescribed manner.
- (4) The employees elected as representatives in terms of this section must be appointed by the employer to the prescribed manner.

30. Rights and powers of representatives

- (1) A health and safety representative may—
 - (a) represent employees on all aspects of health and safety;
 - (b) direct any employee to leave any working place whenever circumstances arise at that working place which, with reasonable justification, appears to the health and safety representative to pose a serious danger to the health or safety of that employee;
paragraph (b) substituted by section 14 of [Act 72 of 1997]
 - (c) assist any employee who has left a working place in terms of section 23;
 - (d) identify potential hazards and risks to health or safety;
 - (e) make representations or recommendations to the employer or to a health and safety committee on any matter affecting the health or safety of employees;
 - (f) inspect any relevant document which must be kept in terms of this Act;
 - (g) request relevant information and reports from an inspector;

- (h) with the approval of the employer, be assisted by or consult an adviser or technical expert who may be either another employee or any other person;
 - (i) attend any meeting of a health and safety committee—
 - (i) of which that representative is a member; or
 - (ii) which will consider a representation or recommendation made by that representative;
 - (j) request—
 - (i) an inspector to conduct an investigation in terms of section 60; or
 - (ii) the Chief Inspector of Mines to conduct an inquiry in terms of section 65;
 - (k) participate in consultations on health and safety with—
 - (i) the employer or person acting on behalf of the employer; or
 - (ii) an inspector;
 - (l) participate in any health and safety inspection by—
 - (i) the employer or person acting on behalf of an employer; or
 - (ii) an inspector;
 - (m) inspect working places with regard to the health and safety of employees at intervals agreed with the employer;
 - (n) participate in any internal health or safety audit;
 - (o) investigate complaints by any employee relating to health and safety at work;
 - (p) examine the causes of accidents and other dangerous occurrences in collaboration with the employer or person acting on behalf of the employer;
 - (q) visit the site of an accident or dangerous occurrence at any reasonable time;
 - (r) attend a post-accident inspection;
 - (s) cooperate with the employer in the conducting of investigations in terms of section 11\(5\);
 - (t) participate in an inquiry held in terms of section 65; and
 - (u) perform the functions—
 - (i) agreed by the health and safety committee; or
 - (ii) prescribed.
- (2) The rights and powers referred to in subsection (1) apply to health and safety representatives referred to in section 25\(1\) only in respect of the working places for which they are responsible.
- (3) If a health and safety representative requests information or reports under subsection (1)(g), the inspector must supply the representative with the information or reports in their possession.
- (4) An employer may not unreasonably withhold the approval required in terms of subsection (1)(h).
- (5) A health and safety representative intending to exercise the right to inspect working places under subsection must—
 - (a) give the employer reasonable notice of the inspection; and
 - (b) permit the employer to participate in the inspection.
- (6) Health and safety representatives are entitled to perform their functions and to receive training during ordinary working hours.

- (7) Any time reasonably spent by a health and safety representative for a purpose referred to in subsection (6) must be considered for all purposes to be time spent carrying out the employment duties of that representative.

31. Duty to compensate and assist representatives

- (1) The employer must pay every full-time health and safety representative appropriate remuneration at least equal to the remuneration the representative earned immediately before being appointed as a full-time health and safety representative.
- (2) The employer must provide reasonable time and facilities for employees to meet monthly with their health and safety representatives in order to consider—
- (a) health and safety in their working places; and
 - (b) reports by the representatives on the performance of their functions.
- (3) The employer must provide health and safety representatives with—
- (a) the facilities and assistance reasonably necessary to perform their functions;
 - (b) training that is reasonably required to enable them to perform their functions; and
 - (c) time off from work, without loss of remuneration, to attend any training course that is agreed or prescribed.
- (4) Unless otherwise agreed, the assistance referred to in subsection (3)(a) does not include any costs associated with advisers or independent experts contemplated in either section 30\(1\)\(g\) or section 36\(1\)\(g\).
- (5) On the completion of a term of office as a full-time health and safety representative, the health and safety representative is entitled to—
- (a) employment in the same position held immediately before being appointed as a full-time health and safety representative; or
 - (b) employment in a position that is at least as favourable as the position held immediately before being appointed a full-time health and safety representative.

32. Duty to inform representatives

Every employer must notify the health and safety representatives concerned and, if there is a health and safety committee, the employee co-chairperson of that committee—

- (a) in good time, of inspections, investigations or inquiries of which an inspector has notified the employer; and
- (b) as soon as practicable, of any accident, serious illness or health-threatening occurrence, or other dangerous event.

33. Negotiation and consultation on establishment of committees

- (1) The employer of any mine in respect of which a health and safety committee must be established in terms of section 25\(2\), must meet, within the prescribed period, with the representative trade union at the mine to enter into negotiations to conclude a collective agreement concerning—
- (a) the number of health and safety committees to be established at the mine and the working places for which they will be responsible;
 - (b) the number of employer and employee representatives on the committees;
 - (c) the election and appointment of members of health and safety committees;

- (d) the terms of office of members of the health and safety committee and the circumstances and the manner in which the members may be removed from office;
- (e) the manner in which vacancies are to be filled;
- (f) the circumstances and the manner in which meetings may be held;
- (g) the facilities and assistance which must be provided to health and safety committees in terms of section 37\(a\); and
- (h) a procedure that provides for the conciliation and arbitration of disputes arising from the application or interpretation of the collective agreement or any provision of this Chapter.

paragraph (h) substituted by section 15(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) Before concluding a collective agreement referred to in subsection (1) with the representative trade union, the employer must consult on the matters referred to in that subsection with all other registered trade unions with members at that mine.
- (3) A collective agreement referred to in subsection (1) may include two or more employers as parties to the agreement.
- (4) To the extent that an agreement concluded in terms of subsection (1) deals with any matter regulated by this Chapter or by any regulation regarding any matter regulated by this Chapter, the provisions of this Chapter or such regulation do not apply.

subsection (4) substituted by section 15(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (5) The provisions applicable to collective agreements in terms of the Labour Relations Act, read with the changes required by the context, apply to agreements concluded in terms of subsection (1)
- (6) If there is no representative trade union at the mine, the employer must consult, within the prescribed period, with the registered trade unions with members at the mine on the matters referred to in subsection (1).
- (7) If there is no registered trade union with members at the mine, the employer must, within the prescribed period, consult with the employees or any elected representatives of the employees on the matters referred to in subsection (1),
- (8) The negotiations and consultations referred to in this section may be held at the same time as those referred to in section 26.

34. Establishment of health and safety committees

- (1) If a collective agreement is concluded in terms of section 33\(1\), health and safety committees must be established in terms of that agreement.
- (2) If no collective agreement is concluded in terms of section 33\(1\), the employer must establish health and safety committees after the consultation referred to in section 33\(6\) or (7) and in accordance with this section and the regulations.
- (3) A health and safety committee must consist of—
 - (a) at least four employee representatives; and
 - (b) a number of employer representatives equal to or less than the number of employee representatives.
- (4) The health and safety representatives must appoint the employee representatives on the health and safety committee. The employee representatives must be—
 - (a) broadly representative of the working places at the mine; and
 - (b) employees at that mine.

- (5) No more than two of the employee representatives may be appointed from full-time employees who are not health and safety representatives, unless all of the health and safety representatives have been appointed to the committee and there are still employee committee positions to be filled.
- (6) The employer must appoint the employer representatives on the health and safety committee. The persons appointed must include persons who have authority to develop and implement health and safety policies at the mine.

35. Committee procedures

- (1) The employee and employer representatives on a health and safety committee must each elect a chairperson from their number. Unless otherwise agreed by the committee, the two chairpersons must alternate as the presiding chairperson of the committee.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by a health and safety committee, the committee must meet at least once a month.
- (3) A health and safety committee may determine its own rules and procedures.
- (4) Persons other than employee or employer representatives may be invited to attend meetings of the health and safety committee and to participate in its proceedings.

36. Rights and powers of health and safety committee

- (1) A health and safety committee may—
 - (a) represent employees on all aspects of health and safety;
 - (b) participate in consultations on any health and safety matter listed in the Schedule referred to in section 97\(2\);
 - (c) request the Chief Inspector of Mines to review any code of practice;
 - (d) request relevant information from any person who is required, in terms of this Act, to provide that information to the committee;
 - (e) agree on additional qualifications or functions of health and safety representatives;
 - (f) request—
 - (i) an inspector to conduct an investigation in terms of section 60; or
 - (ii) the Chief Inspector of Mines to conduct an inquiry in terms of section 65;
 - (g) with the approval of the employer, be assisted by or consult an adviser or a technical expert who may be either another employee or any other person;
 - (h) take reasonable time to prepare for each meeting of the committee; and
 - (i) take reasonable time to report on meetings of the committee to the health and safety representatives at the mine.
- (2) No employer may unreasonably withhold the approval required in terms of subsection (1)(g).
- (3) Members of health and safety committees are entitled to perform their functions and to receive training during ordinary working hours.
- (4) Any time reasonably spent by a member of a health and safety committee for a purpose referred to in subsection (3) must be considered for all purposes to be time spent carrying out the employment duties of that member.

37. Duty to support committee

The employer must—

- (a) provide the health and safety committee with the facilities and assistance reasonably necessary to perform its functions;
- (b) supply the health and safety committee with the annual report referred to in section 2\(1\)\(c\) and any information necessary to perform its functions.

38. Disclosure of information

- (1) Whenever an employer, inspector or a person who conducts an inquiry in terms of section 65, is required by the provisions of this Chapter to supply information or reports to a health and safety representative or to the health and safety committee, that employer, inspector or person—
 - (a) must not disclose any information that is private personal information relating to an employee, unless the employee consents in writing to the disclosure of that information; and
 - (b) is not required to supply any information—
 - (i) that is legally privileged;
 - (ii) that the employer, inspector or person could not disclose without contravening a prohibition imposed upon the employer by any law or court order; or
 - (iii) that is confidential and, if disclosed, may cause substantial harm to an employee or the employer.
- (2) No employee may unreasonably withhold the consent required in terms of subsection (1)(a).

39. Disputes concerning disclosure of information

- (1) If there is a dispute about what information is required to be disclosed in terms of the provisions of this Chapter, any party to the dispute may refer the dispute in writing to the Commission.
- (2) The party who refers a dispute to the Commission must satisfy it that a copy of the referral has been served on all the other parties to the dispute.
- (3) The Commission must attempt to resolve the dispute through conciliation.
- (4) If the dispute remains unresolved, any party to the dispute may request that the dispute be resolved through arbitration.
- (5) A commissioner appointed to arbitrate a dispute must first decide whether or not the information is required to be supplied in terms of the provisions of this Chapter.
- (6) If the commissioner decides that the information is required and if it is information contemplated in section 38\(1\)\(a\) or (b)(iii), the commissioner must balance the harm that disclosure is likely to cause to an employee or employer or any other person who employs employees, against the harm that the failure to disclose the information is likely to cause to the ability of health and safety representatives or members of the health and safety committee to perform their functions effectively.
subsection (6) substituted by section 16 of [Act 72 of 1997]
- (7) If the commissioner decides that the balance of harm favours the disclosure of the information, the commissioner may order the disclosure of the information on terms designed to limit the harm likely to be caused to the employee or the employer.
- (8) When making an order under subsection (7), the commissioner must take into account any previous breach of confidentiality in respect of information disclosed in terms of the provisions of this Chapter, and may refuse to order the disclosure of the information or any other confidential information which might otherwise be disclosed for a period specified in the arbitration award.

- (9) In any dispute about an alleged breach of confidentiality, the commissioner may order that the right to disclosure of information in terms of the provisions of this Chapter be withdrawn for a period specified in the arbitration award.

40. Disputes concerning this Chapter

- (1) Any party to a dispute about the interpretation or application of any provision of this Chapter, other than a dispute contemplated in section 26(8) or 39, may refer the dispute in writing to the Commission.
- (2) The party who refers a dispute to the Commission must satisfy it that a copy of the referral has been served on all the other parties to the dispute.
- (3) The Commission must attempt to resolve the dispute through conciliation.
- (4) If the dispute remains unresolved, any party to the dispute may request that the dispute be resolved through arbitration as soon as possible.
- (5) The provisions relating to arbitration in the Labour Relations Act, read with changes required by the context, apply to an arbitration referred to in sections 26(11) and 39 and subsection (4).

Chapter 4 Tripartite institutions

41. Establishment of tripartite institutions

- (1) A Mine Health and Safety Council is hereby established to advise the Minister on health and safety at mines.
- (2) The following permanent committees of the Council are hereby established—
- (a) the Mining Regulation Advisory Committee;
 - (b) the Mining Occupational Health Advisory Committee; and
 - (c) the Safety in Mines Research Advisory Committee.
- (3) A Mining Qualifications Authority is hereby established to advise the Minister on—
- (a) qualifications and learning achievements in the mining industry to improve health and safety standards through proper training and education;
[paragraph (a) substituted by section 17(a) of Act 72 of 1997]
 - (b) standards and competency setting, assessment, examinations, quality assurance and accreditation in the mining industry; and
 - (c) proposals for the registration of education and training standards and qualifications in the mining industry on the National Qualifications Framework referred to in the South African Qualifications Authority Act, 1995 (Act No. 58 of 1995).
[paragraph (c) substituted by section 17(b) of Act 72 of 1997]

42. Mine Health and Safety Council

- (1) The Council consists of—
- (a) five members representing employers in the mining industry;

- (b) five members representing employees in the mining industry;
 - (c) four members representing departments of the State; and
 - (d) the Chief Inspector of Mines, who must chair the Council.
- (2) The Minister must appoint the members of the Council and the permanent committees of the Council in accordance with the regulations.
- (2A) The Council may appoint ad hoc and subcommittees, for any period and on any conditions; and [subsection (2A) inserted by section 18(a) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (3) The Council, and its committees must govern themselves in accordance with the constitution contemplated in section 97(3).
[subsection (3) substituted by section 18(b) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (4) The Council may delegate any of its powers and assign any of its duties by or under this Act in accordance with the constitution contemplated in section 97(3).
[subsection (4) substituted by section 18(b) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (5) A delegation or an assignment under subsection (4)—
- (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) may be subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Council may determine; and
 - (c) does not prevent the exercise of that power or the performance of that duty by the Council.
- (6) Members of the Council, or of a committee of the Council, are each entitled to have their views reflected in any report of the Council or committee, as the case may be.
- (7) Each year, the Minister, with the agreement of the Minister of Finance, must provide sufficient funds for the administration of the Council, and committees of the Council, from public funds.

43. Council's duties

The Council must—

- (a) advise the Minister on health and safety at mines including, but not limited to, any legislation on mine rehabilitation in so far as it concerns health and safety;
[paragraph (a) substituted by section 19(a) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (b) co-ordinate the activities of its committees, receive reports from the committees and liaise with the Mining Qualifications Authority on matters relating to health and safety;
- (c) liaise with any other statutory bodies concerned with matters relating to health and safety;
- (d) promote a culture of health and safety in the mining industry;
- (e) at least once every two years arrange and co-ordinate a tripartite summit to review the state of health and safety at mines; and [paragraph (e) substituted by section 19(b) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (eA) annually consider an overall programme for relevant health and safety research for approval as prescribed and deliver a copy to the Minister of Finance for consideration; and [paragraph (eA) inserted by section 19(c) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (f) perform every duty imposed upon the Council in terms of this Act.

44. Duties of permanent committees

- (1) The Mining Regulation Advisory Committee must advise the Council on—
 - (a) proposed changes to legislation to improve health or safety at mines;
 - (b) proposals for changes to legislation made by any other committee of the Council;
 - (c) guidelines for codes of practice; and
 - (d) standards approved by the South African Bureau of Standards.
- (2) The Mining Occupational Health Advisory Committee must advise the Council on—
 - (a) policy relating to health;
 - (b) standards, systems and procedures for assessing, avoiding, eliminating, controlling and minimising health risks;
 - (c) regulations on any aspect of health;
 - (d) health research; and
 - (e) collecting, processing and distributing health data in the mining industry.
- (3) The Safety in Mines Research Advisory Committee must advise the Council on—
 - (a) Criteria for determining the funding of health and safety research;
 - (b) the need for research into health and safety at mines;
[paragraph (b) substituted by section 20(a) of Act 72 of 1997]
 - (c) research projects, including priorities of projects, cost, assessment, ratification and execution;
 - (d) communication and publication of research results; and
 - (e) the employer of the cost of the overall programme.
- (4) The Safety in Mines Research Advisory Committee must prepare the overall programme for relevant health and safety research for the Council to consider. The programme must include—
 - (a) a review of health and safety performance in the different mining sectors;
 - (b) an evaluation of the research proposals made by the Council or a committee of the Council;
 - (c) the focus of health and safety research and priorities for the different sectors of mining; and
 - (d) an estimate of the cost of the programme.
[subsection (4) amended by section 20(b) of Act 72 of 1997]
- (5) [subsection (5) deleted by section 20(c) of Act 72 of 1997]

45. Mining Qualifications Authority

- (1) The Mining Qualifications Authority consists of—
 - (a) five members representing employers in the mining industry;
 - (b) five members representing employees in the mining industry;
 - (c) four members representing departments of State; and

- (d) the Chief Inspector of Mines, who must chair the Mining Qualifications Authority.

paragraph (d) substituted by section 21(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) The Minister must appoint the members of the Mining Qualifications Authority in accordance with the constitution contemplated in section 97\(4\).
- (3) The Mining Qualifications Authority and its committees must govern themselves in accordance with the constitution contemplated in section 97\(4\).

subsection (3) substituted by section 21(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

46. Mining Qualifications Authority's functions

- (1) The Mining Qualifications Authority must—
- (a) seek registration in terms of the South African Qualifications Act, 1995 (Act No. 53 of 1995), as a body responsible for generating education and training standards and qualifications as contemplated in section 5(1)(a)(ii)(aa) of that Act;
- paragraph (a) substituted by section 22(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]*
- (b) seek accreditation in terms of the South African Qualifications Act, 1995 (Act No. 58 of 1995), as a body responsible for monitoring and auditing achievements as contemplated in section 5(1)(a)(ii)(bb) of that Act;
- (c) propose education and training standards and qualifications to bodies registered with that Authority and responsible for developing education and training standards;
- paragraph (c) substituted by section 22(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]*
- (d) generate education and training Standards and qualifications in the mining industry; and
- paragraph (d) substituted by section 22(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]*
- (e) monitor and audit achievement in terms of those standards and qualifications.
- (2) The Mining Qualifications Authority may—
- (a) appoint permanent and ad hoc committees, and subcommittees, for any period and on any conditions;
- (b) administer and control its financial affairs; and
- (c) do anything necessary to achieve its objectives.
- (3) The Mining Qualifications Authority may delegate any of its powers or assign any of its duties by or under this Act in accordance with the constitution contemplated in section 97\(4\).
- subsection (3) substituted by section 22(c) of [Act 72 of 1997]*
- (4) A delegation or an assignment under subsection (3)—
- (a) must be in writing;
- (b) may be subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Authority may determine; and
- (c) does not prevent the exercise of that power or the performance of that duty by the Authority.
- (5) In performing its functions, the Mining Qualifications Authority must comply with the policies and criteria formulated by the South African Qualifications Authority in terms of section 5(1)(a)(ii) of the South African Qualifications Authority Act, 1995 (Act No. 58 of 1995).

Chapter 5 Inspectorate of mine health and safety

47. Inspectorate established

- (1) A Mine Health and Safety Inspectorate is hereby established.
- (2) The Minister, by notice in the Gazette, may establish regions of the country for the purpose of administering this Act through regional offices of the Mine Health and Safety Inspectorate.

48. Chief Inspector of Mines

- (1) The Minister must appoint an officer, with suitable mining qualifications and appropriate experience in health and safety at mines, to be Chief Inspector of Mines.
- (2) Subject to the control and direction of the Minister, the Chief Inspector of Mines must perform the functions entrusted to the Chief Inspector of Mines by this Act.
- (3) The Chief Inspector of Mines may perform any of the functions of an inspector.

49. Chief Inspector of Mines's functions

- (1) Without limiting any statutory duty of any other person in terms of this Act, the Chief Inspector of Mines must—
 - (a) ensure that the provisions of this Act are complied with and enforced and that every duty imposed upon the Chief Inspector of Mines, the Medical Inspector or inspectors in terms of any other law is performed;
 - (b) appoint an officer with the prescribed qualifications and experience as the Medical Inspector;
 - (c) appoint officers with the prescribed qualifications and experience as inspectors;
 - (d) administer the Mine Health and Safety Inspectorate;
 - (e) determine and implement policies to promote the health and safety of persons at mines and any person affected by mining activities;
 - (f) consult with the Council before issuing guidelines on the form, content and distribution of codes of practice referred to in section 9;
 - (g) collect, process and distribute information relating to health and safety;
 - (h) advise the Minister on health or safety matters at mines;
 - (i) each year, after consulting the Council and with the approval of the Minister, publish and distribute a plan of action for the activities of the Mine Health and Safety Inspectorate;
 - (j) complete a report on health and safety at mines and the activities of the Mine Health and Safety Inspectorate for each year and submit the report to the Minister within three months of the end of the year concerned; and
 - (k) perform any duties relating to health or safety at mines that the Minister directs or prescribes.
- (2) The Chief Inspector of Mines must furnish a prescribed certificate to the Medical inspector and to each inspector.

- (3) Despite the provisions of the Minerals Act, the Chief Inspector of Mines—
 - (a) has the power to monitor and control those environmental aspects at mines that affect, or may affect, the health or safety of employees or other persons; and
 - (b) must consult with the officer appointed in terms of section 4 of the Minerals Act concerning the exercise of those powers.
- (4) To further the objectives of this Act the Chief Inspector of Mines may—
 - (a) enter into agreements with other persons; and
 - (b) authorise a competent independent person to perform any or all the functions of an inspector.
- (5) The Chief Inspector of Mines must furnish a prescribed certificate to each person authorised under subsection (4)(b).

50. Inspectors' powers

- (1) An inspector may for the purposes of monitoring or enforcing compliance with this Act—
 - (a) enter any mine at any time without warrant or notice;
 - (b) enter any other place after obtaining the necessary warrant in terms of subsection (7); and
 - (c) bring into and use at any mine, or at any place referred to in paragraph (b), vehicles, equipment and material as necessary to perform any function in terms of this Act.
- (2) While the inspector is at any mine or place referred to in subsection (1), the inspector may, for the purposes of monitoring or enforcing compliance with this Act—
 - (a) question any person on any matter to which this Act relates;
 - (b) require any person who has control over, or custody of, any document, including but not limited to, a plan, book or record to produce that document to the inspector immediately or at any other time and place that the inspector requires;
 - (c) require from any person referred to in paragraph (b) an explanation of any entry or non-entry in any document over which that person has custody or control;
 - (d) examine any document produced in terms of paragraph (b), and make a copy of it or take an extract from it;
 - (e) inspect—
 - (i) any article, substance or machinery;
 - (ii) any work performed; or
 - (iii) any condition;
 - (f) inspect arrangements made by the employer for medical surveillance of employees;
 - (g) seize any document, article, substance or machinery or any part or sample of it; and
 - (h) perform any other prescribed function.
- (3) An inspector may instruct any employer, employee or any other person who performs an activity regulated by this Act or any former employer or employee or person who formerly performed an activity regulated by this Act, to appear before the inspector to be questioned on any matter to which this Act relates.
- (4) Before an inspector may seize any document under subsection (2)(g), the employer of the mine may copy it.

- (5) An inspector may remove any article, substance or machinery or any part or sample of it from any mine or place referred to in subsection (1) for examination or analysis.
- (6) When an inspector seizes or removes any item under this section, the inspector must issue a receipt for that item to the employer of the mine or place involved.
- (7) A magistrate may issue a warrant contemplated in subsection (1)(b) only on written application by an inspector setting out under oath or affirmation the need to enter a place other than a mine to monitor or enforce compliance with this Act.
- (8) For the purpose of this section, "mine" does not include any home, or residential quarters, situated at the mine.

51. Inspector may be accompanied

When performing any function under this Act, an inspector may be accompanied by an interpreter or any other person reasonably required to assist the inspector.

52. Duty to assist inspector and answer questions

- (1) When an inspector enters any mine or place referred to in section 50 (1), the employer and each employee performing any work there must provide any facility that the inspector reasonably requires.
- (2) Persons questioned by an inspector under section 50\(2\)\(a\) or (c) or (3) must answer each question to the best of their ability, but no person is required to answer any question if the answer may be self-incriminating.

53. Duty to produce documents required by inspector

Any person who holds or should hold a permit, licence, permission, certificate, authorisation or any other document issued in accordance with this Act or the Minerals Act, must produce it at the request of the Chief Inspector of Mines or any inspector.

54. Inspector's power to deal with dangerous conditions

- (1) If an inspector has reason to believe that any occurrence, practice or condition at a mine endangers or may endanger the health or safety of any person at the mine, the inspector may give any instruction necessary to protect the health or safety of persons at the mine, including but not limited to an instruction that—
 - (a) operations at the mine or a part of the mine be halted;
 - (b) the performance of any act or practice at the mine or a part of the mine be suspended or halted, and may place conditions on the performance of that act or practice;
 - (c) the employer must take the steps set out in the instruction, within the specified period, to rectify the occurrence, practice or condition; or
 - (d) all affected persons, other than those who are required to assist in taking steps referred to in paragraph (c), be moved to safety.

subsection (1) amended by section 23 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) An instruction under subsection (1) must be given to the employer or a person designated by the employer or, in their absence, the most senior employee available at the mine to whom the instruction can be issued.
- (3) An inspector may issue an instruction under subsection (1) either orally or in writing. If it is issued orally, the inspector must confirm it in writing and give it to the person concerned at the earliest opportunity.

- (4) If an instruction issued under subsection (1) is not issued to the employer, the inspector must give a copy of the instruction to the employer at the earliest opportunity.
- (5) Any instruction issued under subsection (1)(a) must either be confirmed, varied or set aside by the Chief Inspector of Mines as soon as practicable
- (6) Any instruction issued under subsection (1)(a) is effective from the time fixed by the inspector and remains in force until set aside by the Chief Inspector of Mines or until the inspector's instructions have been complied with.
- (7) Before giving any instruction under subsection (1)(a) the inspector must allow the employer or the employer's representative and the representatives of employees a reasonable opportunity to make representations.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), the representatives of the employees are—
 - (a) representatives designated in accordance with a collective agreement concluded in terms of section 26;
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply, full-time health and safety representatives responsible for the mine or part of the mine which will be affected by the instruction;
 - (c) if paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply, the health and safety representatives responsible for the working places which will be affected by the instruction; or
 - (d) if paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) do not apply, the employees who will be affected by the instruction or an employee or employees nominated or elected by them.
- (9) If an inspector has reason to believe that the delay caused by allowing representations could endanger the health or safety of any person, the inspector is not required to allow representations before issuing an instruction under subsection (1)(a).
- (10) Before giving any instruction under subsection (1)(b) to (d), the inspector must allow such opportunity to make representations as may be prescribed.

55. Inspectors' power to order compliance

- (1) If an inspector has reason to believe that an employer has failed to comply with any provision of this Act, the inspector may instruct that employer in writing to take any steps that the inspector—
 - (a) considers necessary to comply with the provision; and
 - (b) specifies in the instruction.

subsection (1) amended by section 24 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) When issuing an instruction under subsection (1), an inspector must specify the period within which the specified steps must be taken. A period specified in an instruction may be extended by an inspector at any time by giving notice in writing to the person concerned.

55A. Inspector's powers to recommend fine

- (1) An inspector who has reason to believe that an employer has contravened or failed to comply with any provision contemplated in section 91\(1B\), may make a recommendation in writing to the Principal Inspector of Mines that a fine be imposed on the employer.

- (2) An inspector who does not make a recommendation in circumstances contemplated in subsection (1), must record in writing the reasons for not making a recommendation and submit them to the Principal Inspector of Mines, if—
- (a) the contravention or failure—
 - (i) poses or posed a high risk of harm to employees or to persons who are not employees, but who may be directly affected by the activities at the mine; or
 - (ii) concerns a category of non-compliance contemplated in the guidelines issued in terms of section 55G; or
 - (b) the employer has—
 - (i) knowingly exposed employees, or persons who are not employees but who may be directly affected by activities at the mine, to a serious hazard that has arisen; or
 - (ii) previously failed to comply with any provision of this Act.
- (3) The inspector concerned must provide a copy of the recommendation or record contemplated in subsection (1) or (2) to—
- (a) the employer;
 - (b) the health and safety committee, or if there is no health and safety committee, to any health and safety representative responsible for the working place in question; and
 - (c) the representative trade union, or if there is no representative trade union, to every registered trade union with members at the mine.

section 55A inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55B. Principal Inspector of Mines may give further instructions

The Principal Inspector of Mines may, after considering a record contemplated in section 55A\(2\), return the matter to the inspector concerned together with instructions that the inspector must recommend a fine as contemplated in section 55A\(1\), in which case section 55A\(3\), read with the changes required by the context applies.

section 55B inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55C. Principal Inspector of Mines may refer matter to attorney-general

- (1) The Principal Inspector of Mines may, after consultation with an attorney-general who has jurisdiction, refer a matter that forms the subject of a recommendation contemplated in section 55A and all other relevant information to the attorney-general if it appears that the employer has committed an offence in terms of this Act or the common law.
- (2) The Principal Inspector of Mines must in writing inform the employer, committee or a representative and the trade union as contemplated in section 55A\(3\) of any referral under subsection (1).
- (3) An employer may not be fined in terms of section 55D if the matter that forms the subject of a recommendation has been referred to an attorney-general in terms of this section or has formed the basis of a prosecution instituted against the employer.
- (4) No prosecution concerning a matter that forms the subject of a recommendation may be instituted against an employer unless it has been referred to an attorney-general in terms of this section.
- (5) No representations made by an employer in terms of section 55D may be used in any criminal or civil proceedings against such employer.

section 55C inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55D. Principal Inspector of Mines may impose fine

- (1) If the Principal Inspector of Mines does not refer a matter that forms the subject of a recommendation to an attorney-general, the Principal Inspector of Mines must—
 - (a) disregard the recommendation; or
 - (b) invite the employer, committee or a representative and the trade union as contemplated in section 55A\(3\) and the inspector concerned to make representations within the prescribed period.
- (2) After considering the representations as contemplated in subsection \(1\)\(b\), the Principal Inspector of Mines must—
 - (a) disregard the recommendation; or
 - (b) impose a fine not exceeding R200 000.00 on an employer in accordance with the guidelines issued in terms of section 55G.
- (3) The Principal Inspector of Mines must provide a copy of any decision made in terms of subsection \(1\)\(a\) or \(2\) to the Chief Inspector of Mines of Mines and to the employer, committee or a representative and the trade union as contemplated in section 55A\(3\).

section 55D inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55E. Determination of employer's liability

- (1) In determining for the purposes of sections 55A and 55D whether or not an employer has contravened or failed to comply with any provision contemplated in section 91\(1B\), the obligations placed on the employer by—
 - (a) sections 2\(1\)\(a\) and \(b\), 5\(1\) and \(2\), 6\(1\)\(b\), 7\(1\), 10\(1\) and \(2\), 11\(3\), 21\(1\)\(a\), \(b\) and \(c\) and 21\(3\) and, \(4\) must be regarded as excluding the limitation that the employer must only comply with the obligations as far as reasonably practicable; and
 - (b) sections 2\(2\), 3\(1\)\(c\), 4\(3\)\(b\) and 6\(3\) must be regarded as excluding the limitation that the employer is only required to take reasonable steps to comply with the obligations.
- (2) Subject to subsection \(1\), a fine may only be imposed under section 55D if it is established on a balance of probabilities that the employer contravened, or failed to comply with, a provision contemplated in section 91\(1B\).
- (3) A recommendation to impose a fine under section 55A must be disregarded and a fine imposed under section 55D must be set aside, if it is established on a balance of probabilities that—
 - (a) in respect of a section referred to in, and as construed by, section \(1\)\(a\), the employer had done what was reasonably practicable to comply with the section in question;
 - (b) in respect of a section referred to in, and as construed by, section \(1\)\(b\), the employer had taken reasonable steps to comply with the section in question;
 - (c) in respect of any provision contemplated in section 91\(1B\)\(a\), except for a provision referred to in subsection \(1\)\(a\) or \(b\) of this section, the employer's failure to comply with the provision was not due to negligence on the part of the employer; or
 - (d) in respect of any provision contemplated in section 91\(1B\)\(b\), unless the provision provides otherwise, the employer's failure to comply with the provision was not due to negligence on the part of the employer.

section 55E inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55F. Employer must pay fine

- (1) An employer must pay any fine imposed in terms of section 55D to the Principal Inspector of Mines within the prescribed period.
- (2) If the employer fails to pay the fine within the prescribed period, the Principal Inspector of Mines may apply to the Labour Court for the fine to be made an order of that Court.

section 55F inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55G. Chief Inspector of Mines must issue guidelines

- (1) The Chief Inspector of Mines must, after consulting the Council, issue guidelines regarding—
 - (a) the referral for criminal prosecution of any offence in terms of this Act or the common law;
 - (b) the recommendation of fines by an inspector in terms of section 55A; and
 - (c) the imposition of fines and the appropriate levels of fines to be imposed in terms of section 55D.
- (2) The guidelines contemplated in subsection (1)(b) and (c) must—
 - (a) provide that the effect of the employer's conduct in respect of health and safety matters on the amount of a fine imposed in terms of section 55D, must be indicated, including the extent to which—
 - (i) the employer's compliance record, health and safety record or inadequate or no steps taken to rectify the problem has resulted in an increase of the fine; and
 - (ii) the implementation of a health and safety policy by the employer, the employer's compliance record, health and safety record or adequate steps taken to rectify the problem has resulted in a decrease of the fine; and
 - (b) determine categories of non-compliance by employers for the purposes of section 55A\(2\).
- (3) In determining the categories contemplated in subsection (2)(b), the Chief Inspector of Mines of Mines may differentiate between mines, types of mines, parts of a mine, occupations and types of work.

section 55G inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

55H. Use of fines

- (1) Money received by the Principal Inspector of Mines in payment of fines imposed in terms of section 55D must be paid to a fund established and controlled by the Council
- (2) The Council must, with the agreement of the Minister, use the money in the fund for the promotion of health and safety in the mining industry.
- (3) The report of the Chief Inspector of Mines of Mines referred to in section 49\(1\)\(j\) must reflect the financial affairs of the fund.

section 55H inserted by section 25 of [Act 72 of 1997]

56. Instructions to be posted at mine

The employer of a mine must—

- (a) promptly supply a copy of any instruction of an inspector to—
 - (i) the health and safety representative representing the employees affected by the instruction; and

- (ii) the health and safety committee responsible for those employees; and
- (b) promptly publicise the instruction by—
 - (i) prominently and conspicuously displaying copies of the instruction to the employees whose interests may be affected; and
 - (ii) causing its contents to be communicated orally to those employees.

57. Right to appeal inspectors' decisions

- (1) Any person who is the subject of a decision of an inspector, or at whose instance a decision of an inspector was taken, except a decision contemplated in section 55A, may appeal against that decision to the Chief Inspector of Mines.

subsection (1) substituted by section 27(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) An appeal under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) be lodged with the Chief Inspector of Mines within 30 days of the decision, or such further period as may be prescribed; and

paragraph (a) substituted by section 27(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

 - (b) set out the grounds of appeal.
- (3) After considering the grounds of the appeal and the inspector's reasons for the decision, the Chief Inspector of Mines must as soon as practicable—
 - (a) confirm, set aside or vary the decision; or
 - (b) substitute any other decision for the decision of the inspector.

57A. Right to appeal against Principal Inspector of Mines' decision

- (1) Any person adversely affected by a decision of the Principal Inspector of Mines in terms of section 55D\(1\)\(a\) or (2) may appeal against that decision to the Chief Inspector of Mines, and section 57\(2\) and (3), read with the changes required by the context, applies to the appeal.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a person contemplated in subsection (1) includes—
 - (a) the employer;
 - (b) the health and safety committee;
 - (c) any health and safety representative responsible for the working place in question; and
 - (d) any registered trade union with members at the mine.

section 57A inserted by section 28 of [Act 72 of 1997]

58. Right to appeal Chief Inspector of Mines's decision

- (1) Any person adversely affected by a decision of the Chief Inspector of Mines, either in terms of section 57\(3\) or in the exercise of any power under this Act, may appeal against the decision to the Labour Court.
- (2) An appeal under subsection (1), must be lodged with the registrar of the Labour Court in accordance with the rules of the Labour Court, within 60 days of the date that the Chief Inspector of Mines's decision was given.
- (3) The Labour Court must consider the appeal and confirm, set aside or vary the decision.

59. Appeal does not suspend decision

- (1) An appeal against a decision under either section 57, 57A or 58 does not suspend the decision.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)—
 - (a) an appeal in terms of section 57A or 58 against a decision to impose a fine suspends the obligation to pay the fine, pending the outcome of the appeal; and
 - (b) the Labour Court may suspend the operation of the decision, pending the determination of the matter, if there are reasonable grounds for doing so.

[section 59 substituted by section 29 of Act 72 of 1997]

60. Initiating investigations

- (1) The Chief Inspector of Mines must instruct an inspector to investigate any accident or occurrence at a mine that results in the death of any person.

[subsection (1) substituted by section 30 of Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) At any time an inspector may investigate—
 - (a) any accident or occurrence at a mine that results in the serious injury or serious illness of any person;
 - (b) any occurrence, practice or condition concerning health or safety of persons at one or more mines; or
 - (c) any actual or suspected contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision of this Act.

[subsection (2) substituted by section 30 of Act 72 of 1997]

- (3) If there is cause for concern on health or safety grounds, an inspector must investigate any matter referred to in subsection (2), if—
 - (a) instructed to do so by the Chief Inspector of Mines; or
 - (b) requested to do so by—
 - (i) a registered trade union with members at the mine or mines;
 - (ii) a health and safety representative or health and safety committee at the mine; or
 - (iii) if there is no health and safety representative, an employee at the mine.

61. Chief Inspector of Mines may designate assistant in investigation

At any time before or during an investigation, the Chief Inspector of Mines may designate one or more persons to assist the inspector holding the investigation.

62. Duty to answer questions during investigation

Persons questioned during an investigation must answer every question to the best of their ability, but no person is required to answer any question if the answer may be self-incriminating.

63. Enhancing effectiveness of investigation

- (1) For the purposes of enhancing the effectiveness of an investigation in terms of section 60 the Chief Inspector of Mines, in consultation with the appropriate Attorney-General, may issue a certificate that no prosecution may be instituted in respect of any contravention of, or failure to comply with, a provision of this Act related to the event being investigated. If a certificate is issued, no fine in terms of section 55D or disciplinary action related to the event investigated may thereafter be imposed on or taken against any person.

subsection (1) substituted by section 31 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) The Chief Inspector of Mines must communicate in writing the protection afforded under subsection (1) to all persons questioned during the investigation.
- (3) Persons questioned during the investigation who are afforded protection under this section must answer every question to the best of their ability and may not refuse to answer any question on the grounds that the answer may be self-incriminating.

64. Reports on investigations

- (1) After completing an investigation, an inspector must prepare a written report of the findings, recommendations and any remedial steps.
- (2) The inspector—
 - (a) must submit a copy of the report referred to in subsection (1) to the Chief Inspector of Mines;
 - (b) must supply a copy of the report to the employer and to the health and safety representative, health and safety committee, registered trade union or employee that requested the investigation; and
 - (c) may instruct the employer of the mine concerned to prominently and conspicuously display a copy of the report or portion of it for employees to read.

65. Initiating inquiries

- (1) Unless the provisions of section 63 have been invoked, the Chief Inspector of Mines must direct an Inspector to conduct an inquiry into any accident or occurrence at a mine that results in the death of any person.
- (2) Unless the provisions of section 63 have been invoked, the Chief Inspector of Mines may direct an inspector to conduct an inquiry into—
 - (a) any accident or occurrence at a mine that results in the serious injury or serious illness of any person;
 - (b) any occurrence, practice or condition concerning health or safety of persons at one or more mines; or
 - (c) any actual or suspected contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision of this Act.
- (3) If there is cause for concern on health or safety grounds and if the provisions of section 63 have not been invoked, the Chief Inspector of Mines may direct an inspector to conduct an inquiry into any matter referred to in subsection (2) if requested in writing to do so by—
 - (a) a registered trade union with members at the mine or mines;
 - (b) a health and safety representative or health and safety committee at the mine; or
 - (c) if there is no health and safety representative at the mine, an employee.
- (4) This section does not limit any other law regulating the holding of an inquest or other inquiry into the death of a person.

66. Investigation may be converted into inquiry

- (1) At any time during an investigation, the Chief Inspector of Mines may convert it into an inquiry.

- (2) The provisions of sections 68 to 71 relating to attendance and examination of witnesses at inquiries apply equally to a converted investigation.
- (3) Any person instructed or summoned to give evidence at an inquiry that was converted from an investigation is not entitled to refuse to give evidence only on the grounds that a statement had previously been given, or documents previously been adduced, during the investigation.
- (4) This section does not preclude or limit holding an inquiry after an investigation has been completed.

67. Chief Inspector of Mines may designate assistant in inquiry

At any time before or during an inquiry the Chief Inspector of Mines may designate one or more persons to assist in the inquiry or to preside at the inquiry.

68. Inquiry to be public

- (1) An inquiry must be held in public.
- (2) Despite subsection \(1\) the person presiding at an inquiry may of that person's own accord or at the request of a witness exclude members of the public or specific persons or categories of persons from attending the proceedings or part of the proceedings when the proper conduct of the inquiry requires.
- (3) The person presiding at an inquiry may make any order necessary to ensure that employees at the mine and members of the public have access to the premises in which the inquiry is held.

69. Right to participate in inquiry

The persons listed in this section may participate in an inquiry and, either personally or through a representative, may put questions to witnesses and inspect any book, plan, record or other document or item presented at the inquiry. The persons entitled to participate are—

- (a) any person who has a material interest in the inquiry;
- (b) any representative of any registered trade union with members at the mine in respect of which the inquiry is being held; and
- (c) any health and safety representative responsible for the working place in respect of which the inquiry is being held.

paragraph (c) substituted by section 32 of [Act 72 of 1997]

70. Powers of person presiding at inquiry

The person presiding at an inquiry may—

- (a) instruct or summon any person to appear at any specified time and place;
- (b) question any person under oath or affirmation;
- (c) instruct any person—
 - (i) to produce any book, plan, record or other document or item necessary for the purposes of the inquiry; or
 - (ii) to perform any other act in relation to this Act necessary for the purpose of the inquiry.

71. Duty of persons summoned or instructed

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), every person giving evidence at an inquiry must answer any relevant question.
- (2) The law regarding a witness's privilege in a court of Law applies equally to any person being questioned at an inquiry.
- (3) The person presiding at an inquiry may direct that any evidence given by a person during an inquiry may not be used for the purposes of sections 55A to 55D, or any appeal relating to those sections, or in any criminal or disciplinary proceedings against that person except in criminal proceedings on a charge of perjury against that person.

subsection (3) substituted by section 33 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (4) When a directive has been issued under subsection (3), the person involved is not entitled to refuse to answer any relevant question only on the grounds that the answer could expose that person to a criminal charge, disciplinary proceedings or a recommendation under section 55A.

subsection (4) substituted by section 33 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (5) A person instructed in terms of section 70\(c\) must comply with that instruction unless the person has sufficient cause for not doing so.

72. Inquiry records and reports

- (1) A person presiding at an inquiry must—
 - (a) record the evidence given at the inquiry, including any evidence given with the assistance of an interpreter;
 - (b) at the conclusion of the inquiry, prepare a written report of the findings, recommendations and any remedial steps;
 - (c) submit a copy of the report and the record of the inquiry to the Chief Inspector of Mines;
 - (d) supply a copy of the report and the record of the inquiry to the employer and to any health and safety representative, health and safety committee or registered trade union that requested the inquiry; and
 - (e) on request, supply a copy of the report and the record of the inquiry to any person who has a material interest in the inquiry.
- (2) An inspector may instruct the employer of the mine concerned to prominently and conspicuously display a copy of the report or any portion of it for employees to read.
- (3) The Chief Inspector of Mines may submit a copy of the report to the appropriate Attorney-General.

73. Chief Inspector of Mines may order further inquiry

Upon considering the evidence and the report referred to in section 72, the Chief Inspector of Mines may require that the matter be inquired into further.

74. Inquiry and inquest may be conducted jointly

- (1) An inquiry in terms of this Act into the death of a person may be held jointly with an inquest in terms of the Inquests Act, 1959 (Act No. 58 of 1959).
- (2) The judicial officer contemplated in the Inquests Act, 1959 (Act No. 58 of 1959), must preside at a joint inquiry referred to in subsection (1) and the person instructed to hold the inquiry in terms of this Act must be deemed to be an assessor appointed in terms of the Inquests Act, 1959.

- (3) The provisions of the Inquests Act, 1959 (Act No. 58 of 1959), apply to a joint inquiry.
- (4) The assessor referred to in subsection (2) must—
 - (a) prepare a report contemplated in section 72\(1\)\(b\); and
 - (b) submit the report and the record of the joint inquiry to the Chief Inspector of Mines.

Chapter 6 Minister's powers

75. Minister may prohibit or restrict work

- (1) For any reason relating to health or safety, the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, may prohibit or restrict any work or any exposure of a person to a substance or an environmental condition, if—
 - (a) the Minister has consulted the Council on the prohibition or restriction; and
 - (b) unless the Minister believes that the public interest requires the notice to be published immediately, the Minister has—
 - (i) published a draft of the proposed notice at least three months previously; and
 - (ii) at that time invited interested persons to submit comments and representations concerning the proposed notice within a specified period.
- (2) The Minister may attach any conditions to a prohibition or restriction by specifying them in the published notice.
- (3) The Minister, after consulting the Council, may amend or withdraw a notice under subsection (1) at any time.

76. Minister may declare health hazards

- (1) The Minister, by notice in the Gazette, may declare that an environmental condition or a substance present at a mine is a health hazard to employees who are or may be exposed to that condition or substance, if—
 - (a) the Minister has consulted the Council on the issuing of the declaration; and
 - (b) unless the Minister believes that the public interest requires the notice to be published immediately, the Minister has—
 - (i) published a draft of the proposed notice at least three months previously; and
 - (ii) at that time invited interested persons to submit comments and representations concerning the proposed notice within a specified period.
- (2) In connection with any health hazard, the Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette, may—
 - (a) impose conditions on the performance of work by employees exposed to the health hazard;
 - (b) stipulate the standards of fitness for an employee to perform work involving exposure to the health hazard;
 - (c) require employers to take measures to eliminate, control and minimise health risks associated with the health hazard;
 - (d) require employers to conduct specified occupational hygiene measurements;
 - (e) require employers to conduct specified medical surveillance in respect of employees exposed to the health hazard; and

- (f) provide for any other matter that the Minister considers necessary to protect employees exposed to the health hazard.

77. Application of Minister's notice

A notice under either section 75 or 76 may differentiate between mines, types of mines, parts of a mine, occupations and types of work.

78. Exemption from Minister's notice

- (1) A notice under either section 75 or 76 may exempt a particular person or group of persons from compliance with that notice if the Minister is satisfied that any of the following conditions exists—
 - (a) in the circumstances the exemption is desirable;
 - (b) the performance of the work by that person or group of persons is temporary; or
 - (c) the risk to which that person or group of persons is exposed is negligible.
- (2) The Minister, after consulting the Council, may cancel an exemption granted under subsection \(1\) at any time.

79. Exemption from all or part of this Act

- (1) The employer of a mine may request an exemption from the Minister, and if satisfied that the employer has consulted appropriately with the affected employees or their representatives, the Minister may exempt the employer from any or all the provisions of this Act or from a notice or instruction issued under this Act. An exemption may be—
 - (a) general or particular;
 - (b) for any period; and
 - (c) on any conditions that provide the same overall protection which would result from the full application of this Act.
- (2) When an exemption is granted under subsection \(1\), the Minister must issue a certificate of exemption to the employer, specifying the scope, period and conditions of the exemption.
- (3) The Minister may amend or withdraw a certificate of exemption at any time.
- (4) The employer must prominently and conspicuously display any exemption granted, or deemed to have been granted, under this section to the employees to read.

80. Minister may apply other laws to mine

- (1) After consulting the Council, the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, may declare that any provision of the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 (Act No. 181 of 1993), or any regulation made under that Act, or the provisions of any other Act or regulations, must apply to a mine.
- (2) A declaration in terms of subsection \(1\) may differentiate between mines, types of mines, parts of a mine, occupations and types of work.

81. Minister to table annual report

- (1) Within 30 days of receiving the annual report of the Chief Inspector of Mines, the Minister must table it in Parliament.
- (2) If Parliament is not in session at the end of the period referred to in subsection \(1\), the Minister must table the report within 14 days of the beginning of the next session of Parliament.

Chapter 7

Legal proceedings and offences

82. Jurisdiction of Labour Court

- (1) The Labour Court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine any dispute about the interpretation or application of any provision of this Act except where this Act provides otherwise.
- (2) The Labour Court has no jurisdiction in respect of offences in terms of this Act.

83. No discrimination against employees who exercise rights

- (1) No person may discriminate against any employee for—
 - (a) exercising a right in terms of this Act or in terms of a collective agreement contemplated in this Act;
 - (b) doing anything that the employee is entitled to do in terms of this Act or in terms of a collective agreement contemplated in this Act;
 - (c) refusing to do anything that the employee is entitled to refuse to do in terms of this Act or in terms of a collective agreement contemplated in this Act;
 - (d) refusing to do anything that the employee is prohibited from doing in terms of this Act or in terms of a collective agreement contemplated in this Act; and
 - (e) standing for election, or performing any function, as a health and safety representative or a member of a health and safety committee.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) "discriminate" means to dismiss an employee or to engage in any other conduct which has the effect of prejudicing or disadvantaging the employee, or which prejudices or disadvantages the employee relative to other employees; and
 - (b) "employee" includes any applicant for employment who has previously been employed at a mine.

84. Safety equipment not to be interfered with

Unless specifically authorised by the employer, no person—

- (a) other than an inspector acting in terms of section 50, may remove personal protective equipment from a mine, or cause that equipment to be removed;
- (b) other than an inspector acting in terms of section 50, may remove anything that is provided in the interest of health or safety, or cause that equipment to be removed; or
- (c) may alter, damage, misuse, render ineffective or interfere with anything that is provided in the interest of health or safety, or cause that equipment to be altered, damaged, misused, rendered ineffective or interfered with.

85. Juvenile employment underground prohibited

- (1) No person may cause or permit an employee under the age of 18 years to work underground at a mine.
- (2) No employee under the age of 18 years may work underground at a mine.

- (3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an employee under the age of 18 years but over the age of 16 years may work underground as part of vocational education or training.

86. Negligent act or omission

- (1) Any person who by a negligent act or by a negligent omission, causes serious injury or serious illness to a person at a mine, commits an offence.

subsection (1) substituted by section 35(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) Any person, other than an employer or employee, who, by a negligent act or by a negligent omission, endangers the health or safety of a person at a mine, commits an offence.

subsection (2) substituted by section 35(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (3) subsection (3) deleted by section 35(c) of [Act 72 of 1997]

87. Breach of confidence

- (1) Any person who discloses any information that they acquired in the performance of a function in terms of this Act and that relates to the financial and business affairs of an employer or any other person who employs employees, commits an offence.

subsection (1) substituted by section 36 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the information—

- (a) was disclosed to enable a person to perform a function in terms of this Act;
- (b) must be disclosed in terms of this Act, any other law or an order of court; or
- (c) was disclosed to a health and safety representative or health and safety committee in terms of Chapter 3.

88. Hindering administration of this Act

Any person who hinders, opposes, obstructs or unduly influences any person who is performing a function in terms of this Act commits an offence.

89. Falsifying documents

Any person who obtains or attempts to obtain a prescribed certificate of competency by means of fraud, dishonesty, false pretences or the presentation or submission of a false or forged document commits an offence.

90. Failure to attend when summoned

A person commits an offence who, having been instructed or summoned to attend an inquiry—

- (a) without sufficient cause fails—
 - (i) to appear at the time and place specified; or
 - (ii) to remain in attendance until excused by the person presiding at the inquiry;
- (b) attends as required, but without sufficient cause—
 - (i) fails to comply with an instruction in terms of section 70\(c\)\(i\); or
 - (ii) refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation; or

- (c) attends as required and having been sworn or having made an affirmation—
 - (i) without sufficient cause fails to answer any question fully and to the best of that person's ability; or
 - (ii) gives evidence, knowing or believing it to be false.

91. Failure to comply with this Act

- (1) Any person, other than an employer, commits an offence who contravenes, or fails to comply with, any—
 - (a) provision of this Act;
 - (b) regulation; or
 - (c) condition, suspension, notice, order, instruction, prohibition, authorisation, permission, consent, exemption, certificate or document determined, given, issued, promulgated or granted by or under this Act by the Minister, Chief Inspector of Mines, inspector, any person authorised under section 49\(4\) or any person to whom any power has been delegated or the performance of any duty has been assigned under section 96.

subsection (1) substituted by section 37(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (1A) Any employer who contravenes, or fails to comply with, section 62, 63\(3\), 71, 85, 86, 88, 89 or 90 commits an offence.

subsection (1A) inserted by section 37(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (1B) Any employer is liable to a fine in terms of section 55D if the employer contravenes, or fails to comply with, any—
 - (a) provision of this Act, other than a provision referred to in subsection (1A), or any provision of Chapter 3 or section 83;
 - (b) regulation; or
 - (c) condition, suspension, notice, order, instruction, prohibition, authorisation, permission, consent, exemption, certificate or document determined, given, issued, promulgated or granted by or under this Act by the Minister, Chief Inspector of Mines, inspector, any person authorised under section 49\(4\) or any person to whom any power has been delegated or the performance of any duty has been assigned under section 96.

subsection (1B) inserted by section 37(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (1C) Despite subsection (1B), any employer who contravenes or fails to comply with any standard in a code of practice prepared in terms of section 9\(2\) is not liable to a fine in terms of section 55D if—
 - (a) the standard exceeds any compulsory standard in any relevant guideline issued by the Chief Inspector of Mines; and
 - (b) the conduct constituting the contravention or failure complies with the compulsory standard in any relevant guideline issued by the Chief Inspector of Mines.

subsection (1C) inserted by section 37(b) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a), a contravention of the provisions of Chapter 3 or section 83 does not constitute an offence.
- (3) A person appointed under section 4\(1\) to perform any function entrusted to an employer by this Act commits an offence if that person fails to exercise reasonable care in performing that Function.

- (4) Any chief executive officer or member of the board contemplated in section 2A who performs a function in terms of section 2A\(1\) or (3) commits an offence if that person fails to take reasonable steps in performing that function.

subsection (4) added by section 37(c) of [Act 72 of 1997]

92. Penalties

- (1) Any person convicted of an offence in terms of section 87, may be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment to be determined by the court.
- (2) Any person convicted of an offence in terms of section 90\(a\) or (b)(i), may be sentenced to the penalty applicable to a similar offence in a magistrate's court.
- (3) Any person convicted of an offence in terms of section 90\(c\)\(ii\), may be sentenced to any penalty that may be imposed in law for perjury.
- (4) Any person convicted of an offence in terms of this Act for which no penalty is otherwise expressly determined, may be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

- (5) Any person convicted of an offence in terms of any section mentioned in Column 1 of the Table below, may be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding the period mentioned in Column 2 of that Table opposite the number of that section.

subsection (5) amended by section 38 of [Act 72 of 1997]

93. Magistrate's court has jurisdiction to impose penalties

Despite anything to the contrary contained in any other law, a magistrate's court has jurisdiction to impose any penalty provided for in this Act.

94. Serving of documents

Unless otherwise provided in this Act, a notice, order or other document which, in terms of this Act, must be served on or delivered to a person, will have been properly served or delivered if it has been either—

- (a) served on or delivered to that person; or
- (b) sent by registered post to that person's last known address; or
- (c) published in the Gazette.

95. Proof of facts

In any legal proceedings in terms of this Act—

- (a) if it is alleged that a person at a mine is or was an employee, that person is presumed to be an employee at that mine, unless the contrary is proved;
- (b) if it is proved that a false statement, entry or information appears in or on a book, plan, record or other document, the person who kept that document is presumed to have made, entered, recorded or stored that statement, entry, record or information, unless the contrary is proved; and
- (c) subject to the provisions of sections 63(1), 63(3) and 71(2), any statement, entry or information in or on any book, plan, record or other document is admissible in evidence as an admission of the facts in or on it by the person who made, entered, recorded or stored it unless it is proved that that person did not make, enter, record or store it within the scope of their functions.

Chapter 8 General provisions

96. Delegation and exercise of power

- (1) The Minister may delegate any power conferred upon the Minister by or under this Act, except the power to make regulations, to the Chief Inspector of Mines.
- (2) The Chief Inspector of Mines may delegate any power or assign the performance of any duty conferred or imposed upon the Chief Inspector of Mines by or under this Act, or any other law, to—
 - (a) any inspector;
 - (b) any other person with appropriate knowledge and experience who is under the control of the Chief Inspector of Mines; or
 - (c) any other person, after consulting the Council.

subsection (2) substituted by section 39 of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (3) A delegation or assignment under subsection (1) or (2) must be in writing, and may be subject to any conditions or restrictions determined by the Minister or Chief Inspector of Mines, as the case may be.
- (4) A delegation under subsection (1) or (2) does not prevent the exercise of that power by the Minister or Chief Inspector of Mines, as the case may be.

97. Minister's power to add and change Schedules

- (1) The Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette may add to, change or replace any Schedule to this Act other than Schedules 2, 3 and, subject to subsection (5) Schedule 4.
- (2) The Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette may add to this Act a further Schedule containing matters in respect of which health and safety committees may consult.
- (3) The Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette may add to this Act a further Schedule containing the constitution of the Council and its committees.

subsection (3) substituted by section 40(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (4) The Minister, after consulting the Council and the Mining Qualifications Authority, by notice in the Gazette may add to this Act a further Schedule containing the constitution of the Mining Qualifications Authority and its committees.

subsection (4) substituted by section 40(a) of [Act 72 of 1997]

- (5) The Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette may add to Schedule 4 further items containing transitional provisions necessary for the implementation of this Act.
- (6) The Minister, after consulting the Council and in consultation with the Minister of Health, by notice in the Gazette may add to this Act a further Schedule to suspend or vary the application of the Occupational Diseases in Mines and Works Act, 1973 (Act No. 78 of 1973), except in relation to the determination or payment of compensation.
- (7) The Minister may add to, change or replace any page header or sidenote by notice in the Gazette.

98. Regulations

- (1) The Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette may make regulations regarding —
 - (a) health and safety of persons at mines;
 - (b) health and safety standards, codes of practice and the provision of protective clothing, equipment and facilities in connection with health and safety at mines;
 - (c) the performance of work by employees exposed to a health hazard and the measures to eliminate, control and minimise health risks;
 - (d) health and safety employer systems at mines;
 - (e) orderly operations at mines;
 - (f) the powers, duties, functions and responsibilities of employees at mines and of the employers, employers and employers;
 - (g) the issuing of permits for the use of machinery, equipment and material at mines and the accreditation of persons to test machinery, equipment and material for these purposes;
 - (h) the conditions under which machinery, equipment or material may be erected or used at mines;
 - (i) the elimination, control and minimisation of health and safety hazards;

- (j) requirements for the safe use, handling, processing, storage, transport and disposal of hazardous substances used in the mining process and waste produced at the mine;
- (k) the transport, handling, storage and use of explosives and the mixing of substances to make explosives at a mine;
- (l) the protection of equipment, structures, water sources and the surface of land;
- (m) the conditions in which equipment, structures, water sources or the surface of land may be used, and the prohibition on, or restriction of, the erection of equipment and structures and the use of water sources or the surface of land in the vicinity of the working places at a mine;
- (n) the making safe of undermined ground and of dangerous excavations, tailings, waste dumps, ash dumps and structures of whatever nature made in the course of prospecting or mining operations or which are connected with those operations;
- (o) the monitoring and control as contemplated in section 49(3)(a) of those environmental aspects at mines which affect, or may affect, the health and safety of employees or other persons;
- (p) standards of housing and nutrition of employees who are accommodated at the mine;
- (q) initial standards of fitness to perform work involving exposure to a health hazard, standards of fitness to continue performing such work and the conditions under which employees may be withdrawn either temporarily or permanently from such work;
- (r) standards of occupational hygiene measurement techniques, the frequency and manner in which measurements must be made, the manner of record keeping and reporting of occupational hygiene measurements made at mines;
- (s) standards of medical tests or biological monitoring used in medical surveillance, the persons who may carry out those tests and that monitoring, the interpretation of results of medical surveillance, the frequency for carrying out periodic medical surveillance, the keeping of records of medical surveillance and the reporting of confidential extracts from records of medical surveillance;
- (t) the manner of reporting prescribed accidents and health matters at mines, the keeping of records and statistics in relation to accidents and health matters and the provision of emergency medical treatment after an accident or in connection with a health matter;

 - (n) the registering of qualifications; and
 - (o) any other matter, the regulation of which may be necessary or desirable in order to promote the activities of the Mining Qualifications Authority.
- (4) Regulations made in terms of subsection (3) must be in accordance with the National Qualifications Framework approved in terms of the South African Qualifications Authority Act, 1995 (Act No. 58 of 1995).
- (5) The Minister may incorporate all or part of any health and safety standard, without restating the text of it, in a regulation by referring to the number, title and year of issue of that health and safety standard or, to any other particulars by which that health and safety standard is sufficiently identified.
- (6) The Minister must consult the Council before incorporating a health and safety standard in a regulation.

- (7) The Minister, after consulting the Council, by notice in the Gazette may make regulations imposing any function of an employer on any person, other than the employer, who employs employees.
- [subsection (7) substituted by section 41(d) of Act 72 of 1997]*
- (8) For the purposes of this Act, any health and safety standard referred to in subsection (5) incorporated in a regulation is deemed to be a regulation, in so far as it is not repugnant to any regulation made under subsection (1).
- (9) Whenever a health and safety standard which has been incorporated in a regulation is subsequently amended or substituted by the competent authority, the regulation referred to in subsection (5) incorporating that health and safety standard is deemed to refer to that health and safety standard as so amended or substituted, unless a contrary intention is stated in the notice.
- (10) The Chief Inspector of Mines must keep a register of particulars of—
- every amendment or substitution of a health and safety standard incorporated in the regulations;
 - the publication of any amendment or substitutions;
 - every publication in which a health and safety standard that has been incorporated in the regulations under subsection (5) was published; and
 - the place in the Republic where each of those standards and publications is obtainable or otherwise available for inspection.
- (11) The Chief Inspector of Mines must allow any person to inspect the register kept in terms of subsection (9) and to make an extract from it.
- (12) The provisions of section 31 of the Standards Act, 1993 (Act No. 29 of 1993), do not apply to any incorporation of a health and safety standard or to any amendment or substitution of a health and safety standard under this section.

99. Amendment of laws

Each of the laws referred to in Schedule 3 is hereby amended to the extent specified in that Schedule.

100. Transitional arrangements

- The amendment of laws referred to in Schedule 3 does not affect any transitional arrangement made in Schedule 4.
- The transitional arrangements in Schedule 4 must be read and applied as substantive provisions of this Act.

101. Interpretation

- [subsection (1) deleted by section 42 of Act 72 of 1997]*
- Subject to sections 26 and 33, no agreement may affect any—
 - provision of this Act;
 - condition, notice, order, instruction, prohibition, authorisation, permission, consent, exemption, certificate or document determined, given, issued, promulgated or granted by or under this Act by the Minister, Chief Inspector of Mines, inspector or any other person authorised under this Act; or
 - any condition contained in any exemption.

- (3) Subsection (2) applies to any agreement whether entered into before or after the commencement of this Act or before or after the issuing of the documents referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) Any notice, order or any other document issued in good faith in terms of this Act, is valid according to its terms, despite any want of form or lack of power on the part of any person to issue or authenticate it, provided the necessary power is subsequently conferred upon that person.

- (c) the making, repairing, re-opening or closing of any subterranean tunnel; or
- (d) any operations necessary or in connection with any of the operations listed in this paragraph.

103. Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993, not applicable

The Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 (Act No. 35 of 1993), is not applicable to any matter in respect of which any provision of this Act is applicable.

104. Civil liability of State

The State does not incur any civil liability only because an officer took an action or failed to take an action that the officer may take or is required to take under or in terms of this Act, and in taking or failing to take that action the officer acted without negligence and in good faith.

105. Act binds State

The provisions of this Act bind the State except in so far as any criminal liability is concerned.

106. Short title and commencement

- (1) This Act is called the Mine Health and Safety Act, 1996.
- (2) This Act comes into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

Schedule 1

Guidelines for determining the number of full-time health and safety representatives

1. Introduction

- (1) This Schedule contains guidelines for determining the number of full-time health and safety representatives.
- (2) This Act places the highest value on agreement. The parties referred to in section 26 must refer to this Schedule, using its guidelines in a manner that best suits the particular mine.
- (3) If agreement is not reached, the Commissioner appointed by the Commission must refer to this Schedule, using its guidelines in a manner that best suits the particular mine.

2. Minimum threshold

- (1) There should be a full-time health and safety representative in every mine that requires the use of a full-time health and safety representative, taking into account—
 - (a) the volume, size and physical location of the mine;
 - (b) the health and safety record of the mine;
 - (c) the number of designated working places; and
 - (d) the objects of this Act.

- (2) The guidelines as to the size of the mine that should have a full-time health and safety representative is a mine with 500 employees.
3. Number of full-time health and safety representatives
- (1) The formula for determining the number of full-time health and safety representatives should take into account—
- (a) the nature, size and physical location of the mine;
 - (b) the health and safety record of the mine;
 - (c) the number of designated working places;
 - (d) the number of health and safety representatives;
 - (e) the number of shafts and the number of employees at the shaft; and
 - (f) the objects of this Act.

Schedule 2

Nomination and appointment of members to tripartite institutions

The Minister must make the regulations referred to in sections 42\(2\) and 45\(2\) in a manner that ensures that—

- (a) members appointed to represent employees are either—
- (i) all nominated by agreement between registered trade unions representing at least 75% of employees belonging to such trade unions in the mining industry; or
 - (ii) failing agreement in terms of subparagraph (i)—
 - (aa) at least half are persons nominated by a registered trade union or unions representing the majority of employees belonging to such trade unions in the mining industry; and
 - (bb) the rest are persons nominated by registered trade unions and appointed in accordance with the significance of the trade unions concerned; and
- (b) members appointed to represent employers are either—
- (i) all nominated by agreement between employers' organisations whose members employ at least 75% of employees in the mining industry; or
 - (ii) failing agreement in terms of subparagraph (i)—
 - (aa) at least half are persons nominated by an employers' organisation or organisations whose members employ the majority of the employees in the mining industry; and item (aa) substituted by section 44 of [Act 72 of 1997]
 - (bb) the rest are persons nominated by employers' organisations and appointed in accordance with the significance of the organisations concerned.

Schedule 3

Amendment of Laws

A – Minerals Act, 1991

1. Amendment of section 1 of Act 50 of 1991, as amended by section 1 of Act 103 of 1993
 - (1) Section 1 of the Minerals Act, 1991 (in this Schedule referred to as the principal Act), is hereby amended—
 - (a) by the deletion of the definitions of "certificated", "engine", "investigating officer", "machinery", "employer", "mine safety committee", "peace officer" "regional director", "regional mining engineer", "serious bodily harm" and "works";
 - (b) by the insertion before the definition of "Department" of the following definition:

"Chief Inspector of Mines" means the Chief Inspector of Mines appointed in terms of section 48 of the Mine Health and Safety Act, 1996;"; and
 - (c) by the insertion before the definition of "elevator" of the following definition:

" 'Director: Mineral Development' means any officer appointed in terms of section 4;".
2. Amendment of section 2 of Act 50 of 1991, as substituted by section 2 of Act 103 of 1993

Section 2 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion of subsection (2).
3. Amendment of section 8 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 8 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

 - (1) No holder of any prospecting permit shall remove any mineral found by [him] the holder in or on land or in tailings in the course of prospecting operations, from such land or the land on which such tailings are situated or dispose of any such mineral, excluding samples of any such mineral removed for tests thereon or identification or analysis thereof, except with the written consent of the holder of the right to such mineral in respect of such land or tailings, and with written permission granted by the [regional director] Director: Mineral Development concerned, subject to such conditions in respect of [safety and health] optimal utilization or rehabilitation as may be [determined by him and] specified therein."
4. Amendment of section 9 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

 - (a) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:
 - (a) with the manner in which and scale on which the applicant intends to mine the mineral concerned optimally [and safely] under such mining authorization;";

- (b) by the substitution for paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:
- "(c) that such applicant has the ability and can make the necessary provision to mine such mineral optimally [and safely] and to rehabilitate such disturbances of the surface; and";
- (c) by the substitution for paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of the following paragraph:
- "(c) particulars about the manner in which and scale on which the applicant intends to mine such mineral under such mining authorization optimally [and safely] and to rehabilitate disturbances of the surface which may be caused by [his] the intended mining operations;";
- (d) by the deletion of the word "and" at the end of paragraph (d) of subsection (5) and by the substitution for paragraph (e) of that subsection of the following paragraph:
- "(e) particulars about the applicant's ability to make the necessary provision to mine such mineral optimally [and safely] and to rehabilitate such disturbances of the surface; and";
- (e) by the addition to subsection (5) of the following paragraph:
- "(f) particulars about the applicant's ability to mine in a healthy and safe manner."; and
- (f) by the addition of the following subsections:
- "(7) The Director: Mineral Development shall consult as to the issuing of a mining authorisation with the Chief Inspector of Mines, and no mining authorisation may be issued unless the Chief Inspector of Mines is satisfied that the applicant has the ability and can make the necessary provision to mine in a healthy and safe manner.
- (8) Subsection (7) shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to the issuing of a prospecting permit in terms of section 6 or a permission in terms of section 8."

5. Amendment of section 12 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 12 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsection, the existing section becoming subsection \(1\):

- "(2) Before issuing a certificate referred to in subsection (1), the Director: Mineral Development shall consult with the Chief Inspector of Mines in that regard, and no such certificate shall be issued if the Chief Inspector of Mines is of opinion that the provisions of the Mine Health and Safety Act, 1996, have not been complied with by the holder referred to in subsection (1)."

6. Substitution of section 15 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 15 of the principal Act is hereby substituted for the following section:

"15. Restriction on issuing of more than one prospecting permit or mining authorization in respect of same mineral and land

No prospecting permit or mining authorization shall be issued in respect of any mineral in respect of land or tailings, as the case may be, if a prospecting permit or mining authorization has already been issued in respect of such mineral and land or tailings, as the case may be, unless the [regional director] Director: Mineral Development is satisfied that such first-mentioned issuing will not detrimentally affect the object of this Act in relation to optimal exploitation of minerals [safety, health] or rehabilitation."

7. Amendment of section 25 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 25 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2) The employer of a mine [or works] may search or cause to be searched any person employed at such mine [or works] for possession of any mineral in respect of which the possession has been prohibited under subsection (1)."

8. Repeal of sections 26 to 37 of Act 50 of 1991

Sections 26 to 37 of the principal Act are hereby repealed.

9. Amendment of section 39 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 39 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution in subsection (3) of the words following upon paragraph (c) of the following words:

"he or she shall consult as to that with the Chief Inspector of Mines and each department charged with the administration of any law which relates to any matter affecting the environment."

10. Amendment of section 41 of Act 50 of 1991

Section 41 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

"(1) The [regional director] Director: Mineral Development may issue directives and determine conditions in relation to the use of the surface of land comprising the subject of any prospecting permit or mining authorization [or upon which a works is situated] in order to limit any damage to or the disturbance of the surface, vegetation, environment or water sources to the minimum which is necessary for any prospecting or mining operations or processing of any mineral: Provided that such directives and conditions shall not be construed as placing the holder of any such prospecting permit or mining authorization [or the employer of such works, as the case may be], in a better position vis-à-vis the employer of such land in relation to the use of the surface thereof."

11. Amendment of section 51 of Act 50 of 1991, as amended by section 20 of Act 103 of 1993

Section 51 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the following paragraph:

"(b) question any person and take a statement from [him] such person, in which case section [29(4)] 53C(4) shall be applicable mutatis mutandis;" and

(b) by the deletion of paragraph (d) of subsection (2).

12. Insertion of sections 53A, 53B and 53C in Act 50 of 1991

The following sections are hereby inserted after section 53:

"53A. Orders, suspensions and instructions

(1) If an officer authorised by the Director-General is of the opinion that any contravention or suspected contravention of or any failure to comply with any provision of this Act or any condition to which any authorization, exemption, environmental employer programme or permission granted or approved in terms of this Act, is subject, occurs at any mine or place presumed to be a mine, such officer may—

(a) order the employer or any official, employee or agent of such mine or place to take immediate rectifying steps; or

(b) order that the operations at such mine or place or part thereof be suspended, and give such instructions in connection therewith as he or she may deem desirable.

(2) Any order referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall be confirmed or set aside by the Director: Mineral Development, who shall notify the employer of the mine or presumptive mine concerned in writing of his or her decision as soon as practicable.

(3) Any order given under subsection (1)(b) shall take effect from the time fixed by the officer concerned and shall remain in force until set aside by the Director: Mining Development or until the instructions of the officer have been complied with.

53B. Inquiries

(1) If any contravention or suspected contravention of or any failure or suspected failure to comply with any provision of this Act occurs at any mine or place presumed to be a mine, an inquiry may be held into any such matter by an officer designated by the Director-General.

(2) The Director-General may, either before the commencement or at any stage of an inquiry held in terms of subsection (1) or (4) designate one or more other officers to assist in the holding of such inquiry and may designate an officer to preside at such inquiry.

(3) Any investigating officer holding an inquiry into any matter in terms of this section shall, if necessary with the assistance of an interpreter, take down or record by mechanical means the evidence given thereat and submit a written copy thereof with a report thereon to the Director:

Mineral Development, who shall transmit it to the Director-General, unless otherwise directed by the latter.

- (4) Upon consideration of the evidence and report referred to in subsection (3) the Director-General may require that the matter concerned be inquired into further.

53C. Attendance and examination of witnesses at inquiry

- (1) An investigating officer holding an inquiry in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4) into any matter or who is to preside or is presiding at such inquiry may, for the purposes of such inquiry—
- (a) direct or summon any person to appear before him or her at such time and place as may be determined by him or her; or
 - (b) order any person present at the place where such inquiry is being held—
 - (i) to give evidence thereat;
 - (ii) to produce any document or thing which he or she may deem necessary for the proper disposal of such inquiry; or
 - (iii) to perform any other act in relation to this Act which he or she may direct.
- (2) (a) If any person has reason to believe that he or she may be held liable for any matter which shall or may be inquired into in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4), he or she shall have the right, but is, subject to subsection (1), not compelled, to be present at any such inquiry and to be assisted or represented by another person.
- (b) If at any inquiry held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4) evidence has been or is being given from which any person may reasonably infer that he or she may be charged with contravening any provision of this Act or failing to comply therewith or may be held responsible in any manner for the matter comprising the subject of such inquiry, he or she shall have the right, but is not compelled, to give evidence and, either personally or through a representative—
- (i) to be heard;
 - (ii) to call any witness or to request the investigating officer to direct or summon any witness on his or her behalf, either to give evidence thereat or to produce any document or thing;
 - (iii) to cross-examine anybody giving evidence at such inquiry; and
 - (iv) to peruse any document which has been presented as evidence.
- (3) Any person who satisfies an investigating officer that he or she has a material interest in any inquiry held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4) may, either personally or through a representative, put such questions as the investigating officer may consider relevant to such inquiry, to a witness giving evidence thereat.

- (4) (a) Any investigating officer may, at any inquiry held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4), administer an oath which is normally administered to a witness in a court of law, to any witness before giving evidence or, if objecting to taking such oath, he or she may make an affirmation, and such affirmation shall have the same legal force and effect as such oath.
- (b) No person called as a witness at any inquiry held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4) shall, when he or she is requested thereto, refuse or fail to take an oath or, if he or she objects thereto, to make an affirmation.
- (c) No person to whom an oath referred to in paragraph (a) has been administered or who has made an affirmation so referred to, shall give evidence knowing it to be false or make a statement under oath or affirmation which is contrary to any statement which that person made under oath or affirmation on a previous occasion.
- (5) Any witness at any inquiry held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4) shall have the same privileges in relation to the answering of questions or the production of documents or things as such witness would have had under the same circumstances if the witness had been summoned as such before a court of law.
- (6) (a) Any inquiry or any part thereof held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4) shall, in so far as it is in the opinion of the investigating officer practically possible or desirable, be held in public.
- (b) The investigating officer may decide whether any witness who has to give evidence or has given evidence at any inquiry referred to in paragraph (a), shall be present whilst other witnesses are giving their evidence thereat.

53D. Obstruction of inquiry or investigating officer or failure to render assistance

No person shall, in relation to any inquiry held in terms of section 53B\(1\) or (4)—

- (a) without reasonable justification fail to comply with any direction, summons or order issued or given under section 53C\(1\) or by virtue of a request under section 53C\(2\)\(b\)\(ii\);
- (b) refuse or fail to answer to the best of his or her knowledge any question lawfully put to him or her by or with the concurrence of the investigating officer: Provided that no person shall be obliged to answer any question whereby that person may incriminate himself or herself;
- (c) in any manner whatsoever advise, encourage, incite, order or persuade any person who has been directed, summoned or ordered under section 53C\(1\) or by virtue of a request under section 53C\(2\)\(b\)\(ii\), not to comply with such direction, summons or order or in any manner prevent him or her from doing so;
- (d) refuse or fail, when required thereto by the investigating officer, to furnish him or her with the means or to render him or her the necessary assistance for holding such inquiry;
- (e) refuse or fail, when required thereto by the investigating officer, to attend an inquiry; or

- (f) intentionally insult an investigating officer or intentionally interrupt the proceedings thereat."
