ACT

To provide for the regulation of admission of persons to, their residence in, and their departure from the Republic; and for matters connected therewith.

In providing for the regulation of admission of foreigners to, their residence in, and their departure from the Republic and for matters connected therewith, the Immigration Act aims at setting in place a new system of immigration control which ensures that—

- (a) temporary and permanent residence permits are issued as expeditiously as possible and on the basis of simplified procedures and objective, predictable and reasonable requirements and criteria, and without consuming excessive administrative capacity;
- (b) security considerations are fully satisfied and the State retains control over the immigration of foreigners to the Republic;
- (c) interdepartmental coordination and public consultations enrich the functions of immigration control;
- (d) economic growth is promoted through the employment of needed foreign labour, foreign investment is facilitated, the entry of exceptionally skilled or qualified people is enabled, skilled human resources are increased, academic exchanges within the Southern African Development Community is facilitated and tourism is promoted;
- (e) the role of the Republic in the continent and the region is recognised;
- (f) the entry and departure of all persons at ports of entry are efficiently facilitated, administered and managed;
- (g) immigration laws are efficiently and effectively enforced, deploying to this end significant administrative capacity of the Department of Home Affairs, thereby reducing the pull factors of illegal immigration;
- (h) the South African economy may have access at all times to the full measure of needed contributions by foreigners;
- (i) the contribution of foreigners in the South African labour market does not adversely impact on existing labour standards and the rights and expectations of South African workers;
- (j) a policy connection is maintained between foreigners working in South Africa and the training of our citizens;
- (k) push factors of illegal immigration may be addressed in cooperation with other Departments and the foreign states concerned;
- (l) immigration control is performed within the highest applicable standards of human rights protection;
- (m) xenophobia is prevented and countered;
- (n) a human rights based culture of enforcement is promoted;
- (o) the international obligations of the Republic are complied with; and
- (p) civil society is educated on the rights of foreigners and refugees.

6. ***

section 6 repealed by section 7 of [Act 19 of 2004]

7. Regulations

- (1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Board, make regulations relating to—
 - (a) the powers and duties of immigration officers;
 - (b) the steps to be taken to prevent the entry of illegal foreigners into the Republic and to facilitate the tracing and identification of illegal foreigners in, and their removal from, the Republic;
 - (c) the procedure regulating the entry into and departure from the Republic of persons at a port of entry, and the requirements and conditions to be complied with at such a port;
 - (d) the times and places of, and the manner of conducting, an enquiry relating to, or the examination of, persons entering or desiring to enter the Republic or who, having been found in the Republic, are suspected of being prohibited persons or unlawfully resident therein;
 - (e) the permits and the certificates which may be issued under this Act, the requirements for the issuing of permits and certificates and the conditions to which such permits or certificates may be subjected, and the circumstances under which such permits or certificates may be cancelled or withdrawn;
 - (f) the conditions upon which prohibited persons may be allowed to pass through the Republic while journeying or being conveyed to a place outside the Republic;
 - (g) the forms of warrants, permits, certificates or other documents to be issued or used, or of declarations to be made, or of registers to be kept, for the purposes of this Act, and the particulars to be provided on or inserted in any such document, declaration or register;
 - (h) the fees that may be charged in respect of overtime services required to be performed by immigration officers;
 - (i) the fees that may be charged in respect of the application for and issuing of visas, permits and certificates and other services rendered in terms of this Act;
 - (j) the steps to be taken to prevent the departure from the Republic of a person not in possession of a passport or other appropriate documentation;
 - (k) the requirements and conditions which should be complied with by any person who, on behalf of any other person, applies for a permit referred to in sections 11 to 22 and 25 to 27, and the registration of an immigration practitioner contemplated in section 46;
 - (l) the manner in which payment of a deposit contemplated in section 34\(3\) may be enforced;

- (m) the steps to be taken to ensure proper exploitation of the local labour market before a work permit is issued in terms of section 19;
 - (n) the circumstances whereunder and the manner in which a penalty shall be incurred by and recovered from the owner, agent, charterer or person in control of a conveyance and who conveyed a foreigner contemplated in section 35(7) to the Republic;
 - (o) any matter that may be prescribed under this Act; and
 - (p) generally, any matter required for the better achievement of the objects and purposes of this Act.
- (2) Different regulations may be made under subsection (1)(c) in respect of different ports of entry, and the forms of warrants, permits, certificates, documents, declarations or registers prescribed under subsection (1)(g) may differ in respect of different categories of persons.
- (3) A regulation made under subsection (1) may provide that any person who contravenes a provision thereof or fails to comply therewith shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months.
- (4) The Minister may—
- (a) exempt a person or category of persons from paying fees prescribed under subsection (1)(h); and
 - (b) withdraw an exemption granted to a person or a category of persons under paragraph (a).
- (5) Any fee which may be prescribed under subsection (1) shall be prescribed by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

[section 7 substituted by section 8 of Act 19 of 2004]

8. Review and appeal procedures

- (1) An immigration officer who refuses entry to any person or finds any person to be an illegal foreigner shall inform that person on the prescribed form that he or she may in writing request the Minister to review that decision and—
- (a) if he or she arrived by means of a conveyance which is on the point of departing and is not to call at any other port of entry in the Republic, that request shall without delay be submitted to the Minister; or
 - (b) in any other case than the one provided for in paragraph (a), that request shall be submitted to the Minister within three days after that decision.
- (2) A person who was refused entry or was found to be an illegal foreigner and who has requested a review of such a decision—
- (a) in a case contemplated in subsection (1)(a), and who has not received an answer to his or her request by the time the relevant conveyance departs, shall depart on that conveyance and shall await the outcome of the review outside the Republic; or
 - (b) in a case contemplated in subsection (1)(b), shall not be removed from the Republic before the Minister has confirmed the relevant decision.
- (3) Any decision in terms of this Act, other than a decision contemplated in subsection (1), that materially and adversely affects the rights of any person, shall be communicated to that person in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by the reasons for that decision.
- (4) An applicant aggrieved by a decision contemplated in subsection (3) may, within 10 working days from receipt of the notification contemplated in subsection (3), make an application in the prescribed manner to the Director-General for the review or appeal of that decision.

- (5) The Director-General shall consider the application contemplated in subsection (4), whereafter he or she shall either confirm, reverse or modify that decision.
- (6) An applicant aggrieved by a decision of the Director-General contemplated in subsection (5) may, within 10 working days of receipt of that decision, make an application in the prescribed manner to the Minister for the review or appeal of that decision.
- (7) The Minister shall consider the application contemplated in subsection (6), whereafter he or she shall either confirm, reverse or modify that decision.

section 8 substituted by section 9 of [Act 19 of 2004]

Admission and departure

9. Admission and departure

- (1) Subject to this Act, no person shall enter or depart from the Republic at a place other than a port of entry.
- (2) Subject to this Act, a citizen shall be admitted, provided that he or she identifies himself or herself as such and the immigration officer records his or her entrance.
- (3) No person shall enter or depart from the Republic—
 - (a) unless in possession of a valid passport;
 - (b) unless, if he or she is a person under the age of 16 years who does not hold a passport, he or she is accompanied by his or her parent who holds a passport in which his or her name was entered in terms of the South African Passports and Travel Documents Act, 1994 (Act No. 4 of 1994), or on behalf of any government or international organisation recognised by the Government of the Republic;
 - (c) except at a port of entry, unless—
 - (i) in possession of a certificate issued by the Director-General granting permission upon application to enter or depart from the Republic at a place other than a port of entry within a certain period not exceeding six months at a time, provided that for good cause the Director-General may withdraw such permission; or
 - (ii) exempted as an individual or falling within a category of persons exempted by the Minister, on the recommendation of the Director-General, which exemption may be withdrawn by the Minister;
 - (d) unless the entry or departure is recorded by an immigration officer; and
 - (e) unless examined by an immigration officer as prescribed.
- (4) A foreigner who is not the holder of a permanent residence permit may only enter the Republic as contemplated in this section if—
 - (a) his or her passport is valid for not less than 30 days after the expiry of the intended stay; and
 - (b) issued with a valid temporary residence permit, as set out in this Act.

section 9 substituted by section 10 of [Act 19 of 2004]

Temporary residence

10. Temporary residence permits

- (1) Upon admission, a foreigner, who is not the holder of a permanent residence permit, may enter and sojourn in the Republic only if in possession of a temporary residence permit issued by the Director-General.
- (2) Subject to this Act, upon application in the prescribed manner and on the prescribed form, one of the temporary residence permits contemplated in sections 11 to 23 may be issued to a foreigner.
- (3) If issued outside the Republic, a temporary residence permit is deemed to be of force and effect only after an admission.
- (4) A temporary residence permit is to be issued on condition that the holder is not or does not become a prohibited or an undesirable person.
- (5) The Director-General may for good cause attach reasonable individual terms and conditions as may be prescribed to a temporary residence permit.
- (6) Subject to this Act, a foreigner may apply to the Director-General in the prescribed manner and on the prescribed form to change his or her status or the conditions attached to his or her temporary residence permit, or both such status and conditions, as the case may be, while in the Republic.
- (7) Subject to this Act, the Director-General may, on application in the prescribed manner and on the prescribed form, extend the period for which a permit contemplated in subsection \(2\) was issued.
- (8) An application for a change in status does not provide a status and does not entitle the applicant to any benefit under the Act, except for those explicitly set out in the Act, or to sojourn in the Republic pending the decision in respect of that application.
- (9) The Director-General may at any time in writing notify the holder of a temporary residence permit issued in terms of this section that, subject to subsection \(10\), the permit shall be cancelled for the reasons disclosed in the notice and that the holder is thereby ordered to leave the Republic within a period stated in that notice, and upon the expiration of that period the permit shall become null and void.
- (10) The holder of a temporary residence permit who receives a notice contemplated in subsection \(9\) may, before the expiration of the period stated in that notice, make representations to the Director-General which he or she shall consider before making his or her decision.

section [10 substituted by section 11 of Act 19 of 2004]

10A. Visas

- (1) Any foreigner who enters the Republic shall, subject to subsections \(2\) and \(4\), on demand produce a valid visa, granted under subsection \(3\), to an immigration officer.
- (2) Any person who holds a valid permit issued in terms of sections 13 to 22 and 25 to 27 shall, upon his or her entry into the Republic and after having been issued with that permit, be deemed to be in possession of a valid visa for the purposes of this section.
- (3) A visa referred to in subsection \(1\)—
 - (a) may, subject to any condition that the Minister may deem fit, be granted by the Minister to any person who is not exempt, as contemplated in subsection \(4\), from the requirement of having to be in possession of a valid visa, and who has applied for such a visa in the prescribed manner and on the prescribed form;

- (b) shall contain a statement to the effect that authority to proceed to the Republic to report to an immigration officer at a port of entry has been granted by the Minister to the holder of a passport, and such statement shall be endorsed in the passport concerned; and
 - (c) may for good cause be withdrawn and declared null and void by the Minister.
- (4) The Minister may—
- (a) exempt any person or category of persons from subsection (1) with regard to the requirement of having to be in possession of a valid visa in order to obtain a visitor's permit contemplated in section 11, for a specified or unspecified period and either unconditionally or subject to the conditions that the Minister may impose;
 - (b) exclude any person belonging to a category of persons contemplated in paragraph (a) from any exemption granted to that category; and
 - (c) withdraw any exemption granted in terms of paragraph (a) to any category of persons or to any person, and, in the case of a person, the Minister may do so irrespective of whether that person was exempted as an individual or as a member of a category of persons.
- (5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months, and an immigration officer may—
- (a) whether or not that person has been convicted of that offence, if that person is not in custody, arrest him or her or cause him or her to be arrested without a warrant;
 - (b) remove that person or cause him or her to be removed from the Republic under a warrant issued by the Minister; and
 - (c) pending the removal of that person, detain him or her or cause him or her to be detained in the manner and at a place determined by the Director-General.
- (6) If a person has been convicted and sentenced under subsection (5), that person may before the expiration of that sentence be removed from the Republic in the manner contemplated in the said subsection.

[subsection (1) amended by section 47(b) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (2) When so requested by and after consultation with the Department of Health, the Director-General shall determine an ad hoc fee for the issuance of medical treatment permits in respect of institutions which are publicly funded or subsidised.

[subsection (2) substituted by section 19 of Act 19 of 2004]

- (3) A medical treatment permit does not entitle the holder to conduct work.

18. Relative's permit

- (1) A relative's permit may be issued for the prescribed period by the Director-General to a foreigner who is a member of the immediate family of a citizen or a permanent resident, provided that such citizen or permanent resident provides the prescribed financial assurance.

[subsection (1) substituted by section 20 of Act 19 of 2004]

- (2) The holder of a relative's permit may not conduct work.

19. Work permit

- (1) A quota work permit may be issued by the Director-General, as prescribed, to a foreigner if the foreigner falls within a specific professional category or within a specific occupational class determined by the Minister at least annually by notice in the Gazette after consultation with the Ministers of Labour and Trade and Industry, and as long as the number of work permits so issued for such category or class does not exceed the quota determined in the notice.

- (2) A general work permit may be issued by the Director-General to a foreigner not falling within a category or class contemplated in subsection (1) if the prospective employer—
 - (a) satisfies the Director-General in the manner prescribed that despite diligent search he or she has been unable to employ a person in the Republic with qualifications or skills and experience equivalent to those of the applicant;
 - (b) satisfies the Director-General in the prescribed manner that the terms and conditions under which he or she intends to employ that foreigner, including salary and benefits, are not inferior to those prevailing in the relevant market segment for citizens, taking into account applicable collective bargaining agreements and other applicable standards; and
 - (c) has agreed in writing to notify the Director-General when such foreigner is no longer employed or is employed in a different capacity or role.
- (3) A general work permit contemplated in subsection (2) shall lapse if, within six months of its issuance, and within every year thereafter, its holder fails to submit satisfactory proof to the Director-General that he or she is still employed and of the terms and conditions of his or her employment, including the job description: Provided that a general work permit shall remain valid for a period not longer than six months in respect of a holder whose employment contract has been terminated until that holder has exhausted all applicable rights of recourse: Provided further that the period may be extended for further periods of three months at a time on submission of proof to the satisfaction of the Director-General that, due to circumstances beyond the control of the holder, the recourse procedures have not been finalised.
- (4) Subject to any prescribed requirements, an exceptional skills work permit may be issued by the Director-General to an individual possessing exceptional skills or qualifications and to those members of his or her immediate family determined by the Director-General under the circumstances or as may be prescribed.
- (5) An intra-company transfer work permit may be issued by the Director-General to a foreigner who is employed abroad by a business operating in the Republic in a branch, subsidiary or affiliate relationship and who by reason of his or her employment is required to conduct work in the Republic for a period not exceeding two years, provided that—
 - (a) the employer undertakes that it will take prescribed measures to ensure that such foreigner will at all times comply with the provisions of this Act, and will immediately notify the Director-General if it has reason to believe otherwise; and
 - (b) the employer furnishes the prescribed financial guarantees to defray deportation and other costs should such foreigner fail to depart when no longer allowed to sojourn in the Republic.
- (6) The holder of an intra-company transfer work permit may conduct work only for the employer referred to in subsection (5) and in accordance with the requirements set out in his or her permit.

section 19 substituted by section 21 of [Act 19 of 2004]

20. Retired person permit

- (1) A retired person permit may be issued for a period exceeding three months to a foreigner who intends to retire in the Republic, provided that the foreigner provides proof that such foreigner has—
 - (a) the right to a pension or an irrevocable annuity or retirement account which will give such foreigner a prescribed minimum payment for the rest of his or her life from the country of his or her origin; or
 - (b) a minimum prescribed net worth.

- (2) The Director-General may authorise the holder of a retired person permit to conduct work under terms and conditions as the Director-General may deem fit to determine under the circumstances.
[subsection (2) amended by section 47(b) of Act 19 of 2004]
- (3) A retired person permit may—
- (a) allow its holder to sojourn in the Republic on a seasonal or continuous basis; and
 - (b) not exceed a four-year period, at the expiry of which it may be renewed one or more times, subject to subsection (1).

21. Corporate permit

- (1) A corporate permit may be issued by the Director-General to a corporate applicant to employ foreigners who may conduct work for such corporate applicant.
- (2) After consultation with the Departments of Labour and Trade and Industry, the Director-General shall determine the maximum number of foreigners to be employed in terms of a corporate permit by a corporate applicant, after having considered—
- (a) the undertaking by the corporate applicant that it will—
 - (i) take prescribed measures to ensure that any foreigner employed in terms of the corporate permit will at all times comply with the provisions of this Act and the corporate permit; and
 - (ii) immediately notify the Director-General if it has reason to believe that such foreigner is no longer in compliance with subparagraph (i);
 - (b) the financial guarantees posted in the prescribed amount and form by the corporate applicant to defray deportation and other costs should the corporate permit be withdrawn, or certain foreigners fail to leave the Republic when no longer subject to the corporate permit; and
 - (c) corroborated representations made by the corporate applicant in respect of the need to employ foreigners, their job descriptions, the number of citizens or permanent residents employed and their positions, and other prescribed matters.
- (3) The Director-General may withdraw or amend a corporate permit for good and reasonable cause.
- (4) The Minister may, after consultation with the Minister of Trade and Industry or Minerals and Energy or Agriculture, as the case may be, and the Minister of Labour, designate certain industries, or segments thereof, in respect of which the Government may—
- (a) reduce or waive the requirements of subsection (2)(c);
 - (b) enter into agreements with one or more foreign states and set as a condition of a corporate permit that its holder—
 - (i) employs foreigners partially, mainly or wholly from such foreign countries; and
 - (ii) remits a portion of the salaries of such foreigners to such foreign countries;
 - (c) apply this subsection in respect of foreigners required for seasonal or temporary peak period employment; or
 - (d) waive or reduce the requirement of subsection (2)(b) under special conditions.
- (5) The holder of a corporate permit may also employ foreigners in terms of section 19.

 - (ii) for good cause, withdraw such right from a foreigner or a category of foreigners;
 - (c) for good cause, waive any prescribed requirement or form; and
 - (d) for good cause, withdraw an exemption granted by him or her in terms of this section.

[subsection (2) substituted by section 32(b) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (3) The provisions of sections 10 and 25 shall not apply to a foreigner—
- (a) who prior to 1 February 1937 lawfully entered the Republic for the purpose of permanent residence therein;
 - (b) who by virtue of the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001 (Act No. 37 of 2001), enjoys any immunities and privileges in the Republic; or
 - (c) to whom a written authority or permission to enter the Republic has been issued in terms of section 1 or 3 of the Immigration Quota Act, 1930 (Act No. 8 of 1930), and who entered the Republic within the period stated in that authority or permit or within that period as lawfully extended.

subsection (3) added by section 32(c) of [Act 19 of 2004]

Enforcement and monitoring

32. Illegal foreigners

- (1) Any illegal foreigner shall depart, unless authorised by the Director-General in the prescribed manner to remain in the Republic pending his or her application for a status.

subsection (1) substituted by section 33 of [Act 19 of 2004]

- (2) Any illegal foreigner shall be deported.

33. Inspectorate

- (1) An inspectorate is hereby established and shall consist of the persons, including immigration officers, determined by the Minister.

subsection (1) substituted by section 34(a) of [Act 19 of 2004]

- (2) (a) The Minister shall appoint the head of the inspectorate.
- (b) The Director-General shall appoint immigration officers and other persons required to exercise the functions of the inspectorate.
- (c) The Minister may prescribe—
- (i) the procedure to be followed in the appointment of immigration officers or categories of immigration officers;
 - (ii) the requirements for the appointment contemplated in subparagraph (i); and
 - (ii) the allocation of functions to immigration officers or categories of immigration officers.

subsection (2) substituted by section 34(b) of [Act 19 of 2004]

- (3) The inspectorate shall investigate any matter falling within the scope of this Act, subject to the directions of the Minister, and shall in the performance of its functions follow such procedure as may be prescribed.
- (4) An immigration officer may, for the purposes of this Act—
- (a) at any time before the commencement or in the course of an investigation conduct an inspection in loco in accordance with subsections \(5\) and \(9\);
 - (b) by notice in writing call upon any person who is in possession of or has the custody of or control over any thing which in the opinion of the Director-General is relevant to the investigation to produce such thing, and the Director-General may inspect and retain any thing so produced for a reasonable time; and

- (c) by notice in writing call upon any person to appear before the Director-General and to give evidence or to answer questions relevant to the subject matter of the investigation:

Provided that any of such notices shall specify the time when and the place where the person to whom it is directed shall appear, be signed by an immigration officer, be served by an immigration officer or a sheriff by delivering a copy thereof to the person concerned or by leaving it at such person's last known place of residence or business, and shall specify the reason why the thing is to be produced or the evidence is to be given.

[subsection (4) substituted by section 34(c) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (5) In the pursuance of this Act, an immigration officer may obtain a warrant to—
- (a) enter or search any premises for a person or thing or to make inquiries, including the power to—
 - (i) examine any thing found in or upon such premises;
 - (ii) request from the person who is in control of such premises or in whose possession or under whose control any thing is when it is found, or who is upon reasonable grounds believed to have information with regard to such thing, an explanation or information; and
 - (iii) make copies of or extracts from any such thing found upon or in such premises;
 - (b) apprehend an illegal foreigner, subject to section 34(1); or
 - (c) after having issued a receipt in respect thereof, seize and remove documentation or any other thing which—
 - (i) is concerned with or is upon reasonable grounds suspected of being concerned with any matter which is the subject of any investigation in terms of this Act; or
 - (ii) contains, or is on reasonable grounds suspected to contain, information with regard to any such matter, provided that—
 - (aa) any thing so seized shall be returned in good order as soon as possible after the purpose of its seizure has been accomplished; and
 - (bb) a person from whom a book or document has been taken shall be allowed reasonable access, including the right to make copies at his or her expense.
- (6) A warrant referred to in subsection (5) shall be issued by a magistrate of a Court which has jurisdiction in the area where the premises in question are situated, and only if it appears to the magistrate from information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a thing mentioned in subsection (5) is upon or in such premises, and shall specify which of the acts mentioned in subsection (5) may be performed thereunder by the person to whom it is issued.
- (7) A warrant issued in terms of this section shall be executed by day unless the magistrate who issues the warrant authorises its execution by night at times which shall be reasonable, and any entry upon or search of any premises in terms of this section shall be conducted with strict regard to decency and order, including—
- (a) a person's right to, respect for, and the protection of, his or her dignity;
 - (b) the right of a person to freedom and security; and
 - (c) the right of a person to his or her personal privacy.

- (8) A person executing a warrant in terms of this section shall immediately before commencing with the execution—
- (a) identify himself or herself to the person in control of the premises, if such person is present, and hand to such person a copy of the warrant or, if such person is not present, affix such copy to a prominent place on the premises; and
 - (b) supply such person at his or her request with particulars regarding his or her authority to execute such a warrant.
- (9) (a) An immigration officer may, without a warrant, enter upon any premises, other than a private dwelling, and exercise the powers referred to in subsection (5)(a) and (c)—
- (i) if the person who is competent to do so consents to such entry, search, seizure and removal; or
 - (ii) if he or she upon reasonable grounds believes that—
 - (aa) the required warrant will be issued to him or her in terms of subsection (5) if he or she were to apply for such warrant; and
 - (bb) the delay caused by the obtaining of any such warrant would defeat the object of the entry, search, seizure and removal.
 - (b) Any entry and search in terms of paragraph (a) shall be executed by day, unless the execution thereof by night is justifiable and necessary.
- (10) (a) Any person who may on the authority of a warrant issued in terms of subsection (5), or under the provisions of subsection (9), enter upon and search any premises, may use such force as may be reasonably necessary to overcome resistance to such entry or search; and
- (b) No person may enter upon or search any premises unless he or she has audibly demanded access to the premises and has notified the purpose of his or her entry, unless such person is upon reasonable grounds of the opinion that any thing may be destroyed or a person put at risk of bodily harm if such access is first demanded and such purpose is first notified.
- (11) If, during the execution of a warrant or the conducting of a search in terms of this section, a person claims that a thing found on or in the premises concerned contains privileged information and refuses its inspection or removal, the person executing the warrant or conducting the search shall, if he or she is of the opinion that the thing contains information which is relevant to the investigation and that such information is necessary for the investigation, request a person designated by a Court which has jurisdiction to seize and remove that thing for safe custody until a Court has made a ruling on the question whether the information concerned is privileged or not.
- (12) A warrant issued in terms of this section may be issued on any day and shall be in force until—
- (a) it is executed;
 - (b) it is cancelled by the person who issued it or, if such person is not available, by a person with similar authority;
 - (c) the expiry of one month from the day of its issue; or
 - (d) the purpose for the issuing of the warrant has lapsed, whichever may occur first.
- (13) In consultation with the Minister and through diplomatic channels, the Director-General may obtain permission from the relevant authority of a foreign country to receive evidence or gather information in or from that country.
- [subsection (13) amended by section 47(b) of Act 19 of 2004]*
- (14) When exercising powers under this section, an immigration officer shall clearly identify him or herself as such by means of adequate identification.

34. Deportation and detention of illegal foreigners

- (1) Without the need for a warrant, an immigration officer may arrest an illegal foreigner or cause him or her to be arrested, and shall, irrespective of whether such foreigner is arrested, deport him or her or cause him or her to be deported and may, pending his or her deportation, detain him or her or cause him or her to be detained in a manner and at a place determined by the Director-General, provided that the foreigner concerned—
 - (a) shall be notified in writing of the decision to deport him or her and of his or her right to appeal such decision in terms of this Act;
 - (b) may at any time request any officer attending to him or her that his or her detention for the purpose of deportation be confirmed by warrant of a Court, which, if not issued within 48 hours of such request, shall cause the immediate release of such foreigner;
 - (c) shall be informed upon arrest or immediately thereafter of the rights set out in the preceding two paragraphs, when possible, practicable and available in a language that he or she understands;
 - (d) may not be held in detention for longer than 30 calendar days without a warrant of a Court which on good and reasonable grounds may extend such detention for an adequate period not exceeding 90 calendar days, and
 - (e) shall be held in detention in compliance with minimum prescribed standards protecting his or her dignity and relevant human rights.

[subsection (1) amended by section 35(a) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (2) The detention of a person in terms of this Act elsewhere than on a ship and for purposes other than his or her deportation shall not exceed 48 hours from his or her arrest or the time at which such person was taken into custody for examination or other purposes, provided that if such period expires on a non-court day it shall be extended to four p.m. of the first following court day.
- (3) The Director-General may order a foreigner subject to deportation to deposit a sum sufficient to cover in whole or in part the expenses related to his or her deportation, detention, maintenance and custody and an officer may in the prescribed manner enforce payment of such deposit.

[subsection (3) amended by section 47(b) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (4) Any person who fails to comply with an order made in terms of subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R20 000 or to imprisonment not exceeding 12 months.
- (5) Any person other than a citizen or a permanent resident who having been—
 - (a) removed from the Republic or while being subject to an order issued under a law to leave the Republic, returns thereto without lawful authority or fails to comply with such order; or
 - (b) refused admission, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, has entered the Republic, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months and may, if not already in detention, be arrested without warrant and deported under a warrant issued by a Court and, pending his or her removal, be detained in the manner and at the place determined by the Director-General.

[subsection (5) amended by section 35(b) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (6) Any illegal foreigner convicted and sentenced under this Act may be deported before the expiration of his or her sentence and his or her imprisonment shall terminate at that time.

- (7) On the basis of a warrant for the removal or release of a detained illegal foreigner, the person in charge of the prison concerned shall deliver such foreigner to that immigration officer or police officer bearing such warrant, and if such foreigner is not released he or she shall be deemed to be in lawful custody while in the custody of the immigration officer or police officer bearing such warrant.
- (8) A person at a port of entry who has been notified by an immigration officer that he or she is an illegal foreigner or in respect of whom the immigration officer has made a declaration to the master of the ship on which such foreigner arrived that such person is an illegal foreigner shall be detained by the master on such ship and, unless such master is informed by an immigration officer that such person has been found not to be an illegal foreigner, such master shall remove such person from the Republic, provided that an immigration officer may cause such person to be detained elsewhere than on such ship, or be removed in custody from such ship and detain him or her or cause him or her to be detained in the manner and at a place determined by the Director-General.
- (9) The person referred to in the preceding subsection shall, pending removal and while detained as contemplated in that subsection, be deemed to be in the custody of the master of such ship and not of the immigration officer or the Director-General, and such master shall be liable to pay the costs of the detention and maintenance of such person while so detained if the master knew or should reasonably have known that such person was an illegal foreigner, provided that—
- (a) if such master fails to comply with the provisions of that subsection, or if required to pay such costs, such master or the owner of such ship shall forfeit in respect of every person concerned a sum fixed by the immigration officer, not exceeding an amount prescribed from time to time;
 - (b) the immigration officer may, before such person is removed from such ship, require the master or the owner of such ship to deposit a sum sufficient to cover any expenses that may be incurred by the Director-General in connection with the deportation, detention, maintenance and custody of such person, if there are grounds to believe that the master knew or should reasonably have known that such person was an illegal foreigner;
 - (c) if such person is not removed from the Republic on the ship on which he or she was conveyed to the Republic, except by reason of not being an illegal foreigner, and if the master knew or should have known that such person was an illegal foreigner, the owner of that ship shall at the request of an immigration officer convey that person, or have him or her conveyed, free of charge to the State to a place outside the Republic, and any person, other than an immigration officer, charged by the Director-General with the duty of escorting that person to such place, shall be deemed to be an immigration officer while performing such duty; and
 - (d) if the owner of such ship fails to comply with the provisions of this section, he or she shall forfeit in respect of each such person a sum fixed by the immigration officer, not exceeding an amount prescribed from time to time.

[subsection (9) amended by section 47(b) of Act 19 of 2004]

- (10) A person who escapes or attempts to escape from detention imposed under this Act shall be guilty of an offence and may be arrested without a warrant.
- (11) A person detained on a ship may not be held in detention for longer than 30 days without an order of court.

[subsection (11) added by section 35(c) of Act 19 of 2004]

35. Duties with regard to conveyances

- (1) Save for extraordinary circumstances necessitating otherwise, no person in charge of a conveyance shall cause that conveyance to enter the Republic at any place other than a port of entry.

- (2) An immigration officer or other authorised person employed by the Director-General may—
- (a) board any conveyance which is entering or has entered into any port of entry and for good cause prohibit or regulate disembarkation from, or the offloading of, such conveyance in order to ascertain the status or citizenship of its passengers; and
 - (b) request the person in control of a port of entry or any person acting under his or her authority to order the person in charge of a conveyance to park, moor or anchor that conveyance in such port of entry at such distance from the shore or landing place or in such position as he or she may direct.
- (3) The person in charge of a conveyance entering or prior to entering a port of entry shall upon demand deliver to an immigration officer—
- (a) a list stating—
 - (i) the names of all passengers on board the conveyance, classified according to their respective destinations; and
 - (ii) such other details as may be prescribed;
 - (b) a list of stowaways, if any have been found;
 - (c) a list of the crew and all other persons, other than passengers and stowaways, employed, carried or present on the conveyance; and
 - (d) a return, under the hand of the medical officer of that conveyance or, if there is no such medical officer, under the hand of the person in charge of a conveyance himself or herself, stating—
 - (i) any cases of disease, whether infectious or otherwise, which have occurred or are suspected to have occurred upon the voyage;
 - (ii) the names of the persons who have suffered or are suffering from such disease;
 - (iii) details of any birth or death which occurred upon the voyage between such port of entry and a previous port; and
 - (iv) any other prescribed matter or event:
- Provided that such immigration officer may—
- (aa) exempt from the requirements of this subsection the master of a ship destined for any other port in the Republic, subject to compliance with the duty to deliver such lists or return at such port and with any directive such immigration officer may issue to the master; and
 - (bb) if satisfied that a name should be added to or deleted from any of such lists, authorise such addition or deletion.
- (4) If a conveyance arrives at a port of entry with a passenger on board bound for a destination outside the Republic who is not on board when the conveyance leaves such port of entry and has not been admitted, the person in charge or the owner of that conveyance shall forfeit a sum fixed by the immigration officer within a prescribed limit.
- (5) An immigration officer may require the person in charge of a conveyance to muster the crew of such conveyance on the arrival of such conveyance in any port of entry and again before it leaves such port of entry.
- (6) The competent officer of customs at any port of entry may refuse to give to the person in charge of a conveyance clearance papers to leave that port of entry, unless he or she has complied with this Act and produced a certificate of an immigration officer to that effect.

- (7) A person in charge of a conveyance shall ensure that any foreigner conveyed to a port of entry—
- (a) for purposes of travelling to a foreign country, holds a valid passport and transit visa, if required; and
 - (b) holds a valid passport and visa, if required.
- (8) A person in charge of a conveyance shall be responsible for the detention and removal of a person conveyed if such person is refused admission in the prescribed manner, as well as for any costs related to such detention and removal incurred by the Department.

Duties and obligations

38. Employment

- (1) No person shall employ—
- (a) an illegal foreigner;
 - (b) a foreigner whose status does not authorise him or her to be employed by such person; or
 - (c) a foreigner on terms, conditions or in a capacity different from those contemplated in such foreigner's status.
- (2) An employer shall make a good faith effort to ascertain that no illegal foreigner is employed by him or her or to ascertain the status or citizenship of those whom he or she employs.
- (3) If it is proven, other than by means of the presumption referred to in subsection (5), that a person was employed in violation of subsection (1), it shall be presumed that the employer knew at the time of the employment that such person was among those referred to in subsection (1), unless such employer proves that he or she—
- (a) employed such person in good faith; and
 - (b) complied with subsection (2), provided that a stricter compliance shall be required of any employer who employs more than five employees or has been found guilty of a prior offence under this Act related to this section.
- (4) An employer employing a foreigner shall—
- (a) for two years after the termination of such foreigner's employment, keep the prescribed records relating thereto; and
 - (b) report to the Director-General—
 - (i) the termination of such foreigner's employment; and

- (ii) any breach on the side of the foreigner of his or her status.

subsection (4) amended by section 47(b) of [Act 19 of 2004]

- (5) If an illegal foreigner is found on any premises where a business is conducted, it shall be presumed that such foreigner was employed by the person who has control over such premises, unless prima facie evidence to the contrary is adduced.

39. Learning institutions

- (1) No learning institution shall knowingly provide training or instruction to—
 - (a) an illegal foreigner;
 - (b) a foreigner whose status does not authorise him or her to receive such training or instruction by such person; or
 - (c) a foreigner on terms or conditions or in a capacity different from those contemplated in such foreigner's status.
- (2) If an illegal foreigner is found on any premises where instruction or training is provided, it shall be presumed that such foreigner was receiving instruction or training from, or allowed to receive instruction or training by, the person who has control over such premises, unless prima facie evidence to the contrary is adduced.

40. Keeping of registers of lodgers by certain persons

- (1) The person in charge of any premises, whether furnished or unfurnished, where lodging or sleeping accommodation is provided for payment or reward shall, if those premises fall within a prescribed class, in the prescribed manner keep a register of all persons who are provided with lodging or sleeping accommodation thereon, and every such person shall sign the register and furnish therein the prescribed particulars regarding himself or herself.
- (2) Every person in charge of premises referred to in subsection (1) shall, when required to do so by an immigration officer or police officer, produce the register referred to in that subsection for inspection.
- (3) Any person who—
 - (a) contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of subsection (1) or (2);
 - (b) gives false or incorrect particulars for the purposes of subsection (1); or
 - (c) hinders any officer referred to in subsection (2) in the performance of his or her functions,shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months.

section 40 substituted by section 39 of [Act 19 of 2004]

41. Identification

- (1) When so requested by an immigration officer or a police officer, any person shall identify himself or herself as a citizen, permanent resident or foreigner, and if on reasonable grounds such immigration officer or police officer is not satisfied that such person is entitled to be in the Republic, such person may be interviewed by an immigration officer or a police officer about his or her identity or status, and such immigration officer or police officer may take such person into custody without a warrant, and shall take reasonable steps, as may be prescribed, to assist the person in verifying his or her identity or status, and thereafter, if necessary detain him or her in terms of section 34.

- (2) Any person who assists a person contemplated in subsection (1) to evade the processes contemplated in that subsection, or interferes with such processes, shall be guilty of an offence.

[section 41 substituted by section 40 of Act 19 of 2004]

42. Aiding and abetting illegal foreigners

- (1) Subject to this Act, and save for necessary humanitarian assistance, no person, shall aid, abet, assist, enable or in any manner help—
- (a) an illegal foreigner; or
 - (b) a foreigner in respect of any matter, conduct or transaction which violates such foreigner's status, when applicable,
- including but not limited to—
- (i) providing instruction or training to him or her, or allowing him or her to receive instruction or training;
 - (ii) issuing to him or her a licence or other authorisation to conduct any business or to carry on any profession or occupation;
 - (iii) entering into an agreement with him or her for the conduct of any business or the carrying on of any profession or occupation;
 - (iv) conducting any business or carrying on any profession or occupation in cooperation with him or her;
 - (v) assisting, enabling or in any manner helping him or her to conduct any business or carry on any profession or occupation;
 - (vi) obtaining a licence or other authority for him or her or on his or her behalf to conduct any business or to carry on any profession or occupation;
 - (vii) doing anything for him or her or on his or her behalf in connection with his or her business or profession or occupation;
 - (viii) harbouring him or her, which includes providing accommodation; or
 - (ix) letting or selling or in any manner making available any immoveable property in the Republic to him or her.
- (2) In any criminal proceedings arising out of this section, it is no defence to aver that the status of the foreigner concerned, or whether he or she was an illegal foreigner, was unknown to the accused if it is proved that the accused ought reasonably to have known the status of the foreigner, or whether he or she was an illegal foreigner.

43. Obligation of foreigners

A foreigner shall—

- (a) abide by the terms and conditions of his or her status, including any terms and conditions attached to the relevant permit by the Director-General upon its issuance, extension or renewal, and that status shall expire upon the violation of those conditions; and

[paragraph (a) substituted by section 41 of Act 19 of 2004]

- (b) depart upon expiry of his or her status.

44. Organs of state

When possible, any organ of state shall endeavour to ascertain the status or citizenship of the persons receiving its services and shall report to the Director-General any illegal foreigner, or any person whose status or citizenship could not be ascertained, provided that such requirement shall not prevent the rendering of services to which illegal foreigners and foreigners are entitled under the Constitution or any law.

section 44 substituted by section 42 of [Act 19 of 2004]

45. Other institutions

Prescribed institutions or persons other than organs of state may, in the prescribed manner, be required to endeavour to ascertain the status or citizenship of the persons with whom they enter into commercial transactions, as prescribed, and shall report to the Director-General any illegal foreigner, or any person whose status or citizenship could not be ascertained, provided that such requirement shall not prevent the rendering of services or performance to which illegal foreigners and foreigners are entitled under the Constitution or any law.

Transitional provisions

51. Transitional definitions

In respect of sections 52 and 53 the following additional or different definitions shall apply, unless the context requires otherwise:

- (i) "prescribe" means to provide through regulations and "prescribed" has a correspondent meaning;
- (ii) "previous Act" means the Aliens Control Act, 1991 (Act No. 96 of 1991);
- (iii) "published" means published in the Government Gazette; and
- (iv) "regulations" means both general and specific rules adopted by the Minister and published.

52. Functions of Department and Board

- (1) Until the Board is duly constituted and operational, any regulation required in terms of this Act shall be prescribed.

- (2) Subject to this Act, any regulations adopted under the previous Act shall remain in force and effect until repealed or amended.
- (3) The Board shall be convened within 90 days of the coming into force of this Act.

53. Existing permits

- (1) Any permanent residence permit validly issued in terms of the previous Act shall be deemed to have been issued in terms of, and in compliance with, this Act.
- (2) Any permit issued in terms of the previous Act for a determined period shall continue in force and effect in accordance with the terms and conditions under which it was issued, but may only be renewed in terms of this Act, provided that—
 - (i) the Department may waive the requirement to submit a new application; and
 - (ii) for good cause the Department may authorise a permit to be renewed in terms of the previous Act.
- (3) Any exemptions for an undetermined period granted in terms of section 28(2) of the previous Act shall be deemed a permanent residence permit for the purposes of this Act, and any exemption granted for a determined period shall continue in force and effect in accordance with the terms and conditions under which it was issued.
- (4) Permits issued under section 41 of the previous Act shall continue in force and effect in accordance with the terms and conditions under which they were issued, but may not be renewed.

54. Repeal of laws

- (1) The laws mentioned in Schedule 3 are hereby repealed or amended to the extent set out in its third column.
- (2) Anything done under the provisions of a law repealed by subsection (1) and which could have been done under this Act shall be deemed to have been done under this Act.

55. Short title and commencement

- (1) This Act shall be referred to as the Immigration Act, 2002, and shall come into force and effect on a date determined by the President by proclamation in the Government Gazette.
- (2) The date of coming into force and effect of section 37 shall be determined in consultation with the Minister for Justice and Constitutional Development.
