GENERAL NOTICE BY THE NATIONAL UNION OF SECURITY OFFICERS AND GUARDS (NUSOG)

Notice is hereby given that the Executive Council of the National Union of Security Officers and Guards (NUSOG) has resolved to publish for general information and for the attention of the business community the following resolution adopted at a special meeting held on 9 November 1998 at its heads office, 41 Community House, Salt River Road, Salt River, Cape Town, telephone (021) 448-8050/1, fax number (021) 448-8052.

Contraventions of security trade sectoral determinations and related legislation

(1) The Union deems all security service contractors as temporary employment services as defined in section 198 of the Labour Relations Act, No. 66 of 1995, as amended, and section 82 of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, No. 75 of 1997.

(1) The Union deems all users of the services of Security Contractors as the clients in terms of the aforesaid sections 198 and 82 of the legislation mentioned above.

(3) However, the Union shall not hold the client jointly and severally liable with the security service contractor in respect of any of its employees when the contractor contravenes any economic sector's Bargaining Council's Agreement (also applicable to security officers), a binding Arbitration Award, the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, or any Sectoral Determination (also applicable to security officers) which regulates terms and conditions of employment of security officers, on condition that the client has first furnished all registered trade unions operating in the Contract Security Industry with full particulars of the contractors that renders security services on the premises of the client. Besides NUSOG, details of all other registered trade unions operating in the security industry are obtainable from the Department of Labour.

(4) All clients are respectfully advised to ensure that:

(a) the contractor is registered with the Security Officers' Board (the S.O.B.) whose particulars are:

Cape Town (021) 930-7670/1/2/3; Fax (021) 922-2156.

Port Elizabeth (041) 585-1848; Fax (041) 585-1878.

Durban (031) 301-1110; Fax (031) 301-1127.

Pretoria (H/O) (012) 324-3850; Fax (012) 324-6225.

(b) All contractors should, on request, furnish the client with a true copy of its certificate of registration issued in terms of the Security Officers' Act, No. 92 of 1987.

(c) All security officers, rendering security services on the premises of clients, are in possession of Training Completion Certificates of accredited Training Centres and S.O.B. Registration Cards. These documents provide prima facie proof that security officers have no criminal convictions.

(d) All security officers are in possession of a copy of the contractor's grievance procedure with grievance forms, the disciplinary code of the contractor, the client's security requirements, job description of the security officer and security operating procedures.

(e) The contractor has furnished the client with the sectoral wage determination prescribing the minimum wages which the law requires the contractor to pay security officers. (It is noted that the acceptance of cheap security contracts by clients inevitably leads to the payment of low wages, unprofessional conduct, the contravention of minimum standards and industrial action).

(f) all security officers employed on the premises of the client are South African Citizens in order to avoid the inherent security risk posed by foreign employees to the business of clients.

(5) The Union shall in consequence of clause 3 (0) of its Constitution and without any financial quid pro quo, when called upon to do so, provide all necessary security assistance and advice to clients, public bodies and communities in the event of crises and emergencies.

(6) Whenever lawful industrial action is intended against a contractor the Union shall first notify the client of such action being contemplated and shall endeavour to resolve the dispute, with the co-operation of the client, when the dispute control cannot be resolved by peaceful resolution mechanisms with the contractor concerned.

(7) NUSOG's union officials and representatives shall not unduly disrupt security operations and distract security officers in the performance of their duties when its representatives recruit members or otherwise service the interests of members in terms of section 12 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995.

(8) NUSOG officials and representatives shall not impersonate inspectors of the Security Officers' Board but it shall be the lawful function of any trade union representative to entertain grievances of members on site in cases of urgency and to report any contravention to the relevant authorities including the S.O.B. in terms of section 14 (4) of the Labour Relations Act.

(9) Union officials, organisers and trade union representatives shall positively identify themselves when requested by the client or the client's representative to do so.

(10) The Union respects the right to privacy of the client but expects all clients to reciprocate the right of any security officer to exercise his/her constitutional right to freedom of association, trade union affiliation and representation.

(11) In order to ensure that no exploitation and contraventions of minimum standards occur clients will be requested to disclose the contract prices paid to security contractors and the Union obtains the right of disclosure from the provisions of Section 32 (1) (b) of Chapter II (The Bill of Rights) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act No. 108 of 1996.

The General Secretary.

1.1.2 Klensade will bear its own costs arising out of the application which the Liquidators brought in the above case, including the costs relating to the Liquidators' application for leave to appeal.

2. Further, that the Joint Liquidators be authorised forthwith to implement the terms of this Resolution and thereafter submit, at the earliest possible opportunity, a First Liquidation and Distribution Account to the Master of the High Court (Transvaal Provincial Division), which Account shall—

2.1 take cognisance of the terms of the amended Klensade proposal;

2.2 provide for the retention by the Joint Liquidators of an amount equal to five cents in the Rand which would otherwise have been available for distribution to concurrent creditors, for the purposes of pursuing the disposition proceedings against the persons referred to in the Joint Liquidators' Sixth Report, other than Klensade, its officers and representatives."
