ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

Case Number: GCC 21/28/02/02

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: BONAKELE JEFFREY KEVA, Complainant, and MR DE BEER, Respondent*Introduction*

This matter concerns the Respondent's failure to comply with an oral agreement entered into between the Complainant and Respondent whereby the Respondent undertook to supply and fit a Toyota turbo diesel engine and gearbox (the engine) to the Applicant's Hyundai bakkie (the vehicle) in return for payment of an amount of R10 500.

The Respondent was given proper notice of the hearing but failed to attend. The hearing therefore proceeded in the Respondent's absence.

Evidence

Only the Complainant testified in support of his claim. According to the complainant, during August 2001 he purchased the vehicle from a motor dealership in Nigel for an amount of R80 000. The complainant saw many Hyundai bakkies and combis at the Respondent premises. Accordingly and sometime during September 2001, the Complainant approached the Respondent to ascertain whether the Respondent repaired Hyundai motor vehicles. The Respondent told the applicant that he was an engine conversion specialist and specialised in Hyundai/Toyota Engine (the Hyundai engine) in the vehicle was 'not up to standard' and would soon give problems. The Respondent offered to exchange it with the engine for an amount of R10 500, being R11 800 less a discount an amount of R10 500 in cash, for which he received a receipt from the Respondent. The complainant left the vehicle with the Respondent, who told the complainant that the work would be completed within 15 days.

When the Complainant returned to the Respondent's premises about 15 days later the Respondent told the complainant that the work had not been completed. The Respondent requested the Complainant to return the following day. The following day, the Complainant took possession of the vehicle after having accompanied the Respondent on a short test drive. The complainant then drove to Tsakane. The coolant and oil gauges started to rise as the Complainant approached Tsakane. The complainant inspected the engine and discovered that the water had heated up and reached boiling point. The complainant telephoned the Respondent, who told the Complainant that the problem was a minor.

The following day the Complainant telephoned the Respondent and reported that the engine continued to overheat. The Respondent asked the Complainant to bring the vehicle to the Respondent's premises for an inspection. At the Respondent's premises the Respondent switched the engine on, which caused boiling water to spill out. The Complainant left the vehicle with the Respondent for repair.

Three days later the Respondent telephoned the Complainant and asked the Complainant to collect the vehicle. When the Complainant did so, the Respondent assured the Complainant that the engine would not give the Complainant further problems. The Complainant then left the Respondent's premises. However, as the complainant approached Germiston the coolant and oil gauges started to rise again. The complainant refilled the water and oil tanks at a nearby petrol station. He also telephoned the Respondent to report that the engine was still overheating. The Respondent told the complainant to run the engine for 5 000 kilometres. The Complainant rejected the Respondent's advice because the exhaust pipe had started to emit heavy black smoke. It was clear to the complainant that the Respondent had not properly fitted the engine.

The complainant returned to the Respondent's premises. The Respondent was not there and the complainant spoke to the Respondent's son. The Respondent's son suggested that the Respondent should exchange the engine because it was apparent that the engine had serious problems. While the Respondent's son drove the Respondent home, the Complainant asked the Respondent's son to tell the Respondent to return the Hyundai engine to the Complainant because the Respondent had not done a proper job. The son told the Complainant that the Respondent had sold the Hyundai engine.

Two days later the complainant telephoned the Respondent, who told the complainant that he had rectified the problem by fitting a new diesel pump. The Respondent requested the complainant to collect the vehicle. On the same day, the complainant collected the vehicle only to discover that its condition had worsened. The engine continue to overheat, consumed excessive amounts of oil and emitted a cloud of smoke. It could barely travel beyond 20 kilometres per hour and ascend a steep road.

The complainant returned to the Respondent's premises. He told the Respondent to repair the engine and to return the Hyundai engine to him. The Respondent refused, racially insulted the Complainant and set his dogs on the Complainant. The Complainant left the premises upset and angry.

The complainant never gave the Hyundai engine to the Respondent and it was never part of the agreement that the Respondent would keep the Hyundai engine.

In response to questions from members of the Court, the Complainant said that the vehicle was 2 years old when the Respondent fitted the engine. He did not purchase a Toyota bakkie because Toyota bakkies are stolen in the townships. However, he wanted a Toyota engine because he had previously escaped a hijacking attempt while driving a Toyota bakkie.

Sometime after being chased off the Respondent's premises, the Complainant received a report that the vehicle was being stripped. The Complainant went to the Respondent's premises and discovered that the vehicle's ignition switch, lights and door locks were missing. The Respondent's son explained that thieves could have stolen the parts. The Complainant had little choice but to have the vehicle towed away.

The complainant was not given a warranty when he purchased the vehicle nor did the Respondent give the Complainant a warranty for the engine. The Complainant approached a Hyundai branch in Springs for a quotation to repair the vehicle. The Hyundai representative gave the Complainant a note, which recorded that the price of a used Hyundai 2.5DTi vehicle would be R70 000.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

The Complainant sought the return of the amount of R10 500 and the Hyundai engine.

Analysis of evidence

The Respondent's failure to attend the hearing meant that the Court was restricted to the evidence presented by the Complainant at the hearing. The evidence reveals that the Respondent held himself out to be a Hyundai/Toyota conversion specialist. Further, that the Respondent undertook to supply and fit the engine to the vehicle in return for payment of R10 500. The Complainant paid the Respondent the amount of R10 500 but received an engine that was clearly defective. Not only did the Respondent fail to comply with his side of the agreement but he also rendered the vehicle unroadworthy.

The evidence also reveals that the Complainant did not give the Hyundai engine to the Respondent and the Respondent offered to pay the Complainant an amount of R4 000 for it. Ultimately, the Complainant and Respondent did not conclude an agreement for the sale of the Hyundai engine and the Complainant is therefore entitled to the return of the Hyundai engine.

Determination

Accordingly, the Court—

1. finds that the Respondent's failure to supply and fit the engine in reasonable working order to the Complainant's vehicle constitutes an unfair business practice;
2. orders the Respondent to refund to the Complainant the amount of R10 500 within 14 days of the date of this award;
3. finds that the Respondent's retention of the Hyundai engine constitutes an unfair business practice; and
4. orders the Respondent to return the Hyundai engine to the complainant within 14 days of the date of this award.

Case Number: GCC 06/07/00

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT

Held at Johannesburg

In the matter between GWILYM EVANS, Complainant, and ARCHIBALD AND ASSOCIATES, Respondent

JUDGMENT

INTRODUCTION

This matter concerns the respondent's failure or refusal to realise the complainant's R10 000,00 stamp investment with the respondent and to pay over the proceeds of the investments to the complainant.

Although the respondent is formally cited as "Archibald & Associates", it has on various occasions represented itself to the complainant and the general public under the styles of "Ian Archibald & Associates (Pty) Ltd," "Ian Archibald", "Ian Archibald & Associates", "Stampex", "Stampex Management" and "Stampex Portfolio Management". The Respondent's Ian Archibald (Archibald) concerned in court that he was 'Mr Stampex'. Accordingly, the court finds it appropriate in this instance to pierce the corporate veil and for the purposes of this judgment to regard the respondent and all the aforementioned persons as one and the same.

EVIDENCE

Michael North (North) and Archibald testified on behalf of the complainant and respondent respectively. The factual background which emerged from their evidence, is set out below.

On 1 April 1987 the complainant placed with the respondent the amount of R10 000,00 as an investment in a "Stampex" contract. In return, the respondent handed the complainant a signed Stampex Certificate, Number 87 04 31 13, which constituted the contract between the parties (the contract).

The relevant parts of the contract provide that:

1. The investment is "one of ownership of the United States Dollar index—linked portfolio of postage stamps as held in safe keeping by the Standard Bank of South Africa as instructed by Stampex Management on behalf of the Gwilym Evans";
2. At the purchase date "the Stampex Index stood at 1194";
3. "This Certificate may be submitted by the Owner or if coded the Bearer, to the Stampex Management for Re-sale of the portfolio it represents at any time whatsoever in the future";
4. "Stampex Management guarantees to repurchase the portfolio at Index Price and to make payment in SA Rand or in US Dollars in accordance with the conditions of the reverse side of this document"; and
5. Paragraph 4 of the conditions on the reverse side of the contract provides that:

"When you Re-sell your Stampex you are paid out at Index Price less Brokerage of 6 percent on holdings of more than R20 000, 8 percent on holdings between R5 000-00 and R20 000-00 and 10 percent on holdings less than R5 000-00. Management guaranteed to pay your Index Price applicable the time of re-sale, in either South Africa, the United Kingdom or the United States. Your material is either bought into the Management Reserve, transferred to another Stampex client, or sold on the stamp market where any shortfall in price realisation is made good out of the Fidelity Fund."

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

During the ensuing years, the respondent forwarded to the complainant periodic letters and other communications regarding the state of the latter's investment, setting out the "index", "stampex index", "gross index" or "dollar index". Such terms are used interchangeably. The "index" was fixed from time to time by the respondent after consulting such sources and market indicators he deemed appropriate.

During September 1998 the complainant emigrated from South Africa to New Zealand.

On 13 January 1999, the complainant authorised North, a qualified chartered accountant and management consultant in Johannesburg, to act on his behalf and forwarded to North all documents in his possession pertaining to this matter. North had a power of attorney to act for the complainant at all relevant times.

On 26 January 1999, the Respondent confirmed in a letter to the complainant that the Stampex U S Dollar Index stood at 1204.

On 7 February 1999, North met with Archibald and communicated the complainant's instruction that the respondent realise the complainant's investment and pay the proceeds in US Dollars into a nominated overseas bank account. At this meeting, Archibald informed North that no specific portfolio stamps had been allocated to the complaint's investment and the complainant's security lay in the respondent's large collection of stamps.

The respondent handed to the court a document purporting to be an amended contract between the parties dated 1 March 1988 (the amended contract).

The amendment contract materially changes the complainant's rights should he wish to realise his investment. Paragraphs 6 and 7 of the amended contract provide that:

"(6) Stampex Management may alter, add to or adapt as to detail, any of the above procedures and conditions providing only that such changes are in the fiduciary interests of a majority of Stampex holders; and

(7) Notwithstanding anything herein above, Management may in its sole discretion at any time of its choosing, terminate this contract by returning the portfolio holder's stamps as purchased to him plus additional stamps to the then value of 25% of said stamps, with no fees due in terms of paragraphs 2 and 4 above, in which case the holder accepts that he will pay only the time and out of pocket costs incurred by Management specific to his portfolio."

The amended contract was signed and initialled by the respondent and allegedly posted to the complainant. The complainant denied receiving the amended contract had no knowledge of it and in any event, would never have agreed to its unfavourable terms.

ARGUMENTS AND ANALYSIS OF THE EVIDENCE

In argument, the respondent submitted that the contract had been superseded by the amended contract, which entitled the respondent to settle the complainant's claim by handing to the complainant a parcel of stamps rather than pay to the complainant an amount of cash.

We do not agree. It is a basic principle of the law of contract that for a contract to be binding the terms thereof must be agreed to by the parties. The probabilities show overwhelmingly that the complainant did not agree to the terms of the amended contract. First, there was no evidence that the complainant ever signed or initialled the amended contract or ever agreed to its terms. Second, the respondent only raised the amended contract for the first time at court, which was after a long history of correspondence, communications and negotiations between the parties. Moreover, the respondent effectively abandoned this group of its defence by conceding that there was a high likelihood that the complainant never received the amended contract. This ground of the respondent's defence must therefore fail.

The respondent also submitted that it had been unable to realise the complainant's investment because the complainant was at the end of a long line of disinvestors and the complainant would have to wait his turn. The respondent was experiencing difficulty in disposing the stamps on the local market due to a cyclical downswing in prices coupled with an over supply of and poor demand for stamps. In this regard, the respondent has previously taken up to 20 years to dispose of an investor's stamp portfolio but was unable to state what the shortest period of time had been.

The issue before us is not about the state of the stamp market but one of compliance with the contract. The contract specifically provides that the respondent guarantees to repurchase the portfolio at the index price and to make payment in SA Rand or in US Dollars. The respondent's interpretation that a disinvestor could have to wait up to 20 years or until market conditions were favourable to realise an investment amounts to an absurdity, which could never have been contemplated by the parties. It follows that this ground of the respondent's defence must also fail.

It would appear that the respondent, in its eagerness to attract investments from the public assumed contractual obligations, which subsequently did not prove as profitable as it had hoped. The depreciation of the S A Rand against the US dollar is a matter of public record and in that regard, the court sympathises with the respondent.

CALCULATION OF THE INVESTMENT VALUE

The respondent certified the index figure on 31 January 1999 and 28 February 1999 to be 1204. Therefore, the index figure on 7 February 1999 was 1204. The complainant calculated the value of the investment in US Dollars as at 7 February 1999, which calculation was not disputed by the respondent, as follows:

Value of contract as at 7 February 1999 in U S Dollars:	$3 729,86
Resale brokerage at 8% in U S Dollars:	$ 298,39
Net Realisable value in U S Dollars:	$3 431,47

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)DETERMINATION

Accordingly, the court:

1. Finds that the respondent's failure to execute the complainant's instruction to realise the complainant's R10 000,000 investment with the respondent constitutes an unfair business practice; and
2. orders the respondent to deposit into the complainant's nominated bank account to pay to the Gauteng Office for Consumer Affairs the amount of US $3 431,47, together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from 7 February 1999 to the date of payment.

Trevor Bailey, Alternate Chairperson.

21 February 2002.

Members H Knoppe, E Francis and P Madlala concur with this judgment.

And whereas this arrangement subject to the Consumer Affairs Court confirming it has an effect on an order of court by publication in the Gauteng Provincial Gazette:

Now therefore the parties conclude the following arrangement subject to confirmation by the Court in accordance with section 21 of the Act, and agree as follows:

1. The Respondent will withdraw the action issued against the Complainant in the amount of R3 400,00 issued out of the Magistrate's Court for the district of Johannesburg.
2. The Respondent will make available a reconstructed house in the same area where the stands which form the subject-matter of the dispute between the parties are located.
3. The reconstructed house will be made available at a purchase consideration of no less than R23 000,00, consisting of an amount of R7 000,00 to be paid to the Respondent by the Complainant and a housing subsidy of R16 000,00 provided by the Gauteng Housing Board, including transfer and administration fees (if any).
4. The Respondent undertakes to repair a reconstructed house to a satisfactory condition and in terms of the specification as agreed upon between the parties, such repairs will be conducted within one month after the signing of this agreement.
5. The Complainant declares that she inspected the houses and that she has chosen to elect Erf 1293 Vosloorus Extension 3 as identified in Annexure "A" attached hereto.
6. It is recorded that the Consumer Protector will monitor the registration process of the property into the name of the Complainant to its completion.
7. Occupation to the house and stand will be given by the Respondent to the Complainant as and when:
 - 7.1 The subsidy in the amount of R16 000,00 payable by the Gauteng Housing Board is received by the Respondent. It is recorded that the subsidy will only be paid after the house has been inspected by the relevant authority;
 - 7.2 the Complainant signed an authority, to the satisfaction of the Consumer Protector, authorising the Respondent to deduct the amount of R200,00 per month from her salary, until the amount of R7 000,00 as referred to hereinabove, has been paid in full;
 - 7.3 all documents and forms necessary for the transfer of the stand that forms the subject-matter of the dispute between the parties are signed by the Complainant.
 - 7.4 the reconstructed house has been inspected by an inspector from the NHBRC (National Homebuilders Registration Council) and a report has been received by the Consumer Protector to his satisfaction.
8. The Consumer Protector undertakes that he will expedite all transactions between the Gauteng Housing Board and the Respondent.
9. The parties agree that all risk pertaining to the property and the house will fall on the Complainant as from the date of occupation of the house by the Complainant. The parties agree that the date of occupation will be confirmed in writing by the Complainant, same being handed to the Consumer Protector. The Complainant hereby undertakes to occupy the property on a date as soon as possible after all the conditions precedent for occupation have been met.
10. The parties agree that this is in full and final settlement between them and that no further action will be taken against each other in the Consumer Court of any other Court whatsoever.
