LIST OF FIXED TARIFF RATES AND CONDITIONS

FOR PUBLICATION OF LEGAL NOTICES IN THE GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

COMMENCEMENT: 1 JULY 2004

(LEGAL NOTICES FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS)

LIST OF FIXED RATES

(In order to bring the cost of advertising of legal notices more in line with the cost in the private sector, and to reduce the burden of cross subsidy by departments, it is recommended that the rate be increased by 11%, rounded off to the nearest rand, and be implemented as from 1 April 2003.)

CONDITIONS FOR PUBLICATION OF LEGAL NOTICES

CLOSING TIMES FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF NOTICES

1. (1) The Government Gazette is published every week on Friday, and the closing time for the acceptance of notices which have to appear in the Government Gazette on any particular Friday, is 15:00 on the preceding Friday. Should any Friday coincide with a public holiday, the date of publication of the Government Gazette and the closing time of the acceptance of notices will be published in the Government Gazette from time to time.
- (2) Applications for Public Road Carrier Permits—Closing times for the acceptance of notices: Notices must be handed in not later than 15:00 on the Friday, two calendar weeks before the date of publication.
- (3) The copy for a separate Government Gazette must be handed in not later than three calendar weeks before date of publication.
2. (1) Copy of notices received after closing time will be held over for publication in the next Government Gazette.
- (2) Amendment or changes in copy of notices cannot be undertaken unless instructions are received before 10:00 on Mondays.

- (4) Copy of notices for publication or amendments of original copy cannot be accepted over the telephone and must be brought about by letter, by telegram or by hand.
- (5) In the case of cancellations a refund of the cost of a notice will be considered only if the instruction to cancel has been received on or before the stipulated closing time as indicated in paragraph 1.

APPROVAL OF NOTICES

3. Any notices other than legal notices are subject to the approval of the Government Printer, who may refuse acceptance or further publication of any notice.

THE GOVERNMENT PRINTER INDEMNIFIED AGAINST LIABILITY

4. The Government Printer will assume no liability in respect of—
 - (1) any delay in the publication of a notice or publication of such notice on any date other than that stipulated by the advertiser;
 - (2) erroneous classification of a notice, or the placement of such notice in any section or under any heading other than the section or heading stipulated by the advertiser;
 - (3) any editing, revision, omission, typographical errors or errors resulting from faint or indistinct copy.

LIABILITY OF ADVERTISER

5. Advertisers will be held liable for any compensation and costs arising from any action which may be instituted against the Government Printer in consequence of the publication of any notice.

COPY

6. Copy of notices must be typed on one side of the paper only and may not constitute part of any covering letter or document.
7. At the top of any copy, and set well apart from the notice, the following must be stated:
 - (1) The kind of notice.

Please note: Prospective advertisers are urgently requested to clearly indicate under which headings their advertisements or notices should be inserted in order to prevent such notices/advertisements from being wrongly placed.

- (2) The heading under which the notice is to appear.
 - (3) The rate (e.g. "Fixed tariff rate" or "Word count rate") applicable to the notice, and the cost of publication.
8. All proper names and surnames must be clearly legible, surnames being underlined or typed in capital letters. In the event of a name being incorrectly printed as a result of indistinct writing, the notice will be republished only upon payment of the cost of a new insertion.

PAYMENT OF COST

9. With effect from 1 JANUARY 2001 no notice will be accepted for publication unless the cost of the insertion(s) is prepaid in CASH or by BANK GUARANTEED CHEQUE or POSTAL ORDERS. REVENUE STAMPS AND FRANKED REVENUE STAMPS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
10. (1) The cost of a notice must be calculated by the advertiser in accordance with—
 - (a) the List of Fixed Tariff Rates; or
 - (b) where the fixed tariff rate does not apply, the word count rate.
- (2) Where there is any doubt about the cost of publication of a notice, and in the case of copy in excess of 1 600 words, an enquiry, accompanied by the relevant copy, should be addressed to the Advertising Section, Government Printing Works, Private Bag X85, Pretoria, 0001 (Fax: 323-8805), before publication.
11. Overpayment resulting from miscalculation on the part of the advertiser of the cost of publication of a notice will not be refunded, unless the advertiser furnishes adequate reasons why such miscalculation occurred. In the event of underpayments, the difference will be recovered from the advertiser, and the notice(s) will not be published until such time as the full cost of such publication has been duly paid in cash or by bank-guaranteed cheque or postal orders.
12. In the event of a notice being cancelled, a refund will be made only if no cost regarding the placing of the notice has been incurred by the Government Printing Works.
13. The Government Printer reserves the right to levy an additional charge in cases where notices, the cost of which has been calculated in accordance with the List of Fixed Tariff Rates, are subsequently found to be excessively lengthy or to contain overmuch or complicated tabulation.

PROOF OF PUBLICATION

14. Copies of the Government Gazette which may be required as proof of publication, may be ordered from the Government Printer at the ruling price. The Government Printer will assume no liability for any failure to post such Government Gazette(s) or for any delay in despatching it/them.

In the ex parte application of: THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and in re: A white Toyota Camry bearing registration number MJF 397 GP

Having read the documents filed of record and having considered the matter:

The Court Grants the following Order:

1. An order is granted in terms of the provisions of section 38(1) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, No. 121 of 1998 ("the Act") preserving a Toyota Camry bearing registration number MJF 397 GP ("the property").

2. Subject to the provisions of this order, all persons which knowledge of this order are prohibited in terms of section 38(1) of the Act from removing, pledging, disposing of, dissipating, interfering with, taking possession of or control over, diminishing the value thereof, attaching or selling in execution or otherwise dealing in any manner with the property.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

3. The property shall remain in the custody of the SAPS, Intelligence Unit, Jeppe Station, Johannesburg until the outcome of the proceedings to be instituted in terms of section 48 of the Act or until the matter is otherwise concluded.

Service and Publication:

4. The Applicant is directed in terms of section 39 of the Act—

4.1 to cause notice of this order, in the form set out in "Annexure B" hereto, together with documents supporting the application, to be served by the Sheriff on Lizwe Nyathi at Piet Retief prison and on Luleka Bangani at her current known address being 5 number corner Charles Street and Appolonia Street, Troyville, Johannesburg, alternatively by way of substituted service by publishing the order in The Star newspaper circulating in the Gauteng area, as soon as practicable after the order is granted. This shall constitute compliance with section 39(1)(a) read with section 39(2) of the Act; and

4.2 to cause notice of this order together with copies of the documents supporting the application, to be served on any other person who becomes known to the Application to have an interest in the property.

Entry of appearance to oppose forfeiture order:

5. Any person who has an interest in the property and who intends—

5.1 to oppose the application for an order forfeiting the property to the State; or

5.2 to apply for an order excluding his or her interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, must enter an appearance giving notice of such intention in terms of section 39(3) of the Act ("an appearance").

6. Such appearance shall be delivered to the National Director—

6.1 in the case of a person upon whom service is effected under paragraph 4.1 supra, within 14 days after such service; and

6.2 in the case of any other person, 14 days after the date upon which a notice in terms of paragraph 4.2 supra, was published in the Government Gazette.

7. An appearance in terms of section 39, must contain full particulars of the chosen address for the delivery of documents concerning further proceedings under this matter and shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting out—

7.1 full particulars of the identity of the person entering the appearance, the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned; and

7.2 the basis of the defence upon which he or she intends to rely in opposing a forfeiture order or applying for the exclusion of his or her interests from the operation thereof.

8. Any person who is affected by the order may on good cause shown (including that no other suitable remedy is available to protect his/her legitimate rights and/or interests) upon 72 hours notice (or such shorter period as the Court may determine on good cause shown) to the Applicant and all other persons listed in paragraph 4 but not later than 8 days after becoming aware of the existence of the order, apply for reconsideration thereof.

9. Further and/or alternative relief.

By the Court.—Registrar.

Case 04/15175

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA
(Witwatersrand Local Division)

In the ex parte application between: THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and in re: A white Toyota Camry bearing registration number MJF 397 GP

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39(1)(b) OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT, ACT 121 OF 1998
CONCERNING A TOYOTA CAMRY BEARING REGISTRATION NUMBER MJF 397 GP ("THE PROPERTY")

This notice is directed to Luleka Bangani of number 5 corner Charles Street and Appolonia Street, Troyville, Johannesburg and to all persons who have an interest in the property, which is described above. It is meant to advise such persons of some of the options available to them.

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions has obtained a preservation of property order ("the order"), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 38 (2) of the Act in respect of the property.

2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, how to protect it.

3. You are advised that the National Director of Public Prosecutions will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the Act for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The preservation of property order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

4. If you intend opposing the application for forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 39 (3), (4) and (5) of the Act. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

5. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order, you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the Applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

6. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order, the Court may grant an order forfeiting the property to the State by default under section 53 of the Act.

7. Any person who is affected by the order may on good cause shown (including that no other remedy is available to protect his/her legitimate interest) upon 72 hours notice (or such shorter period as the court may determine on good cause shown) to the Applicant but not later than 8 days after becoming aware of the existence of the order, apply for a reconsideration thereof.

Case No. 2004/14428
PH No. 1000

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA
(Witwatersrand Local Division)

Johannesburg, 6 July 2004, before the Honourable Judge Malan

In the matter between THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant

In re:

A certain immovable property being Portion 52 of Erf 965, situated at Number 52 Hamilton Mews, Dulcie Close, Lonehill, R162 770,00 in cash seized by the South African Police on 13 February 2004, held under Douglasdale Cas 396/2/2004, and stored in the SAPS SAP 13 storeroom under reference 22/04; and other movable property

Having read the documents filed of record and having considered the matter:

The Court grants the following order:

The property:

1. This order relates to the property specified in Schedule A hereto or property representing such property ("the property").

Prohibition against dealing in any manner with the property;

2. In terms of section 38 (2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, No. 121 of 1998 ("the Act") all persons with knowledge of this order, are, other than as required and permitted by this order, prohibited from:

2.1 Removing, taking possession of or control over, dissipating, interfering with, diminishing the value of, pledging or otherwise hypothecating, attaching or selling in execution or dealing in any other manner with any of the movable property to which this order relates;

2.2 disposing of, further encumbering, dissipating, interfering with, attaching or selling in execution, diminishing the value of or dealing in any other manner with any of the immovable property to which this order relates.

3. The Registrar of Deeds shall endorse the title Deed of the immovable property specified in Schedule A with the restriction that the property, or property representing such property, shall not, without the prior leave of this Honourable Court, be attached, sold in execution, further mortgaged or otherwise encumbered; provided that such endorsement shall not prevent a transfer of the property effected in accordance with paragraph 6 hereunder.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this order, any person who has financial obligations in respect of any of the property is ordered to fulfil such obligations, including any obligations relating to mortgage bonds, vehicle finance, rates, taxes, licenses, amenities such as water and electricity, and all interest accruing in respect of such obligations.

Curator bonis:

5. In terms of section 42 of the Act, Mr Herman de Beer of the firm, KPMG with telephone number (011) 674-7110, is appointed as curator bonis over the property ("the curator"). The curator shall have all such powers, duties and authority as provided for in the Act and this Order shall, in addition, be subject to the applicable provisions of the Administration of Estates Act, 66 of 1965.

6. The curator bonis is authorised to assume control of the property and to take any movable property into his custody; take care of the property; and administer the property and do anything necessary for the purpose of preserving such property while the Order is in force. Provided that the curator bonis may dispose of some or all of the property or property representing such property;

6.1 on 30 days notice to the owner and, in the case of the immovable property cited in Schedule A, the bondholder if the obligations in respect of the property concerned are not being met; or

6.2 with the agreement of all parties who have a legal interest in the property concerned with a view to defraying the costs of administering the property.

7. Notwithstanding the provisions set out above, and where appropriate, the curator bonis, will be entitled to pay any expenses related to preserved property, which would ordinarily be carried by the owner, out of any income derived from such property, or from income derived from other preserved property of such owner.

8. In the event of the sale of immovable property in accordance with this order, the curator bonis may facilitate such sale and pay the commission of the estate agent in terms of the sale agreement, as well as other fees and costs attendant on the transfer of the property, after the proceeds of the sale have been received and registration of the property, after the proceeds of the sale have been received and registration of the property has taken place.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)Surrender of property and safeguards:

9. Any person who holds any of the property is directed in terms of section 42 (1) (b) of the Act to surrender such property forthwith into the custody of the curator bonis, failing which any member of the South African Police Service is hereby authorised, on the instruction of the curator bonis, to seize such property and to place it in the custody of the curator bonis.

10. Before any such seizure of property takes place, the person from whose possession property is to be seized, shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity, under the supervision of the curator bonis and/or any member of the SAPS who may be present, to summon a legal representative to be present during the seizure.

11. If it should appear to the curator bonis, from circumstances of which he shall keep a contemporaneous note, that the right to summon a legal representative is being made the occasion of needless or unreasonable delay, or that the person concerned appears to be using the delay to create an opportunity to dissipate or conceal or divest themselves of property or in any other manner obstruct the curator bonis in carrying out his or her functions under this Order, the curator bonis may, after warning those present that the search is to commence, authorised the members of the SAPS to proceed with the seizure forthwith, whether or not the legal representative is then present.

12. If any of the property is not surrendered to the curator bonis or seized and placed in his custody in accordance with this order, the curator bonis is authorised to require the person who holds or who held such property to disclose on affidavit, within a reasonable time specified by the curator, full details of the whereabouts of such property or the proceeds thereof.

Reports by curator bonis:

13. The curator bonis shall file a report with the Registrar of this Honourable Court within 30 days of the granting of the preservation order which shall contain an inventory of the property taken into his custody in terms of this Order, and wherein he shall set out the steps that have been taken by him to give effect to this Order, and make such further recommendations as he may deem fit with regard to any other steps he might be required to take in order to give effect to such Order, and the curator bonis shall file supplementary reports containing relevant information as and when such reports become necessary.

Fees and expenditure of curator bonis:

14. The fees and expenditure of the curator bonis shall in terms of section 42 (2) of the Act be paid from the forfeited property and, in the event of no forfeiture order being granted, then such fees and expenditure shall be paid by the State: Provided that interest on expenditure incurred by the curator shall be paid by the State at the legal rate of interest from the date of expenditure until the date of final payment.

Living and legal expenses:

15. If any Respondent or any other person holding an interest in the property satisfies the Court that—

15.1 he or she is unable to meet his or her reasonable living expenses or those of his or her family or household, or

15.2 he or she is unable to meet his or her reasonable legal expenses in connection with any proceedings instituted against him or her in terms of the Act or any other related criminal proceedings; and

15.3 he or she cannot meet the expenses concerned out of his or her property that is not subject to this order, the Court may, subsequent to the granting of this order, make appropriate provisions for the payment of such expenses as in the Court's determination are reasonable out of the property subject to this order; Provided that no such provision for the payment of such expenses may be made unless the person concerned has disclosed under oath all his or her interest in the property and has provided to the Court a full and sworn written statement of his or her assets and liabilities.

Service and publication:

In the ex parte application of THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant

In re:

A certain immovable property being Portion 52 of Erf 965, situated at Number 52 Hamilton Mews, Dulcie Close, Lonehill, R162 770,00 in cash seized by the South African Police on 13 February 2004, held under Douglasdale Case 396/2/2004, and stored in the SAPS SAP 13 storeroom under reference 22/04; and other movable property

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) (b) OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT, ACT 121 OF 1998 ("THE ACT")

This notice is address to:

- Bright Moyo/Okuchukwe Aneke in his personal capacity and in his capacity as sole member of the close corporation, Brighton Inter Biz CC;

- Kevin Kingsley Aneke;

- Standard Bank as the bondholder of property situated at 52 Hamilton Mews, Dulcie Close, Lonehill;

and

to all other persons who have an interest in the property, being that listed in Schedule A attached hereto.

Kindly notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions has obtained a preservation of property order ("the Order"), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 28 (2) of the Act in respect of the property.

2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, how to protect it.

3. You are advised that the National Director of Public Prosecutions will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the Act for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The preservation of property order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

4. If you intend opposing the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the Order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the Order and are also dealt with in sections 39 (3) (4) and (5) of the Act. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

5. If you enter an appearance in terms of the Order you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the Applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

6. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the Order the court may grant an order forfeiting the property to the State by default under section 53 of the Act.

7. You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 72 hours notice to the Applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the Order, apply for reconsideration of the Order.

NORTHERN CAPE NOORD-KAAP

Case No. 874/2003

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA
(Northern Cape Provincial Division)

Kimberley, the 30th day of July 2004, before the Honourable Mr Acting Justice Musi

In the matter between: THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and FRANCOISE RICHARD HUMAN, First Respondent, LEON BLOCK, Second Respondent, YESTAM CASSIM, Third Respondent, ABSA BANK LIMITED, Fourth Respondent, and EDWARD G PETERS, Fifth Respondent

In re: A VW Golf bearing Reg. No. JWM 897 GP and a VW Jetta, bearing Reg. No. BJZ 249 NC

In the application for a forfeiture order in terms of section 48 (1) of Act 121 of 1998

Having read the documents filed of record and having considered the matter:

It is hereby Ordered that:

1.1 An order is granted in terms of Section 50 (1) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, Act No. 121 of 1998 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), declaring forfeited to the State the following property which is presently the subject of a preservation of property order granted by the Honourable Acting Judge Tlaetsi (as he then was) on the 19th of September 2003 under Case No. 874/2003 ("the preservation order") subject to the exclusion of the Fifth Respondent's Interest of R30 000 in the property:

1.1.1 a silver VW Jetta, with Reg. No. BJZ 249 NC (hereinafter referred to as "the property").

2. Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4 below, the property shall remain in the custody of the South African Police Services, Kimberley;

3. Inspector Pieter Jacobus Willem Serfontein of the Organised Crime Unit, Kimberley, is hereby appointed as curator bonis. The curator bonis is vested in his official capacity, with the normal powers and duties as set out in Section 57 of the Act.

4. Over and above the powers and obligations of the curator bonis as contained in the Act, the curator bonis shall ensure that the following is attended to:

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

4.1 The curator bonis shall sell the VW Jetta. From the proceeds obtained from the sale of the VW Jetta, he shall first pay the sum of R3 000 to the Fifth Respondent, Edward G. Peters, and the remainder or any balance from such proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the Criminal Assets Recovery Account, namely CARA.

4.2 Further the property shall be stored in the safe custody of the South African Police Services under the direct supervision and control of the curator bonis until the fulfilment of the forfeiture order, during which period the curator bonis and/or his delegate may at any time inspect the property.

5. The appointment of the curator bonis is subject to the provisions of the Administration of Estates Act, Act 66 of 1965, under the supervision of the Master of the High Court.

6. The expenditure of the curator bonis will be paid from the proceeds of the forfeited property on fulfilment of the forfeiture order.

7. The Registrar of the above Honourable Court is directed in terms of Section 50 (5) of the Act to publish a notice of this Order in the Government Gazette as soon as is practical after the order is made.

8. Any person affected by the forfeiture order, and who was entitled to receive notice of the application under Section 48 (2) of the Act but did not receive notice, may within 45 days after the publication of the notice of the forfeiture order in the Gazette, apply for an order under Section 54 of the Act, excluding his or her or its interest in the property, varying the operation of the order in respect of the property.

9. The Applicant is directed to cause notice of this Order to be served on the Second and Fifth Respondents.

10. All the paragraphs of the order operate with immediate effect, except that the curator bonis shall not exercise his powers in terms of paragraph 4 above until a possible appeal is disposed of in terms of Section 55 of the Act or on the day of that application for the exclusion of the interest in the forfeited property in terms of Section 54 of the Act is disposed of, or after the expiry of the period in which an application may be made in terms of Section 54 of the Act.

By the Court.—H. J. Brand, Registrar.

WESTERN CAPE
WES-KAAP

Case No. 6134/04

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA
(Cape of Good Hope Provincial Division)

Cape Town, Thursday, 29 July 2004, before the Honourable Ms Acting Justice Williams

In the ex parte application of: THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and MENELISI MADOLO, First Respondent, and THEMBA MGQWASI, Second Respondent

Notice of Motion and other documents filed of record and having heard counsel for the Applicant, without prior notice to the Respondents:

It is Ordered that:

A rule nisi is hereby issued calling upon the Respondents to show cause before the Honourable Court, on 2 September 2004 at 10h00 or as soon thereafter as council may be heard why an order in the following terms should not be made final.

1. A provisional preservation order is granted in terms of section 38 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 21 of 1998 ("the Act"), preserving the items listed in schedule 1 hereto.

2. In terms of section 38 of the Act, Respondents, together with all other persons with knowledge of this Order, are prohibited from disposing of, encumbering, dissipating, interfering with, diminishing the value of or dealing in any other manner with the property except as required or permitted by this Order.

3. The Registrar of Deeds shall endorse the title deed in respect of the immovable property specified in this Order with the restriction that the property shall not, without the prior leave of this Honourable Court, be attached, sold in execution, mortgaged or otherwise encumbered.

4. Susan Dean of the Investigative Accounting Group (Pty) Ltd is appointed in terms of section 42 of the Act as curator bonis over the property, with all such powers, duties and authority as are reasonably incidental thereto.

5. The property shall vest in the control of the curator bonis and/or shall remain in her custody until the expiration of this Order in terms of section 40 of the Act or until the conclusion of the forfeiture proceedings instituted by the Applicant in respect of the property under section 48 of the Act, or until this matter is otherwise concluded.

6. - 5.2 The speaker, after consultation with the chairperson concerned, may change the date, time or venue of a scheduled meeting.
6. Determination of venue and time of special committee meetings.
- 6.1 The speaker, after consultation with the chairperson of a Section 79-committee, may convene a special meeting of the Section 79-committee concerned at a venue, time and place determined by him or her.
- 6.2 The speaker must, if a majority of the members of the Section 79-committee who are councillors requests him or her in writing to convene a special Section 79-committee meeting-
- 6.2.1 convene such special 79-committee meeting on a date set out in the request and at a time and venue determined by him or her; and
- 6.2.2 supply a copy of the request to the chairperson of the relevant committee.
- 6.3 As soon as the speaker has determined the date, time and meeting of such special committee meeting, he or she must inform the chairperson of the relevant committee thereof.
- 6.4 A request to call a special Section 79-committee meeting must set out the matter to be dealt with at such special meeting. No business other than that specified in the notice convening a special meeting or set out in the request referred to in rule 6.2 may be dealt with at such meeting.
7. Determination of time and venue of public meetings.
- 7.1 The speaker must -
- 7.1.1 when so requested by petition signed by at least 250 voters; or
- 7.1.2 in terms of a council resolution convene a public meeting of voters to discuss and decide a matter affecting the interests of the residents within the municipal area.
- 7.2 As soon as the speaker has determined the date, time and venue of a public meeting of voters, he or she must inform the municipal manager thereof. The date determined for a public meeting of voters may not be less than fourteen days after the date of publication of the notice in terms of rule 10.
- 7.3 A petition or resolution to convene a public meeting of voters must set out the matter to be dealt with at that meeting. No business other than that specified in the notice convening a public meeting of voters may be dealt with at such a meeting.
8. Meeting by telephonic - or videoconference.
- 8.1 The council may hold a council or committee meeting using telecommunications or video conferencing facilities if all the councillors and traditional leaders who are required to attend the meeting concerned have access to the required facilities.
- 8.2 A meeting in terms of rule 8.1 is subject to these standing rules and orders, provided that the venue stated in the notice of the meeting must be the places where councillors and traditional leaders can access the facilities required for the meeting.
9. Public hearings.
- 9.1 The council or the speaker or the executive mayor may at any time convene a public hearing on any matter affecting the interest of the residents within the municipal area.
- 9.2 Whenever a public hearing is to be convened, the councillor or body convening the hearing must determine the date, time and venue of such hearing. If more than one public hearing is to be held at different venues in the municipal area or with different constituencies or with different constituencies at different venues, the councillor or body convening the hearing must determine a schedule of hearings setting out the different venues and dates for those hearings.
- 9.3 No public hearing may be convened on the same day as a council meeting.
- 9.4 The council or the speaker or the executive mayor convening a public hearing must determine the subject matter of that hearing and may identify the constituencies that must be specifically invited to attend or to make representations at the hearing and supply their particulars to the municipal manager. Any person so invited must participate in the hearing at his or her own cost.

PART 2: NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

10. Notice of council and committee meetings.
- 10.1 The speaker must, unless otherwise provided in these rules, give notice of at least ninety-six hours in writing of the date, venue and time for the holding of an ordinary meeting -
- 10.1.1 of the council, including a continuation meeting in terms of rule 42, to every councillor, traditional leader if necessary and departmental head;
- 10.1.2 of a committee, including a continuation meeting in terms of rule 42, to every member of the committee concerned and departmental head;
- 10.2 The notice period referred to in rule 10.1 does not apply when the municipal manager deems it necessary to table an urgent matter for the council's consideration.
- 10.3 A councillor, traditional leader and departmental head to whom notice had been given in terms of rule 10.1 is, until such date, venue or time is changed and written notice of such change has been given, required to attend the meeting stipulated in the notice without further notice.
- 10.4 A notice referred to in rule 10.1 given to a councillor, traditional leader and a departmental head must contain the agenda for the meeting concerned (except in the case of a continuation meeting in terms of rule 42). In the case of a special meeting in terms of rules 4 or 6, the agenda may contain only the matter that must be dealt with at the meeting.
- 10.5 A notice in terms of rule 10 given to a councillor, traditional leader and departmental head is deemed read for the purpose of the meeting to which it applies.
- 10.6 The speaker must, unless otherwise provided in these rules, at least twenty four hours or the last workday before the stipulated time, whichever is the earlier, give notice in writing of the date, venue and time for the holding of a special council meeting and the provisions of sections 10.1.1 to 10.5 apply mutatis mutandis in any such case.

11. Notice of public meetings of voters and public hearings.
- 11.1 The speaker must, with due regard for rules 11.3 and 11.4 after receipt of the particulars of a meeting referred to in rule 7.1, by notice in the press and placed on the municipal notice board convene the meeting or hearing at the time, date and venue determined by the councillor or body convening the meeting or hearing, as the case may be, and send a copy of such notice to every councillor, traditional leader and departmental head.
- 11.2 A notice in terms of rule 11.1 must state the purpose of the meeting or hearing.
- 11.3 The speaker must give notice in a newspaper of the date, time and venue of a public hearing before the hearing takes place and supply a copy thereof to each councillor, traditional leader and departmental head.
- 11.4 A councillor, traditional leader and departmental head to whom notice had been given in terms of rule 11.1 is, until such date, venue or time is changed and notice of such change has been given, required to attend the meeting or hearing stipulated in the notice without further notice.
12. Councillors must supply municipal manager with an address.
- 12.1 Every councillor must, within two days after he or she had been declared elected or appointed, as the case may be and thereafter as often as is necessary, supply the municipal manager in writing with an address within the municipal area or an electronic mail address to which official communications and notices must be sent.
- 12.2 Every traditional authority must supply the municipal manager with the name, address and other particulars of the traditional leader identified in terms of the Structures Act who will represent that traditional authority in the council, within fourteen days after the municipal manager requested such particulars.
- 12.3 The municipal manager may deliver a notice contemplated in rule 10 or 11 to a person that appears to be over the age of sixteen at the address supplied in terms of rule 12.1.
- 12.4 Non-receipt of any official communication or notice sent to an address referred to in rule 12.1 or delivered in terms of rule 12.2 -
- 12.4.1 does not affect the validity of any meeting or proceedings of the council or its committees; and
- 12.4.2 is not sufficient reason to be absent from the meeting concerned without leave of absence.

PART 3: ATTENDANCE OF MEETINGS AND HEARINGS.

13. Absence from meetings.
- 13.1 A councillor or traditional leader who is unable to attend a meeting or hearing of which notice had been given, or is unable to remain in attendance at a meeting or hearing, or will arrive after the stipulated time for a meeting or hearing, must lodge with the municipal manager a written application for leave of absence from the whole or any part of the meeting or hearing concerned and at the same time furnish reasons for his or her application for leave of absence.
- 13.2 A councillor or traditional leader who did not apply for leave of absence in terms of rule 13.1 and who was absent from a meeting or hearing or a part thereof may, after that meeting or hearing, lodge with the municipal manager a written application for leave of absence from that meeting or hearing as soon as it is possible for him or her to do so. Such a late application for leave of absence must state the reasons for the late submission of the application and the reasons for his or her absence from the meeting or hearing.
- 13.3 The municipal manager must inform the chairperson of the meeting or hearing concerned of any application for leave of absence.
- 13.4 An application in terms of rules 13.1 or 13.2 is considered and granted or refused by -
- 13.4.1 The speaker in the case of a council meeting or public hearing; or
- 13.4.2 The executive mayor in the case of a mayoral committee meeting; or
- 13.4.3 The relevant chairperson in the case of any other committee meeting.
- 13.5 Whenever an application for leave of absence in terms of rules 13.1 or 13.2 was refused -
- 13.5.1 the relevant functionary must supply the reasons for the refusal; and
- 13.5.2 the municipal manager must immediately after the meeting or hearing in writing inform the councillor or traditional leader concerned accordingly and supply the reasons for the refusal.
- 13.6 A councillor or traditional leader -
- 13.6.1 who fails to apply in terms of rules 13.1 or 13.2 and is absent from a meeting or hearing he or she is required to attend; or
- 13.6.2 whose application for leave of absence has been refused and is absent from the meeting he or she is required to attend; or
- 13.6.3 whose application for leave of absence has been refused and who does not appeal in terms of rule 14; or
- 13.6.4 whose appeal has been turned down; or
- 13.6.5 who did not sign the attendance register contemplated in rule 17 is deemed absent without leave from the meeting concerned.
- 13.7 A councillor delegated by the council to attend to other official duties at the time of a meeting he or she is required to attend is deemed to have been granted leave of absence for the meeting he or she is required to attend.
- 13.8 The municipal manager must keep a record of all cases in terms of rule 13.6 and must submit a written report thereon to the speaker at least once every three months.

14. Appeal against refusal of application for leave of absence.
- 14.1 A councillor or traditional leader whose application for leave of absence had been refused may appeal against the refusal. Such appeal must be in writing and lodged with the municipal manager within 14 days after the date of the decision; provided that the council or committee who must consider the appeal may condone the late submission of an appeal in exceptional circumstances.
- 14.2 The council considers an appeal in terms of rule 14.1 in the case of absence from a council meeting, public meeting or public hearing, mayoral committee meeting or any council committee meeting, as the case may be.
- 14.3 A decision with regard to an appeal in terms of rule 14.1 is final.
15. Removal of a councillor from office for absence from meetings without leave.
- 15.1 Whenever a report submitted to the speaker in terms of rule 13.8 identifies a -
- 15.1.1 councillor that had been absent without leave of absence from three or more consecutive council meetings or three or more consecutive committee meetings which that councillor was required to attend; or
- 15.1.2 a traditional leader that had been absent without leave of absence from three or more council meetings which such traditional leader was required to attend the speaker must in writing report the matter to the council at the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing. The speaker must, in the case of a traditional leader also report the matter in writing to the traditional authority that that traditional leader represents.
- 15.2 The council must consider the report of the speaker and must give the councillor or traditional leader concerned an opportunity to state his or her case. As soon as a councillor or traditional leader has stated his or her case, he or she must leave the meeting whilst the council considers the matter.
- 15.3 If, after consideration of the matter, the council is of the opinion that the councillor was absent without good reasons, the municipal manager must, in writing, request the MEC to remove the councillor from the council in terms of the Code of Conduct applicable to councillors. If the council finds that the reason for the absence from any of the meetings was a good reason, the council may issue a formal warning to the councillor or traditional leader and determine the period during which the warning will be valid.
- 15.4 A councillor ceases to be a councillor on the date that the MEC informs the municipal manager that the councillor had been removed from office.
16. Who may attend meetings.
- 16.1 Until the council or a committee closes a meeting, a meeting may be attended by members of the public, employees of the council and the media; provided that a public meeting of voters or a constituency meeting or a public hearing may not be closed.
- 16.2 Every councillor and traditional leader must, from the time stipulated in the notice convening the meeting, attend every meeting of the council, committee or every public meeting of voters and public hearing and remain in attendance at such meeting or hearing unless leave of absence had been granted to him or her, or unless he or she must leave a meeting or hearing in terms of the Code of Conduct.
- 16.3 The speaker and executive mayor, as the case may be, may by virtue of their offices, attend and participate in any committee meeting; provided that the speaker or executive mayor may not vote on any matter at such a committee meeting.
- 16.4 Any councillor who is not a member of a committee or a traditional leader may only attend a meeting of a committee with the express prior permission of the chairperson of that committee, which permission may not be unreasonably withheld.
- 16.5 The speaker or the chairperson of a committee, as the case may be, may invite any person to attend a meeting of the council or that committee, as the case may be.
- 16.6 The municipal manager and departmental heads of the council must attend public meetings of voters, public hearings, council and committee meetings; provided that the chairperson of a committee may, after consultation with the municipal manager, exempt the municipal manager or any departmental head from attending any meeting of the committee concerned, or, if he or she is not exempted, grant leave of absence to him or her from any meeting of that committee.
17. Attendance register.
- 17.1 The municipal manager must supply an appropriate attendance register at every meeting and hearing.
- 17.2 Every councillor and traditional leader who is present at a meeting or hearing must sign the attendance register.
- 17.3 Any councillor or traditional leader who had been present at a meeting or hearing but who failed to sign the attendance register, is deemed absent without leave from the meeting concerned.
- PART 4: DOCUMENTS TO BE AVAILABLE AT MEETINGS
18. The municipal manager must ensure that a copy of the municipal code, referred to the Systems Act, is available at every meeting. The municipal code must include -
- the Constitution;
 - the Municipal Finance Management Act;
 - the Structures Act;
 - the Systems Act;
 - the by-laws of the council; and
 - such other legislation as the council may determine from time to time.
- PART 5: PRESIDING AT MEETINGS AND HEARINGS
19. General powers and duties of chairperson.
- 19.1 The chairperson of a meeting must -
- 19.1.1 ensure that the meeting or hearing at which he or she presides is conducted in accordance with these standing rules and orders;
- 19.1.2 when requested to do so, interpret these standing rules and orders;
- 19.1.3 reject any motion, proposal or question which in his or her opinion -
- 19.1.3.1 may lead to the discussion of a matter already contained in the agenda for that meeting;
- 19.1.3.2 contains unnecessary tactless, incriminating, disparaging or improper suggestions;
- 19.1.3.3 may encourage, engender, advocate or aggravate hatred, discrimination, exclusion, restriction, ridicule, contempt or preference based on colour, descent, race, ethnicity, gender or religion so as to cause harm, hostility, degradation, violence or which insults, degrades, defames or encourages abuse of any racial, ethnic, gender or religious group, through the uttering of words, whether in writing or orally, or the performance of deeds;
- 19.1.3.4 contains unwelcome suggestions, innuendoes, remarks or hints of a sexual nature, sexual advances, comments with sexual overtones, sex-related jokes or insults or unwelcome graphic comments of another person's body;
- 19.1.3.5 contains threatening, abusive or insulting language towards an employee which causes that employee harassment, alarm or distress due to any alleged, suspected or proven act, omission or statement by that employee in the exercise of any of his or her rights or the discharge of any of his or her duties so as to harass or cause or advocate unfair treatment of that employee;
- 19.1.3.6 does not pertain to the governance, administration or management of, or the conditions in, the council;
- 19.1.3.7 are contrary to these rules and orders or any other law;
- 19.1.3.8 may have an impracticable result or cause uneconomical, inefficient or ineffective use of resources or will be incapable of execution; or
- 19.1.3.9 may result in unauthorised expenditure.
- 19.1.4 reject any motion, proposal or question regarding a matter -
- 19.1.4.1 beyond the council's executive or legislative authority unless, on the face of it, the proposal intends to convince the meeting to make representations with regard to that matter to a body or institution which has such authority; or
- 19.1.4.2 in respect of which a decision of a judicial or quasi-judicial body is being awaited;
- 19.1.5 reject any motion, proposal or question which -
- 19.1.5.1 is not properly seconded;
- 19.1.5.2 on the face of it, may threaten or affect a fundamental right of any person; or
- 19.1.5.3 is unclear;
- 19.1.6 reject any proposal that a part of a meeting or a meeting be closed that does not comply with rule 88.2;
- 19.1.7 call the attention of any person at the meeting to -
- 19.1.7.1 irrelevance, tedious repetition or language unbecoming; or
- 19.1.7.2 any breach of order by a councillor or such other person;
- 19.1.8 submit every motion and proposal made and seconded to the vote;
- 19.1.9 declare the result of any vote in terms of 19.1.8; and
- 19.1.10 instruct any member of the public or media and any employee of the council who may be present at a meeting to leave the meeting when the meeting resolved to close any part of its session and not to return to it until the meeting continues in public.
- 19.2 The chairperson's ruling with regard to a motion, proposal or question is final; provided that -
- 19.2.1 if the ruling is contested or called into question, the debate is suspended and the ruling referred to the Rules and Ethics Committee for recommendation to the council;
- 19.2.2 the ruling of the Rules and Ethics Committee must be submitted to the council for consideration at the next ordinary meeting at which meeting the council must consider the recommendation and amend or substitute the interpretation of the chairperson where after the debate is then continued.
- 19.3 The chairperson's ruling or interpretation of the standing rules and orders is final; provided that -
- 19.3.1 if the interpretation or ruling is contested or called into question, the debate is suspended and the ruling referred to the Rules and Ethics Committee for recommendation to the council;
- 19.3.2 the ruling of the Rules and Ethics Committee must be submitted to the council for consideration at the next ordinary meeting at which meeting the council must consider the recommendation and amend or substitute the interpretation of the chairperson where after the debate is then continued.
- 19.3.3 the council must upon receipt of such recommendation, consider the matter and amend or substitute the interpretation of the chairperson.
- 19.4 The chairperson may, in performing his or her functions and powers -
- 19.4.1 consult with the municipal manager;
- 19.4.2 direct any person who is speaking to discontinue his or her speech or to desist from breaching the order or to discontinue making interjections;
- 19.4.3 direct any person to apologise for or to apologise for and withdraw any allegation, statement or remark if it is unbecoming, unnecessarily tactless, incriminating, disparaging, improper, racist or sexist or inciting violence or injures or impairs the dignity or honour of a councillor or employee of the council;

19. General powers and duties of chairperson (continued).
- 19.4.4 direct any person who persists in disregarding the chair or who obstructs the business at a meeting, to retire from the meeting; and
- 19.4.5 instruct any person to leave a meeting if the meeting resolves to close its session or any part of it.
- 19.5 If a person refuses to retire from a meeting or hearing after having been directed in terms of rule 19.4.4 or 19.4.5, the chairperson may direct an employee of the council present at the meeting to remove that person or cause his or her removal and to take steps to prevent that person from returning to the meeting or hearing.
- 19.6 The chairperson may change the order of business at the meeting despite any provisions to the contrary herein.
20. Failure or refusal to exercise the powers or discharge the duties by chairperson at a meeting or hearing.
- 20.1 Whenever a councillor or traditional leader who attended a meeting or hearing is of the opinion that the chairperson at that meeting or hearing failed or refused to exercise any of his or her powers or to discharge any of his or her duties properly, he or she may direct a written allegation against the chairperson concerned to the municipal manager.
- 20.2 An allegation in terms of rule 20.1 must quote the relevant rule or convention that had been breached or not fulfilled and must state to what extent it had been breached or not fulfilled.
- 20.3 The municipal manager must submit the allegation to -
- 20.3.1 the speaker in the case of an allegation against the executive mayor;
- 20.3.2 the executive mayor in the case of an allegation against the chairperson of a section 79-committee;
- 20.3.3 the council in the case of an allegation against the speaker and send a copy thereof to the councillor against whom the allegation had been made.
- 20.4 The relevant functionary or the council, as the case may be, must determine the time and place of the hearing when the matter will be considered and inform the municipal manager accordingly; provided that in a case referred to in -
- 20.4.1 rule 20.3.2, the municipal manager must include the matter in the agenda for the first mayoral committee meeting, as the case may be;
- 20.4.2 rule 20.3.3, the municipal manager must include the matter in the agenda for the first ordinary council meeting after receipt of the allegation.
- 20.5 The municipal manager must inform the councillor who made the allegation and the councillor against whom the allegation had been made of the time and place where the matter will be heard.
- 20.6 At the hearing the councillor making the allegation and the councillor against whom the allegation had been made must have the opportunity to state his or her case, to call witnesses, to examine any documents submitted and to cross examine any witness.
- 20.7 After the matter had been heard the speaker, executive mayor or the council, as the case may be, must make a ruling as to the most probable version of the event and make a finding.
- 20.8 Should it be found that an allegation against the speaker was true, the council must decide an appropriate penalty. Whenever the speaker finds that an allegation against the executive mayor was true, he or she must submit his or her finding to the council and recommend an appropriate penalty. Whenever the executive mayor finds that an allegation against the chairperson of a section 79-committee was true he or she must decide an appropriate penalty.
- 20.9 An appropriate penalty may include a formal warning or reprimand. Whenever a formal warning is issued, the council, the executive mayor or the speaker, as the case may be, must determine the period during which the warning is valid.
21. Status of chairperson at a meeting.
- Whenever the chairperson at a meeting speaks, any person then speaking or offering to speak and all other persons in the meeting must remain silent so that the chairperson may be heard without interruption.
22. Presiding at the first council meeting after a general election.
- The municipal manager, or, if there is no municipal manager, a person appointed by the MEC, presides at the first meeting of a council after a general election of councillors until a speaker is elected.
23. Presiding at council meetings.
- 23.1 The speaker presides, with due regard for the provisions of these rules and orders, at every council meeting where he or she is present.
- 23.2 Whenever the speaker is absent from or unable to preside at or during any part of a council meeting, the council must elect an acting speaker in terms of the Structures Act.
- 23.3 The municipal manager presides over the election of an acting speaker.
24. Presiding at council meetings when the position of speaker is vacant.
- 24.1 Whenever the office of speaker becomes vacant, the municipal manager must call a special council meeting for the purpose of electing a speaker on a date and at a time and venue determined by him or her, except if the office of speaker becomes vacant during a council meeting; provided that such special council meeting must take place within fourteen days after the office of the speaker became vacant.
- 24.2 The municipal manager presides over the election of a speaker in terms of rule 24.1.
- 24.3 The speaker elected at a meeting in terms of rule 24.1 serves as speaker for the un-expired term of his or her predecessor.
25. Presiding at mayoral committee meetings.
- The executive mayor presides at meetings of the mayoral committee.
26. Presiding at section 79-committee meetings.
- 26.1 The councillor appointed by the council as chairperson of a section 79-committee (in this rule referred to as the "chairperson"), presides at meetings of such committee where he or she is present.
- 26.2 Whenever the chairperson is absent from or unable to preside at or during any part of the committee meeting, a member of that committee elected by the members of the committee present at that meeting, presides at the meetings of the committee for the duration of the chairperson's absence or inability.
- 26.3 The municipal manager presides over the election of a chairperson in terms of rule 26.2.
- 26.4 The committee may not elect the speaker or the executive mayor as chairperson in terms of rule 26.2.
27. Presiding at public meetings of voters and public hearings.
- 27.1 The speaker presides at public meetings of voters and any public hearing convened by the council, with due regard to the provisions of rule 27.2.
- 27.2 The executive mayor presides at public hearings convened by him or her.
- 27.3 Whenever the councillor designated in terms of rules 27.1 or 27.2 is absent from or unable to preside at or during any part of a public meeting of voters or constituency meeting or a public hearing, the councillors present at such meeting or hearing must elect from amongst their number a chairperson for the meeting or hearing for the duration of that councillor's absence or inability.
- 27.4 The municipal manager presides over the election of a chairperson in terms of rule 27.3.
- PART 6: CONDUCT OF PERSONS AT MEETINGS.
28. Conduct of members of the public at council or committee meetings.
- 28.1 A member of the public or the media or an employee other than the municipal manager or a departmental head attending a council or committee meeting may not -
- 28.1.1 address the meeting at any time, unless he or she is a member of a deputation in terms of rule 47;
- 28.1.2 obstruct the business of the meeting;
- 28.1.3 make any interjections;
- 28.1.4 make unwelcome suggestions, innuendoes, remarks or hints of a sexual nature, sexual advances, comments with sexual overtones, sex-related jokes or insults or unwelcome graphic comments of another person's body;
- 28.1.5 encourage, engender, advocate or aggravate hatred, discrimination, exclusion, restriction, ridicule, contempt or preference based on colour, descent, race, ethnicity, gender or religion so as to cause harm, hostility, degradation, violence or which insult, degrade, defame or encourage abuse of any racial, ethnic, gender or religious group, through the uttering of words, whether in writing or orally, or the performance of deeds;
- 28.1.6 use threatening, abusive or insulting language towards an employee or display any writing, sign or other visible presentation which is threatening, abusive or insulting which causes that employee harassment, alarm or distress due to any alleged, suspected or proven act, omission or statement by that employee in the exercise of any of his or her rights or the discharge of any of his or her duties so as to harass or cause or advocate unfair treatment of that employee; or
- 28.1.7 make unwelcome or obscene gestures.
- 28.2 Whenever a meeting resolves to close its session or a part thereof any member of the public, media and employee must leave the meeting immediately and not return to that meeting until it resumes as a public meeting.
- 28.3 A member of the public or media attending a council or committee meeting is subject to the authority of the chairperson of the meeting.
29. Recording of proceedings at meetings.
- Except for the purpose of writing the official minutes of a meeting by an employee, nobody may, unless the express prior approval of the chairperson of a meeting had been obtained, make any recording, whether audio or visual or both audio and visual, of a meeting or any part thereof.
30. Conduct of councillors during meetings.
- In the case of any allegation of unbecoming conduct by a councillor, the Rules and Ethics Committee must determine if such alleged conduct by a councillor contravenes the provisions of the Code of Conduct contained in the Systems Act.
31. Dress code.
- The council may by resolution prescribe a dress code for councillors and traditional leaders attending meetings.
32. Person speaking to address the chairperson.
- A person addressing a meeting or hearing must address the chairperson of that meeting or hearing.
33. Councillor to sit while speaking.
- 33.1 A councillor, traditional leader or person addressing a meeting or hearing must sit while speaking.
- 33.2 If a councillor or traditional leader who is not speaking raises his or her hand on a point of order or to make a proposal and the chairperson addresses such councillor or traditional leader while another councillor is speaking, the councillor or traditional leader who speaks must remain silent until the chairperson has made a ruling on the point of order or the proposal.

34. Duration and reading of speeches.
- 34.1 A councillor or traditional leader may not speak longer than ten minutes on any matter unless permission to do is granted by the chairperson of the meeting concerned.
- 34.2 A councillor or traditional leader may not read a speech, but may refresh his or her memory by referring to notes.
35. Councillor to speak only once.
- 35.1 A councillor or traditional leader may speak only once on a matter unless permission to speak more than once is granted by the chairperson of the meeting concerned.
- 35.2 The introducer of a motion or proposal may reply in conclusion of the debate but must confine his or her reply to answering previous speakers.
- 35.3 The council may allow the executive mayor or the chairperson of a section 79 committee, as the case may be, to make an explanatory statement prior to the consideration of any particular matter in the report of the executive mayor or section 79-committee or during the discussion of such report in reply to a specific question.
36. Relevance.
- 36.1 A councillor or traditional leader who speaks must confine his or her speech strictly to the matter under discussion.
- 36.2 No discussion may take place -
- 36.2.1 on a matter which anticipates a matter on the agenda unless the chairperson has granted leave to discuss two or more items at the same time or the municipal manager indicated in the agenda that two or more items should be considered together; or
- 36.2.2 on any motion or proposal that had been rejected in terms of rule 19.
37. Councillor's right to information.
- A councillor has the right to request the municipal manager to supply such information as may be required for the proper performance of his or her duties as a councillor, including the making of a speech at a meeting or hearing; provided that reasonable notice of the information required is given to the municipal manager; provided further that confidential information may not be made known by the relevant councillor.
38. Personal explanation, point of order and clarification.
- 38.1 A councillor or a traditional leader may, at any time during a meeting, whether or not he or she participated in a debate underway, rise -
- 38.1.1 to a point of order in the event of a departure from these rules and orders or any law; or
- 38.1.2 to explain any part of his or her speech that may have been misunderstood; or
- 38.1.3 to request that any part of a speech that he or she may have misunderstood be explained.
- 38.2 A councillor or traditional leader referred to in rule 38.1 must be heard forthwith.
- 38.3 The ruling of the chairperson of the meeting on a point of order or a personal explanation is, subject to rule 19.3, final and may not be discussed.
39. Right of the municipal manager to have advice recorded in the minutes.
- 39.1 The chairperson at a meeting must give the municipal manager an opportunity to address that meeting on any matter before the meeting in order to advise the meeting as to the eligibility of any proposal or motion before the meeting.
- 39.2 The municipal manager has the right to have his or her advice regarding any motion or proposal which may -
- 39.2.1 cause unauthorised expenditure; or
- 39.2.2 be beyond the authority of the council recorded in the minutes of the meeting where the advice was given.
- PART 7: ADJOURNMENT AND CONTINUATION OF MEETINGS.
40. Adjournment of meeting in the absence of a quorum.
- 40.1 If there is no quorum present within 30 minutes after the time stipulated in the notice of a meeting referred to in rule 10, such meeting is not held but a continuation meeting is held in terms of rule 42.
- 40.2 If at any time during the course of a council or committee meeting it is suspected that there is not a quorum present -
- 40.2.1 the chairperson must discontinue the proceedings immediately; and
- 40.2.2 cause the councillors present to be counted and if the suspicion is proved correct, the chairperson must instruct the municipal manager to ring the bell for one minute. If there is still no quorum five minutes after the bell had been rung, the chairperson must adjourn the meeting forthwith.
- 40.3 If the shortfall of councillors contemplated in rule 40.2 is owing to the withdrawal of one or more councillors in compliance with the code of conduct, the chairperson must arrange that such matter be dealt with at the first meeting next ensuing.
- 40.4 If a sufficient number of councillors are present after the bell had been rung, the meeting continues; provided that the councillor who was speaking when the proceedings were discontinued, is, in his or her own discretion, entitled to start his or her speech from afresh.
- 40.5 Any business, except a matter referred to in rule 40.3 which had not been dealt with at a meeting that had been adjourned, must be considered at a continuation meeting contemplated in rule 42; provided that any unfinished business arising from a special meeting, must be considered at the first ordinary meeting next ensuing unless the date of such ordinary meeting is later than the date contemplated in rule 42.
41. Adjournment of a meeting before it completed its business.
- 41.1 A councillor may at any time during a meeting propose that the meeting be adjourned and must state the reasons for the proposal; provided that no councillor may more than twice during the same meeting propose that it be adjourned.
- 41.2 A proposal in terms of rule 41.1 must be seconded by at least three councillors present at the meeting; provided that a councillor may not second a proposal to adjourn more than twice during the same meeting. Such a proposal lapses if it is not properly seconded.
- 41.3 A proposal in terms of rule 41.1 is carried if a majority of the members present at a meeting vote in favour thereof.
- 41.4 Whenever a meeting adjourns in terms of rule 41.1 before it had finished the business stated in the agenda for that meeting, the meeting must resume as a continuation meeting in terms of rule 42 to deal with any unfinished business unless the date of the first ordinary meeting next ensuing is earlier than the date referred to in rule 42 in which case the unfinished business of an adjourned meeting is dealt with at that ordinary meeting.
42. Continuation of an adjourned meeting.
- 42.1 A continuation meeting is held at the same time and venue as a meeting that had been adjourned in terms of rule 40 or 41 on a day at least seven days but not more than fourteen days later.
- 42.2 The agenda for a continuation meeting is the agenda for the meeting that had been adjourned.
43. Temporary adjournment of a meeting.
- 43.1 A councillor may at any time during a meeting propose that the meeting be adjourned for a period proposed by him or her; provided that not more than two such proposals may be made during the same meeting and that no such adjournment may exceed sixty minutes.
- 43.2 Despite the provisions of rule 43.1 the chairperson at a meeting may, if she or he is of the opinion that a third temporary adjournment of a meeting may facilitate the discussion and resolution of a matter, allow a third adjournment in terms of rule 43.1.
- 43.3 A proposal in terms of rule 43.1 must be seconded by a councillor present at the meeting; provided that a councillor may not second a proposal to adjourn more than twice during the same meeting. Such a proposal lapses if it is not properly seconded.
- 43.4 A proposal in terms of rule 43.1 is carried if a majority of the members present at a meeting vote in favour thereof.
- 43.5 The meeting resumes after the expiry of the period referred to in rule 43.1 and deals with any unfinished business contained in its agenda.
- PART 8: AGENDAS AND MINUTES OF MEETINGS.
44. Only matters included in the agenda are dealt with.
- 44.1 Subject to the provisions of rules 44.2 and 44.5 only matters included in an agenda for a meeting may be dealt with; provided that the municipal manager may table an urgent matter for discussion if he or she deems it necessary.
- 44.2 A councillor may at any time during a meeting propose that rule 44.1 be suspended to allow discussion of any matter not included in the agenda and must give reasons for his or her proposal.
- 44.3 A proposal in terms of rule 44.1 need not be seconded and no debate about the proposal is allowed.
- 44.4 A proposal referred to in rule 44.2 is carried if the councillors present at a meeting unanimously adopt it.
- 44.5 An urgent report received from the executive mayor may be tabled and considered during a council meeting.
45. Minutes of meetings and summary of evidence at hearings.
- 45.1 The municipal manager must keep, or cause to be kept, minutes of the proceedings of every public meeting of voters, public hearing, council and committee meeting.
- 45.2 The minutes of a meeting must reflect -
- 45.2.1 the names of the councillors and traditional leaders attending;
- 45.2.2 the names of the councillors and traditional leaders absent with or without leave;
- 45.2.3 the periods of absence during a meeting of a councillor or traditional leader;
- 45.2.4 the names of the councillors voting respectively for and against any matter for the decision of which a division is called;
- 45.2.5 the name of any councillor who demanded that his or her vote against any particular decision be recorded in the minutes;
- 45.2.6 any adjournment of the meeting;
- 45.2.7 any declaration of a personal or pecuniary interest by a councillor or a traditional leader;
- 45.2.8 any advice of the municipal manager regarding possible unauthorised expenditure or resolutions beyond the authority of the council; and
- 45.2.9 the resolutions taken.
- 45.3 The minutes of a meeting must be delivered to the councillors with the notice of the ensuing meeting or prior to delivering such a notice.
- 45.4 Minutes delivered in terms of rule 45.3 are deemed read with a view to their approval.
- 45.5 No proposal regarding minutes, except a proposal relating to the accuracy thereof may be allowed.

45. Minutes of meetings and summary of evidence at hearings (continued).
- 45.6 The minutes of a meeting must, if in order, be approved at the next ordinary meeting of the council or committee, as the case may be; provided that the council must approve the minutes of a public meeting of voters.
- 45.7 The chairperson of the meeting must sign the minutes upon approval. If the minutes are written on loose sheets, each sheet must be signed.
- 45.8 Any councillor or other person speaking at a meeting may request that his or her speech not be recorded. Upon receipt of such a request the municipal manager must cease such a recording.
- 45.9 The municipal manager must make, or cause to be made, a summary of the proceedings and evidence given at a public hearing and submit it at an ordinary meeting of the council or to the executive mayor, as the case may be.
46. Declaration of personal and pecuniary interest.
- 46.1 A councillor or traditional leader wishing to declare a personal or pecuniary interest in terms of the code of conduct must do so when the chairperson puts the relevant item in the agenda to order.
- 46.2 No councillor or traditional leader may speak more than five minutes on the question whether his or her interest is so trivial or remote or irrelevant as to render a clash of interests unlikely.

PART 9: DEPUTATIONS, PETITIONS, OBJECTIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS.47. Deputations.

- 47.1 Anybody who wishes to obtain an interview with the council or a committee of the council, must lodge a written request with the municipal manager. Such an application must state the representations the applicant wishes to make.
- 47.2 The municipal manager must submit the request to the council, mayoral committee or relevant committee as the case may be.
- 47.3 The municipal manager must inform the requestor of date, time and place where the deputation is to address the council, mayoral committee or other committee.
- 47.4 Unless the council or a committee conducts an interview in closed session, the members of a deputation may remain in the meeting whilst the council or committee considers the matter after the interview had been completed.
48. Attendance of council meeting by the Auditor-general.
- 48.1 Whenever the audit report is included in the agenda for a council meeting, the municipal manager must in writing invite the Auditor-general, the provincial treasury and the department responsible for local government to that meeting.
- 48.2 Despite any provisions to the contrary in these standing rules and orders, the speaker may change the order of business at a meeting referred to in rule 48.1 to allow the Auditor-general to address the council and councillors to ask questions with regard to the audit report and audit findings.

49. Petitions.

- 49.1 A councillor or traditional leader must submit a petition received by him or her to the municipal manager.
- 49.2 The municipal manager must inform the speaker of any petition he or she receives.
- 49.3 Any petition received in terms of rules 49.1 or 49.2 must be referred to the relevant committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, who may dispose of the matter.
- 49.4 If the committee or the executive mayor to whom a petition had been referred does not have the power to dispose of the matter, the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, must submit a report and recommendations to the council.

50. Objections and representations.

- 50.1 Whenever the council invites public comment, representations or objections with regard to any proposed resolution before the council or a resolution the council had taken, the municipal manager must designate a person who will be responsible for the receipt of such comment, representations or objections.
- 50.2 The person designated in terms of rule 50.1 must make a summary of the comments, representations and comments, if any, that were received and submit it to the relevant departmental head.
- 50.3 The departmental head must consider the summary and submit it, together with his or her report and recommendations to the municipal manager who must refer it, with his or her comments, to the council or the executive mayor or the relevant committee, as the case may be.
- 50.4 The executive mayor or committee, as the case may be, must consider the summary and report and recommendations of the departmental head and the comments of the municipal manager and submit the matter to the council together with their recommendations.

PART 10: QUESTIONS.51. Questions of which notice had been given.

- 51.1 A councillor or traditional leader may at any time submit a written question he or she intends to ask during a council meeting or a meeting of a committee of which he or she is a member to the municipal manager; provided that such question must be submitted to the municipal manager at least ten workdays before the meeting where the question will be asked. A councillor or traditional leader may request the municipal manager, to assist him or her to formulate the question.
- 51.2 The municipal manager must immediately upon receipt of a question in terms of rule 51.1, provide a copy thereof to the relevant departmental head and instruct him or her to prepare a reply to the question. The municipal manager may direct a departmental head to which he or she has sent the question to consult with any other departmental head before he or she prepares the answer.
- 51.3 Provided the question had been received at least ten workdays before the scheduled date of the meeting where the question would be asked, the municipal manager must ensure that the question and the answer thereto is included in the agenda for the first ordinary meeting of the council or committee next ensuing where the question will be asked.

52. Questions during meetings.

- 52.1 A councillor or traditional leader may at a meeting of the council or a committee of which he or she is a member, ask a question -
- 52.1.1 regarding a matter arising from or pertaining to an item contained in the agenda; or
- 52.1.2 regarding the work of the council in general and that does not arise from or pertain to an item in the agenda.
- 52.2 The chairperson of the meeting may allow the question if, in his or her opinion, it affects the interests of the residents within the municipal area and may respond to it or direct another councillor to respond to it.
- 52.3 No discussion of the question is allowed.
- 52.4 The chairperson of the meeting where the question is asked must reply at the first ordinary meeting of the council or the committee next ensuing, as the case may be.
- 52.5 A question may only be asked during a meeting to solicit factual information and may not deal with matters of policy, except the implementation of policy, nor seek to solicit an opinion or include or amount to a statement of fact.

PART 11: MOTIONS.53. Motion must be in written form.

- 53.1 A councillor or traditional leader may put a matter on the agenda of a committee of which he or she is a member or of the council by submitting a written motion to the municipal manager; provided that a councillor or traditional leader may orally request the municipal manager to include a motion in the agenda for the first ordinary meeting of such committee or the council next ensuing.
- 53.2 When the municipal manager receives an oral request from a councillor or traditional leader in terms of rule 53.1, he or she must reduce the request to writing, or cause it to be reduced to writing and include it in the relevant agenda.
54. Submission and limitation of motions.
- 54.1 With due regard for the provisions of rule 54.4 a motion in terms of rule 53 must be included in the agenda for the first ordinary meeting next ensuing of the council or the committee concerned; provided it had reached the municipal manager at least fourteen days before the date referred to in rule 10.1.
- 54.2 Only one motion of a councillor or traditional leader may be considered at a meeting.
- 54.3 If the introducer of a motion is absent during the meeting when the motion is put to the order, it is deferred to the next ensuing ordinary meeting of the council or committee, as the case may be.
- 54.4 Any motion which -
- 54.4.1 contemplates the repeal or amendment of a resolution taken during the preceding three months; or
- 54.4.2 has the same scope as a motion that had been rejected during the preceding three months may not be included in the agenda, unless it had been signed by at least three councillors in addition to its introducer.
55. Withdrawal and amendment of motions.
- 55.1 With due regard for any provisions to the contrary in these standing rules and orders, the introducer of a motion may, at any time before the motion is put to order at a meeting, withdraw it. A motion that had been withdrawn lapses without further discussion.
- 55.2 The introducer of a motion may, during a meeting where the motion is considered, request permission to amend the motion, which permission must be granted or denied without discussion.

PART 12: SUBJECT MATTER AND CONSIDERATION OF MOTIONS AND PROPOSALS.

56. Right of introducer of motion to speak and reply.
- The introducer of a motion in terms of rule 53 has the right, if the motion had not been rejected or withdrawn, to introduce the motion and to reply.
57. Motion or proposal regarding the budget.
- The executive mayor, or the member of the mayoral committee responsible for finance, must introduce the draft budget or a revised draft budget or a draft adjustments budget at a council meeting which may not be closed for the public and the press.
58. Motion or proposal regarding by-laws.
- A motion or proposal affecting the repeal, drafting or amendment of by-laws must, before the council considers it, be referred to and considered by the appropriate section 79-committee for report and recommendations.
59. Eligible proposals.
- 59.1 With due regard for the provisions of rules 19.1.3 to 19.1.6, the following proposals only may be made during the discussion of any motion, proposal or matter contained in an agenda, namely -
- 59.1.1 that the motion or proposal be amended;
- 59.1.2 that the matter be referred back to the executive mayor or the relevant committee for further consideration;
- 59.1.3 that consideration of the matter be deferred;
- 59.1.4 that the debate be suspended;
- 59.1.5 that the matter be put to the vote;

59. Eligible proposals (continued).
- 59.1.6 that the meeting continues to the next matter.
- 59.2 Any proposal in terms of rule 59.1 may only be put to the vote if it had been properly seconded.
60. Amendment of the motion or proposal.
- 60.1 A proposal that a motion or proposal (hereafter the "original motion") be amended, may only be made by a councillor or traditional leader during his or her speech on the original motion.
- 60.2 No councillor or traditional leader may make more than one proposal for the amendment of the same original motion.
- 60.3 A proposal in terms of rule 60.1 must be relevant to the original motion and the chairperson must clearly repeat it to the meeting before it is put to the vote.
- 60.4 With due regard for rule 60.5, more than one amendment of an original motion may be introduced. Every amendment introduced must be put to the vote at the close of the debate.
- 60.5 If a proposal in terms of rule 60.1 had been made, no other proposal may be made until its introducer had addressed the meeting. The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- 60.6 The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in rule 60.1 had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of rule 60.5, address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of rule 60.1 is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- 60.7 If more than one amendment on an original motion had been introduced, they must be put to the vote in the order they were made. If any amendment is carried, the amended motion or proposal takes the place of the original motion and becomes the motion or proposal in respect of which any further proposed amendments must be put to the vote.
61. Referring the matter back.
- 61.1 A proposal that a motion or proposal (hereafter the "original motion") be referred back, may only be made by a councillor or traditional leader during his or her speech on the original motion.
- 61.2 A proposal in terms of rule 61.1 may only be made during a council meeting in the case of a recommendation by the executive mayor.
- 61.3 If a proposal in terms of rule 61.1 had been made, no other proposal may be made until its introducer had addressed the meeting. The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- 61.4 The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in rule 61.1 had been made and after its introducer had spoken in terms of rule 61.3, address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of rule 61.1 is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- 61.5 A proposal in terms of rule 61.1 may not be put to the vote until the speaker or the executive mayor or the chairperson of the relevant committee, as the case may be, had addressed the meeting. If such proposal is carried, the debate on the recommendation ends and the meeting proceeds to the next matter.
62. Deferring consideration of the matter.
- 62.1 Any councillor or traditional leader may, at the end of a speech about the original motion, propose that the matter be deferred.
- 62.2 The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of rule 62.1 may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- 62.3 A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of rule 62.1 may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- 62.4 The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in rule 62.1 had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of rule 62.2, address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of rule 62.1 is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- 62.5 If the proposal in terms of rule 62.1 concerns a recommendation of the executive mayor the matter must, if that proposal is carried, be included in the next report of the executive mayor to the council. If the proposal in terms of rule 62.1 concerns any other matter, the matter must be included in the agenda of the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing.
63. Suspending a debate.
- 63.1 Any councillor or traditional leader may at the end of a speech about the original motion propose that the debate be suspended; provided that no councillor or traditional leader may move or second more than one proposal that a debate be suspended during any meeting.
- 63.2 The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of rule 63.1 may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- 63.3 A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of rule 63.1, may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- 63.4 The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in rule 63.1 had been made and after its introducer had spoken in terms of rule 63.2, address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of rule 63.1 is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- 63.5 A proposal in terms of rule 63.1 must be rejected if the council or committee, as the case may be, is required by law to pass a resolution on the matter at or before a particular date.
- 63.6 If a proposal in terms of rule 63.1 is carried, the meeting must deal with the next item on the agenda. The item, in respect of which the debate had been suspended, must be placed first on the list of motions in the next agenda of the council.
- 63.7 At the resumption of a suspended debate, the introducer of the motion which caused the suspension must address the meeting first.
64. Putting the matter to the vote.
- 64.1 Any councillor or traditional leader may, at the end of a speech about the original motion, propose that the matter be put to the vote.
- 64.2 The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of rule 64.1 may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- 64.3 A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of rule 64.1 may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- 64.4 The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in rule 64.1 had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of rule 64.2, address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of rule 64.1 is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- 64.5 The introducer of the original motion has the right to reply before the matter is put to the vote.
65. Proceeding to the next business.
- 65.1 Any councillor or traditional leader may, at the end of a speech about the original motion, propose that the meeting proceed to the next business.
- 65.2 The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of rule 65.1 may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- 65.3 A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of rule 65.1 may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- 65.4 The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in rule 65.1 had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of rule 65.2, address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of rule 65.1 is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion or proposal without any further discussion.
- 65.5 A proposal in terms of rule 65.1 must be rejected if the council or committee, as the case may be, is required by law to pass a resolution on the matter at or before a particular date.
- 65.6 If the proposal in terms of rule 65.1 is carried, the matter under discussion lapses without further discussion.
- PART 13: APPLICATIONS BY COUNCILLORS AND TRADITIONAL LEADERS.
66. Applications to obtain a financial interest in council business.
- 66.1 A councillor or traditional leader must lodge a written application with the municipal manager to obtain the council's consent in terms of the code of conduct.
- 66.2 The municipal manager must submit an application in terms of rule 66.1 to the council at the earliest opportunity.
- 66.3 A councillor or traditional leader who submitted an application in terms of rule 66.1 may not be present during the consideration of his or her application.
- 66.4 The council may not close its meeting whilst it considers an application in terms of rule 66.1.
- 66.5 The council may grant or refuse an application and may impose conditions when it grants approval in respect of any application.
- 66.6 Whenever the council refuses an application in terms of rule 66.1, it must state the reasons for its refusal.
67. Disclosure of declared interests.
- 67.1 The municipal manager must compile a register of the financial interests of councillors and traditional leaders declared in terms of the code of conduct.
- 67.2 As soon as the municipal manager has completed the register referred to in rule 67.1 he or she must submit it to the council.
- 67.3 The council must, on receipt of the register in terms of rule 67.2, during a closed meeting determine which of the declared financial interests must be made public having regard to the need for confidentiality and the need for public disclosure.
- 67.4 A councillor or traditional leader who has declared an interest that is recorded in the register may not be present during the consideration of the matter.
- 67.5 Any interest declared in terms of this rule that had not been made public, is confidential.
68. Resignation of councillors and vacancies in offices.
- 68.1 A councillor may, by written notice signed by him or her and delivered to the municipal manager, resign -
- 68.1.1 as councillor; or
- 68.1.2 from any office he or she holds.

68. Resignation of councillors and vacancies in offices (continued).

- 68.2 A councillor may resign from office at any time during a council or committee meeting by making a declaration to the council or committee in that regard; provided that he or she must immediately after such a declaration, resign in writing. A declaration in terms of this rule may not be withdrawn.
- 68.3 If the resignation was that of the speaker or executive mayor, the council must as soon as the resignation of the councillor concerned in terms of rule 68.2 had been reduced to writing, signed and given to the municipal manager, elect a speaker or executive mayor despite the provisions of rules 23 or 24.
- 68.4 A resignation in terms of rules 68.1 or 68.3 may not be withdrawn and takes effect upon receipt thereof by the municipal manager. If the executive mayor resigns, the members of the mayoral committee are deemed to have resigned from the same date as the executive mayor.
- 68.5 The municipal manager must immediately upon receipt of a resignation of a councillor or when a vacancy arises in the council in any other manner, report it to the speaker, except when the resignation or vacancy is that of the speaker and to the executive mayor in the case of a resignation of a member of the mayoral committee.
- 68.6 The municipal manager must ensure that any resignation or a report of any vacancy arising in another manner is contained in the agenda for the next ordinary council meeting after the vacancy arose.
- 68.7 The council must, except in the case of a vacancy arising in the mayoral committee, at the meeting where a vacancy in an office of the council is reported, elect from amongst the councillors a successor for the councillor whose resignation caused the vacancy. A councillor elected to an office in terms of this rule serves for the un-expired term of his or her predecessor.

PART 14: FULL-TIME COUNCILLORS.

69. Designation of full-time councillors.
Before the council considers designating any councillor identified by the MEC as a possible full-time councillor, it must obtain and consider a report from the municipal manager; provided that the municipal manager must submit such a report at the first meeting of the council after a general election of councillors.
70. Report of the municipal manager with regard to full-time councillors.
A report in terms of rule 69, must include all the relevant information to enable the council to take an informed decision.
71. Applications by full-time councillors to undertake other paid work.
71.1 A councillor who was designated as a full-time councillor may apply for permission of the council to undertake other paid work (in this rule "private work").
71.2 An application for private work must be lodged in writing with the municipal manager and must state all the relevant information to enable the council to take an informed decision.
71.3 The council may grant or refuse an application for private work on conditions deemed necessary.
71.4 The meeting where an application for private work is considered may not be closed.
71.5 The applicant may not be present at a meeting during the discussion of the application; provided that the speaker may request the applicant to supply such information as the council may request during that meeting. Whenever such a request is made to the applicant, the applicant may supply the requested information orally during the meeting.
71.6 The council may, before it considers an application for private work, request that additional information with regard to the intended work as may be necessary for the proper consideration of the application be submitted in writing.
71.7 The granting of permission to undertake private work is valid for only twelve months after which the councillor concerned must submit a new application.
71.8 Any permission in terms of this rule does not exempt a councillor from complying with the code of conduct neither is such permission a defence against any allegation of a breach of the code of conduct.

CHAPTER 3: LANGUAGE POLICY OF THE COUNCIL.

72. Determination of language policy.
The council must at its first meeting after a general election for councillors review the language policy of the council in terms of rule 75 and, where such policy does not exist, instruct the municipal manager to develop a draft policy and submit it to the council.
73. Differentiation between languages for different purposes.
The council may determine that one or more languages be used for different purposes.
74. Factors to be taken into account.
When the council determines a language policy it must take all the relevant factors into account.
75. Review of language policy.
The council may at any time review and amend its language policy.

CHAPTER 4: ORDER OF BUSINESS AT MEETINGS.

76. Order of business at ordinary council meetings.
The order of business at an ordinary council meeting, except the first meeting of the council after a general election of councillors, is as follows:
- 76.1 Opening.
76.2 Applications for leave of absence.
76.3 Official announcements of the speaker.
76.4 Reports of the speaker in terms of rules 15.1 and 94.4.
76.5 Applications and appeals from councillors in terms of rules 14.1, 66 and 71.

- 76.6 Motions of sympathy and congratulations by the speaker.
76.7 Motions of sympathy and congratulations by other councillors.
76.8 Deputations and interviews.
76.9 Disclosure of interests.
76.10 Minutes of the previous meeting.
76.11 Questions regarding matters referred back for further investigation.
76.12 Questions of which notice had been given.
76.13 Questions in terms of Section 52.1.2.
76.14 Reports of the executive mayor.
76.15 Discussion of resolutions taken under delegated powers.
76.16 Motions.
76.17 Deferred items.
76.18 Closure.
77. Order of business at the first council meeting after a general election of councillors.
The order of business at the first meeting of the council after a general election of councillors is as follows:
- 77.1 Opening.
77.2 Applications for leave of absence.
77.3 Election of speaker.
77.4 Motion of congratulations of the municipal manager.
77.5 Motions of congratulations from councillors.
77.6 Acceptance speech of the speaker.
77.7 Confirmation of type of municipality.
77.8 Election of executive mayor.
77.9 Designation of full-time councillors.
77.10 Review of language policy.
77.11 Review of delegated powers.
77.12 Closure.
78. Order of business at committee meetings.
The order of business at ordinary committee meetings is as follows:
- 78.1 Opening.
78.2 Applications for leave of absence.
78.3 Official announcements.
78.4 Motions of sympathy and congratulations.
78.5 Disclosure of interests.
78.6 Minutes of the previous meeting.
78.7 Questions of which notice had been given.
78.8 Questions in terms of Section 52.1.2.
78.9 Matters deferred from the previous meeting.
78.10 Reports of the municipal manager.
78.11 Deputations and interviews.
78.12 Closure.

CHAPTER 5: VOTING AND DECISION-MAKING.

79. Voting at public meetings of voters.
79.1 Questions submitted and proposals made at a public meeting of voters are decided by show of hands of the voters present at that meeting.
79.2 The chairperson of the meeting may request the municipal manager to take all reasonable steps to ensure that only registered voters vote at such a meeting.
79.3 An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.
80. Decision only taken in certain circumstances.
No decision may be taken unless the council or a committee has sufficient information before it to take an informed decision. Such information must be contained in a written report.
81. Voting at council and committee meetings.
81.1 Voting in a council or committee meeting is by show of hands.
81.2 After the chairperson has declared the result of a vote a councillor may demand -
81.2.1 that his or her vote against the decision be recorded; or 81.2.2 a division.
81.3 An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
82. When a division is called.
82.1 When a division is called in terms of rule 81, all entrances to the venue of the meeting must be closed and no councillor may leave or enter the venue after the entrances had been closed until the result of the division was declared.
82.2 Immediately thereafter the chairperson of the meeting must repeat the motion or proposal, put the motion or proposal to the vote and take the vote of each councillor separately.
82.3 The chairperson must declare the result of the vote after all the councillors had been polled.
82.4 When a division is called, every councillor must vote for or against the proposal or motion in respect of which the division had been called.
82.5 A councillor who called for a division may not leave the venue of the meeting until the result of the vote had been declared.
82.6 An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.

83. Equality of votes.

- 83.1 Unless a specific majority had been prescribed in respect of any matter or when expressly stated otherwise in these standing rules and orders, the chairperson at a meeting may cast a casting vote where there is an equality of votes on any question in addition to his or her deliberative vote.
- 83.2 Should there be an equality of votes after a division had been called and the chairperson refuses to use his or her casting vote, the matter must be referred back to the executive mayor.
- 83.3 In all cases other than those mentioned in rules 83.1 and 83.2 where there is an equality of votes and the chairperson refuses to use his or her casting vote, the matter must be referred back to the executive mayor.

CHAPTER 6: REMOVAL OF OFFICE-BEARERS FROM OFFICE.84. Removal of speaker.

- 84.1 A councillor (hereafter called "the initiator") may by written motion, which must be seconded by at least three other councillors, move that the speaker be removed from office. Such a motion must be submitted to the municipal manager and may not be sent by electronic mail, telex or telegram. If such motion is transmitted by facsimile, the original must be delivered to the municipal manager within seven days from the date of the motion.
- 84.2 The motion must contain a brief summary of the reasons for the motion.
- 84.3 A motion in terms of rule 84.1 may not be withdrawn.
- 84.4 The municipal manager must, upon receipt of a motion in terms of rule 84.1, forthwith send a copy to the speaker.
- 84.5 Unless the speaker resigns upon receipt of a motion in terms of rule 84.1, he or she must forthwith upon receipt thereof determine the date, time and venue for a special council meeting in terms of rule 4. The date of such a special meeting may not be less than fourteen and not more than twenty-one days from the date the speaker received a copy of the motion from the municipal manager.
- 84.6 Despite the provisions of rule 10.1 at least seven days notice of a meeting in terms of rule 84.5 must be given to every councillor and traditional leader.
- 84.7 If the speaker resigns from office at any time before a meeting in terms of rule 84.5 takes place, the motion lapses and the meeting does not go ahead.
- 84.8 The meeting may not be closed for the public or the media before a vote had been taken on a motion in terms of rule 84.1.
- 84.9 The municipal manager presides over the proceedings on a motion in terms of rule 84.1 but he or she may not vote.
- 84.10 The speaker has the right and must be allowed the opportunity during the proceedings to -
- 84.10.1 respond to every allegation made in the motion and during the proceedings;
- 84.10.2 call witnesses and to cross-examine any witnesses called by the initiator; and/or
- 84.10.3 submit documents and to examine any documents submitted by the initiator, provided that if the speaker is not present during the meeting, the council may, in its sole discretion, continue with the proceedings. A proposal to proceed in the absence of the speaker is carried if a majority of the councillors of the council vote in favour of such proposal.
- 84.11 With due regard for rules 34 and 35, the municipal manager must put the motion to the vote after the debate had been exhausted.
- 84.12 If the speaker at any time during the proceedings, but before the motion is put to the vote, make a declaration in terms of rule 68.2, the proceedings are discontinued immediately and the motion lapses and the council proceeds to elect a new speaker despite any provisions to the contrary contained in these standing rules and orders.
- 84.13 If the motion is carried, the speaker is removed from office with immediate effect and the council proceeds to elect a new speaker despite any provisions to the contrary contained in these standing rules and orders.
- 84.14 A councillor elected as speaker in terms of rule 84.12 or 84.13 serves for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.
- 84.15 If the motion is defeated no motion, forwarding the same allegations, may be submitted within the next three months unless the council directs otherwise.
85. Removal from office of the executive mayor.
The provisions contained in section 84 apply mutatis mutandis to the removal of the executive mayor from office.
86. Removal of members of section 79-committees.
The provisions of section 84 apply mutatis mutandis to the removal of a member of a committee from office.
87. Removal from office of chairperson of section 79-committee.
The provisions of section 84 apply mutatis mutandis to the removal of a chairperson of a committee from office.

CHAPTER 7: CLOSING OF MEETINGS.88. Circumstances that must be present to close a meeting.

Recognising the need for transparency and open and accountable government the council or a committee may, with due regard for any provisions to the contrary in these standing rules and orders or any other law, resolve to close any part of a meeting for the public and the media.

89. Procedure for closing meetings.

- 89.1 A councillor may, when an item in the agenda is put to order or at any time during the debate on an item, propose that the matter be further dealt with in closed session.
- 89.2 No seconder is required for a proposal in terms of rule 89.1.
- 89.3 Despite anything to the contrary in these standing rules and orders, only the introducer of the motion may speak on the proposal for a period not exceeding five minutes and must during his or her speech state the reasons for the proposal.

- 89.4 The chairperson at the meeting, if he or she does not reject the proposal, must subject the proposal to the vote immediately after the introducer has spoken.
- 89.5 If the proposal is carried, the chairperson must determine when the matter concerned must be debated.
- 89.6 When the council or a committee, as the case may be, resolves to close a part of a meeting and subject to any determination of the chairperson in terms of rule 89.5, all members of the public and media and council employees present at the meeting, except such employees as the chairperson may require to remain, must leave the meeting and may not return for the duration of the closed proceedings.
90. Rules governing closed meetings.
- 90.1 When a meeting is closed in terms of rule 89, the provisions of these standing rules and orders apply to that meeting.
- 90.2 If a proposal in terms of rule 89 is carried, the further debate on the matter, whether in closed session or public, is deemed a continuation of the preceding debate on the matter.
- 90.3 At the conclusion of a closed debate, the meeting automatically reverts to a meeting in public.
91. Opening a closed meeting.
- 91.1 A councillor may, at any time during a meeting that is closed, propose that the meeting proceed in public.
- 91.2 No seconder is required for a proposal in terms of rule 91.1.
- 91.3 Despite anything to the contrary in these standing rules and orders, only the introducer of the motion may speak on the proposal for a period not exceeding five minutes and must during his or her speech state the reasons for the proposal.
- 91.4 The chairperson at the meeting, if he or she does not reject the proposal, must subject the proposal to the vote immediately after the introducer has spoken.
- 91.5 If the proposal is carried, the meeting immediately resumes in public.
92. Supplying information to the media.
- 92.1 The municipal manager may make confirmed minutes (excluding any part of such minutes with regard to a matter dealt with in terms of rule 89) and official agendas available to any interested person or registered newspaper at such fees as the council may determine or free of charge.
- 92.2 The municipal manager may, and, if so instructed by the council or a committee must, make the confirmed minutes (excluding any part of such minutes regarding a matter dealt with in terms of rule 89) and official agendas available in the reference section of a public library in the municipal area.
- 92.3 The speaker or the executive mayor, in respect of the mayoral committee, or the chairperson of a section 79-committee may hold media conferences and briefings and issue media statements.
- 92.4 The municipal manager may, in respect of any matter included in the official agenda or the confirmed minutes of a meeting, issue media statements and convene media conferences and briefings.
- 92.5 A departmental head may, in consultation with the municipal manager, in respect of any matter within his or her department, issue media statements and call media conferences.

CHAPTER 8: APPLICATION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT.93. Investigating suspected breaches of the code.

- 93.1 Whenever a written or oral allegation is made to the municipal manager or when he or she has reason to believe that a councillor or traditional leader has contravened or failed to comply with any provision of the code of conduct, he or she must report it in writing to the speaker. If such an allegation is made to a departmental head, she or he must report it to the municipal manager.
- 93.2 Upon receipt of a report in terms of rule 93.1 and when the speaker has reason to believe that a provision of the code had been breached, he or she must refer such report to the Rules and Ethics Committee for investigation and report to the council.
94. Consideration of the Rules and Ethics Committee's report by the council.
- 94.1 The speaker must vacate the chair during any council meeting when a report in terms of rule 93 is put to order.
- 94.2 Whenever the speaker vacates the chair in terms of rule 94.1 the municipal manager must preside over the debate on the report.
- 94.3 The proceedings in terms of rule 94.2 may not be closed for the public and the media.
- 94.4 After the chairperson of the Rules and Ethics Committee has introduced his or her report, the municipal manager must allow the councillor or traditional leader concerned to reply to the allegations and findings.
- 94.5 As soon as the councillor or traditional leader concerned has spoken, the matter is debated in terms of these standing rules and orders.
- 94.6 Despite any provisions to the contrary in these standing rules and orders, the councillor or traditional leader concerned has a right to -
- 94.6.1 reply to all the allegations made during the debate before the speaker replies;
- 94.6.2 examine any documents submitted by the speaker or any other councillor or traditional leader and submit documents in his or her defence; and/or
- 94.6.3 call witnesses and to cross-examine any witness called by the speaker.

94. Consideration of the Rules and Ethics Committee's report by the council (continued).
- 94.7 With due regard for the provision of rules 34 and 35 the chairperson of the Rules and Ethics Committee must, after the debate had been exhausted, reply and propose -
- 94.7.1 that the report, findings and recommendation be accepted; or
- 94.7.2 that the report and finding and a different recommendation be accepted.
- 94.8 A proposal in terms of rule 94.7 need not be seconded.
- 94.9 After the proposal in terms of rule 94.7 had been made, the municipal manager must put the proposal to the vote.
- 94.10 If the proposal in terms of rule 94.7 is -
- 94.10.1 defeated, the matter is discontinued; or
- 94.10.2 carried, the municipal manager must forthwith implement the resolution.
95. Implementing the result of the vote.
- 95.1 If a proposal in terms of rules 94.7.1 or 94.7.2 is carried and a fine is imposed, the municipal manager must deduct the amount of such fine from the next payment of the council to the councillor or traditional leader unless he or she has paid the fine in cash before such payment is due.
- 95.2 If a proposal in terms of rules 94.7.1 or 94.7.2 is carried that the councillor or traditional leader must be suspended or the councillor or traditional leader must be removed from the council, the municipal manager must forthwith make such an application to the MEC.
- 95.3 If the MEC on application of the council suspends the councillor or traditional leader concerned, he or she is, despite any rule to the contrary, deemed to be absent with leave from any meeting he or she would have been required to attend had he or she not been suspended.
- 95.4 Where an allegation against a traditional leader is found to be true, the municipal manager must inform the relevant traditional authority accordingly.
96. Effect of appeal on a resolution.
- 96.1 If the councillor or traditional leader concerned appeals against the finding or the penalty imposed by the council or against both such finding and penalty as described in rule 96 before the municipal manager had deducted the fine, the municipal manager must defer the matter until the result of the appeal is known.
- 96.2 If the councillor or traditional leader concerned appeals before the municipal manager could submit an application in terms of rule 96, the municipal manager must defer the matter until the result of the appeal is known.
97. Breaches of these standing rules and orders or legislation relating to privileges and immunities.
- Any alleged breach of the provisions of these standing rules and orders for which a specific procedure and penalty had not been prescribed or of legislation regulating the privileges and immunities of councillors, must be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of rules 93 to 96.

CHAPTER 9: DISSOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL.98. Conditions for dissolution.

- 98.1 The council may at any time after two years have lapsed since it was elected, consider the dissolution of the council.
- 98.2 The council must consider the dissolution of the council if two years have lapsed after the council had been elected -
- 98.2.1 upon receipt of a petition proposing the dissolution signed by not less than 500 voters; or
- 98.2.2 upon receipt of a recommendation proposing the dissolution from the speaker or executive mayor.
- 98.2.3 when so directed by resolution of a public meeting of voters in terms of rule 9; or
- 98.2.4 upon receipt of a motion proposing the dissolution from a councillor signed by at least one-third of the councillors in addition to the introducer of the motion; or
- 98.2.5 when section 139 of the Constitution is invoked in respect of the council.
99. Procedure for considering the dissolution of the council.
- 99.1 Whenever any of the circumstances referred to in rule 98.2 arises, the municipal manager must determine the date, time and venue of a special council meeting in terms of rule 4. The date of such a special meeting may not be less than fourteen and not more than twenty-one days from the date the petition was delivered, recommendation was made, resolution was taken, motion was submitted or instruction received referred to in rule 98.2, as the case may be.
- 99.2 At least seven days notice of a meeting in terms of rule 99.1 must be given, despite the provisions of rule 10.1.
- 99.3 A meeting in terms of rule 99.1 may not be closed to the public and the media.
- 99.4 Despite any provisions to the contrary in these standing rules and orders, the municipal manager presides over the debate of the petition, recommendation, resolution or motion, as the case may be.
- 99.6 The proposal is carried if two-thirds of the councillors of the council vote in favour of such proposal.
- 99.7 The council is dissolved and all councillors vacate their seats immediately if the proposal is carried.

CHAPTER 10: COMMITTEES.PART 1: SECTION 79-COMMITTEES.

100. Report of the municipal manager before the establishment of a committee.
- 100.1 With due regard for the provisions of part 3 of this chapter, the council must, before it establishes and elects the members of a section 79-committee, consider a report from the municipal manager regarding the proposed committee.

- 100.2 The municipal manager in preparing a report contemplated in rule 100.1 must consider the need for the proposed committee, taking into account all relevant information to enable the council to take an informed decision.
- 100.3 The report of the municipal manager must contain recommendations with regard to the matters listed in rule 101 and the electoral system contemplated in rule 103, despite any recommendation that he or she may make that the proposed committee not be established.
- 100.4 The municipal manager must submit his or her report to the executive mayor.
- 100.5 The executive mayor must consider the report and recommendations of the municipal manager and submit it, together with his or her own comments and recommendations to the council.
101. Consideration of the municipal manager's report.
- If the council decides to establish the committee, the council must determine all the relevant details to ensure that the committee is able to function effectively.
102. Determining the size of the committee.
- 102.1 No more than twenty percent of the councillors of the council or ten councillors, whichever is the least, may be elected as members of the committee; provided that the committee must have at least three members who are councillors.
- 102.2 If the council authorises the committee to appoint persons in terms of rule 101 as members of the committee, it must determine the upper limit of the number of appointments that may be made; provided that the number of councillors serving in a committee must always exceed the number of persons who are not councillors in that committee.
103. Election system and election of members of a committee.
- 103.1 The members of the committee who are councillors must be elected according to a system that ensures that the parties and interests reflected in the council are fairly represented in that committee.
- 103.2 The speaker or executive mayor, as the case may be, may not be elected as a member of the committee.
- 103.3 Immediately after the council determined the election system in terms of rule 103.1 the council must elect the members of the committee.
104. Term of a committee and filling of vacancies.
- 104.1 The members of the committee are elected and appointed, subject to rule 104.2 for a term ending when the next municipal council is declared elected.
- 104.2 A member of the committee vacates office during the term of the council if that member -
- 104.2.1 resigns as a member of the committee;
- 104.2.2 is removed from office as a member of the committee in terms of rule 86;
- 104.2.3 ceases to be a councillor.
- 104.3 The council must, if it is deemed necessary and subject to rule 103.1, at the earliest opportunity after a vacancy occurred, elect and appoint another person to serve as member of the committee for the un-expired term of his or her predecessor.
105. Quorum and decision-making.
- 105.1 A majority of the members of the committee must be present before a decision on any matter may be taken.
- 105.2 A question before the committee is decided if there is agreement among at least the majority of the members present at a meeting.
- 105.3 If on any question there is an equality of votes, the chairperson may exercise a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

PART 2: EXECUTIVE MAYOR.

106. Making the decision to establish the office of executive mayor.
- 106.1 The council must, at its first meeting after a general election of councillors, immediately after it elected the speaker, consider whether or not to elect an executive mayor.
- 106.2 The council takes a decision in terms of rule 106.1 only after it considered a report of the municipal manager in terms of rule 107.
107. Report of the municipal manager about an executive mayor.
- The report of the municipal manager in respect of the establishment of the office of executive mayor must contain all relevant information to enable the council to take an informed decision.
108. Considering the municipal manager's report.
- The council must consider the municipal manager's report and, if the council decides to establish an office of the executive mayor, the council must determine all relevant details to enable the office of the executive mayor to function effectively.
109. Establishment of mayoral committee.
- The executive mayor must establish the mayoral committee with due regard to the provisions of the Structures Act.
110. Term of mayoral committee and filling of vacancies.
- 110.1 The members of the mayoral committee are appointed, subject to rule 110.2, for a term ending when the next municipal council is declared elected.
- 110.2 A member of the mayoral committee vacates office during the term of the council if that member -
- 110.2.1 resigns as a member of the mayoral committee;
- 110.2.2 is removed from office as a member of the mayoral committee in terms of rule 86; or

110. Term of mayoral committee and filling of vacancies (continued).

110.2.3 ceases to be a councillor.

110.3 The executive mayor must, unless he or she decides to reduce the size of the mayoral committee, at the earliest opportunity after a vacancy occurred, appoint another person to serve as member of the mayoral committee for the un-expired term of his or her predecessor.

111. Quorum and decision-making.

111.1 A question before the mayoral committee is decided if there is agreement among at least the majority of the members present at a meeting.

111.2 If on any question there is an equality of votes, the executive mayor may exercise a casting vote in addition to her or his deliberative vote.

PART 3: AD HOC COMMITTEES.

112. Establishment and disestablishment of ad hoc committees.

112.1 The council may at any time establish an ad hoc committee to deal with or advise it with regard to a particular matter.

112.2 An ad hoc committee ceases to exist when -

112.2.1 it furnishes its final report to the council; or 112.2.2 the council disestablishes it.

113. Terms of reference of ad hoc committees.

The council must determine the terms of reference of that ad hoc committee when it establishes it.

114. Removal from office of members of ad hoc committees.

The council may at any time remove one or more of the members from the ad hoc committee.

CHAPTER 11: REPORTS.

115. Reports of the executive mayor.

115.1 The executive mayor must submit a report on his or her decisions and recommendations on the matters considered by him or her, at every ordinary council meeting.

115.2 The municipal manager may in exceptional circumstances and with due regard to Section 55 of the Systems Act, submit reports to the council for consideration.

116. Delivery of reports of committees.

Except a report accepted by the speaker or chairperson in the case of a committee as a matter of urgency, a report in terms of rule 115 is delivered to the council or the executive mayor, as the case may be, together with the agenda for the meeting where it must be considered.

117. Submission of committee reports.

117.1 The report of the executive mayor is submitted for the consideration of the council by the executive mayor, or a member of the mayoral committee designated by her or him, as the case may be, by proposing: "I propose that the report of the committee be considered".

117.2 A proposal in terms of rule 117.1 may not be discussed and is deemed seconded once made.

118. Considering a committee report.

118.1 When a report in terms of rule 115 is considered, the speaker must -

118.1.1 put the matters contained in that report not disposed of by the executive mayor in terms of his or her delegated or statutory powers, one after the other; and

118.1.2 There after allow a discussion of the matters disposed of by the executive mayor in terms of his or her delegated or statutory powers, one after the other.

118.2 The speaker may alter the sequence of the matters dealt with in a committee report at his or her own discretion.

118.3 The section of a report referred to in rule 118.1.2 is considered in terms of rule 127.

118.4 The report and recommendation of the executive mayor on a matter is deemed proposed and seconded.

118.5 When a recommendation referred to in rule 118.4 is adopted, it becomes a council resolution.

118.6 During the consideration of a matter in terms of rule 118.4 -

118.6.1 the executive mayor may speak for ten minutes on any matter contained in such report despite any other provisions to the contrary herein contained; and/or

118.6.2 a councillor may demand that his or her opposition to a recommendation or resolution be recorded in the minutes.

118.8 The executive mayor may at any time during the debate on a matter -

118.8.1 request that the matter be withdrawn and referred back to the executive mayor or for further consideration; or

118.8.2 amend a recommendation contained in such report.

118.9 Permission in terms of rule 118.8 must be granted or denied without discussion.

118.10 A matter that is withdrawn in terms of rule 118.8.1 lapses without further discussion; and

118.11 The executive mayor may conclude the debate on the matter; provided that the executive mayor may designate a member of the mayoral committee to conclude such debate.

119. Reports on the state of the budget.

119.1 The municipal manager must submit monthly reports on the state of the budget for that financial year to the council for information and consideration.

119.2 The report in terms of rule 119.1 must contain the particulars referred to in applicable legislation and must be in the format prescribed by legislation.

119.3 A report in terms of rule 119.1 must first be submitted to the executive mayor for consideration.

119.4 The executive mayor must consider the report and submit it, together with his or her comments and recommendations to the council.

120. Report on unauthorised expenditure.

120.1 The municipal manager must, when a committee or a councillor of the council contemplates taking a resolution that may result in unauthorised expenditure, advise that committee or councillor of the reasons why the expenditure may be unauthorised.

120.2 Any advice of the municipal manager given during a meeting of the council or a committee in terms of rule 120.1 must be recorded in the minutes of that meeting. If the advice is not given during a meeting of the council or a committee, the municipal manager must confirm his or her advice at the earliest possible opportunity in writing in a letter addressed to the councillor concerned.

120.3 Whenever it is brought to the attention of the municipal manager that a decision had been taken that would result in unauthorised expenditure, the municipal manager must refer that decision, together with his or her report there on to the council or the committee or the councillor or departmental head who took the resolution.

120.4 As soon as the municipal manager becomes aware that any unauthorised expenditure had been incurred, he or she must immediately report the matter to the executive mayor.

120.5 A report in terms of rule 120.4 must contain all the relevant details to enable the executive mayor to take an informed decision or to make an informed recommendation to the council.

121. Information statement on intended debt.

Whenever the council contemplates incurring debt, the municipal manager must submit a report containing all relevant information to the council to enable the council to take an informed decision.

122. Financial report.

Financial reports in terms of applicable legislation must be incorporated into the report of the executive mayor to the council.

123. Report about virement.

123.1 Reports about virement in terms of applicable legislation must be incorporated into the report of the executive mayor.

123.2 A report referred to in rule 123.1 must contain all relevant information to enable the executive mayor to take an informed decision or to make an informed recommendation to the council.

124. Report on inability to comply with reporting requirements or any other duty.

124.1 The municipal manager must report immediately to the executive mayor or the council, if he or she is not able to comply with any of his or her reporting requirements or any duty in terms of -

124.1.1 any legislation, including these standing rules and orders; or 124.1.2 his or her contract of employment.

124.2 A report in terms of rule 124.1 must state the reasons for the inability.

124.3 Whenever the reasons for the inability arise from inadequate guidance, instruction, training or counselling, the report must state the extent to which such guidance, instruction, training or counselling fell short of being adequate.

124.4 Whenever the reasons for the inability arise from a lack of co-operation from any departmental head or other employee of the council, the municipal manager must make appropriate recommendations to prevent such an occurrence in future.

125. Reporting about performance.

125.1 The municipal manager must annually submit a report on the implementation and results of the council's performance management system to the executive mayor.

125.2 The report in terms of rule 125.1 must contain all relevant information to enable the executive mayor to take an informed decision or to make an informed recommendation to the council.

CHAPTER 12: DELEGATED POWERS.

126. Reporting on exercise of delegated powers.

A report of the executive mayor on decisions taken in terms of delegated powers in conjunction with the mayoral committee, must be incorporated into the report of the executive mayor to the council.

127. Review of decisions under delegated powers.

127.1 The speaker must, after the report of the executive mayor in terms of non-delegated powers have been disposed of, put the matters disposed of by the executive mayor in terms of delegated or statutory powers for discussion.

127.2 The speaker may alter the sequence of the matters dealt with in a report in terms of rule 127.1 at his or her own discretion.

127.3 During the consideration of a matter in terms of rule 127.1 -

127.3.1 the executive mayor may speak for ten minutes on any matter contained in such report despite any other provisions to the contrary contained in these standing rules and orders;

127.3.2 no proposal other than a proposal that the matter be referred back for consideration by the executive mayor may be made; and 127.3.3 a councillor may demand that his or her opposition to a resolution contained in such report be recorded in the minutes.

127. Review of decisions under delegated powers (continued).
 127.4 The executive mayor may at any time during the debate on a matter, request that the matter be withdrawn and referred back to the executive mayor for further consideration.
 127.5 Permission in terms of rule 127.4 must be granted or denied without discussion.
 127.6 A matter that is withdrawn in terms of rule 127.4 lapses without further discussion.
 127.7 The executive mayor may conclude the debate on the matter; provided that the executive mayor may designate a member of the mayoral committee to conclude such debate.

CHAPTER 13: EXERCISE OF POWERS.128. Exercising of powers.*128.1 Whenever any matter of urgency arises –

- 128.1.1 during any period when the council is not in recess but it is not practicable to obtain a decision of the council or of the executive mayor or the section 79 committee having delegated powers in the matter, an emergency meeting may, on the recommendation of the municipal manager, be called notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 2 and 13 to take place as soon as possible when a quorum of members can be gathered. At such meeting the submission of reports by the municipal manager or the executive mayor shall be renounced. A resolution of such emergency meeting shall be valid as if being a resolution by the entire council.

- 128.1.2 during any period when the council is in recess, such matter may be decided by the municipal manager in consultation with the executive mayor or, in the absence of the executive mayor, with such members of the mayoral committee who may be available.

- 128.1.3 during any period when the council is not constituted such matter may be decided by the municipal manager.

- 128.2 The powers conferred upon the executive mayor and/or municipal manager in terms of sections 128.1.2 and 128.1.3 shall include the power to incur expenditure; provided that a certificate is furnished by the manager; finance of the council stating that provision has been made in the current estimates for such expenditure, before any expenditure is incurred.

- 128.3 All matters decided in terms of Sections 128.1.1, 128.1.2 and 128.1.3 shall be reported for noting to the next ordinary meeting of the council; provided that anything done pursuant thereto in the meantime, shall be deemed to have been duly authorised by the council.

LIQUIDATION AND DISTRIBUTION ACCOUNTS IN DECEASED ESTATES LYING FOR INSPECTION

In terms of section 35 (5) of Act No. 66 of 1965, notice is hereby given that copies of the liquidation and distribution accounts (first and final, unless otherwise stated) in the estates specified below will be open for inspection of all persons interested therein for a period of 21 days (or shorter or longer if specially stated) from the date specified or from the date of publication hereof, whichever may be the latter, and at the offices of the Masters and Magistrates as stated.

Should no objection thereto be lodged with the Masters concerned during the specified period, the executors will proceed to make payments in accordance with the accounts.

The information is given in the following order: Estate number, surname, christian name(s), identity number, last address, description of account other than first and final; if deceased was married in community of property the surviving spouse's names, surname and identity number; period of inspection (if shorter or longer than 21 days), Magistrate's Office.

LIKWIDASIE- EN DISTRIBUSIEREKENINGS IN BESTORWE BOEDEL WAT TER INSAE LÊ

Ingevolge artikel 35 (5) van Wet No. 66 van 1965, word hierby kennis gegee dat duplikate van die likwidasië- en distribusierekenings (eerste en finale, tensy anders vermeld) in die boedels hieronder vermeld, in die kantore van die Meesters en Landdroste soos vermeld en gedurende 'n tydperk van 21 dae (of korter of langer indien spesiaal vermeld) vanaf gemelde datums of vanaf datum van publikasie hiervan, welke ook al die laaste is, ter insae lê van alle persone wat daarby belang het.

Indien binne genoemde tydperk geen besware daarteen by die betrokke Meesters ingedien word nie, gaan die eksekuteurs oor tot die uitbetalings ingevolge gemelde rekenings.

Die inligting word soos volg verstrek: Boedelnommer, familienaam, voornaam(name), identiteitsnommer, laaste adres, beskrywing van rekening as dit anders as eerste en finale is; indien oorledene in gemeenskap van goedere getroud was die nagelate eggenoot(note) se name, familienaam en identiteitsnommer; tydperk van insae (indien korter of langer as 21 dae), Landdroskantoor.
