ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

Dat die beperkende voorwaardes 1 (a), 1 (b) en 4, soos vervat in Akte van Transport No. T46430/1974, ten aansien van die eiendom bekend as:

Gedeelte 285 ('n gedeelte van Gedeelte 60) van die plaas Garstfontein No. 374, Registrasie Afdeling J.R., Gauteng, groot 169,5500 (een honderd nege en sestig komma vyf vyf nul nul) hektaar, en soos ook vervat in Akte van Transport No. T27461/1975, ten aansien van die eiendom bekend as Gedeelte 279 ('n gedeelte van Gedeelte 2) van die plaas Garstfontein No. 374, Registrasie Afdeling J.R., Gauteng, groot 128,4798 (eenhonderd agt en twintig komma vier sewe nege agt) hektaar, gekanselleer word.

Die beperkende voorwaardes soos wat dit woord vir woord ooreenstem in beide Aktes lees as volg:

"1. The Remaining Extent of Portion of the farm GARSTFONTEIN No. 374, Registration Division J.R., district Pretoria, measuring 369,7710 Hectares (of which the property held hereunder forms a portion) is:

(a) Entitled to the free and undisturbed use of the water arising on Portion "E" of Portion of the said farm GARSTFONTEIN, as held under Certificate of Partition Transfer No. 5329/1926, dated the 22nd day of May, 1926. The owners or owner of the said Portion "E" shall allow the said water to run free and undisturbed in the present water furrow from the hour of 6 p.m. to the hour of 6 a.m. each day.

(b) Together with Portion "E" aforesaid and a portion of portion of the said farm GARSTFONTEIN No. 374, measuring 440,0690 Hectares, are jointly subject to a servitude of water rights in favour of the Northern Portion of the said farm, as will more fully appear from Deed of Servitude No. 43/1894.

4. Subject to an Order of Water Court No. 419/47S, registered in the Deeds Office at Pretoria, on the 4th day of July, 1947."

2. 'n Beswaarskrif moet die Griffier bereik voor 14h00 op Donderdag, 12 Mei 2005 en moet die beswaarmaker se volle name, identiteitsnommer en adres vermeld, en die eiendom of reg wat deur die bevel geraak sal word, beskryf.

3. 'n Persoon met 'n reg wat deur die bevel geaffekteer sal word, mag sonder aanspreeklikheid vir regskostes teen die toestaan van die bevel beswaar maak.

4. Die bevel sal die volgende inslag hê:

4.1 Die effek van die gevraagde kansellasië van Voorwaarde 1 (a), wat feitlik woord vir woord dieselfde lees, is dat die waterregte wat die eienaar van die oorblywende gedeelte van die plaas GARSTFONTEIN 374, Registrasie Afdeling J.R., distrik Pretoria, groot 369,7710 hektaar, oor Gedeelte "E" van die genoemde gedeelte van die plaas GARSTFONTEIN No. 374 en welke regte vir boerderydoeleindes bedoel was, gekanselleer word. Vanweë die feit dat boerdery-aktiwiteite nie meer op die plaas plaasvind nie, die gebruik van watervore feitlik in onbruik verval het en aangesien dorpsdigting op bykans die hele plaas plaasgevind het, sal die kansellasië geen praktiese effek vir die huidige eienaar en/of okkuperders van hierdie eiendom inhou, wat voorheen deel gevorm het van die plaas GARSTFONTEIN 374 nie.

4.2 Die effek van die gevraagde kansellasië van Voorwaarde 1 (b), wat feitlik woord vir woord dieselfde lees, is dat die waterregte van die eienaar van die noordelike gedeelte van die voormalige plaas GARSTFONTEIN 374, oor die suidelike gedeelte van die grond geniet het en welke regte vir boerderydoeleindes bedoel was, gekanselleer word. Vanweë die feit dat boerdery-aktiwiteite nie meer op die plaas plaasvind nie en dorpsdigting bykans op die hele plaas plaasgevind het, sal die kansellasië geen praktiese effek vir die huidige eienaars en/of okkuperders van die eiendom inhou nie, wat voorheen deel gevorm het van die plaas GARSTFONTEIN 374 nie.

4.3 Die effek van die opheffing van Voorwaardes 4 is dat die eienaar of eienaars van die voormalige eiendom bekend as die Resterende Gedeelte van Gedeelte 130 van die plaas GARSTFONTEIN 374 (destyds bekend as No. 428), groot 97,6114 morge en gehou kragtens Sertifikaat van Gekonsolideerde Titel No. 20901/1946 nie geregtig sal wees op sekere waterregte kragtens 'n bevel van die Waterhof gedateer 4 Maart 1947, gelees tesame met die Ooreenkoms gedateer 17 Maart 1947 en geregistreer onder No. 242/1947-S op 16 April 1947, nie. Vanweë die feit dat boerdery-aktiwiteite nie meer op die plaas plaasvind nie en dorpsdigting bykans op die hele plaas plaasgevind het sal die kansellasië geen praktiese effek vir die huidige eienaars en/of okkuperders van die eiendom inhou nie, wat voorheen deel gevorm het van die plaas Garstfontein 374 nie.

5. Die aansoek is vir gratis inspeksie beskikbaar by die kantoor van die Griffier van die Hooggeregshof, Hooggeregshofgebou, Vermeulenstraat, Pretoria, en ten kantore van die APPLIKANT se prokureurs, Mnr. Case No. GCC 173/31/01/05

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: LESLIE SOLOMONS, Complainant, and TELLY TV, VIDEO & HI-FI CENTRE, Respondent

Introduction:

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the respondent's failure to repair a 54 cm Luxor television set (the Luxor TV) and return a TEK television set (the TEK TV) to the complainant in terms of an agreement (the agreement) the complainant concluded with the respondent in or about February 2004.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

2. The complaint was set down for hearing on 21 February 2005 and ultimately proceeds to trial on 23 March 2005. The complainant was represented by the Assistant Consumer Protector, Ms N Ngcobozi. The Respondent elected not to attend the hearing, which proceeded in the Respondent's absence.

Summary of evidence: The complainant, Leslie Solomons.

3. The complainant testified that on 16 February 2004 he took the Luxor TV and the TEK TV to the respondent for repairs. At all material times the complainant dealt with the respondent's proprietor, Silva Moudlane (Moudlane). The respondent repaired the Luxor TV, for which the complainant paid the respondent an amount of R300,00. However, the Luxor TV did not work properly when the complainant tried to use the Luxor TV at his home in that the screen blurred and it switched off automatically after about 10 to 15 minutes.

4. The complainant returned the Luxor TV to the respondent, who again repaired it. Shortly thereafter, the complainant collected the Luxor TV but it continued to malfunction with the same problem that the complainant had initially taken the Luxor TV to the respondent to repair. The complainant did not return the Luxor TV to the respondent to repair again because the complainant had become aware that the TEK TV had gone missing and he did not want to lose another television. The problem with the Luxor TV persists. The respondent has not refunded the complainant the amount of R300,00, which the complainant paid the respondent to repair the Luxor TV.

5. The complainant asked Moudlane on several occasions when he could collect the TEK TV. On each occasion, Moudlane gave a different story why the TEK TV was not ready for collection and told the complainant to return on a future date.

6. The complainant eventually lodged a complaint with the South African Police Services. Moudlane admitted to the police that the TEK TV was missing and undertook to replace it.

7. Sometime later the respondent delivered at LG 37cm colour television (the LG TV) to the complainant as a replacement. Moudlane was under the influence of alcohol and mistreated the complainant's wife when he delivered the LG TV.

8. The following morning the complainant returned the LG TV to Moudlane's wife with a letter. The letter records that the LG TV is being returned because—

8.1 the complainant gave the respondent a 54 cm colour remote TV;

8.2 the LG TV does not have a remote control;

8.3 the LG TV is 37 cm and not 54 cm;

8.4 the on/off button is defective and the respondent had inserted a stick in the button to keep the button on; and

8.5 the complainant did not have proof from where the respondent had bought the LG TV.

9. The complainant was greatly inconvenienced by the respondent having lost the TEK television because he had to take time off from work to go to the respondent's premises and suffered 'discomfort.

Analysis of evidence and argument:

10. The complainant is required to prove his case against the respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the complainant's version must be more probable than the respondent's version.

11. The respondent, despite being summoned to attend the court hearing and the summons having been duly served on it, elected not to attend court. Accordingly, the uncontested evidence before the court is that the respondent accepted an amount of R300,00 to repair the Luxor TV but failed to properly repair it. The respondent also took possession of the TEK TV but was negligent in that the TEK TV went missing while it was in the respondent's care. The respondent's conduct has unfairly affected the complainant and constitutes an unfair business practice under the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act).

12. The unfair business practice committed by the respondent is aggravated by the respondent's actions. The respondent accepted an amount of R300,00 to repair the Luxor TV but failed to properly repair it despite being given at least 2 opportunities to do so. The respondent also took possession of the TEK TV but lost it while it was in the respondent's care. The respondent inconvenienced the complainant by requesting the complainant to collect the TEK TV when the respondent knew that he did not have the TEK TV in his possession. It was only after the complainant reported the matter to the South African Police Services that the respondent admitted that the respondent had lost the TEK TV and undertook to replace it. The respondent then replaced the TEK TV with a defective 37 cm LG TV which was not remote controlled and required a stick to be inserted in the on/off button to ensure that the LG TV remained on. The respondent's actions have deprived the complainant of the use of the both the Luxor TV and TEK TV.

Compensation:

13. The complainant has been clearly prejudiced by the respondent's actions. He paid the respondent the amount of R300,00 to repair the Luxor TV but because of the respondent's defective workmanship was denied the benefit of the R300,00 and the use of the Luxor TV. It follows that the complainant is entitled to be refunded this amount.

14. The respondent also lost the complainant's TEK TV. Since the complainant purchased the TEK TV for R1999,00 in 1998 and taking depreciation into account, in our view it is not unreasonable to expect the respondent to pay to the complainant an amount of R500,00 towards the costs of another television set.

Costs:

15. Section 17 (1) (b) of the Act empowers the court to award costs on a prescribed scale or in an amount determined by the court against a person who is found to have acted, among other things, grossly unreasonably. The court has found that the respondent has acted grossly unreasonably and considers it appropriate to order the respondent to pay towards the costs of the investigation by the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and the sitting of the court.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)Order:

16. Accordingly the court orders that—

16.1 The respondent is, through the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent, to refund the complainant the amount of R300,00 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from the date of judgment to date of payment.

16.2 The respondent is, through the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent, to refund the complainant the amount of R500,00 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from the date of judgment to date of payment.

16.3 The respondent is to pay to the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent the amount of R3 000,00 towards the costs of the investigation of this complaint by the Office 1 or the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and sitting of the Court.

Members K Madlala, I Jones and A Makwetla concur with this Judgment of Chairperson T Bailey.

Case No. GCC 165/26/10/04

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: MONERE THEBEHAE, Complainant, and REHAUHETSWE FUNERAL SERVICES, Respondent

Introduction:

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the respondent's failure to provide the benefits due to the family of the late Molefi Thebehae (the deceased) in terms of a funeral benefit scheme conducted by the respondent.

2. This complaint was originally set down for hearing on 17 November 2004 and was ultimately concluded on 23 March 2005. The complainant was represented by the Assistant Consumer Protector, Mr R Sedibane. The respondent elected not to attend the hearing, which proceeded in the respondent's absence.

Summary of evidence: The complainant, Monere Thebehae.

3. The complainant testified that the deceased was a member of the Re Hauhetswe Funeral Scheme (the scheme). At the time of his death the deceased was paying the required premiums in the amount of R80,00 per month, which entitled the deceased's dependents to certain benefits provided under Plan A of the scheme.

4. The deceased died on Saturday, 2 August 2003. The complainant immediately informed the respondent's Mr Latha (Latha) that the deceased had died and requested the respondent to collect the body. Latha replied that he could not collect the body that day because all the respondent's vehicles had gone to Kroonstad but would collect the body the following day. The complainant insisted that the respondent collect the body immediately because there were no elders at the house and the complainant did not know the location of the respondent's mortuary. The complainant and Latha then agreed that the complainant would take the body to the mortuary belonging to Konyana Funeral Directors (Konyana) nearby and the respondent would collect the body from Konyana's mortuary the following day and pay the storage fee.

5. Konyana collected the body but the respondent failed to collect the body from Konyana's mortuary. Accordingly, on Thursday, 7 August 2003 the complainant called at the respondent's offices. Latha asked the complainant to obtain a storage quotation from Konyana. The complainant refused to obtain the quotation because the storage fee was a matter between Konyana and the respondent. The complainant told Latha that things were becoming difficult because the complainant was due to bury the deceased on the weekend Latha offered the complainant R1 500,00 which the complainant refused and told Latha that the respondent should utilise the R1 400,00 to cover the costs of the benefits due under Plan A of the scheme. The complainant and Latha then 'had differences' which resulted in the complainant, at his own cost, using Konyana to bury the deceased.

6. The complainant incurred costs in the amount of R9 116,50 to bury the deceased. These costs include an amount of R5 779,28, which the complainant paid to Konyana. The amount of R9 116,50 is the extent of the benefit to which the complainant was entitled to under Plan A of the scheme. The respondent did not pay the storage fee to Konyana nor did it contribute towards the costs of the deceased's funeral.

7. The complainant considers Latha to be a crook and wishes to be refunded the amount of R9 116,50

Analysis of evidence and argument:

8. The complainant is required to prove his case against the respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the complainant's version must be more probable than the respondent's version.

9. The respondent, despite being summoned to attend the court hearing and the summons having been duly served on it, elected not to attend court. Accordingly, the uncontested evidence before the court is that the respondent accepted the deceased's premiums of R80,00 each month but failed to provide the benefits due to the complainant under Plan A of the scheme. The respondent's conduct has unfairly affected the complainant and constitutes an unfair business practice under the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act).

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

10. The unfair business practice committed by the respondent is aggravated by the respondent's actions. The respondent accepted the deceased as a member of the scheme and accepted the deceased's monthly premiums but failed to provide the benefits due to the complainant under Plan A of the scheme. The respondent failed to collect the body when the deceased died and insensitively only offered to collect the body the following day. The respondent also failed to comply with its undertaking to collect the body from Konyana and pay Konyana's storage fee. Moreover, the complainant was greatly inconvenienced by the respondent's failure to provide the benefits due to the complainant under Plan A of the scheme in that the complainant was obliged to make alternative arrangements at a personal cost of at least R9 116,50 to ensure that the deceased was buried with the dignity the deceased envisaged when he joined the scheme and paid his premiums. It follows that the respondent has acted dishonestly and grossly unreasonably.

Compensation:

11. The complainant has been clearly prejudiced. Despite being covered for the funeral costs of the deceased under Plan A of the scheme, he was obliged to incur costs of at least R9 116,50. In our view, the complainant is entitled to be refunded the amount of R9 116,50.

Costs:

12. Section 17 (1) (b) of the Act empowers the court to award costs on a prescribed scale or in an amount determined by the court against a person who is found to have acted, amongst other things, grossly unreasonably. The court has found that the respondent has acted grossly unreasonably and considers it appropriate to order the respondent to pay towards the costs of the investigation by the Office for the investigation of Unfair Business Practices and the sitting of the court.

Order:

13. Accordingly, the court orders that—

13.1 The respondent is, through the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent, to refund the complainant the amount of R9 116,50 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from the date of judgment to date of payment.

13.2 The respondent is to pay to the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent the amount of R3 000,00 towards the costs of the investigation of this complaint by the Office for the investigation of Unfair Business Practices and sitting of the court.

Case No. CGC 173/31/01/05

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: LEON WHITE, Complainant, and ABENAKI PROPERTY GROUP HOLDINGS (Mr PARSONS), Respondent

Introduction:

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the respondent's failure to deliver certain services to the complainant, namely to have his name removed from the blacklist held by the credit bureau in or about September 2002.

2. The complaint was originally set down for hearing on 10 February 2005 and was postponed to 21 February 2005 for trial because of short service in respect of the summons. The complainant was represented by the Assistant Consumer Protector, Ms N Ngcobozi. The respondent did not attend the hearing but instead informed the Assistant Consumer Protector telephonically of its intention to settle the matter by refunding the complainant. The complainant's banking details were sent by telefax transmission to the respondent. The matter was accordingly postponed to 28 February 2005 to allow the complainant to make good on its undertaking to settle the dispute and for the complainant to inform the court that the monies had indeed been deposited into his account.

Summary of evidence: The complainant.

3. The complainant testified that in or about September 2002 he discovered that his name had been placed on the blacklist held by the credit bureau when he tried to open an account with O K Supermarket. He was referred by a cousin to Mr Roland Parsons of Abenaki Property Group Holdings. The complainant informed Mr Parsons that he was blacklisted and needed help in removing his name from the blacklist as soon as possible as he was applying for a housing loan from the bank. Mr Parsons requested and upfront payment of R760,00 (the service fee), which the complainant duly paid.

4. However, six months later Mr Parsons had failed to assist the complainant in removing his name from the blacklist held by the credit bureau. As a result of the respondent's failure to render services as promised the complainant was unable to secure a loan from the bank and was forced to sell his house at a reduced price because he could not keep up with the instalments.

5. The complainant further testified that he made several attempts to contact the respondent telephonically but the respondent would not take any of his calls. Finally, out of desperation he confronted the respondent at his house. The respondent gave him the assurance that he would attend to the matter as soon as the complainant could provide a printout from the credit bureau. It turned out that the credit bureau established that the complainant did not appear on its blacklist because he had never been blacklisted.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

6. He returned to the respondent on the very same day to demand a refund of the services fee but the complainant was not there. He therefore approached the Office for the Investigation of Unfair business Practices (the office) for assistance since all his attempts to contact the respondent came to nought.

7. The complainant wishes to be refunded the service fee he paid to the respondent.

Analysis of evidence and argument:

8. The complainant is required to prove his case against the respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the complainant's version must be more probable than the respondent's version.

9. The respondent, despite being summoned to attend the court hearing and the summons having been duly served on it, elected not to attend court. Accordingly, the uncontested evidence before the court is that the respondent accepted payment of the service fee from the complainant for the purpose of removing the complainant's name from the blacklist held by the credit bureau but the respondent failed to render any services at all. The respondent's conduct has unfairly affected the complainant and constitutes an unfair business practice under the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act).

10. The unfair business practice committed by the respondent is aggravated by the respondent's actions. The respondent accepted the service fee from the complainant but failed to perform as promised. The respondent ignored the complainant's request that he make good on his promise to deliver a service and thereafter failed to comply with numerous undertakings made to both the complainant and the office that the service fee would be refunded. Moreover, the complainant has been greatly inconvenienced for almost two years by the respondent's failure to carry out its obligations and honour the undertaking to refund the service fee paid by the complainant.

Compensation:

11. The complainant has been clearly prejudiced. He paid the service fee but did not receive any satisfaction from the respondent, who undertook to remove the complainant's name from the blacklist held by the credit bureau. In our view, the complainant is entitled to a refund of the full service fee he paid to the respondent.

Costs:

12. Section 17 (1) (b) of the Act empowers the court to award costs on a prescribed scale or in an amount determined by the court against a person who is found to have acted, amongst other things, grossly unreasonably. The court has found that the respondent has acted grossly unreasonably and considers it appropriate to order the respondent to pay towards the costs of the investigation by the office and the sitting of the court.

Order:

13. Accordingly, the court orders that—

13.1 The agreement the complainant and respondent concluded in or about September 2002 is hereby cancelled.

13.2 The respondent is, through the office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent, to refund the complainant the amount of R760,00 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from date of judgment to date of payment.

13.3 The respondent is to pay to the office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent the amount of R3 000,00 towards the costs of the investigation of this complaint by the office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and sitting of the court.

Chairperson T Bailey and Members K Madlala, I Jones and A Makwetla concur with this Judgment of member A Mayet.

Case No. GCC 181/11/02/05

IN THE GAUTENG CONSUMER AFFAIRS COURT HELD AT JOHANNESBURG

In the matter between: DANIEL MOJADIBODU, Complainant, and RURAL HARDWARE 177 CC, Respondent

Introduction:

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the respondent's failure to deliver certain roofing tiles and roofing timber (which are collectively referred to as the materials) to the complainant in terms of an agreement (the agreement) the complainant concluded with the respondent in or about February 2003.

2. The complaint was originally set down for hearing on 28 February 2005 and was postponed to 16 March 2005 for trial. The complainant was represented by the Assistant Consumer Protector, Ms Ngcobozi. The respondent elected not to attend the hearing, which proceeded in the respondent's absence.

Summary of evidence: The complainant: Daniel Mojadibodu.

3. The complainant called 2 witnesses. The complainant testified that in or about February 2003 he concluded an agreement with the respondent in terms of which the respondent would deliver the materials to the complainant upon payment of an amount of R18 083,10 (the purchase price). The purchase price included a delivery fee in the amount of R2 500,00.

4. The complainant effected payment of the purchase price, including the delivery fee, in instalments over a 14 month period. The complainant paid the final instalment during April 2004 and asked the respondent to deliver the materials to the complainant's house in Ellisras, Limpopo Province. However, the respondent failed to deliver the materials to the complainant's house and the complainant lodged a complaint with the office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices (the office).

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

5. The complainant has been severely prejudiced by the respondent's failure, to deliver the materials. The structure of the complainant's house, except for the roof, had been built when the complainant concluded the agreement with the respondent. The complainant would have been able to complete building the house if the respondent had delivered the materials to the complainant.

6. The complainant wishes to be refunded the purchase price.

Nicholas Voigt

7. Nicholas Voigt (Voigt) testified that he is the complainant's employer. Both Voigt and his wife assisted the complainant in his efforts to have the respondent deliver the materials to the complainant.

8. According to Voigt, the disregard the respondent has shown for this court by not appearing at court is what Voigt, his wife and the complainant have experienced when dealing with the respondent during the past year. Voigt's wife has written countless letters to the respondent and the respondent has failed to comply with its numerous undertakings to deliver the materials. Their dealings with the respondent have been a nightmare.

9. On one occasion, Voigt accompanied the complainant to the respondent's premises and told the respondent's manager, one Nathi, that Voigt and the complainant expected the respondent to deliver the materials. Nathi began to argue with Voigt. He told Voigt to wait outside because he did not have time for Voigt and physically ushered Voigt out of the respondent's premises. Voigt thought that the respondent never intended to deliver the materials.

Analysis of evidence and argument:

10. The complainant is required to prove his case against the respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the complainant's version must be more probable than the respondent's version.

11. The respondent, despite being summoned to attend the court hearing and the summons having been duly served on it, elected not to attend court. Accordingly, the uncontested evidence before the court is that the respondent accepted the purchase price from the respondent but failed to deliver the materials to the complainant. The respondent's conduct has unfairly affected the complainant and constitutes an unfair business practice under the Consumer Affairs (Unfair Business Practices) Act, 1996 (the Act).

12. The unfair business practice committed by the respondent is aggravated by the respondent's actions. The respondent accepted the purchase price from the complainant but failed to deliver the materials to the complainant. The respondent ignored the complainant's request to deliver the materials and also failed to comply with its numerous undertakings to Voigt and his wife to deliver the materials. When Voigt accompanied the complainant to the respondent's premises to insist that the respondent deliver the materials, Mdluli argued with Voigt and physically ushered Voigt out of the respondent's premises. Moreover, the complainant has been greatly inconvenienced for almost a year by the respondent's failure to deliver the materials because he has been unable to build the roof on his house since 30 April 2004, when he paid the last instalment on the purchase price. It follows that the respondent has acted dishonestly and grossly unreasonably.

13. In argument, Ms Ngcobozi submitted that the agreement was a lay by agreement. We are not persuaded that the agreement amounts to a lay by agreement in terms of the Sale and Service Matters Act, 1964.

Compensation:

14. The complainant has been clearly prejudiced. He paid the purchase price but did not receive the materials from the respondent who held itself out to be in the business of supplying building materials. In our view the complainant is entitled to cancel the agreement and be refunded the purchase price.

Costs:

15. Section 17 (1) (b) of the Act empowers the court to award costs on a prescribed scale or in an amount determined by the court against a person who is found to have acted, amongst other things, grossly unreasonably. The court has found that the respondent has acted grossly unreasonably and considers it appropriate to order the respondent to pay towards the costs of the investigation by the office and the sitting of the court.

Order:

16. Accordingly, the court orders that—

16.1 The agreement the complainant and respondent concluded in or about February 2003 is hereby cancelled;

16.2 The respondent is, through the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent, to refund the complainant the amount of R18 083 10 together with interest thereon at the prescribed rate from 30 April 2004 to date of payment.

16.3 The respondent is to pay to the office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and within 21 days of this judgment having been served on the respondent the amount of R3 000,00 towards the costs of the investigation of this complaint by the office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices and sitting of the court.

Members K Madlala, A Mayet, I Jones and A Makwetla concur with this Judgment of chairperson T Bailey.

1. This is the judgment concerning an alleged unfair business practice arising out of the complainant's purchase of a Volvo 850 GI Auto motor vehicle bearing registration FDR 785 GP (the vehicle) from the respondent in terms of a credit sale agreement in or about November 2002.

2. This complaint was set down for hearing on 28 February 2005 but was postponed to 8 March 2005 for trial. One witness testified and a bundle of documents was handed in.

3. The complainant was represented by the Assistant Consumer Protector Ms N Ngcobozi and the respondent was represented by an attorney Mr W du Plessis.

Summary of evidence:The complainant: Gontse Moroa

4. The complainant testified that in or about November 2002 she purchased the vehicle from the respondent.

5. The complainant took possession of the vehicle on 26 November 2002. From the outset, the vehicle's engine gave problems and very shortly thereafter the complainant was obliged to return the vehicle to the respondent to be repaired. The respondent eventually returned the vehicle to the respondent during the first week of February 2003. However the defects to the vehicle's engine persisted and the respondent was again obliged to return the vehicle to the respondent. Despite this, the engine's defects persisted and the respondent ultimately informed the complainant that it could not continue to repair the vehicle indefinitely because the warranty on the vehicle had expired.

6. During October 2003, the complainant took the vehicle to Sabre Motors to attend to the engine's defects. The Sabre Motors' invoice reflects that it carried out a maintenance service and other work concerning, among other things, the vehicle's rear shock absorbers, brakes, V-belt control, control ignition cable and recoil thread or cylinder head. The complainant paid Sabre Motors R22 000,00 for its services.

7. Subsequently, the complainant was obliged to take the vehicle to Volvo Performance Centre to service the vehicle and overhaul the engine. The complainant took possession of the vehicle on 4 March 2005 and paid Volvo Performance Centre R9 500,00 for its services. The vehicle is presently like a new vehicle.

8. The complainant approached the Office for the Investigation of Unfair Business Practices (the office) to open a case against Sabre Motors for its defective workmanship. However, after consulting the office this complaint was instituted against the respondent. If the respondent had repaired the vehicle within the 1 month warranty period then the complainant would be able to absolve the respondent from liability.

9. The complainant had previously had sight of the particulars of claim. The complaint is a long standing one and given the developments in this matter the prayer in the particulars of claim might be irrelevant.

Summary of argument

10. In argument, Ms Ngcobozi submitted that the particulars of claim were drafted before the complainant took the vehicle to Volvo Performance Centre. Accordingly, at that time the only relevant relief that could be requested was for the respondent to perform its obligations under the warranty. Moreover, Ms Ngcobozi, did not know that the complainant intended to take the vehicle to another dealer to be repaired.

11. Mr du Plessis disputed that the only relevant relief that could be requested was for the respondent to perform its obligations under the warranty. This is because the complainant testified that she approached the office to open a case against Sabre Motors, by which time it would have been impossible for the respondent to comply with the one month warranty since Sabre Motors had repaired the vehicle for an amount of R22 000,00. It follows that there is not the faintest possibility of the respondent being able to comply with the relief sought and the complaint should be dismissed.

Analysis of evidence and argument:

12. The complainant is required to prove her case against the respondent on a balance of probabilities. This standard means that the complainant's version must be more probable than the respondent's version.

13. It became common cause that the complainant purchased the vehicle from the respondent in or about November 2002 with a one month warranty.

14. In her particulars of claim the complainant prays for an order —

(a) Compelling the respondent to perform its obligations in terms of the warranty.

(b) Further and/or alternative relief.

15. On the complaint's own version she approached the office to open a case against Sabre Motors. We agree with Mr du Plessis that by the time the complainant approached the office it was impossible for the respondent to perform its obligations under the warranty because Sabre Motors had repaired the vehicle for an amount of R22 000,00. Moreover, by the time this complaint proceeded to trial the vehicle was running like a new vehicle as a result of the complainant utilising the services of Volvo Performance Centre at a cost of R9 500,00 to service the vehicle and overhaul the engine. Since the 1 month warranty has long since expired and the vehicle is running like a new vehicle it follows that there is no obligation for the respondent to meet.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

16. The complainant suggested in her evidence that she wished to be refunded the amount of R31 500,00 she was obliged to spend to ensure that the vehicle worked properly. However, the complainant made no such claim in her particulars of claim and in this case is therefore not entitled to such relief.

Order:

17. Accordingly, the court orders that—

17.1 The complainant has not discharged the ordinary burden of proof incumbent on her; and 17.2 the respondent is entitled to absolution from the instance.

Members K Madlala, A Mayet, I Jones and A Makwetla concur with this Judgment of chairperson T Bailey.

Case No. 2005/9131

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA
(Transvaal Provincial Division)

At Pretoria on 12 April 2005, before his Honourable Mr Justice Tokota

In the ex parte application of: THE DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH OF TRANSVAAL—MORELETAPARK, Applicant

Having heard the legal representative for the Applicant, and having read the Notice of Motion and other documents filed of record:

It is Ordered:

1. That a Rule Nisi be issued calling on any interested person who may choose to do so, to object by way of letter to the Registrar, or by, personally or by counsel or attorney who is admitted to practice before this Court, appearing in Court on Friday, 13 May 2005 at 10h00, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, to the grant of the following order:

That the restrictive conditions 1(a), 1(b) and 4, contained in Deed of Transfer No. T46430/1974, in respect of the property known as Portion 285 (a portion of Portion 60) of the farm Garstfontein No. 374, Registration Division JR, Gauteng, in extent 169,5500 (one hundred and sixty nine comma five five zero zero) hectares, and as contained in Deed of Transfer No. T27461/1975 in respect of the property known as Portion 279 (a portion of Portion 2) of the farm Garstfontein No. 374, Registration Division J.R., Gauteng, in extent 128,4798 (one hundred and twenty eight comma four seven nine eight) hectares, be cancelled.

The restrictive conditions as it similarly appears in both the deeds read as follow:

"1. The Remaining Extent of Portion of the farm Garstfontein No. 374, Registration Division J.R., District of Pretoria, measuring 369,7710 hectares (of which the property held hereunder forms a portion) is:

(a) Entitled to the free and undisturbed use of the water arising on Portion "E" of Portion of the said farm Garstfontein, as held under Certificate of Partition Transfer No. 5329/1926, dated the 22nd day of May 1926. The owners or owner of the said Portion "E" shall allow the said water to run free and undisturbed in the present water furrow from the hour of 6 p.m. to the hour of 6 a.m. each day.

(b) Together with Portion "E" aforesaid and a portion of portion of the said farm Garstfontein No. 374, measuring 440,0690 hectares, are jointly subject to a servitude of water rights in favour of the Northern Portion of the said farm, as will more fully appear from Deed of Servitude No. 43/1894.

4. Subject to an Order of Water Court No. 419/47S, registered in the Deeds Office at Pretoria, on the 4th day of July 1947."

2. A Letter of Opposition must be received by the Registrar before 14h00 on Thursday, 12 May 2005. The letter must state the objector's full names, identity number and address and must identify the property or right which will be affected by the grant of the order.

3. A person who has a right who may be affected by the order is normally an interested party to an adequate extent to entitle him to object to the grant of the order, and he may do so without incurring liability for costs.

4. The order will have the following effect:

4.1 The effect of the requested cancellation of Conditions 1(a), which read exactly the same, is that the water rights enjoyed by the owner of the remaining portion of the farm GARSTFONTEIN 374, Registration Division J.R., District Pretoria, in extent 369,7710 hectares, over Portion "E" of the mentioned portion of the farm GARSTFONTEIN 374 and which rights were intended for farming purposes, be cancelled. Due to the fact that farming activities no longer take place on the farm, the fact that water furrows have fell into desuetude and the fact that township development took place on nearly the whole of the farm, the cancellation of such rights shall have no practical effect on the present owners and/or occupants of this property, formerly a portion of the farm GARSTFONTEIN 374.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

4.2 The effect of the requested cancellation of Conditions 1(b), which read exactly the same, is that the water rights enjoyed by the owner of the northern portion of the former farm GARSTFONTEIN 374 over the southern portion of the farm which were intended for farming purposes, be cancelled. Due to the fact that farming activities no longer take place on the farm and township development took place on nearly the whole of the farm the cancellation of such rights shall have no practical effect on the present owners and/or occupants of the property that once formed part of the farm GARSTFONTEIN 374.

4.3 The effect of the cancellation of Conditions 4, which read exactly the same, is that the owner of owners of the former property known as the Remaining Extent of Portion 130 of the farm GARSTFONTEIN 374 (previously known as No. 428), in extent 97,6114 morgen and held by Certificate of Consolidated Title No. 20901/1946, will not be entitled to certain water rights by virtue of an order of the Water Court dated 4 March 1947, read together with Agreement dated 17 March 1947 and registered under No. 242/1947-S on 16 April 1947. Due to the fact that farming activities no longer take place on the farm and that township development also took place on nearly the whole of the farm the cancellation of such rights shall have no practical effect on the present owners and/or occupants of the property that once formed part of the farm GARSTFONTEIN 374.

5. The papers in this matter are open for inspection without charge at the office of the Registrar of the High Court, High Court Building, Vermeulen Street, Pretoria, and at the office of Applicant's attorneys, Messrs. Van der Merwe du Toit Inc., at Brooklyn Place, cnr. Bronkhorst & Dey Streets, Nieu Muckleneuk, Pretoria.

6. Service of this order is to be effected by the immediate despatch of a copy of the order by prepaid registered post or by electronically receipted telefax transmission, or by means of personal service on the City of Tshwane Metropolitan Municipality.

7. A notice of this order, in two official languages, is to be exhibited on a prominent part of the public notice board at the offices of the City of Tshwane Metropolitan Municipality for a period of three weeks from 14 April 2005, or as soon thereafter.

8. An Afrikaans notice of this order must be published in the Government Gazette and the Beeld on or before 22 April 2005.

9. An English notice of this order must be published in the Government Gazette and the Pretoria News on or before 22 April 2005.
