NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) (b) OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT, No. 121 OF 1998
(THE ACT)

This notice is addressed to Onyeka Guy Oguegbu alias Kenneth and Ali Shaibu and all other persons who have an interest in the property or property representing such property or the proceeds of such property ("the property"):

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions ("National Director") has obtained a preservation of property order ("the Order"), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 38 (2) of the Act in respect of the property.
2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, how to protect it.
3. You are advised that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the Act for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The Order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.
4. If you intend opposing the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the Order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the Order and are also dealt with in sections 39 (3), (4) and (5) of the Act. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

IN THE APPLICATION FOR A PRESERVATION ORDER IN TERMS OF SECTION 38 (1) OF ACT 121 OF 1998

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) (b) OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT, No. 121 OF 1998
(‘THE ACT’)

This notice is addressed to Nicholas Mushi and all other persons who have an interest in the property representing such property or the proceeds of such property (‘the property’).

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions ('National Director') has obtained a preservation of property order ('the Order'), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 38 (2) of the Act in respect of the property.

2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, how to protect it.

3. You are advised that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the Act for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The Order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

4. If you intend opposing the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the Order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the Order and are also dealt with in sections 39 (3) and (4) and (5) of the Act. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 14-day time limit period prescribed in section 39 (4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above.

6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the Order you will be entitled to be given 14 days' notice of the application by the Applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

7. If you fail to enter an appearance to defend in terms of the Order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case the Court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the State under section 53 of the Act.

8. You may on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 72 hours' notice to the Applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the Order, apply for reconsideration of the Order.

9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend applying for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must in addition comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend opposing the forfeiture application subsequently. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.

10. Whenever this Order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the Applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the Applicant at the following address:

Dated at Pretoria during March 2015.

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39(1) OF ACT 121 OF 1998

This notice is addressed to the Respondent and to all persons who have an interest in the property mentioned in the Preservation Order. It is meant to advise such persons of some of the options available to them.

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions ("the National Director") has obtained a Preservation of Property Order ("the Order") in terms of section 38(2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 ("POCA") against the property mentioned in the Preservation Order. A copy of the Order is attached to this notice.

2. If you have an interest in the property you should understand that it is now at risk because the National Director intends applying to the Port Elizabeth High Court ("the Court") for a Forfeiture Order within ninety (90) days of the publication of the Order in the Government Gazette ("the Gazette"). The Order will remain in force until:

2.1 A Forfeiture Order granted by the Court in respect of the property subject to the Order remains unsatisfied; or

2.2 the National Director fails to apply for a Forfeiture Order within ninety (90) days after publication of the Order in the Gazette; or

2.3 the Order is set aside by the Court before expiry of ninety (90) days from date of its publication in the Gazette.

3. You are advised to obtain legal advice to ascertain if you can protect your interest and, if so, how to protect it. If you wish to oppose this Application, or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be made, you must give notice of such intention in terms of the Order attached to this notice. The requirements of such notice are dealt with in sections 39(3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

4. If this notice has been served on you or delivered to you, you must within fourteen (14) days after that date give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be granted. If you fail to do so within that time your interest in the property may be defeated by a Forfeiture Order granted by default in terms of sections 50 and 53 of POCA.

5. If this notice has not been served or delivered to you, you must within fourteen (14) days after the date of publication of the Preservation Order in the Gazette give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be granted.

6. For a notice of intention to oppose this Application to be valid, you must:

6.1 Serve or deliver the original to the Registrar of the Court;

6.2 serve or deliver a copy to the State Attorney at 29 Western Road, Central, Port Elizabeth;

6.3 state therein an address within eight (8) kilometers of the Court at which you will accept notice and service or delivery of all documents relating to this Application; and

6.4 attach to the notice an affidavit in which you set out:

6.4.1 full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice;

6.4.2 the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned;

6.4.3 whether you intend to oppose the making of the Forfeiture Order, or to apply for an order:

6.4.3.1 excluding your interest in that property from the operation from the Order; or

6.4.3.2 varying the operation of the Order in respect of that property;

6.4.4 whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities;

6.4.5 the facts:

6.4.5.1 on which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a Forfeiture Order or applying for an Order referred to in 6.4.3.1 and/or 6.4.3.2 above;

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

6.4.5.2 on the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

7. If you give notice in terms of the Order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given fourteen (14) days' notice of the Application for the Forfeiture Order.

8. If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of section 49 of POCA for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.

9. Any person affected by the Preservation Order may apply to the Court to have that Order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47(1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47(1)(b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the Preservation Order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50(4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a Forfeiture Order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

10. The Order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

11. A Forfeiture Order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50 (5) of POCA. If a Forfeiture Order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the Forfeiture Order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the Forfeiture Order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only forty five (45) days from the date of publication of the Forfeiture Order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

12. If a Forfeiture Order or any other Order under section 53(1)(b) of POCA should be made by default any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the Order will have the right, within twenty (20) days after acquiring knowledge of the Order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the Order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default Order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.
