GENERAL EXPLANATORY NOTE:

- [ ] Words in bold type in square brackets indicate omissions from existing rules.
— Words underlined with a solid line indicate insertions in existing rules.

Amendment of rule 49 of the Rules

2. Rule 49 of the Rules is hereby amended by the substitution for subrule (13) of the following subrule:

"[(13) Unless the respondent waives his right to security, the appellant shall, before lodging copies of the record on appeal with the registrar, enter into good and sufficient security for the respondent's costs of appeal. In the event of failure by the parties to agree on the amount of security, the registrar shall fix the amount and his decision shall be final.]

- (13) (a) Unless the respondent waives his or her right to security or the court in granting leave to appeal or subsequently on application to it, has released the appellant wholly or partially from that obligation, the appellant shall, before lodging copies of the record on appeal with the registrar, enter into good and sufficient security for the respondent's costs of appeal.
- (b) In the event of failure by the parties to agree on the amount of security, the registrar shall fix the amount and the appellant shall enter into security in the amount so fixed or such percentage thereof as the court has determined, as the case may be."

3. Commencement

This rule shall come into operation on 30 November 1999.
