BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE.

INCOME TAX, 1924.

PUBLIC NOTICE TO FURNISH RETURNS UNDER THE BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE INCOME TAX PROCLAMATION, 1922.

Notice is hereby given that all persons liable to taxation, personally or in any representative capacity, under the provisions of the Bechuanaland Protectorate Income Tax Proclamation, 1922, are required to furnish within thirty days after the date of this notice, returns for the assessment of the tax. Returns are also required within thirty days of the date of this notice from any other person, whether a taxpayer or not, to whom paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this notice applies.

Returns are required from—

- (a) every married person whose income for the year ended 30th June, 1924, exceeded £500;
- (b) every widowed or divorced person, maintaining a child of his own, or step-child, under the age of eighteen years, whose income for the year ended 30th June, 1924, exceeded £500;
- (c) every person, other than those described in (a) and (b), whose income for the year ended 30th June, 1924, exceeded £300;
- (d) the public officer of every company which carried on business in the territory during the year ended 30th June, 1924;
- (e) every person who is a representative of any person who is described above;
- (f) every person to whom a form shall be issued, even though the income of such person may not have amounted to £300.

Forms.

The forms prescribed under the Proclamation can be obtained at the Office of the Collector of Income Tax (B.P.), Mafeking.

FORWARDING OF RETURNS.

Every return is required to be forwarded by post or to be delivered at the Office of the Collector of Income Tax (B.P.), Mafeking.

NOTE.—Any envelope marked with the words "Income Tax—On His Majesty's Service" will be carried post free.

PENALTIES.

Any person required to render a return who fails to do so within the period of thirty days from the date of this notice is liable to a penalty not exceeding £100, or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding one year, and, further, to a fine not exceeding £10 for each day during which default continues after conviction, and to an estimated assessment at double the ordinary rate.

Any person who knowingly and wilfully makes any false statement in any return or evades or attempts to evade assessment or taxation is liable to a penalty not exceeding £100, or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding one year, and, in addition, is liable to be assessed and charged twice the amount of the tax which he has sought to evade.

NOTE.—No person is exempted from penalty by reason merely of the fact that he may not have been called upon individually to make a return. Any further information or assistance which any person may require can be obtained at the Office of the Collector of Income Tax (B.P.), Mafeking.

M. WILLIAMS,
Collector of Income Tax.
