BILL

To provide for the legalization of the marriages of certain persons now residing in the Union of South Africa or in the mandated territory of South West Africa contracted prior to 1906 in the Bechuanaland Protectorate or in the former German Protectorate of South West Africa or prior to the second day of April, 1929, in Angola, and for the registration of the said marriages.

(Introduced by the MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR.)

BE IT ENACTED by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Union of South Africa, as follows :—

Appointment of commissioner.

1. As soon as possible after the commencement of this Act the Administrator of the mandated territory of South-West Africa shall appoint on such conditions as he may think fit, but subject to the provisions of this Act, a Commissioner for Angola Marriages (hereinafter called "the commissioner") for the purpose of giving effect to this Act. 5

Registration and legalization of Angola marriages.

2. (1) Any person whose marriage was solemnised before the first day of January, 1906, in the Bechuanaland Protectorate or in the former German Protectorate of South West Africa, while he was on his way from the Transvaal to Angola, or before the second day of April, 1929, in Angola, by a minister, elder, or person purporting to act as a marriage officer of any recognized christian church denomination of South Africa and any child of such person, provided they are resident at the time of making the application in the Union or in the mandated territory of South West Africa, may, within twelve months from the commencement of this Act, or within such further period as the Administrator of the said territory may determine, apply to the commissioner for the registration of the said marriage under sub-section (2). 15

(2) The commissioner shall institute an inquiry into every such application, and if he is satisfied that— 25

- (a) such marriage was entered into bona fide and was not within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity according to the law prevailing in the Transvaal at the commencement of this Act; and
- (b) no party to the marriage, being still alive, is a subject of a foreign state, 30

he shall frame a register signed by himself recording the fact that a marriage was duly entered into between the parties, and setting forth the full names and condition of the parties before their marriage, their race, age, place of residence and calling and the place and date of marriage, and he shall submit such marriage register to the Registrar of Births, Marriages and Deaths of the Province of the Transvaal who shall have the custody of the same. 35

(3) A marriage registered in terms of sub-section (2) shall be valid for all purposes and be deemed to have been valid as from the date on which it was contracted unless it is proved to be a bigamous marriage or unless it is proved that the registration thereof was obtained by fraud. 40

(4) Every such register shall after its receipt by the said registrar for the purposes of the Registration of Births, Marriages and Deaths Act, 1923 (Act No. 17 of 1923), or of the said Act as applied to the mandated territory of South West Africa, and for that purpose modified by the Registration of Births, Marriages and Deaths Proclamation, 1923 (Proclamation No. 38 of 1923) of the Administrator of the said territory, be deemed to be a register which by virtue of the said Act or of the said Act as so applied is in the custody of the said registrar. 50

Powers, jurisdiction and privileges of commissioner.

3. (1) The commissioner shall have the powers, jurisdiction and privileges of a commission and of the chairman of a commission as set out in sections three to seven inclusive of the Commissions' Powers Ordinance, 1927 (Ordinance No. 6 of 1927) of the mandated territory of South West Africa and the provisions of the said sections shall mutatis mutandis apply to all matters dealt with by him. 55
