BUSINESS REPLY CARDS AND ENVELOPES.

REGULATIONS.

(a) The Postmaster-General may, on such conditions as he may determine, subject to the provisions hereof, issue a licence to any person to receive postcards, envelopes, folders or portions of reply cards, issued by the licensee, and designed for use by the addressee in replying to the licensee, upon which postage has not been prepaid.

(b) The licence shall not cover the use of any such cards, envelopes, folders or portions of reply cards which do not conform to specifications prescribed by the Postmaster-General and complete printed proofs of such cards, envelopes, folders or portions of reply cards shall be submitted by the licensee to the Postmaster-General for approval before being used.

(c) The licensee shall make and maintain a deposit with the Postmaster-General of an amount sufficient to cover the charges which the Postmaster-General estimates will accrue in respect of such articles during such period as he may determine; provided that the amount so deposited shall not be less than ten shillings.

(d) The appropriate postage rates and supplementary charges as prescribed in the Schedule appended hereto shall be payable by the licensee.

(e) In all other respects the cards, envelopes, folders or portions of reply cards shall be subject to the general postal regulations.

(f) The licence may be revoked by the Postmaster-General by notice in writing of such a period as may have been determined by the Postmaster-General for the purposes of paragraph (c) hereof; provided that if the licensee fails to comply with any of the conditions of the licence, it may be revoked forthwith.

SCHEDULE.

In respect of postal articles delivered to the licensee under the provisions of the above regulation: ½d. per article, in addition to the prescribed postage rate.
