(4) The duty to deliver any security under paragraph (3) of this regulation shall include a duty to do all such things as are necessary to secure that any dividends or interest on that security becoming payable on or after the date of the making of the order or giving of directions will be paid to the Resident Commissioner; and where, in the case of any security payable to bearer which is delivered in pursuance of the said paragraph, any coupons representing any such dividends or interest are not delivered with the security, such reduction in the price payable therefor

shall be made as the Resident Commissioner thinks fit:

Provided that, where the price specified in the order or directions in relation to any securities is ex any dividend or ex any interest, this paragraph shall not apply to that dividend or interest or to any coupon representing it.

Exemption from Stamp Duty.

9. Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on any document made for the sole purpose of meeting the requirements of these regulations.

- (c) he is, in respect of that currency or that right, as the case may be, exempted from this regulation by the Resident Commissioner or by a person so authorised.

Acquisition by the Resident Commissioner of certain Securities.

6. (1) The Resident Commissioner may by order direct—

- (a) that, subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by the order, no person shall, except with permission granted by the Resident Commissioner, sell, transfer, or do anything which involves the creation of a charge on, securities of any such class as may be specified in the order, being a class of securities which, in the opinion of the Resident Commissioner, is likely to be marketable outside the Territory; and
- (b) that the owner of any securities of the said class shall, in such manner and within such period as may be specified in the order, make a return to the Resident Commissioner giving such particulars with respect to those securities as may be so specified.

For the purposes of this paragraph, a person who mortgages or pledges a security shall be deemed thereby to create a charge on the security.

(2) At any time while an order made under paragraph (1) of this regulation with respect to securities of any class is in force, the Resident Commissioner, if he is of the opinion that it is expedient so to do for the purpose of strengthening the financial position of the Territory, may, by an order made generally with respect to any specified securities of that class, or by directions given with respect to any securities of that class of which any particular person is the owner, transfer to himself the securities to which the order or directions relates or relate, at a price specified in the order or directions, being a price which, in the opinion of the Resident Commissioner, is not less than the market value of the securities on the date of the making of the order or the giving of the directions.

(3) Where any order is made, or any directions are given, under paragraph (2) of this regulation with respect to any securities—

- (a) those securities shall forthwith vest in the Resident Commissioner free from any mortgage, pledge or charge, and the Resident Commissioner may deal with the securities as he thinks fit;

- (b) the owner of any of those securities, and any person who is responsible for keeping any register or book in which any of those securities is registered or inscribed or who is otherwise concerned with the registration or inscription of any of those securities, shall do all such things as are necessary or as the Resident Commissioner may direct to be done for the purpose of securing that the security and any document of title relating thereto will be delivered to the Resident Commissioner or to such person as the Resident Commissioner may direct, and, in the case of any registered or inscribed security, that the security will be registered or inscribed in the name of the Resident Commissioner or such person as the Resident Commissioner may direct.

(4) The duty to deliver any security under paragraph (3) of this regulation shall include a duty to do all such things as are necessary to secure that any dividends or interest on that security becoming payable on or after the date of the making of the order or giving of directions will be paid to the Resident Commissioner; and where, in the case of any security payable to bearer which is delivered in pursuance of the said paragraph, any coupons representing any such dividends or interest are not delivered with the security, such reduction in the price payable therefor shall be made as the Resident Commissioner thinks fit:

Provided that, where the price specified in the order or directions in relation to any securities is ex any dividend or ex any interest, this paragraph shall not apply to that dividend or interest or to any coupon representing it.

(5) A certificate signed by any person authorised in that behalf by the Resident Commissioner that any specified securities are securities transferred to the Resident Commissioner under this regulation shall be treated by all persons responsible for keeping any registers or books in which the securities are registered or inscribed, or who are otherwise concerned with the registration or inscription of those securities, as conclusive evidence that the securities have been so transferred.

(6) This regulation shall not apply to any security if the Resident Commissioner is satisfied that at all times since the beginning of the third day of September, 1939, all the persons interested in the security, other than persons interested therein merely as trustees or merely by virtue of any mortgage, pledge or charge created before the said day, but including any persons beneficially interested therein under a trust, were not resident in the Territory.

Control of Capital Issues.

7. (1) No person shall, except with the consent of the Resident Commissioner and in accordance with such conditions as the Resident Commissioner may impose, make an issue of capital in the Territory or renew or postpone the date of maturity of any security maturing for repayment in the Territory:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to the issue of shares for a consideration not exceeding one hundred pounds in all to the signatories of a memorandum of association.

(2) No person shall issue any prospectus or other document offering for subscription any securities which does not include a statement that the Resident Commissioner has consented to the issue of the securities.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation a person shall be deemed to make an issue of capital who—

- (a) issues any securities (whether for cash or otherwise); or
- (b) receives any money on loan on the terms, or in the expectation, that the loan will or may be repaid wholly or partly by the issue of any securities, or by the transfer of any securities issued after the making of the loan.

Exemption from Stamp Duty.

8. Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on any document made for the sole purpose of meeting the requirements of these regulations.
