It was resolved that the Company be wound up voluntarily subject to the following provisions and conditions:

1. That the Company be voluntarily wound up in terms of section 349 (b) of the Companies Act, 1973, as amended.

2. That Douglas Ian Boake be nominated as liquidator of the Company in terms of section 350 (1) (b) of the Companies Act, 1973, as amended.

THE NEDBANK GROUP (Nedbank and Syfrets-UAL Holdings Ltd. (Inc. in RSA): INTERIM REPORT.—The unaudited net operating profit after tax and after transfers to internal reserves attributable to shareholders of the Nedbank Group for the six months ended 31/3/77 amounted to R15 040 000 which represents an increase of 11 per cent on the same period last year.

Earnings per share for the period under review increased from 15,8c to 17,5c.

General.—All sectors of the Group showed improved results.

As in previous years the major portion of the Nedbank Group's profit emanated from banking operations, with the commercial bank Nedbank, in the forefront. The economic and financial climate during the six months under review was somewhat difficult domestically and unsettled overseas—it is therefore pleasing to note that in spite of this setting the Nedbank Group was able to increase its profits. These profits have been arrived at after careful consideration of the present economic situation and the possible effects thereof on the quality of the assets of the Group. Although the outlook for the South African economy and more specifically the balance of payments is more encouraging than six months ago, it was considered advisable for our banking companies to strengthen their reserves even further. It was also decided to maintain a high degree of liquidity. It is pleasing to report that our capital position remains satisfactory, which apart from being reassuring in these uncertain times, will afford the banking companies in the Group ample scope to expand their activities once the upturn in the South African economy takes place. The directors are confident of the continued profitable performance of the Nedbank Group.
