COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AMENDMENT ACT, 1978. Act No. 19, 1978

6. Section 37 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the deletion of subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4); and
 (b) by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

5           “(5) Every affected property—

- (a) acquired by the board in terms of section 15, 34 or 38; or
 (b) which has after the basic date been disposed of for value or expropriated by the State or a person other than the board,

10           and in respect of which any [appreciation or] depreciation contribution which may be due in respect thereof has been paid or guaranteed, or the right to which has [in the case of a depreciation contribu-
 15           tion] been waived, or which is transferred to any person for a consideration equal to or higher than the basic value thereof, shall be removed from the list.”.

7. Section 38 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

20           “(2) If the purchase price or the compensation payable by the board in respect of the acquisition under section 15 or subsection (1) (a) of this section of any affected property [exceeds the basic value of that property, there shall be deducted from the said purchase price or the said compensation—

- (a) if such acquisition takes place after the expiry of one hundred and thirty-two months but before the expiry of one hundred and forty-four months after the basic date, or the date of commencement of the Community Development Amendment Act, 1967, whichever is the later date, an appreciation contribution equal to twenty-five per cent of the difference between the said purchase price or compensation, as the case may be, and the basic value thereof; or

30           (b) if such acquisition takes place after the expiry of one hundred and forty-four months after the basic date, or the date of commencement of the Community Development Amendment Act, 1967, whichever is the later date, an appreciation contribution equal to fifty per cent of the difference between the said purchase price or compensation, as the case may be, and the basic value thereof;

35           and if the said purchase price or compensation] is less than the basic value of the said property, there shall, save where notice has been given in respect of the said property in terms of section 41 of the Group Areas Act and such notice has not been withdrawn, be added to the said purchase price or compensation, as the case may be, a depreciation contribution equal to eighty per cent of the difference between the said purchase price or compensation, as the case may be, and the basic value of the said property: Provided that the owner of such affected property may waive his right to be paid a depreciation contribution and thereupon the board shall cease to be liable for such contribution [:Provided further that where the National Housing Commission referred to in section 5 of the Housing Act, 1966 (Act No. 4 of 1966), acquires any affected property for the purposes of the said Act, any appreciation contribu-
 40           tion payable in terms of this Act shall accrue to the National Housing Fund established in terms of section 2 of the said Act, but shall nevertheless be regarded as part of the cost to the Commission of the acquisition of such property].”.

45           8. This Act shall be called the Community Development Short title
 55           Amendment Act, 1978, and shall be deemed to have come into and commencement.
