PENSION SCHEME ACT, 1984

Act No. 112, 1984

- (3) If the membership of any member terminates in terms of subsection (2) and he immediately thereafter, or after such interruption as the Minister of Health and Welfare may approve, again becomes a member, his membership shall, subject to subsection (4), be deemed not to have been interrupted and he shall not merely on the ground of any such interruption be entitled to any pension or gratuity (except a special pension and a gratuity referred to in section 10 (ii)), or any other benefit in terms of this Act.
- 10 (4) Any period of interruption which is approved in terms of subsection (3) shall not for the purposes of this Act be allowed as pensionable service.

4. (1) A member shall, from the date on which he becomes a member until the end of the month in which he has 12 years pensionable service to his credit, contribute an amount to the State Revenue Fund equal to seven percent of the pensionable salary of an ordinary member.
- (2) No contributions are payable by any member holding an office referred to in section 7 (1).
- 20 (3) Any amount to be contributed by a member in terms of this section shall be deducted in monthly instalments, or in such other instalments and at such other times as the director-general may approve, from the member's salary.

5. (1) If a former member who becomes or again becomes a member on or after the fixed date is, on the date on which he becomes or again becomes a member, entitled to a pension in terms of an applicable pension law, except a special pension—

- (a) such pension shall cease to be payable to him as from the date on which he becomes, or again becomes, a member;
- (b) he shall refund to the revenue fund concerned any amount paid to him by way of such pension in respect of any period as from the said date; and
- (c) (i) the whole period of his previous pensionable service in terms of this Act or any repealed law; and
- (ii) one half of the period of his pensionable service in terms of the Members of the Coloured Persons Representative Council Pensions Act, 1974 (Act No. 79 of 1974), the Members of the South African Indian Council Pensions Act, 1974 (Act No. 86 of 1974), or any ordinance made under the Provincial Powers Extension Act, 1980 (Act No. 32 of 1980),
- if any, shall be allowed as pensionable service for purposes of this Act.

- (2) A former member may, while he is a member, at any time elect to have—
- (a) any part of that half of his pensionable service which in terms of section 4 (4) of the Parliamentary Service and Administrators' Pensions Act, 1971 (Act No. 81 of 1971), or subsection (1) (c) (ii) of this section, is not allowed as pensionable service; and
- (b) any period of his pensionable service under any applicable pension law which is in respect of a former member not allowed as pensionable service in terms of any provision of this Act, allowed as pensionable service for purposes of this Act, and on receipt by the director-general of a written notification by such member of his election, such periods of pensionable service shall be allowed for purposes of this Act.

(3) There shall, in respect of pensionable service allowed in terms of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), be paid by the member concerned an amount calculated at 10 percent of his
