The existing train service between Pietersburg and Johannesburg takes place during the night. The travelling time of a train is more than that of a taxi with less stopping stations. The number of passengers also counts on the need of todays commuters. They feel not safe travelling in big numbers where there is a possibility of being mugged. Travelling in a small number makes them feel some security due to recognition of small numver of faces around you. Lastly the fare for a taxi doesn't differ most with that of a train. Bus Services According to my own investigation there is a transtate bus which depart Pietersburg at about 08h00 and another at about 12h00 to Johannesburg and also the sam service from Johannesburg at about 08h00 and 12h00 to Pietersburg. Most of the commuters from Pietersburg area who are employed in Johannesburg return from their various homes on Sundays and Mondays. Those who are returning on Sundays have to be on duty on Monday morning and must leave Pietersburg late in the afternoon so that they may have enough time in the morning on Sunday to say goodbye to their family. It's not possible for them to catch the 12h00 service because it means they must leave their various homes on Sunday morning. The latest group which leaves on Monday always have to be on duty at 14h00. Most of the bus services from various areas around Pietersburg which leave early in the moring to Pietersburg are for workers who are in possession of weekly tickets. It's not possible for the Johannesburg workers to make use of the services so that they can catch the 08h00 service to Johannesburg. Most of the workers in Johannesburg who have thier permanent residential places in the district of Pietersburg and the adjacent homelands return on Friday to spend the weekend with their families. They always prefer a transport facility which can deliver them to their various homes or which can co-ordinate with other transport facilities at the destination because it will be during the evening. The bus service which departs from Johannesburg to Pietersburg late on Friday afternoon doesn't co-ordinate with other local bus services at Polokwane Centre bus terminus in Pietersburg. Reasons for application Pietersburg may be called a transfer station for all commuters coming from the big gold city of Johannesburg to adjacent homelands of Lebowa, Venda and Gazankulu. There are thousands who work in Johannesburg and reside at the hostel. These people need an efficient and reliable transport facilities between Pietersburg and Johannesburg. There are thousands of passengers travelling between Pietersburg and Johannesburg daily by un-authorized taxis which area a threat to their safety in case of an accident. During my investigation I received many complaints from people waiting for any means of transport just outside Pietersburg along the N1 road about lost luggate which they couldn't trace and also the behaviour of some of un-authorized taxi drivers. Other transport operators Trains (SATS) There are enough trains travelling between Pietersburg and Johannesburg. Buses Transtate buses frm SATS departs from Pietersburg at about 08h00 and another at 12h00 to Johannesburg and also the same buses from Johannesburg to Pietersburg at 08h00 and 13h00 respectively. Taxis Only 27 authorized taxis are travelling between Pietersburg and Johannesburg. Conclusion It is my submission to the honourable board to consider the act of shortage of authorised taxis. Should this application receive favourable consideration, it shall be for the benefit of the public at large.
