UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AMENDMENT ACT, 1988

Act No. 29, 1988

GENERAL EXPLANATORY NOTE:

[] Words in bold type in square brackets indicate omissions from existing enactments.

Underline Words underlined with solid line indicate insertions in existing enactments.

ACT

To amend the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1966, so as to provide that the Minister of Manpower may delegate the power to assign an officer of his Department as secretary to the Unemployment Insurance Board, to an officer in the Department; to compel an unemployed contributor to register as unemployed, before an application for unemployment benefits can be submitted by him; to extend the period within which an unemployed contributor who has applied for benefits and thereafter moves to the area of jurisdiction of another claims officer, should henceforth submit a further application to the latter claims officer; to delete the requirement that a contributor will in certain cases not be entitled to unemployment benefits within six weeks after he became unemployed; to provide that application for illness benefits forms may also be completed and signed by chiropractors and homeopaths; and to alter the qualifying period applicable to maternity benefits in order to bring about uniformity with the other types of benefits; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

(Afrikaans text signed by the State President.)
(Assented to 21 March 1988.)

BE IT ENACTED by the State President and the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

1. Section 12 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), is hereby amended 5 by the substitution for subsection (11) of the following subsection:
