The fact is that it is just impossible for the City Council of Pretoria to exclude its area but allow people to work, shop and many other social activities like medical services, courts legal offices all in Pretoria area. Transport is the main backbone of the economy - taxis in particular for door to door service. Ranking facilities of these permits are available at their starting points and no need for ranking facilities in Pretoria, only loading and offloading of which Pretoria will provide, after the Board has granted this application. Hoping that the Board will consider the application favourably. The population within the area applied for is very high $\pm$ 300 000 people with very high demand for a good taxi service unrestricted. NB: Both the permits and the applicant are very old with wide experience and rendering a good healthy service.
