Demand for such a service has increased tremendously. Prove of demand for such a service is proved by various traffic fines for operators holding such restricted authorities. Passengers transported are employed within the municipal area and some wish to do their shopping as Pretoria is the mother city. Increasing population mean that transport facilities be increased as they are one of the major factors contributing to the economy of the country. Approval of the applications for removal of restriction will be highly appreciated and will save traffic offences. During the presence of board inspectors/traffic officers there is always shortage of transport facility and this proves that there is a rise in demand. Approval of authority will eliminate piracy which is now dominant.
