An investigation was conducted into the transport needs of people from the Ciskei around Madantsane, Zwelitsha and King Williamstown.

These people work on the Reef but are actually Ciskei residents. They require weekend transport to go to their homes and also to visit relatives. They claim that since the withdrawal of certain trains by Transnet they find it difficult to go home over weekends. They can travel by mini bus taxis but these do not operate regularly and often left them stranded along the road and after the weekend they find it difficult to get transport back to their work.

They really need a regular bus service leaving the Reef on Friday and returning on Sunday. It was found that Autonet do operate a bus service between Pretoria and East London via King Williamstown but this service does not cater for their needs.

The company is prepared to render the service over a weekend if a permit can be obtained.

The service must comply to the following qualities:

- (a) Comfort and realability.
- (b) Affordable to the passengers.
- (c) Long distance overnight driving - 2 drivers.
- (d) Enough luggage space - trailer.
- (e) Viable to the Company - not less than 50 passengers at approximately R80.00 single fare.
