BESPREKINGS-DOKUMENT MET BETREKKING TOT DIE BELASTINGHANTERING VAN FINAN- SIËLE REËLINGS

Hedendaagse finansiële transaksies verander deurlopend en word toenemend gesofistikeerd en kompleks soos nuwe finansiële instrumente ontwikkel word. Soos wêreldekonomieë meer geïntegreerd raak, verskyn baie van die nuwe instrumente wat elders ontwikkel word, ook in die Suid-Afrikaanse finansiële markte.

Daarenteen is die algemene beginsels van ons huidige belastingreg ontwikkel voor die ingebruikneming van baie van hierdie instrumente en word dit toenemend moeilik om die belastinggevolge van sommige van die finansiële instrumente ingevolge die huidige belastingwetgewing te hanteer. Daarbenewens het ons howe nog nie duidelike riglyne met betrekking tot die belastinghantering van winste en verliese op verskeie van hierdie tipe transaksies neergelê nie. Hierdie onsekerheid, in besonder met betrekking tot die tydsberekening van die erkenning van winste en verliese, bemoeilik sakelui se investeringsbesluite, aangesien hulle sekerheid verlang oor die belastinggevolge van finansiële transaksies wat hulle mag aangaan. Hierdie onsekerheid het ook tot gevolg gehad dat verskeie belastingvermydingskemas ontwikkel is, wat gepoog het om 'n vooruit-aftrekking vir belastingdoeleindes te verkry ten opsigte van uitgawes wat op toekomstige jare betrekking het. MEDIA RELEASE by the TAX ADVISORY COMMITTEE

CONSULTATIVE DOCUMENT ON THE TAX TREAT- MENT OF FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Modern day financial transactions are changing continuously and are becoming increasingly sophisticated and complex as new financial instruments are developed. Furthermore, as world economies are becoming more integrated, many of the new instruments developed elsewhere are also entering the South African financial markets.

On the other hand, the general principles of our present tax law were developed prior to the introduction of many of these instruments and it is therefore becoming increasingly difficult to deal with the tax consequences of some of these financial instruments under our current tax laws. Furthermore, the question of the tax treatment of gains and losses on various transactions has yet to be resolved by our courts and this uncertainty, in particular in relation to the timing of the recognition of gains or losses, is hampering investment decisions by businessmen who seek certainty with regard to the tax consequences of financial transactions which they may enter into. This uncertainty has also resulted in the development of various tax avoidance schemes which have attempted to obtain an up front deduction for tax purposes of expenditure which is attributable to future years. The Margo Commission in paraparagraaf 9.30 van sy verslag oor die Belastingstruktuur van die Republiek van Suid-Afrika het die Margo-kommissie reeds aanbeveel dat die finansieringskoste-element van 'n lening oor die leningstydperk gedelig moet word, met inagneming van die uitstaande kapitaalbedrag van die lening.

Die Belastingadvieskomitee (BAK) het dit derhalwe nodig gevind om 'n Subkomitee aan te stel om die belastinghantering van finansiële instrumente te ondersoek. Die Subkomitee bestaan uit lede van BAK, Die Raad van Suider Afrikaanse Bankiers en die Tak: Binnelandse Inkomste van die Departement van Finansies. Die belastinghantering van finansiële instrumente was die onderwerp van omvattende en deurlopende navorsing en wetgewing van buitelandse belastingjurisdiksies.

Die Subkomitee het bo en behalwe ander dokumentasie en interne navorsing 'n omvattende besprekingsdokument getiteld "The Taxation of Financial Arrangements: A Consultative Document" wat deur die "Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Australia" uitgereik is, tot sy beskikking gehad.

Voortvloeiend hieruit het die BAK 'n Besprekingsdokument (wat tot 'n groot mate op die Australiese dokument geskoei is) opgestel, wat vandag vir openbare kommentaar uitgereik word.

In die lig van die huidige onsekerheid wat met betrekking tot die belastinghantering van finansiële instrumente bestaan, beoog die BAK om later vanjaar aanbevelings aan die Minister van Finansies te doen met die oog op die invoeging van gepaste wysigings in die Inkomstebelastingwet. Kommentaar en aanbevelings oor die voorstelle vervat in die Besprekingsdokument moet derhalwe ingedien word sodat dit die BAK nie later as 15 September 1994 bereik nie.

Dit is die BAK se bedoeling om 'n werkswinkel so spoedig moontlik na 15 September 1994 te belê, waarna alle partye wat skriftelike voorleggings gemaak het, uitgenooi sal word. Dit sal die bespreking van die onderwerp in die teenwoordigheid van alle belanghebbende partye vergemaklik.

Kommentaar kan skriftelik gerig word aan:

Die BAK se belangrikste voorstelle is om—

- die toevallingsbeginsel op winste en verliese op finansiële instrumente van toepassing te maak;
- die voorstelle se toepassing so eenvoudig en gebruikersvriendelik as moontlik te maak deur vereenvoudigde alternatiewe van die meer teoreties korrekte saamgestelde metodes toe te laat, waar dit soortgelyke resultate tot gevolg het;

graph 9.30 of its Report into the Tax Structure of the Republic of South Africa, in fact recommended that the finance element of a loan should be amortized over the period of a loan, with reference to the outstanding amount of the loan.

The Tax Advisory Committee (TAC) therefore, felt it necessary to appoint a Sub-committee to investigate the tax treatment of financial instruments, which Sub-committee consisted of members from TAC, The Council of Southern African Bankers (COSAB) and the Inland Revenue Branch of the Department of Finance. The question of the tax treatment of financial instruments has been the subject of extensive and ongoing research and legislation of foreign tax jurisdictions.

The Sub-committee has amongst other documentation and internal research, had the benefit of a comprehensive consultative document, entitled "The Taxation of Financial Arrangements: A Consultative Document" released by the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Australia.

As a result of the research TAC prepared a Consultative Document (which is to a great extent based on the Australian document) which is today being released for public comment.

In view of the present uncertainty that prevails with regard to the tax treatment of financial arrangements, TAC wishes to make recommendations to the Minister of Finance later this year for appropriate amendments to be introduced into the Income Tax Act. Comments and recommendations on the proposals must therefore be submitted to reach TAC by not later than 15 September 1994.

It is intended by TAC to convene a workshop as soon as possible after 15 September 1994, to which all parties who have made written submissions will be invited. This will facilitate the discussion of the subject in the presence of interested parties.

Comments should be directed in writing to—

The Secretary
Tax Advisory Committee
Private Bag X349
PRETORIA
0001.

Fax (012) 325-1048.

The major proposals by the TAC are to—

- apply the accrual system to gains and losses on financial instruments;
- make the application of the proposals as simple and user friendly as possible by allowing simplified alternatives to the theoretically more correct compounding methods where they give similar results;

- die toepassing van 'n markwaarde-stelsel toe te laat waarvolgens winste en verliese met betrekking tot finansiële instrumente gehou in aktief verhandelde portefeuljes bereken kan word, onderworpe aan sekere voorwaardes;
- 'n spesifieke waardasiemetode toe te pas met betrekking tot die berekening van winste en verliese op sekere afgeleide instrumente soos termyntransaksies, termynkontrakte en opsies;
- by die beoogde wetgewing uit te sluit—
 - buitelandse valutatransaksies;
 - verhuringstransaksies;
 - dividende op voorkeuraandele wat nie as rente geklassifiseer word nie;
 - korttermyn-handelskrediet;
 - sekere eiendomstransaksies;
 - versekeringsprodukte en sekere uittreding-funderingsprodukte;
 - natuurlike persone wat minder as R100 000 verdien, uitgesluit inkomste uit finansiële reëlins verdien en wie se belang in finansiële instrumente nie meer as R300 000 beloop nie.

Alvorens wetgewing egter opgestel kan word, sal dit nodig wees om riglyne voor te berei vir die toepassing van 'n geskatte markwaarde-stelsel asook vir die hantering van Effektetrusts binne die raamwerk van die toevallingsbeginsel.

Die hantering van hibriede instrumente, wat 'n ingewikkelde terrein is en wat blykbaar nog deur geen belastingjurisdiksie bevredigend aangespreek is nie, benodig verdere ondersoek en mag in latere wetgewing aangespreek word. Dit is ook die BAK se bedoeling om die moontlikheid te ondersoek om buitelandse valuta- en verhuringstransaksies, waarvoor huidiglik afsonderlik in die Inkomstebelastingwet voorvoorsiening gemaak word, in te sluit.

Alhoewel die BAK die instelling van wetgewing as noodsaaklik beskou, word voorgestel dat dit nie terugwerkend toepassing behoort te vind nie.

- allow the application of a market valuation system for calculating gains or losses with regard to financial instruments held in actively traded portfolios, subject to certain conditions;
- apply a specific valuation method for determining gains or losses on certain derivatives such as futures, forward contracts and options;
- exclude from the envisaged legislation—
 - foreign exchange transactions;
 - leasing transactions;
 - preference share dividends not classified as interest;
 - short term trade credit;
 - certain property transactions;
 - insurance products and certain retirement funding products;
 - natural persons earning less than R100 000, excluding income from financial arrangements, and whose total holding in financial arrangements does not exceed R300 000.

Before legislation can be drafted, it will be necessary to draw up guidelines for the application of an estimated market value system as well as for the treatment of Unit Trusts within the framework of the accrual system.

The treatment of hybrid instruments which is a complex field and which has apparently not as yet been satisfactorily resolved in any tax jurisdiction, requires further investigation and may have to be dealt with in subsequent legislation. It is also the intention of the TAC to investigate the possibility of including foreign exchange and leasing transactions currently provided for separately in the Income Tax Act.

While the TAC considers it urgent to introduce legislation as soon as possible, it is not recommended that it should be applied retrospectively.

The Postmaster General has established a section within the Department of Posts and Telecommunications to review the current frequency spectrum allocations in the Republic of South Africa in order to—

- ensure fair distribution and apportionment of the spectrum among various services;

- huidige druk wat deur aanvraag om spektrum veroorsaak word, op te los;
- vir toekomstige ontwikkelings en behoeftes te beplan.

Die Posmeester-generaal nooi gevolglik die industrie en lede van die publiek met 'n belang in die aanwending van die spektrum in die bogenoemde frekwensieband uit om hul bydraes en voorstelle te stuur aan:
