1. This Practice Note is supplementary to Practice Note No. 19 dated 30 April 1993.

2. Paragraph 6 of Practice Note No. 19 provides that where a taxpayer acquires "small" items (loose tools etc.) at a cost of less than R250 per item, he will be allowed to write such assets off in full during the year of acquisition. This amount has now been increased to R1 000.

The amount of R250 referred to in paragraph 8 of Practice Note No. 19 must be substituted with an amount of R1 000 to correspond with the amendment in paragraph 6.

3. The Schedule to Practice Note No. 19 is supplemented with the following items and their accompanying write-off periods:

Paragraaf 6 van Praktyknota No. 19 bepaal dat waar 'n belastingpligtige "klein" items (los gereedschap ensovoorts) teen 'n koste van minder as R250 per item verkry, hy toegelaat sal word om sodanige bates ten volle gedurende die jaar van aankoop af te skryf. Hierdie bedrag word nou na R1 000 verhoog.

Die verwysing na R250 waar dit in paragraaf 8 van Praktyknota No. 19 voorkom, moet ook met R1 000 vervang word om saam te val met die wysiging van paragraaf 6.

NOTICE 387 OF 1995

THE SOUTH AFRICAN LAW COMMISSION

The Association of Law Societies of the RSA requested the Commission during 1994 to investigate speculative and contingency fees for the attorneys' profession.

Contingency fee arrangements provide for a legal practitioner to act on a "no win no fee" basis. Where a person has a claim that, if upheld, would result in a monetary award—such as claims for damages—contingency fee arrangements allow the person to retain a legal practitioner knowing that, if unsuccessful, he or she will not need to pay the legal practitioner's fees and that, if successful, the fees can be paid out of the amount recovered. The subject matter of the litigation provides the source of the legal practitioner's remuneration.

In general contingency fee arrangements can take a number of forms:

- * Speculative fees, implying that the legal practitioner charges the usual fee only in the event of success;
- * uplift fees, implying that the legal practitioner charges the usual fee plus an agreed flat amount or percentage uplift on the usual fee in the event of success;
- * percentage fees, implying that the legal practitioner charges an amount calculated as a percentage of the amount awarded in the event of success.

The Chief Justice in the past expressed the view that such arrangements may be unlawful at common law and that the need for legislation in this regard should be investigated.

Legal practitioners, especially attorneys, are also dissatisfied because extra-judicial debt-collectors recover debt on the basis of contingency fee arrangements or on the basis of a cession or delegation. Attorneys are bound by strict guidelines with regard to fees and collection commission in collection matters and attempts to charge contingency fees or to evade the rules concerned are met with disciplinary measures.

The Commission approved the inclusion of an investigation into speculative and contingency fees in its programme. The Commission is of opinion, however, that such an investigation should not be limited to the attorneys' profession, but should include all legal practitioners.

The Commission now invites all interested individuals, bodies and institutions to comment on any or all of the following aspects:

- * The need for the introduction of a system of contingency fees;

gistree as argitekte en argitekte-in-opleiding en enige persoon wat na daardie datum aansoek doen om registrasie as argitek of argitek-in-opleiding, vry van die toepassing van die bepalings van artikel 19 (2) (d) van genoemde Wet.

Hierdie kennisgewing word van krag op 1 Julie 1995.

KENNISGEWING 387 VAN 1995

DIE SUID-AFRIKAANSE REGSKOMMISSIE

Die Vereniging van Prokureursordes van die RSA het die Kommissie gedurende 1994 versoek om ondersoek in te stel na spekulatiewe gelde en gebeurlikheidsfooie vir die prokureursprofessie.

Gebeurlikheidsfooireëlins hou in dat 'n regspraktisyn op 'n "geen sukses, geen betaling"-basis kan optree. Indien 'n persoon 'n eis het wat geldelike vergoeding tot gevolg sal hê as die eis suksesvol is—soos eise vir skadevergoeding—laat gebeurlikheidsfooireëlins 'n persoon toe om 'n regspraktisyn aan te stel in die wete dat, indien hy of sy onsuksesvol is, hy of sy nie die praktisyn se fooie sal hoef te betaal nie en dat, indien suksesvol, die fooie teen die bedrag wat verhaal word verreken kan word. Die onderwerp van die litigasie self is die bron van die regspraktisyn se vergoeding.

In die algemeen kan gebeurlikheidsfooireëlins die volgende vorms aanneem:

- * Spekulatiewe gelde, wat impliseer dat die regspraktisyn die normale fooie hef in die geval van sukses;
- * opslaggelde, wat impliseer dat die regspraktisyn die normale fooie hef plus 'n ooreengekome vasgestelde bedrag of persentasie-opslag op die normale fooi in die geval van sukses;
- * persentasiegelde, wat impliseer dat die regspraktisyn 'n bedrag hef wat bereken word as 'n persentasie van die bedrag wat toegeken word in die geval van sukses.

Die Hoofregter het in die verlede die mening uitgespreek dat reëlins soos dié ingevolge die gemenereg onwettig mag wees en dat die behoefte aan wetgewing in dié verband ondersoek moet word.

Regspraktisyns, hoofsaaklik prokureurs, is ook ontevrede omdat buiteregterlike skuldinvorderaars skuld verhaal op die basis van gebeurlikheidsfooireëlins of op die basis van 'n sessie of delegasie. Prokureurs is gebonde aan streng riglyne ten opsigte van fooie en invorderingskommissie by invorderingsaangeleenthede en pogings om gebeurlikheidsfooie te hef of om die betrokke reëls te omseil word begroet met dissiplinêre stappe.

Die Kommissie het die insluiting van 'n ondersoek na spekulatiewe gelde en gebeurlikheidsfooie in sy program goedgekeur. Die Kommissie is egter van mening dat so 'n ondersoek nie tot die prokureursprofessie beperk moet word nie, maar alle regspraktisyns moet insluit.

Die Kommissie nooi vervolgens alle belanghebbende individue, liggame en instellings uit om op enige van of op al die volgende aspekte kommentaar te lewer:

- * Die behoefte aan die implementering van 'n gebeurlikheidsfooistelsel;

- * if such a system is to be introduced, the basis on which it should operate and the limitations and controls to which it should be subjected;
- * the compatibility of contingency fee arrangements with our common law;
- * the advantages and disadvantages of a contingency fee system;
- * ways in which to protect the interests of the public if a contingency fee system is introduced;
- * the desirability and nature of statutory measures designed to place attorneys on an equal footing with extra-judicial debt-collectors as far as compensation for the collecting of debts is concerned.

Written submissions should reach the Commission not later than 31 July 1995.

The Commission's offices are on the Eighth Floor, N G Kerk Sinodale Sentrum, 228 Visagie Street, Pretoria. Correspondence should be addressed to:

The Secretary
South African Law Commission
Private Bag X668
PRETORIA
0001.

Telephone: (012) 322-6440 (Mr J. H. Potgieter).
(19 May 1995)

- * indien so 'n stelsel geïmplementeer sou word, die basis waarop dit bedryf moet word en die beperkings en kontroles waaraan dit onderhewig moet wees;
- * die bestaanbaarheid van gebeurlikheidsfooireëlings met ons gemeenereg;
- * die voordele en nadele van 'n gebeurlikheidsfooiestelsel;
- * wyses om die belange van die publiek te beskerm indien 'n gebeurlikheidsfooiestelsel geïmplementeer word;
- * die wenslikheid en aard van statutêre maatreëls wat daarop gemik is om prokureurs op gelyke voet te plaas met buiteregterlike skuldinvoerders ten opsigte van vergoeding vir die invoering van skuld.

Geskrewe voorleggings moet die Kommissie nie later nie as 31 Julie 1995 bereik.

Die Kommissie se kantore is op die Agtste Verdieping, N G Kerk Sinodale Sentrum, Visagiestraat 228, Pretoria. Korrespondensie moet asseblief gerig word aan:

SCHEDULE

BUSINESS PRACTICES COMMITTEE

CONSUMER CODE FOR PUBLIC PROPERTY SYNDICATION SCHEMES

INTRODUCTION

Property ownership is regarded by many as being an essential element of any investment package. Property more often than not is a growth asset and, whilst its market is cyclical, it moves independently of the shares listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange.

Direct investment in retail, commercial and industrial property used to be the preserve of large institutions, corporations and wealthy individuals. Smaller investors were excluded by limited capital and insufficient time and expertise to manage the investment. The chance to invest directly in property, through acquiring shares in property-owning companies, has been developed in an alternative investment concept, namely property syndications.

WHAT IS A PROPERTY SYNDICATION?

Property syndication comprises the assembly of a group of investors who pool their funds to invest in a company whose sole asset is a commercial, retail or industrial property. The investment is made through buying blocks of shares in this company. By doing that, investors share in the profits, and losses, of that property and enjoy the benefits of any capital growth of the property.

Investors receive income on their investments regularly in arrears from the net rentals paid by tenants occupying the property. As rentals rise, investors receive more income. Investors also share in the costs (which could also rise) of owning that property. These may include rates and taxes, commissions payable to leasing brokers, maintenance and the administration fee for managing the property for the syndicate.

Capital growth is achieved in the increase in share value and is realised on the sale of the investment. As with any property investment, the real benefits are gained over time and property syndications are long-term investments. They perform best over a minimum period of five to seven years.

The investor's anticipated return is based on projections made by the promoter at the launch of the syndication. Investors should carefully examine those projections as they may be difficult to meet. The promoter forms a separate company to own the property. It may be formed in terms of the Companies Act or Share Block Control Act and has a board of directors, an auditor and an attorney. Share certificates are issued to investors. The marketability of these shares is, such as all shares in unlisted companies, somewhat restricted.

Essentially there are two types of property syndication, namely private and public. This code is concerned with public syndications where members of the public, via radio, TV, newspaper and magazine advertising or direct mail, are invited to participate in such schemes. Where the public is concerned it is important that such schemes are properly structured and that sufficient information is made available to enable investors to make proper decisions.

THE CODE

This Code is intended to govern the conduct of companies engaged in property syndication. The Code embodies principles which have been observed by the majority of members of the industry for many years. The principles set out do not interpret, qualify or supplant the law of the land. These principles also do not replace the rights or remedies an investor may derive by virtue of any agreement, the common law or any legislation. It is nevertheless conceivable that conduct which is the subject of a contract and which may not be in conflict with statutory or common law, may still amount to an unacceptable business practice in terms of the Harmful Business Practices Act, 1988.

This Code is based substantially on the existing code of The Public Property Syndication Association (PPSA), an autonomous body formed under the aegis of the South African Property Owners Association (SAPOA). Not only is the Code based on the PPSA's code, but it has been drafted in conjunction with the PPSA. PPSA and SAPOA support the Business Practices Committee's (the Committee) Code on Property Syndication. PPSA has as its main objective the screening of public property syndications to ensure that they meet with a set of criteria which has been determined by PPSA. These criteria have been established to offer investors in these schemes a level of protection which they have not enjoyed before.

The PPSA has undertaken to ensure that its members comply with the provisions of this Code. An investor who feels dissatisfied with the treatment he has received from a member of PPSA is urged to submit his grievance to the PPSA. Should an investor also be dissatisfied with the PPSA's handling of the complaint, the complaint can be referred to the Committee. In the case of non-members of PPSA investors should directly contact the Committee.

When considering complaints, the Committee will take the provisions of the Code into account in determining whether the conduct complained about constitutes a harmful business practice. This applies irrespective of whether or not such property syndication is a member of PPSA. In this respect the Code is therefore more than a voluntary code of conduct. The Chairman of the Committee may appoint a Property Syndication Liaison Committee to advise the Committee on matters concerning property syndication. The PPSA will report annually to the Committee on its activities in terms of the Code.

It should not be overlooked that investors also have a role to play. They must fully apprise themselves of their rights and obligations as set out in the relevant contract.

1. UNDERLYING PRINCIPLES

The Juta-State Library Index to the Government Gazette

The Juta – State Library Index to the Government Gazette provides quick and easy access to the Government Gazette by direct subject indexing of all government notices, proclamations and board notices published weekly in the Gazette.

Whatever subject you are researching, this detailed but uncomplicated guide will direct you to the notice you require, listing the Gazette number, page and date of publication.

Every edition of the index covers one calendar year. You may subscribe to:

-  the quarterly edition, consisting of four cumulatively updated quarterly issues. The first three are published in soft cover and the final volume, which contains the full annual index, is bound in hard cover to serve as a permanent reference work.
-  the annual edition, consisting only of the final hard-cover volume covering the whole year.

The Juta – State Library Index to the Government Gazette has been published since 1990. Indexes to pre-1990 Gazettes are consolidated in a separate publication, Juta's Index to the South African Government and Provincial Gazettes 1910 to 1989, formerly 'The Windex'.

"OSALL is grateful that this publication is continuing the high standard set by its predecessor and congratulates Juta & Company Limited on its success in this new venture."

Save a drop — and save a million

Water conservation is very important to the community and industry to ensure their survival. So save water!

Spaar 'n druppel — en vul die dam

Indien almal van ons besparingsbewus optree, besnoei ons nie slegs uitgawes nie maar wen ook ten opsigte van ons kosbare water- en elektrisiteitsvoorraad
