SCHEDULE

CONSUMER CODE FOR FRANCHISING

1. INTRODUCTION

Almost 5 500 franchise businesses are distributed over the South African landscape, generating more than R12.5 billion in sales. Sales by franchised businesses now account for approximately 6 per cent of retail turnover and more than 92 000 people draw their salaries or wages from a franchised business.

Franchising is a business arrangement whereby the franchisor grants to the franchisee the right to sell the franchisor's products or services within predetermined specifications and according to the guidelines set down by the franchisor.

The franchisee uses the franchisor's name, goodwill, products and services, marketing procedures, expertise, systems and support facilities. In exchange the franchisee pays the franchisor an initial fee and ongoing management services fees (or royalties) as stipulated in the franchise agreement.

A prerequisite for successful franchising is that the franchisor must have in place the following: An existing good name, goodwill, a successful product or service, marketing procedures, expertise, systems and support facilities. Should a "franchise" on offer lack these prerequisites it is not a true franchise. Having proved that the concept works and can be reproduced in more than one location, the franchisor offers franchises for sale.

Once the franchisee has set up his business, he then pays a regular percentage of his turnover to the franchisor. This fee pays for the ongoing support services provided by the franchisor and allows for a profit for the franchisor. This interdependency between the franchisee's turnover and the support provided by the franchisor is what makes franchising such an attractive proposition—each party wants the other to succeed. The franchisee is at the sharp end of the market and is concerned with maximising sales through consumer satisfaction and with minimising costs. The franchisor concentrates on maintaining the competitive edge of the product or service and providing the support services necessary to help the franchisee concentrate his sales efforts effectively.

The Business Practices Committee (the Committee) operates in terms of section 2 of the Harmful Business Practices Act (Act No. 71 of 1988, "the Act"). The purpose of the Act is to provide for the prohibition or control of harmful business practices. The latter is defined as any business practice which has the effect of harming the relations between businesses and consumers, unreasonably prejudicing any consumer or deceiving any consumer.

At first glance it might appear that the Act is not applicable to franchising operations because it involves an agreement between two businesses. Before a franchise agreement is concluded, however, one of the future businesses (the franchisee) is in many cases a consumer. The experience of the Committee is that consumers are at times deceived when entering into so-called "franchise agreements".

This Code is intended to govern the conduct of franchising operations. The Code embodies principles which have been observed by the majority of members of the industry for many years. The principles set out do not interpret, qualify or supplant the law of the land, and are not intended to be applied to non-consumer sales. These principles also do not replace the rights or remedies a consumer may derive by virtue of any agreement, the common law or any legislation. It is nevertheless conceivable that conduct which is the subject of a contract and which may not be in conflict with statutory or common law, may still amount to an unacceptable business practice in terms of the Act.

This Code is based substantially on the existing Franchise Association of Southern Africa's (FASA) Code of Practice and this body supports this Code. A consumer who is dissatisfied with the treatment he has received from a franchisee or franchisor is urged to submit his complaint to FASA. A consumer who is also not satisfied with FASA's handling of the complaint, has further recourse to the Committee.

When considering complaints, the Committee will take the provisions of the Code into account in determining whether the conduct complained about constitutes a harmful business practice. This applies irrespective of whether such franchisor or franchisee is a member of FASA. In this respect the Code is therefore more than a voluntary code of conduct. The Chairman of the Committee may appoint a Franchise Liaison Committee to advise the Committee on matters concerning franchising.

It should not be overlooked that consumers also have a part to play. They must become fully conversant with their rights and obligations as they are set out in any relevant contract and should obtain legal advice before entering into franchise contracts.

2. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

2.1 No franchisor shall offer, sell or promote the sale of any franchise, product or service by means of any explicit or implied representation which is likely to have a tendency to deceive or mislead prospective purchasers of such franchise, product or service.

2.2 No franchisor shall imitate the trade-mark, trade-name, corporate name, slogan, or other mark of identification of another business in any manner or form that would have the tendency or capacity to mislead or deceive.

2.3 The pyramid or chain distribution system is inimical to prospective investors and to the franchise system of distribution and no franchisor shall engage in any form of pyramid or chain distribution.

2.4 An advertisement, considered in its totality, shall be free from ambiguity and, in whatever form presented, must be considered in its entirety and as it would be read and understood by those to whom it is directed.

2.5 All advertisements shall comply, in letter and spirit, with all applicable rules, regulations, directives, guides and laws promulgated by any governmental body or agency having jurisdiction.

2.6 An advertisement containing or making reference, directly or indirectly, to performance records, figures or data in respect of income or earnings of franchisees shall be factual, and, if necessary to avoid deception, accurately qualified as to geographical area and time periods covered.

2.7 An advertisement containing information or making reference to the investment requirements of a franchise shall be as detailed as necessary to avoid being misleading in any way and shall be specific with respect to whether the stated amount(s) is/are partial or the full cost of the franchise, the items paid for by the stated amount(s), financing requirements and other related costs.

2.8 Full and accurate written disclosure of all information considered material to the franchise relationship shall be given to prospective franchisees within a reasonable time prior to the execution of any binding document.

2.9 All matters material to the franchise relationship shall be contained in one or more written agreements, which shall clearly set forth the terms of the relationship and the respective rights and obligations of the parties.

2.10 A franchisor shall select and accept those franchisees who, upon reasonable investigation, appear to possess the basic skills, education, personal qualities and financial resources adequate to perform and fulfil the needs and requirements of the franchise. In this regard, a franchisor shall not discriminate in this selection process on the basis of race, colour, religion, age, disability or sex. A franchisor may grant franchises to some franchisees on more favourable terms than are granted to other franchisees as part of a programme to make franchises more widely available.

2.11 The franchisor shall encourage and/or provide training designed to help franchisees improve their abilities to conduct their franchise.

2.12 A franchisor shall provide reasonable guidance and supervision over the business activities of franchisees for the purpose of safeguarding the public interest and of maintaining the integrity of the entire franchise system for the benefit of all parties having an interest in it.

2.13 Fairness shall characterize all dealings between a franchisor and its franchisees. To the extent reasonably appropriate under the circumstances, a franchisor shall give notice to its franchisee of any contractual breach and grant reasonable time to remedy defaults.

2.14 A franchisor should be conveniently accessible and responsive to communications from franchisees, and provide a mechanism by which ideas may be exchanged and areas of concern discussed for the purpose of improving mutual understanding and reaffirming mutuality of interest.

2.15 A franchisor shall make every effort to resolve complaints, grievances and disputes with its franchisees in good faith and with good will through fair and reasonable direct communication and negotiation. Failing this, consideration should be given to mediation or arbitration.

2.16 Upon request from the franchisee, the franchisor shall make full disclosure of any form of incentive he might enjoy by virtue of the franchisee being bound to deal with certain nominated firms, for example, a certain supplier.

3. MONITORING

When complaints are received, the Business Practices Committee will consider the provisions of the Code in assessing whether conduct complained of constitutes a harmful business practice, irrespective of whether such franchisor is a member of FASA. In this respect the Code is more than a voluntary code of conduct. The Chairman of the Business Practices Committee may appoint a Franchise Liaison Committee to advise it on matters concerning franchising and herewith calls for proposals in this regard.

Franchisors supporting this Code should keep a record of complaints together with a note of action taken. Members of FASA should send their report annually to FASA who in turn would make this available to the Committee. Other franchisors could send their reports to the Committee.

The Juta-State Library Index to the Government Gazette

The Juta – State Library Index to the Government Gazette provides quick and easy access to the Government Gazette by direct subject indexing of all government notices, proclamations and board notices published weekly in the Gazette.

Whatever subject you are researching, this detailed but uncomplicated guide will direct you to the notice you require, listing the Gazette number, page and date of publication.

Every edition of the index covers one calendar year. You may subscribe to:

-  the quarterly edition, consisting of four cumulatively updated quarterly issues. The first three are published in soft cover and the final volume, which contains the full annual index, is bound in hard cover to serve as a permanent reference work.
-  the annual edition, consisting only of the final hard-cover volume covering the whole year.

The Juta – State Library Index to the Government Gazette has been published since 1990. Indexes to pre-1990 Gazettes are consolidated in a separate publication, Juta's Index to the South African Government and Provincial Gazettes 1910 to 1989, formerly 'The Windex'.

"OSALL is grateful that this publication is continuing the high standard set by its predecessor and congratulates Juta & Company Limited on its success in this new venture."
