BILL

To amend the Local Government Transition Act, 1993, so as to define or further define certain expressions; to extend the application of the said Act throughout the Republic; to make other provision in respect of the term of office of members of the Provincial Committees for Local Government and the filling of vacancies in and the conditions of service of members of the said Committees; to further regulate the procedure in respect of meetings of the said Committees; to make further provision in respect of the functions of a negotiating forum; to provide for the establishment, constitution, procedures and functions of one or more arbitration committees as well as for the referral of matters to be decided by such committees; to empower an Administrator to act in cases where a negotiating forum has not been established; to provide for the reviewing by an Administrator of a delimitation or determination made by him or her; to provide that the Administrators must strive towards substantial uniformity in regard to the content of certain regulations; to make provision for the establishment of transitional rural local government; to extend the Administrators' powers to make proclamations to regulate the transition of local government, including the establishment of a body to assist any local government body, transitional council or transitional metropolitan substructure which may be affected by the provisions of any such proclamation; to further regulate the Administrators' powers to make enactments by proclamation in cases where one or more vacancies have arisen in the membership of the Provincial Committees for Local Government; to empower an Administrator under certain circumstances to exercise or perform a power or function in another province than that for which he or she has been appointed; to empower an Administrator to act where a Local Government Demarcation Board fails to furnish him or her with its recommendations within a reasonable time; to make provision that delegations made by a former administrator before the commencement of the said Act, continue in force; to provide for the review within a certain period of the appointment or promotion of any person or the award of a term or condition of service which occurred after the commencement of the said Act; to repeal the power granted to the President to amend the said Act by way of proclamation; to provide for the validation of certain proclamations; to further regulate the eligibility of a person to vote in local government elections; and to repeal certain laws; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Amendment of section 1 of Act 209 of 1993

1. Section 1 of the Local Government Transition Act, 1993 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution in subsection (1) for the definition of "Administrator" of the following definition:

" 'Administrator', in so far as this Act is applied in or in regard to a particular province, means a competent authority within the jurisdiction of the government of that particular province designated by the Premier of that province.";

(b) by the deletion in subsection (1) of paragraph (a) of the definition of "local government body";

(c) by the insertion in subsection (1) after paragraph (j) of the definition of "local government body" of the following paragraph:

"(jA) any other local government body established by or under any law in force in an area which forms part of the national territory referred to in section 1 of the Constitution.";

(d) by the substitution in subsection (1) for the definition of "Minister" of the following definition:

" 'Minister' means the Minister [of Local Government] for Provincial Affairs and Constitutional Development.";

Constitution:";

- (f) by the insertion in subsection (1) after the definition of "province" of the following definition:

" 'provincial administration' means the provincial administration established for a province by the Public Service Act, 1994 (Proclamation No. 103 of 1994);"; and

- (g) by the deletion in subsection (1) of the definition of "Self-governing Territory".

Substitution of section 2 of Act 209 of 1993

2. The following section is hereby substituted for section 2 of the principal Act:

"Application of this Act

2. (1) This Act shall apply throughout the Republic.
(2) In the event of a conflict between this Act and any other law in force in a territory in which this Act did not apply before 27 April 1994, this Act shall prevail."

Amendment of section 3 of Act 209 of 1993

3. Section 3 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

"(5) (a) A member of the Committee shall hold office as a member [during the pleasure of the Transitional Executive Council, and, at the establishment of a provincial government for the province concerned in terms of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993, during the pleasure of the Executive Council of that provincial government] at the Minister's pleasure.

(b) Any vacancy in the membership of the Committee arising for any reason shall be filled by a person appointed by the [Transitional Executive Council in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2): Provided that if any vacancy occurs when the Transitional Executive Council is not in existence, it shall be filled by a person appointed by the Executive Council of the province concerned] Minister in consultation with the Minister of Justice and after consultation with the Premier of the province concerned: Provided [further] that any person so appointed shall have knowledge of matters concerning local government and shall reside within the province concerned.

(c) Any appointment of a member of the Committee made by the Executive Council of a province after 30 April 1995, is hereby terminated."; and

(b) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (8) of the following paragraph:

"(a) The conditions of service, remuneration, allowances and other benefits of the members of the Committee shall be determined by the Administrator [with the concurrence of] subject to such norms and standards as may be determined by the Minister of Finance."

Amendment of section 4 of Act 209 of 1993

4. Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the following paragraph:

"(b) On receipt of a notice referred to in paragraph (a), a meeting of the Committee shall be held [as soon as practicable] within a period determined by the Administrator for the purpose of furnishing the Administrator with the written decision of the Committee in regard to the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty referred to in paragraph (a): Provided that where such meeting cannot be held as determined, the members of the Committee shall consider the notice individually and shall without unreasonable delay furnish the chairperson of the Committee in writing with his or her decision in regard to the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty referred to in paragraph (a), in which case the decision of the majority of the members shall constitute the decision of the Committee."

Amendment of section 7 of Act 209 of 1993

5. Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the addition in subsection (1) to the proviso to paragraph (i) of the proviso to paragraph (c) of the following paragraph:

"(dd) to be responsible for the preparation for and the conducting of the election contemplated in section 9(1) within its area of competence and for this purpose using the financial and other resources of its component local government bodies in addition to the financial resources referred to in paragraph (ccc) of the proviso to paragraph (bb) of the proviso to paragraph (i) of the proviso to subsection (1)(c)."

- (b) by the substitution for the words following on paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of the following words:

"and shall submit any agreement reached to the Administrator [within a period of 90 days after the date of commencement of this Act or within such extended period as the administrator may allow] before or on 30 November 1994 whereupon the Administrator shall, within a period of 45 days, exercise the powers conferred upon him or her by section 10(1) incorporating the provisions of such agreement in the proclamation contemplated in the said section"

- (c) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2) (a) Where an agreement as contemplated in subsection (1) is not submitted to the Administrator [within the period referred to in that subsection, or within such extended period as the Administrator may allow] before or on 30 November 1994, the Administrator shall [within a period of 30 days, facilitate a process of independent mediation, the result of which shall be referred to the forum for a decision.

(b) Where the forum arrives at a decision taken by the required majority contemplated in subsection (3), the Administrator shall exercise the powers conferred upon him or her by section 10(1), incorporating the provisions of such decision in the proclamation contemplated in the said section.

(c) Where the forum is unable to arrive at a decision as contemplated in paragraph (b), the Administrator shall—

- (i) in the case of any local government body in the area of the forum concerned which, in terms of Board Notice No. 127 of 1993 of the Board on the Remuneration and Service Benefits of Town Clerks, as published in Government Gazette No. 15250 of 12 November 1993, is classified as a grade 8 local authority or lower, determine that the option referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) shall be applied to such local government body; and
- (ii) in the case of any local government body in the area of the forum concerned which in terms of Board Notice No. 127 of 1993 of the Board on the Remuneration and Service Benefits of Town Clerks, as published in Government Gazette No. 15250 of 12 November 1993, is classified as a grade 9 local authority or higher] before or on 21 December 1994 refer the matter to an arbitration committee referred to in subsection (2A).

(b) The arbitration committee concerned shall consider the matter and before or on 12 January 1995 in writing notify the Administrator of the decision of the committee, whereupon the Administrator shall, within a period of 30 days, exercise the powers conferred upon him or her by section 10(1), incorporating the decision of the arbitration committee in the proclamation contemplated in the said section: Provided that where a decision of the arbitration committee is not submitted to the Administrator within the period referred to in this paragraph or where the arbitration committee notifies the Administrator within such period in writing that it cannot, for any reason, come to a decision, the Administrator shall—

- (i) after due consideration of the negotiation process which took place in the forum: and
- (ii) in order to obtain a result which would, in the circumstances of that particular case, best give effect to the objects of this Act, forthwith determine that the option referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) shall be applied to [such local government body] the local government bodies in the area of the forum, and shall, within a period of 30 days, exercise the powers conferred upon him or her by section 10(1), incorporating the provisions of such determination in the proclamation contemplated in the said section.";

(d) by the insertion after subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2A) (a) There is hereby established for each province one or more committees as determined by the Administrator to be known as an arbitration committee or arbitration committees.

(b) An arbitration committee shall consist of four members appointed by the Administrator of which two members shall be broadly representative of the statutory component of forums in the province concerned and the other two members shall be broadly representative of the non-statutory component of forums in the province concerned.

(c) (i) An arbitration committee shall appoint a chairperson who shall determine the times and places for meetings of the committee.

(ii) The majority of the members of a committee shall form a quorum for a meeting.

(iii) The decision of the majority of the members of a committee present at any meeting thereof, shall be a decision of the committee.

(iv) A committee may make rules in relation to the holding of and procedures at meetings of the committee.

(d) The administrative work incidental to the performance of the functions of an arbitration committee shall be performed by officers of the respective provincial administrations designated for that purpose by the Director-General concerned."; and

(e) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

"(3) Any agreement contemplated in subsection (1) shall be approved [and any decision contemplated in subsection (2) shall be taken] by a concurrent majority of two-thirds of both the statutory and non-statutory components of the forum: Provided that any such agreement [or decision] relating to the application of the option referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) to any local government body within the area of the forum concerned which, in terms of Board Notice No. 127 of 1993 of the Board on the Remuneration [of] and Service Benefits of Town Clerks, as published in Government Gazette No. 15250 of 12 November 1993, is classified as a grade 8 local authority or lower, shall only be approved [or taken] by a concurrent majority of four-fifths of both the statutory and non-statutory components of the forum."

Insertion of section 7A in Act 209 of 1993

6. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 7:

"Powers of Administrator if forum is not established or recognized

7A. If a forum for any area has for any reason whatsoever not been established or recognized as contemplated in section 6 on 30 November 1994, the Administrator may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, forthwith determine that the option referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of section 7(1) shall be applied to the local government bodies in any such area and shall, within a period of 30 days of such determination, exercise the powers conferred upon him or her by section 10(1), incorporating the provisions of such determination in the proclamation contemplated in the said section."

Amendment of section 8 of Act 209 of 1993

7. Section 8 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of the following paragraph:

"(a) the written representations of [any] a transitional council or transitional metropolitan substructure, if any, which is established at that stage and which may be affected;"; and

(b) by the addition of the following subsection:

"(4) (a) Any delimitation or determination made in terms of subsection (2) may from time to time, but not later than a date three months prior to the day determined by the Minister as contemplated in section 9(1), be reviewed by the Administrator.

(b) The provisions of subsections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a delimitation and determination as a result of a review contemplated in paragraph (a)."

Amendment of section 9 of Act 209 of 1993

8. Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

"(3) Regulations made under subsection (2)(a) may prescribe penalties for any contravention thereof or a failure to comply therewith, of a fine, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding [two] five years."; and

(b) by the insertion after subsection (3) of the following subsection:

"(3A) (a) The respective Administrators shall, as far as is practicable, having regard to special circumstances prevailing within each province, strive towards substantial uniformity in respect of the content of the regulations made under subsection (2)(a) and shall, to this end, before the publication of the regulations, consult with each other and reach agreement at a meeting between the Minister and the Administrators or their representatives.

(b) Where an Administrator fails to make the regulations referred to in subsection (2)(a) within a period agreed upon at the meeting contemplated in paragraph (a), the Minister may exercise the powers conferred upon that Administrator by subsection (2)(a) and the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the exercise of such powers by the Minister.

Insertion of Part VA in Act 209 of 1993

9. The following part is hereby inserted after Part V of the principal Act:

"PART VARural Local Government*Definitions

exceeds 10 per cent of the total number of members to be elected and nominated in respect of the relevant transitional representative council;

- (b) the total number of members nominated by interest groups shall not exceed 20 per cent of the total number of members to be elected and nominated in respect of the relevant transitional representative council.

(3) A transitional representative council shall be vested and charged with the following powers and duties, namely—

- (a) to nominate from among its members a person or persons to represent the council on the district council in question;
- (b) to secure, through the said person or persons, the best services possible for the inhabitants of its area;
- (c) to serve as the representative body of its area—
- (i) in respect of any benefits resulting from the reconstruction and development programme; and
- (ii) in the development of a democratic, effective and affordable system of local government; and
- (d) in general, to represent the inhabitants of its area in respect of any matter relating to rural local government.

Framework for rural local government

9D. (1) The following principles shall apply in respect of rural local government, namely—

- (a) provision shall be made for the division of the whole area of each province into areas of jurisdiction of transitional metropolitan councils, if any, and areas of district councils:

(b) a district council shall consist of—

(i) members nominated by transitional local councils, transitional representative councils or transitional rural councils, the areas of jurisdiction or areas of which are situate within the area of such district council; and

(ii) in the case where there is a remaining area, members elected or elected and nominated from such area in accordance with a ratio based on the inhabitant numbers of the region;

(c) the provisions of paragraph (b)(ii) shall cease to apply in respect of any remaining area with effect from the date upon which such area is included within the area of jurisdiction of a local government established by or under legislation contemplated in section 245(2) of the Constitution, or the date upon which a period of six months has elapsed from the polling day or polling period for elections in terms of this Act, whichever is the later date;

(d) district councils, transitional local councils, transitional representative councils and transitional rural councils shall be utilized with a view to developing a democratic, effective and affordable system of local government.

(2) The members referred to in subsection (1)(b)(ii) shall—

(a) be elected in accordance with a system of proportional representation; and

(b) if the Administrator considers it desirable, be nominated by interest groups recognized by the Administrator.

(3) At least one member shall be nominated by each interest group by virtue of subsection (2)(b): Provided that—

(a) no single interest group shall nominate a number of members which exceeds 10 per cent of the total number of members to be elected and nominated in respect of the relevant remaining area;

(b) the total number of members nominated by interest groups shall not exceed 20 per cent of the total number of members to be elected and nominated in respect of the relevant remaining area.

(4) In the delimitation of the area of any transitional representative council and the area of jurisdiction of any transitional rural council, preference shall be given to a delimitation which has the effect that the said area or area of jurisdiction is situate within the boundaries of a magisterial district.

Construction of this Part

9E. The provisions of this Part shall apply in addition to, and not in substitution for, the other provisions of this Act."

Amendment of section 10 of Act 209 of 1993

10. Section 10 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for the words preceding paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the following words:

"For the purposes of this Act the Administrator concerned may in respect of the area of jurisdiction of the province for which he or she is appointed, but subject to the provisions of subsection (4)—";

- (b) by the substitution for paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of the following paragraphs, respectively:

"(b) provide in any such enactment for the amendment or repeal of [any] a law in force in or in a part of that province, including [any] and Act of Parliament or [the legislative assembly or any Self-governing Territory] any provision of such a law, in so far as it relates to any such matter and applies in [the] or in such part of that province; and

(c) provide in any such enactment that any law, including any Act of Parliament, or [the legislative assembly of a Self-governing Territory] any provision of such a law, pertaining to local government affairs shall, subject to the adjustment or amendment of such law or provision as he or she may make in such enactment, apply to any local government body, transitional council, or transitional metropolitan substructure referred to in section 16, or to any category of such local government bodies, transitional councils or transitional metropolitan substructures, in that province or a part thereof";

- (c) by the insertion after paragraph (i) of subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

"(A) the establishment of a transitional council for a rural area of local government not falling within the area of jurisdiction of a transitional metropolitan council or a transitional local council, including the delimitation of the area of jurisdiction of such council after due consideration of the advice and written recommendations of the Board, and the constitution, election, functioning, powers, duties, assets, rights, employees and financing of such council;"

(d) by the addition to subsection (3) of the following paragraph:

"(k) the establishment of a body at the request of any local government body, transitional council or transitional metropolitan substructure to assist any such local government body, transitional council or transitional metropolitan substructure which may be affected by the provisions of any proclamation made under subsection (1) to manage the implementation of the provisions of such proclamation, including the constitution, functioning, powers, duties, employees and financing of such body: Provided that the functioning, powers and duties of such body shall in no way derogate from the autonomy and powers of a local government body, transitional council or transitional metropolitan substructure under the applicable laws, including this Act;" and

(e) by the addition of the following subsection:

"(4) (a) Where—

(i) after 30 April 1995 but before 7 June 1995, the Administrator in concurrence with the Committee made a delimitation, determination or any other decision whatsoever, the contents of which are by virtue of the provisions of this Act required to be incorporated or embodied in or to be given effect to by, an enactment made by the Administrator by proclamation in terms of this section; and

- (ii) in consequence of one or more vacancies having arisen in the membership of the Committee by virtue of section 3(5)(c), the remaining members in favour of such concurrence, do not constitute at least two-thirds of the Committee.

the Administrator shall not issue such proclamation until such time as such vacancies have been filled in terms of section 3(5)(b) and—

- (aa) the proposed enactment has first been submitted to the Committee for its approval in terms of subparagraph (bb); and
- (bb) the Committee has in writing approved of such proposed enactment.

(b) A proclamation contemplated in paragraph (a)(aa) or (bb) which is issued without the prior approval required by that paragraph, shall be without any legal force and effect whatsoever.

(c) The fact that the contents of the delimitation, determination or decision contemplated in paragraph (a) are being duly incorporated or embodied in, or given effect to by, the proposed enactment and that the Committee has previously, that is, after 30 April 1995 but before 7 June 1995, concurred with such delimitation, determination or decision, shall not oblige the Committee to approve such proposed enactment nor preclude the Committee from withholding its approval where the Committee is satisfied that it would not have concurred with such delimitation, determination or decision had the Administrator, on or after 7 June 1995, notified the Committee in terms of section 4(2)(a) of his or her intention to make such delimitation, determination or decision."

Insertion of section 10A in Act 209 of 1993

11. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 10:

"Exercise or performance of provincial powers and duties outside province

10A. (1) The Administrator of a province may, with the approval of the President and after agreement or arrangement with the Administrator of any other province, and after consultation with any negotiating forum or local government body which may be affected, in accordance with such agreement or arrangement exercise any power or perform any duty conferred or imposed on him or her by this Act, in the other province which he or she may exercise or perform in respect of the area of jurisdiction of the province for which he or she is appointed, and for the purpose of the exercise or performance of such power or duty and for the purposes of the provisions of this Act, such other province shall be deemed to constitute part of the province for which he or she is appointed.

(2) A Board established for a province as contemplated in section 11(1) may, with the consent of the Administrator appointed for that province, granted with the approval of the President, perform any function referred to in section 11(6) in any other province in terms of an agreement or arrangement between the Administrator of that province and the Administrator of such other province, and for the purpose of the performance of that function such other province shall be deemed to constitute part of that province."

Amendment of section 11 of Act 209 of 1993

12. Section 11 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of the following paragraph:

"(b) When the Board makes recommendations to the Administrator as contemplated in paragraph (a), it shall do so—

- (i) within a reasonable time after having been requested to do so; or
- (ii) within a reasonable period determined by the Administrator, and shall take into account the criteria listed in Schedule 6: Provided that if the Board fails to furnish the Administrator with its written recommendations within the period referred to in subparagraph (ii) the Administrator may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, exercise any power or perform any duty conferred or imposed upon him or her by this Act without considering the advice and written recommendations of the Board."

Amendment of section 13 of Act 209 of 1993

13. Section 13 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition to paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of the following proviso:

"Provided that any delegation of a former administrator which was in force in respect of such an area immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue in force for the purpose of the continued administration of such an area, until such delegation is revoked or otherwise is no longer in force in law."

Amendment of section 16 of Act 209 of 1993

14. Section 16 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion after subsection (3) of the following subsection:

"(3A) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10(3)(j), the conclusion or amendment of any contract, the appointment or promotion of any person, or the award of a term or condition of service or other benefit, which occurred since the date of commencement of this Act in respect of any person employed by any local government body, may, within six months of 30 November 1994, be reviewed by a commission appointed by the Administrator and presided over by a judge, and if not proper or justifiable in the circumstances of the case, the commission may reverse or alter the contract, appointment, promotion or award."

Substitution of section 16A of Act 209 of 1993

15. The following section is hereby substituted for section 16A of the principal Act:

"Validation of certain proclamations

16A. (1) A proclamation issued under section 10(1) and published before 30 June 1995, shall not be valid merely because—

- (a) it was not issued or published within a period or before a date specified in section 7 or 7A;
- (b) in the circumstances contemplated in subsection (2)(a) of section 7, a matter had not been referred to an arbitration committee before or on 21 December 1994 as required by the said subsection;
- (c) in any case where a matter had been referred to an arbitration committee for its consideration and decision in terms of subsection (2)(b) of section 7, that committee had not notified the Administrator of its decision before or on 12 January 1995 as required by the said subsection;
- (d) the provisions of subsection (2)(a) of section 7 requiring the referral of a matter to an arbitration committee for decision in accordance with subsection (2)(b) of that section, or any requirement of the said subsection (2)(b) in so far as it relates to arbitration, was for any reason not complied with by the Administrator prior to making a determination and exercising the powers conferred upon him or her by section 10(1) as contemplated in the said subsection; or

- (e) any specific provision of any agreement contemplated in section 7(1) was not incorporated in such proclamation.

(2) The institution of any action in a court of law relating to the validity of a proclamation contemplated in subsection (1) shall not delay or suspend the implementation or operation of such proclamation."

Amendment of Schedule 1 to Act 109 of 1993

17. Schedule 1 to the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subparagraph (3) of paragraph 5 of the following subparagraph:

"(3) Any person who is eligible to vote in terms of section 6 of the Constitution, read with section 16 of the Electoral Act, 1993 (Act No. 202 of 1993), and who is ordinarily resident within the area of jurisdiction of one of the participating local government bodies, or under law liable for the payment of assessment rates, rent, service charges or levies to one of the participating local government bodies, may be nominated as a member of any transitional council or transitional metropolitan substructure [shall meet the qualifications of a member of one of the participating local government bodies] unless—

- (a) he or she is a member of the National Assembly, the Senate or a provincial legislature;
- (b) he or she is disqualified to be elected as a member of the National Assembly in terms of the Constitution; or
- (c) he or she is an employee of one of the participating local government bodies or any other local government body: Provided that the Administrator may exempt any such person if the Administrator is satisfied that such exemption is in the public interest and proof of such exemption accompanies the nomination:

Provided that no person shall be nominated as a member of more than one transitional council or metropolitan substructure."

Amendment of Schedule 4 to Act 209 of 1993

18. Schedule 4 to the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for paragraph 1 of the following paragraph:

"1. Any natural person who is—

(a) [eligible to vote in terms of section 6 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993; and] of or over the age of 18 years;

(b) (i) a South African citizen, or
(ii) permanently resident in the Republic and who is in possession of an identity document contemplated in paragraph 5;

(c) not subject to any disqualification mentioned in section 16 of the Electoral Act, 1993 (Act No. 202 of 1993); and

(b) ordinarily resident within the area of jurisdiction of a local government, or under law liable for the payment of assessment rates, rent, service charges or levies to the local government concerned, shall be entitled to be included in the voters' roll of that local government and shall thereupon be entitled to vote in an election for members of the council of such local government: Provided that any person shall be entitled to exercise only one vote for any local government: Provided further that the exercise of a vote as contemplated in this paragraph may entail the marking of two or three ballot papers representing the proportional and ward components of a vote referred to in paragraphs 7 and 8.";

- (b) by the substitution for paragraph 5 of the following paragraph:

"5. Identification for voting purposes shall be by production of a voter's eligibility document [as defined] referred to in paragraphs (a), (c) and (d) of the definition of 'voter's eligibility document' in section 1 of the Electoral Act, 1993.";

- (c) by the substitution for subparagraph (a) of paragraph 6 of the following subparagraph:

"(a) he or she is [an elected] a member of the National Assembly, [or] the Senate or a provincial legislature;"; and

- (d) by the insertion after paragraph 6 of the following paragraph:

"6A. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 8, no person nominated for election as a member of a transitional council or a metropolitan substructure shall be nominated for election as a member of any other transitional council or metropolitan substructure."

Substitution of long title of Act 209 of 1993

19. The following long title is hereby substituted for the long title of the principal Act:

"ACT

To provide for revised interim measures with a view to promoting the restructuring of local government, and for that purpose to provide for the establishment of Provincial Committees for Local Government in respect of the various provinces; to provide for the recognition and establishment of forums for negotiating such restructuring of local government; for the exemption of certain local government bodies from certain provisions of the Act; for the establishment of appointed transitional councils in the pre-interim phase; for the delimitation of areas of jurisdiction and the election of transitional councils in the interim phase; for the establishment of transitional rural local government structures; for the issuing of proclamations by the Administrators of the various provinces; for the establishment of Local Government Demarcation Boards in respect of the various provinces; and for the repeal of certain laws; and to provide for matters connected therewith."

Repeal of laws, and saving

20. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the laws mentioned in the second column of the Schedule are hereby repealed.

(2) Anything done under or in terms of a law repealed by subsection (1), shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

Short title and commencement

21. (1) This Act shall be called the Local Government Transition Act Second Amendment Act, 1995.

(2) The provisions of this Act, excluding section 20, shall be deemed to have come into operation on 2 February 1994.
