NOTICE 724 OF 1998DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND INDUSTRY*SOUTH AFRICAN COMPANIES REGISTRATION OFFICE*PURCHASE BY A COMPANY OF ITS OWN SHARES

South African company law has always accepted the principle that a company's share capital is effectively a guarantee fund for its creditors. As such the creditors have had the assurance that the capital of the company, which is the initial safeguard required for the right of limited liability, will not be diminished other than in the ordinary course of business or in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act. In addition to the Companies Act, various common law principles constitute a further safeguard that companies should not, other than in limited circumstances, reduce their share capital. In this regard mention may be made of the prohibition against the purchase by a company of its own shares as being part of the foregoing common law principles.

The principles of capital maintenance have undergone significant changes in almost all countries and this process has been significantly influenced by developments in the United States. The modern notion of capital maintenance is that companies may reduce capital, including the acquisition of their own shares, subject to solvency and liquidity criteria. This has the advantage of affording protection to creditors whilst at the same time giving flexibility to companies to achieve sound commercial objectives. It is also noteworthy that recognition of this concept has already been accorded by South African corporate law in the Close Corporations Act of 1984.

The SAC is particularly concerned that South Africa has been tardy in its recognition of modern concepts of capital maintenance as referred to above. For this reason the SAC is of the view, and has advised Government accordingly, that there is urgency in introducing the necessary amendments to the companies' legislation to embody the foregoing concepts. Although there are certain technical issues which have given rise to considerable debate in overseas jurisdictions on certain aspects of the modern notions of capital maintenance, it is the view of the SAC that the process of achieving a new dispensation should not be delayed by some of these issues, which can, in due course, merit further attention. At this stage the priority is to enable companies to acquire their own shares with adequate creditor protection.

This matter has engaged considerable public attention over a protracted period and the SAC has itself inspired much of this debate. In formulating its recommendations to Government, the SAC has been considerably influenced by this debate. Accordingly legislation has been drafted for consideration by Government and for submission to Parliament.

The following amendments are proposed:"PURCHASE BY A COMPANY OF ITS OWN SHARES

1. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a company may be approval of a special resolution in general meeting, if so authorized by its articles, acquire shares issued by it.
- (2) The approval by special resolution may be a general approval or in the form of a specific approval for a particular acquisition.

- (3) If such approval is given in the form of a general authority, it shall be valid only until the next annual meeting of the company, but it may be varied or revoked by special resolution by any general meeting of the company prior to such annual general meeting.
2. A company shall not make any payment in whatever form to acquire any share issued by it if there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
- (a) the company is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business; or
 - (b) The realisable value of the company assets would after the payment be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated or declares share capital plus reserves.
3. (1) Where a company has acquired par value shares issued by it, the issued capital is decreased by an amount equal to the par value of the shares and where a company has acquired no par value shares issued by it, the issued capital is decreased by an amount equal to the book value of the shares.
- (2) Shares which have been issued by a company and acquired by it shall be cancelled and restored to the status of authorised capital.
- (3) A company may not under this section acquire its shares if, as a result of such acquisition, there would no longer be any shares other than redeemable shares in issue.
4. (1) Directors of a company who, contrary to the provisions of section 2, allow the company to acquire any share issued by it, are jointly and severally liable to restore to the company any amount so paid and not otherwise recovered by the company.
- (2) A director who is liable under subsection (1) is entitled to apply to the court by way of application for an order compelling a shareholder or former shareholder to pay to the company any money that was paid contrary to section 2.
- (3) Where the acquisition by the company of a share issued by it is in contravention of the provision of section 2, any creditor who was a creditor at the time of the purchase, or any shareholder, may apply to the court in the same manner, and the court may, if it is satisfied that it is equitable to do so—
- (a) order a shareholder or former shareholder to pay to the company any money or return any consideration that was paid or given by the company to acquire the share;
 - (b) order the company to issue an equivalent number of shares to the shareholder or the former shareholder; and
 - (c) make such further order as it thinks fit.
- (4) An action to enforce a liability imposed by this section must be instituted within two (2) years after the date of completion of the purchase.
5. A company that acquires shares issued by it shall notify the Registrar within thirty (30) days of the date of the acquisition in prescribed form of the date, the number, and the class of shares that it has acquired.
6. (1) Unless otherwise authorised by the general or specific approval of the company as contemplated in section 1, a company that proposes to acquire shares issued by it shall—
- (a) deliver or mail a copy of the written offering circular in prescribed form, to each registered shareholder of record as at the date of the offer in such manner as may be provided in the articles of the company for the sending of any notice of a meeting of the shareholders, stating the number and the class or kind of its issued shares which the company proposes to acquire, and specifying the terms and reasons for the offer;
 - (b) file a copy of the offering circular with the Registrar within fifteen (15) days of the date that it is delivered or mailed to the shareholders of the company.
- (2) Where in response to the offer contained in the offering circular, the shareholders agree to dispose of a greater number of shares than the company offered to acquire, the company shall acquire from all of the shareholders who offered to sell, pro rate as nearly as possible disregarding fractions.
- (3) The provisions of sections 160, 161, 162 and 163 (of the Companies Act) shall apply mutatis mutandis to all documents issued in terms of this section.

7. Section 6 is not applicable to a public company whose shares are listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and if—
- (1) the shares are acquired through the facilities of a stock exchange; and
 - (2) in any one month it acquires not more than one per cent (1%) of the kind or class of shares which were issued and outstanding on the first day of that month.
8. (1) A contract with a company providing for the acquisition of shares issued it is specifically enforceable against the company except to the extent that the company cannot perform the contract without being in breach of section 2.
- (2) In an action brought on a contract referred to in subsection (1), the company has the burden of proving that performance thereof is prevented by section 2.
- (3) Until the company has fully performed a contract referred to in subsection (1), the shareholder who disposes of his/her shares retains the status of a claimant entitled to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, on liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors, and to the rights of any shareholders whose rights were in priority to the rights given to the class of shares which he/she disposed of to the company, but in priority to the rights of the other shareholders.
9. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 39 (of the Companies Act), a subsidiary company may, subject to the provisions of this section, acquire shares in its holding company or in a subsidiary of its holding company: Provided that—
- (a) From and after the date upon which these provisions become law, a subsidiary company shall not acquire any shares of its holding company or of a subsidiary of its holding company in excess of ten per cent (10%) of the number of issued shares of the holding company or of the subsidiary of its holding company;
 - (b) A subsidiary company that acquires any shares of its holding company or of a subsidiary of its holding company, as permitted under this section, shall not be entitled to receive any notice of, or to vote at, any meeting of the shareholders of the holding company or the subsidiary of its holding company with respect to such shares.”

Minor consequential amendments will also have to be made to sections 38 and 39 of the Companies Act, 1973.

Members of the public are invited to make submissions on these proposals to the Standing Advisory Committee on Company Law, c/o Registrar of Companies, P.O. Box 429, Pretoria, 0001, or Docex 256, Pretoria, before 30 May 1998.

NOTICE 739 OF 1998BOARD ON TARIFFS AND TRADE*NOTICE OF FINAL DETERMINATION OF THE REVIEW INTO THE CONTINUED NEED FOR THE ANTI-DUMPING DUTY ON MEN'S AND WOMEN'S UNDERWEAR, ORIGINATING IN AND/OR IMPORTED FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

The Board on Tariffs and Trade gave public notice of the initiation of a review into the continued need for anti-dumping duties on men's or boys' and women's or girls' underwear originating in and/or imported from the People's Republic of China (PRC) in Notice No. 1507 published in Government Gazette No. 17497 dated 18 October 1996.

A preliminary determination was subsequently made by the Board that as all information submitted to the Board indicated that the expiry of the anti-dumping duty would lead to the continuation of dumping and injury, the anti-dumping duty should be retained for another period of five years. Notice of the preliminary determination was published in Notice No. 332, Government Gazette No. 17797 dated 21 February 1997.

On the basis of this information and other submissions made by interested parties after the preliminary determination, the Board made a final determination on 19 November 1997 confirming its preliminary determination. The Board determined once again that the expiry of the anti-dumping duty would lead to the continuation of dumping and injury, and that therefore the anti-dumping duty should be retained for another period of five years.

The Board therefore recommended that the present anti-dumping duty of 100% with a maximum of 120 cents each on men's underwear, and 125% with a maximum of 100 cents each on women's underwear, should be retained for another period of five years on imports originating in and/or imported from the PRC. This recommendation was accepted by the Minister of Trade and Industry.

Enquiries may be directed to the Investigating Officer, Mr Mike Andrews, at Telephone (012) 310-9547.
