| * A quota of votes per seat shall be determined in respect of each region by dividing the total number of votes cast in a region by the number of seats, plus one, reserved for such a region. The result plus one, disregarding fractions shall be the quota of votes per seat in respect of a particular region. |             |                       |                    |            |      |                 |  |  |  |  |
