MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE NONPROFIT ORGANISATIONS AMENDMENT BILL, 1999Background and main objects of Bill

Section 6 (2) of the Nonprofit Organisations Act, 1997 (Act No. 71 of 1997) (the Act), read with section 28 (1) of the Act provide that any model document, model constitution for nonprofit organisations and codes of goods practice for nonprofit organisations or any amendment or substitution thereof prepared by the Directorate for Nonprofit Organisations must be announced by notice in the Gazette and at least one other widely circulated means of communication. A period of at least one month from the date of the notice must be allowed for interested parties to comment.

The Bill envisages to amend section 6 of the Act by deleting subsection (2). Experience has learnt that this process is very time consuming and expensive, especially since almost no comment were received after similar publications and the comment received also did not warrant the expenses incurred.

The Bill also envisages to effect corrections to the text of sections 9, 24, 25 and 34 of the Act.

Financial implications of the Bill for the State

The deletion of section 6 (2) of the Act will effect a saving for the State.

Consultation

The provisions of the Bill have not been consulted, but the Bill will be published for general comment once approved by Cabinet.

Parliament procedure

The Department of Welfare and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with by Parliament in accordance with the procedure set out in section 76 (1) or (2) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE DEVELOPMENTAL WELFARE GOVERNANCE BILL, 1999Background and main objects

South Africa has made a commitment to a developmental social welfare approach, the aim of which is to build a self-reliant nation in partnership with all stakeholders. This will be achieved through an integrated social welfare system which maximises its existing potential, and which is premised on principles of equity, sustainability, access and people-centredness (White Paper for Social Welfare, 1996). Arising from these principles is the need for institutional arrangements which are guided by the key operational concepts of partnership and co-operative governance.

The White Paper for Social Welfare acknowledges the inadequacy of past governance structures which amongst other things, lacked legitimacy and inclusivity and perpetuated disparity and selective delivery of services.

In attempting to redress the past inadequacies of governance mechanisms and imbalances in service delivery, the White Paper for Social Welfare (Section 26 of Chapter 3) acknowledges the need for appropriate, legitimate, transparent and effective governance mechanisms. An envisaged governance structure should be viewed as one of the critical and strategic mechanisms to facilitate meaningful and relevant civil society participation in policy, legislation, programmes and social services activities.

The provisions of this Bill are part of the overall transformation of the welfare system from a purely residual one to a developmental one. A structure as advocated that will promote maximum influence of political decision-making and maximum dialogue between the Ministry and the developmental welfare sector.

The main objection of the Bill is to make provision for the establishment and constitution of the contemplated new council which shall be known as the South African Development Welfare Council (the "Council").

The Council is intended to facilitate and consolidate participation of civil society and government interaction and public policy formulation at various levels. These levels of participation and interaction on policy, legislation and development welfare issues will be informed and empowered by the strengths of existing organised formations rooted at national, provincial and local levels of society. The Council will enhance dialogue between civil society developmental welfare structures and the different tiers of government.

Main features

The Bill provides for certain welfare related definitions and for the establishment, objects and functions of the South African Development Welfare Council. The Bill also provides for the composition, objectives and functions of the Council.

Financial implications of the Bill for the State

The Council shall consist of nine members of whom not more than four shall be Government officials or representatives. The Council shall hold at least three meetings each year and it is assumed that those meetings will last two days.

Based on current tariffs the chairperson and members will be paid fees and travelling and subsistence allowances amounting to R93 700,00. Entertainment, cellular phones and additional remuneration may amount to R36 000,00. Professional advisory services may amount to R100 000,00.

The Bill also provides that the Director-General shall designate officers on a full-time basis to the Council to assist the Council in the proper performance of its functions.

Should one person at the level of Assistant Director and two Senior Administrative Officers be appointed by the Department, their full packages together with the purchase of equipment, furniture, stationery, cellular phones, transport and travel and subsistence allowances will amount to approximately R456 000,00.

All in all the financial implications of this Bill for the State may amount to approximately R686 000,00 per annum.

Consultation

The said provisions arise out of a consultative process in which the views of stakeholders (well over seventy submissions were received) both within government and civil society were canvassed concerning an initial set of recommendations and a series of critical questions.

Parliamentary procedure

The Department of Welfare and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with by Parliament in accordance with the procedure set out in section 76 (1) or (2) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.

PROCEDURAL FRAMEWORK

The Board will conduct its investigation in accordance with the Board on Tariffs and Trade Act, 1986, (the BTT Act) and the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 (the Anti-Dumping Agreement). A copy of the Anti-Dumping Agreement is available from the Board's office on request

In order to obtain the information it deems necessary for its investigation, the Board will send review questionnaires to all known manufacturers in the SACU of the subject products listed above. Manufacturers of the product concerned should immediately contact the Board to determine whether they have in fact been identified and they will be sent the relevant questionnaire. Responses by manufacturers will have to be made within the time limit set out below. Other parties, being exporters and importers and other identified interested parties of the subject products, will only be requested to comment if sufficient information is received from the manufacturers of the subject products in the SACU, showing that the expiry of the duty would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury. A failure by manufacturers of a particular product to submit such information or sufficient information, will result in a termination of the investigation in respect of that product and the termination of the duty. Importers, exporters and other interested parties should contact the Board immediately to determine whether they have in fact been identified and to register their interest in any particular investigation, and their intention to comment on the petitioner's information should the petitioner so respond. These parties should register their interest in writing with the Board by no later than 30 days from date of this notice. If the manufacturer responds, identified parties will be sent non-confidential versions of this information, and will be requested to respond within the time periods referred to below. The trade representatives of the exporting countries have been notified of the initiation of the reviews and the procedures to be followed by the Board.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Please note that if any information is considered to be confidential then a non-confidential version of the information must be submitted for the public file, simultaneously with the confidential version. In submitting a non-confidential version the following rules are strictly applicable and parties must indicate:

- Where confidential information has been omitted and the nature of such information;
- Reasons for such confidentiality;
- A summary of the confidential information which permits a reasonable understanding of the substance of the confidential information; and
- In exceptional cases, where information is not susceptible to summary, reasons must be submitted to this effect.

This rule applies to all correspondence with and submissions to the Board, which unless indicated to be confidential and filed together with a non-confidential version, will be placed on the public file and be made available to other interested parties.

ADDRESS

PROCEDURES AND TIME LIMITS

All responses by manufacturers in the SACU of the subject products under review, including non-confidential copies of the responses, should be received by the Director: Dumping Investigations not later than 30 days from the date hereof or from the date on which the letter accompanying the above-mentioned review questionnaire was received. The said letter shall be deemed to have been received seven days after the day of its dispatch.

Responses by all other interested parties, when requested, should be received by the Director: Dumping Investigations not later than 30 days from the date on which the letter accompanying the non-confidential version of the information received by the SACU manufacturers of the subject products, was received. The said letter shall be deemed to have been received seven days after the day of its dispatch.

Late submissions will not be accepted except with the prior written consent of the Board. The Board will give due consideration to written requests for an extension of not more than 14 days on good cause shown (properly motivated and substantiated), if received prior to the expiry of the original 30-day period. Merely citing insufficient time is not an acceptable reason for extension.

The information submitted by any party may need to be verified by the investigating officers in order for the Board to take such information into consideration. The Board may verify the information at the premises of the party submitting the information, within a short period after the submission of the information to the Board. Parties should therefore ensure that the information submitted will subsequently be available for verification. It is planned to do the verification of the information submitted by the exporters within three to five weeks subsequent to submission of the information. This period will only be extended if it is not feasible for the Board to do it within this time period or upon good cause shown, and with the prior written consent of the Board, which should be requested at the time of the submission. (It should be noted that unavailability of or inconvenience to consultants will not be considered to be good cause). Parties should also ensure when they engage consultants that they will be available at the requisite times, to ensure compliance with the above time frames. Parties should also ensure that all the information requested in the applicable questionnaire is provided in the specified detail and format. The questionnaires are designed to ensure that the Board is provided with all the information required to make a determination in accordance with the rules of Anti-Dumping Agreement. The Board may therefore refuse to verify information that is incomplete or does not comply with the format in the questionnaire, unless the Board has agreed in writing to a deviation from the required format. (A failure to submit an adequate non-confidential version of the response that complies with the rules set out above under the heading "Confidential Information" will be regarded as an incomplete submission.)

Parties who experience difficulty in furnishing the information required, or submitting in the format required, are therefore urged to make written applications to the Board at an early stage for permission to deviate from the questionnaire or provide the information in an alternative format that can satisfy the Board's requirements. The Board will give due consideration to such a request on good cause shown.

Oral representations to the Board may also be made on written request to the Board at least seven days prior to the expiry date of the original 30 days period to respond and by prior arrangement with the Directorate. Such oral representations must be made within the same period as the written representations, unless prior written consent of the Board has been obtained for the oral representations to be made at a later date, which shall in any event not be later than 14 days after the written representations have been submitted. Oral representations will be limited to one hour.

If the required information and arguments are not received in a satisfactory form within the time limit specified above, or if verification of the information cannot take place, the Board may disregard the information submitted and make provisional or final findings on the basis of the facts available to it.

Enquiries may be directed to the Director: Dumping Investigations, Mr Johann Human at telephone (012) 310-9814 or at fax (012) 322 3279.
