SGB INFORMATION

As a necessary step in the development and implementation of the National Qualifications Framework, The National Standards Bodies are briefed [regulation 19(1)(c) of 28 March 1998] to recognise or establish Standards Generating Bodies (SGBs).

SGBs shall:

- a. generate standards and qualifications in accordance with the Authority requirements in identified sub-fields and levels;
- b. update and review standards;
- c. recommend standards and qualifications to National Standards Bodies;
- d. recommend criteria for the registration of assessors and moderators or moderating bodies; and

- e. perform such other functions as may from time-to-time be delegated by its National Standards Body.

Any bodies wishing to nominate representatives, make application to serve on, or make any other submission with regard to the above SGB should note the following information.

SGBs should be composed of organisations, which shall be key education and training stakeholder interest groups and experts in the sub-field. The NSB, when making its final decisions will have due regard for, among other things, 'the need for representativeness and equity, redress and relevant expertise in terms of the work of the SGBs.'

Organisations proposing to nominate persons to SGBs should be sensitive to the need for equity and redress, and shall nominate persons who-

- (a) will be able to consider issues of productivity, fairness, public interest and international comparability as related to education and training in the sub-field;
- (b) enjoy credibility in the sub-field in question, who enjoy respect; have the necessary expertise and experience in the sub-field and have the support or backing of the nominating body;
- (c) are able to advocate and mediate the needs and interests of all levels within the sub-field covered by the Standards Generating Body;
- (d) are able to exercise critical judgement at a high level; and
- (e) are committed to a communication process between the Standards Generating Body, the National Standards Body and the Constituency.

Non-profit organisations' reports

The form we include is to guide you when you write the reports the Department of Welfare's Nonprofit Organisations Directorate needs after your organisation has been registered with us.

Your organisation's reports

- Once your organisation is registered, each year it must send to the Director of the Department of Welfare's Public Private Partnership Directorate a written report about your organisation's activities, and a financial report.
- The Directorate requests that you follow the form with its guidelines when writing your reports. The format is:
 1. A written report about your organisation's activities, which includes these sections:
 - ✓ Section A: Your organisation's details (to be filled in on the form provided)
 - ✓ Section B: Your organisation's history and aims (to be written on separate paper)
 - ✓ Section C: Your organisation's achievements (to be written on separate paper)
 - ✓ Section D: Meetings and your constitution (to be written on separate paper)
 2. A financial report, which includes:
 - ✓ Section A: Your organisation's accounting and fundraising details (to be filled in on the form provided)
 - ✓ Section B: Your accounting officer's written report about the finances of your organisation (to be written on separate paper)
 - ✓ Section C: Your organisation's financial statement (to be drawn up by your accounting officer, and on separate paper)
- Together, these reports tell the story of the activities, income and spending of your organisation for the year. They must be sent to the Directorate within 9 months after the end of your organisation's financial year.
- When you write up your reports, please use the headings we give you on the form. You can add more information if you want to. But please make sure you answer according to all the headings which are provided.
- When the Directorate receives your written report, financial statement and accounting officer's report your organisation's name will remain on the Department's non-profit organisations register.

- The Directorate can cancel your registration if you do not send these reports in each year.
- Remember when you write your report to stick to the time period that your report covers.

We hope you will find this form with its guidelines useful with your reporting. Please contact us if you have any questions.

With best wishes for your organisation in its work

Yours faithfully
