10 Procedures in the case of alleged misconduct

10.1 An allegation of misconduct regarding a member must be submitted to the chairperson who, where necessary, must as soon as possible thereafter investigate or cause the allegation to be investigated into.

10.2 The chairperson must as soon as may be expedient in his or her opinion report to a meeting of the Board on the nature of the allegation submitted, the basic facts ascertained during any investigation, as well as his or her recommendation regarding the necessity for an enquiry into the said allegation.

10.3 The Board may, after considering the report in terms of subsection 10.2 of the Code, direct that the matter be further investigated, or that an enquiry be held into the allegation, or that any other appropriate steps be taken, or that no further steps be taken in regard to the allegation.

10.4 After any further investigation referred to in subsection 10.3 of the Code, the chairperson must again submit a report to the Board as aforesaid whereupon the Board may exercise the functions listed in that subsection.

10.5 Where the Board directs that an allegation of misconduct must be enquired into, the Board may give any directions which it may deem to be expedient and appropriate regarding the manner in which the enquiry is to be held.

10.6 An enquiry into an allegation of misconduct in terms of section 10.5 of the Code must be conducted in a manner which is consistent with the provisions on fair administrative procedures as contained in section 3 of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act 3 of 2000. 10.7 Any person or tribunal conducting an enquiry as aforesaid must as soon as possible after conclusion of the proceedings, submit a report to the chairperson containing the findings as well as a recommendation regarding an appropriate penalty where there is a finding of guilt.

10.8 After receipt of the report as aforesaid, the chairperson must submit it within a reasonable time to a meeting of the Board. After such consideration of the report as the Board may deem necessary, the Board may confirm, set aside or vary the findings as well as the recommendations and inform the member involved accordingly.

10.9 If the Board, after consideration of the report referred to in subsection 10.8 of the Code is of the opinion that there is a sound reason for a member to be removed from office, it must submit the report as well as its own views and recommendations to the Minister as soon as possible.

10.10 Nothing in section 10 prevents the Board from referring any allegations and/or evidence of misconduct by a member to the Minister for the purposes of exercising his or her powers in terms of section 6(2) of the Act.

10.11 The procedures described in section 10 apply unless the Board for reasonable and justifiable reasons determines otherwise, whether generally or in a particular case.

10.12 The Board may delegate any of its functions provided for in section 10 to a committee of the Board appointed by it for this purpose, or to the executive committee of the Board.

10.13 A member who has been found guilty of misconduct in respect of which a penalty of suspension from Board meetings or activities has been imposed, may, within seven (7) days after he or she has been notified of the decision referred to in section 10.8, appeal against such decision to the Minister: Provided that the provisions of section 21 of the Act and regulation 10 of the Regulations published in Government Gazette No 12413 dated 2 April 1990 will, with the necessary changes, apply to an appeal under this section: Provided further that the lodging of an appeal does not lift or bar any suspension in terms of section 12 of the Code.

11 Penalties for, and steps in regard to, misconduct of a member

11.1 Where a member has been found guilty of misconduct in terms of section 10 of the Code, the Board may -

11.1.1 reprimand or warn the member;

Security Officers Board

12 Suspension

12.1 The Board may suspend a member from attending any meeting or participating in any activities of the Board pending the investigation into alleged misconduct or for the duration of an enquiry referred to in section 10 of the Code (including any appeal proceedings) if there is a sound reason for such a step.

12.2 The chairperson may exercise the function referred to in subsection 12.1 of the Code if in his or her opinion any delay in submitting the matter to the Board may cause serious prejudice to the Board in any manner whatsoever.

13 General

The Code will come into operation on a date fixed by the Board. The Code will apply to all misconduct defined in section 9.2 irrespective of whether it has been committed before or after the commencement of the Code: Provided that in the case of misconduct as defined in section 9.2 of the Code, the misconduct must have been committed after the member in question has been appointed as a member of the Board.
