Board Member:	PPS 1978- Date
Member:	Transformation Task Team - Restructure Medicines Registration system in SA. Medicines Control Council 1992-Date

I intend to promote the regulation of Veterinarians - to enhance their status and ensure proper recognition by the public, clients, farmers, industry and state. This can be achieved by ensuring that standards of education, ethics, practice and knowledge are maintained at levels comparable to international standards. Continuing Education must be encouraged but be attainable, appropriate and affordable. It is important that Veterinarians are recognised and competent to practise their profession, - use and dispense medicines without interference. Through knowledge of and contacts with associated professions I want to promote harmonisation of these relationships. Council should play a significant role in promoting international harmonisation of standards for practice, research, and disease control and service delivery.

8. PROF. H M TERBLANCHE

Obtained the BVSc degree and MMedVet(Phys) degree U.P. in 1969 and 1979 respectively. Commenced professional activities in 1970 as a State Veterinarian in the then Onderstepoort Veterinary Research Institute. Joined the Faculty of Veterinary Science at Onderstepoort in 1973, moved to the Faculty of Veterinary Science at Medunsa in 1982 and back to the Onderstepoort Faculty in 1999. Served as Senior Lecturer at Onderstepoort, Professor and Head of Department, Deputy Dean and Dean at Medunsa and currently as Deputy Dean at Onderstepoort. Special interests in veterinary science are limited to reproduction, specifically the physiology of pregnancy and parturition. Outside interests include hiking and birdwatching. Public and professional services are those performed within the veterinary profession. In the SAVA, served as Chairman of the Northern Transvaal branch and Production and Reproduction Group, Education and Awards Committees; also as Federal Councillor, Vice-President and President. Also served as SAVA representative at the WVA and currently as Councillor in the WVA. Further also served on the Education committee and as Vice-President and President of the Veterinary Council.

My mission is to ensure a transparent and credible administration in the best interests of society and all the professions served by Council.

9. PROF S S VAN DEN BERG

Na afstudering in 1968 was ek in privaatspraktijk. In 1976 keer ek terug na die akademiese in die Departement Chirurgie as senior lektor, later as die bekleër van die Abe Bailey professoraat in perdegeneeskunde en chirurgie.

Einde 1999 neem ek 'n vervroegde aftree pakket na 12 jaar as hoof van die Departement Chirurgie. Ek kwalifiseer as spesialis in Chirurgie en Radiologie en verwerf 'n DVSc graad in 1996.

Deur aktiewe deelname in die professie ontvang ek die SAVV Kliniese en Presidentstoekening en in 2000 ere lewenslange presidentstoekening; die Equine Practitioners Group and "Farriers Association merit award".

Ek dien as verkose lid van die SAVR sedert 1992 en as voorsitter van die Ondersoekkomitee. As sameroeper van die Etiese en Gedragskomitee word die eerste Etiese en Praktys kode voorgelê. Die reëls i.v.m. dierefasiliteite is herskryf en die gevolglike evaluering van fasiliteite vloei daaruit voort. Ek dien die afgelope 2 jaar op die Uitvoerende Komitee van die SAVR.

Ek is trots op my professie en dit is my voorreg en plig om te dien na die beste van my vermoë. Ek plaas 'n hoë premie op die handhawing van hoë standaarde t.o.v. professionele opleiding, praktykbeoefening van enige aard en 'n gebalanseerde lewensstyl.

11. DR S J WIMBERLEY

I qualified as a veterinarian in 1986, spent 2 years doing national service in Kangwane and then joined Westville Veterinary Hospital in July 1988. I became a partner in March 1992. My interests are small animal medicine, surgery and ultrasonography. I have served on the committee of the KZN Clinicians Group (treasurer 1989 - 1993 and chairman 1993 - 1994) as well as the KZN SAVA since 1989 holding various portfolios from sports and social, vice chairman and currently complaints. I have managed our after hours clinic in Durban since 1990.

I believe I have enough experience to fairly represent the interests of all the private practitioners in this county in all matters pertaining to council, as well as to promote the professional image of veterinarians in the eyes of the public wherever and whenever possible.

NOTICE 36 OF 2001

KENNISGEWING 36 VAN 2001

SOUTH AFRICAN VETERINARY COUNCIL / SUID AFRIKAANSE VETERINÊRE RAAD

RAADSKENNISGEWING VAN 16 FEBRUARIE 2001

COUNCIL NOTICE OF 16 FEBRUARY 2001

1. DR P V A DAVIES

Born in Johannesburg in 1934. Educated at St. John's College, Houghton, Johannesburg. Qualified BVSc at Onderstepoort in 1956. Own private veterinary practice in Nelspruit until 1971 – predominantly a cattle practice, with 10 % horses and mules, and 10 % small animals and sheep. Relocated to Pretoria to study for a M.Med.Vet degree in Zootechnology, awarded in 1975, during which time was in the employ of the Meat Control Board (3 years) and the Bantu Investment Corporation (2 years).

A year as a Visiting Professor to the Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph in Canada followed, lecturing in herd health programmes and running the Swine Clinic. As from 1978 have been in an Animal Production Consulting Veterinary Practice, predominantly involved in pig production. I am at present the Chairman of the Pig Veterinary Society.

2. DR P E KLOECK

B.Sc & BVSc (UP) - 1975.

Rendered community service - former Bophuthatswana. Subsequent two years state veterinarian (SV) Mafeking, two years SV Potchefstroom - regional laboratory and AI centre were developed - 10 years SV Nelspruit. 1991 Regional Director Natal. Introduced new rabies control strategies earning Director General's award for service excellence. 1995 Director Veterinary Services Mpumalanga, tasked to develop a veterinary component. Served in various capacities as committee member and chairman in SAVA groups and branches. Elected Federal Council 1994 and continues to serve as chairman - Legislative Subcommittee. 1995 elected president of the Association of Animal Health Technicians. Chairs the National Rabies Advisory Group serving Departments of Agriculture and Health and represented the National Directorate of Veterinary Services at various international workshops.

I envisage the development of integrated veterinary care teams incorporating animal health technicians, veterinary nurses and para-professionals led and directed by veterinarians. I would like to see improved working relationships between veterinarians and accredited para-professionals and would work enthusiastically to represent members, particularly public service members, having an understanding of their practical concerns, professional problems and frustrations. I would ensure that their views be considered while contributing to reshaping the veterinary profession into the 21st century

3. DR R F LINDE
