BOARD NOTICES RAADSKENNISGEWINGS

NOTICE 99 OF 2001

PUBLICATION OF A DECISION IN TERMS OF SECTION 11(7) OF THE PAN SOUTH AFRICAN LANGUAGE BOARD ACT, 1995 (ACT NO. 59 OF 1995)

1. WHEREAS Prof. W.A.M. Carstens lodged a complaint with the Board to the effect that the Department of Defence adopted English as the operational language of the SANDF and decided to scale down the use of other languages;
2. AND WHEREAS this complaint was investigated in terms of section 11(4) of the Pan South African Language Board Act, 1995, and it was found –
 - (a) that the language policy of the SANDF in force at present (SADFO 40/94) requires that officials use an applicable and effective language when issuing oral commands to formations or units in the course of training;
 - (b) that SADFO 40/94 provides the following –

“where minority groups of the target population do not sufficiently understand the applicable official language selected, they shall be communicated with in an official language they sufficiently understand, or which is required for technical reasons.”

- (c) that the Language Desk of the SANDF developed a Draft Language Policy (“Draft 9”, dated November 1998) to bring the language policy into line with the Constitution, 1996, which policy –
 - (i) declares that the SANDF is committed to the promotion of multilingualism; and
 - (ii) makes use of English as a “thread language” and envisages the use of “link languages”;
- (d) that “link language” is defined as a “language that may be predominant in a region, zone, command, formation or unit”;
- (e) that “thread language” is defined as “a language used throughout the Department of Defence in order to facilitate general communication, command, control and coordination”. In terms of the policy, the thread language shall serve as a communication medium across decentralised elements in the Department of Defence;

- (f) that, to date, the SANDF has not adopted the above-mentioned Draft Language Policy, on the basis that the National Language Plan of the Department of Arts, Culture, Science and Technology still awaits finalisation;
 - (g) that on 24 March 2000 the Secretary of Defence and Chief of the SANDF jointly promulgated a Departmental Instruction on the Operational Language, and that shortly afterwards, the SANDF released the broad outline of this Instruction on Operational Language to the media;
 - (h) that this Departmental Instruction –
 - (i) stipulates that the SANDF is phasing in English as the language to be used during operational training and examination;
 - (ii) stipulates that assistance is to be provided to soldiers experiencing difficulty with English, to improve their command of this language;
 - (iii) concerns among other things, the command and control of drill squads who must execute the orders of the officer accurately and promptly;
 - (iv) was adopted to govern the core business of the SANDF on the basis that a common language is essential to the efficiency of operations, and for purposes of co-ordination with international practices; and
 - (v) was adopted whilst awaiting the National Language Plan of the Department of Arts, Culture, Science and Technology;
 - (i) that this Departmental Instruction has a major effect on training in the SANDF, in that basic and intermediate training; command and staff courses; all training materials; remedial training; and enablement training will be offered solely and exclusively in English.
3. THE BOARD HEREBY FINDS that none of the complainant's language rights are violated in this instance, since he cannot indicate any direct interest in the language practice of the SANDF.
4. THE BOARD HEREBY INFORMS the complainant and the SANDF –
 - (a) that it suspects that the Departmental Instruction diminishes the status of the official languages other than English;
 - (b) that if the status of these languages is diminished, it is contrary to the language policy norms contained in section 6 of the Constitution;
 - (c) that it will undertake a survey to establish whether its suspicion is well-founded; and
 - (d) that the Board reserves the right to make a finding on this matter.

5. THE BOARD HEREBY ADVISES the SANDF –

- (a) to suspend the Departmental Instruction of 24 March 2000 pending the outcome of PANSALB's survey; and
- (b) to implement the Draft Language Policy ("Draft 9", dated November 1998) with immediate effect.

6. THE BOARD HEREBY NOTIFIES THE DEPARTMENT that it shall monitor the implementation of the policy until it is satisfied that the matter is in order.

KENNISGEWING 99 VAN 2001

PUBLIKASIE VAN 'N BESLUIT INGEVOLGE ARTIKEL 11(7) VAN DIE WET
OP DIE PAN-SUID-AFRIKAANSE TAALRAAD, 1995 (WET NO. 59 VAN 1995)

1. NADEMAAL prof W.A.M. Carstens 'n klagte by die Raad ingedien het ten effekte dat die Departement van Verdediging Engels as die operasionele taal van die SANW aanvaar het en besluit het om die gebruik van ander tale af te skaal;
2. EN NADEMAAL hierdie klagte ondersoek is ingevolge artikel 11(4) van die Wet op die Pan-Suid-Afrikaanse Taalraad, 1995, en daar bevind is –

- (a) dat die taalbeleid van die SANW wat tans van krag is (SAWO 40/94), bepaal dat beampies 'n toepaslike en doeltreffende taal moet gebruik wanneer daar tydens opleiding mondelinge bevele aan formasies of eenhede gegee word;
- (b) dat SAWO 40/94 vir die volgende voorsiening maak:

"waar minderheidsgroepe van die teikenbevolking nie die toepaslike gekose amptelike taal genoegsaam begryp nie, moet daar met hulle gekommunikeer word in 'n amptelike taal wat hulle wel genoegsaam verstaan, of wat om tegniese redes vereis word."

- (c) dat die Taallessenaar van die SANW 'n Ontwerptaalbeleid ontwikkel het ("Ontwerp 9", gedateer November 1998) om die taalbeleid met die Grondwet, 1996, in lyn te bring en welke taalbeleid –
- (i) verklaar dat die SANW tot die bevordering van veeltaligheid verbind is; en
 - (ii) van Engels as 'n "ankertaal" gebruik maak en die gebruik van "skakeltale" in die vooruitsig stel;
- (d) dat 'n "skakeltaal" omskryf word as "'n taal wat oorheersend in 'n streek, sone, kommandement, formasie of eenheid kan wees";
- (e) dat 'n "ankertaal" omskryf word as "'n taal wat deur die hele Departement van Verdediging gebruik word ten einde algemene kommunikasie, bevelvoering, beheer en koördinasie te vergemaklik"; en dat die "ankertaal" ingevolge die beleid as 'n kommunikasiemedium in al die gesentraliseerde elemente in die Departement van Verdediging moet dien;
- (f) dat die SANW, tot op datum, nog nie bogemelde Ontwerptaalbeleid aanvaar het nie, omrede die Nasionale Taalplan van die Departement van Kuns, Kultuur, Wetenskap en Tegnologie nog gefinaliseer moet word;
- (g) dat die Sekretaris van Verdediging en die Hoof van die SANW gesamentlik op 24 Maart 2000 'n Departementele Instruksie betreffende die Operasionele Taal bekend gemaak het, en dat die SANW kort daarna 'n samevatting van hierdie Instruksie betreffende Operasionele Taal aan die media vrygestel het;
- (h) dat hierdie Departementele Instruksie –
- (i) bepaal dat die SANW besig is om Engels in te faseer as die taal wat gedurende operasionele opleiding en eksamining gebruik moet word;
 - (ii) bepaal dat daar aan soldate wat probleme met Engels ondervind, hulp verleen moet word ten einde hul vaardigheid in hierdie taal te verbeter;
 - (iii) handel oor, onder andere, die bevelvoering en beheer van drilafdelings wat die bevele van die offisier akkuraat en onmiddellik moet uitvoer;
 - (iv) aangeneem is om die kernbesigheid van die SANW te reguleer, met die uitgangspunt dat 'n gemeenskaplike taal onontbeerlik is vir die doeltreffendheid van operasies, en vir doeleindes van samewerking met internasionale praktyke; en

- (v) aangeneem is terwyl daar op die Nasionale Taalplan van die Departement van Kuns, Kultuur, Wetenskap en Tegnologie gewag word;

- (i) dat hierdie Departemente Instruksie 'n belangrike uitwerking op opleiding in die SANW het, aangesien basiese en tussentydse opleiding, bevels- en stafkursusse, alle opleidingsmateriaal, remedièrende opleiding, en instaatsellingsopleiding alleenlik en uitsluitlik in Engels aangebied sal word.

3. BEVIND DIE RAAD HIERBY dat geeneen van die taalregte van die klaer in hierdie geval geskend word nie aangesien hy geen regstreekse belang by die taalpraktyk van die SANW kan aantoon nie.

4. DIE RAAD STEL HIERBY die klaer en die SANW in kennis –

- (a) dat die Raad vermoed dat die Departemente Instruksie die status van die ander amptelike tale behalwe Engels inkort;
- (b) dat indien die status van hierdie tale ingekort word, dit strydig is met die taalbeleidsnorme soos vervat in artikel 6 van die Grondwet;
- (c) dat die Raad onderneem om 'n opname te doen om vas te stel of sy vermoede gegrond is; en
- (d) dat die Raad hom die reg voorbehou om 'n bevinding oor hierdie aangeleentheid te maak.

5. DIE RAAD BEVEEL HIERBY AAN dat die SANW –

- (a) die Departemente Instruksie van 24 Maart 2000 opskort, hangende die uitslag van die PANSAT-opname; en
- (b) die Ontwerptaalbeleid ("Ontwerp 9", gedateer November 1998) onverwyld implementeer.

6. DIE RAAD STEL DIE DEPARTEMENT VAN VERDEDIGING HIERBY IN KENNIS dat die Raad die implementering van die beleid sal monitor totdat die Raad tevrede is dat die saak reggestel is.

NOTICE 101 OF 2001PUBLICATION OF A DECISION IN TERMS OF SECTION 11(7) OF THE PAN SOUTH AFRICAN LANGUAGE BOARD ACT, 1995 (ACT NO. 59 OF 1995)

1. WHEREAS Inspector Mandla A. Hlongwane, a member of the South African Police Service (SAPS) lodged a complaint to the effect that –
 - (a) the Station Commander of the Bethlehem Police Station introduced Station-Order 3/1999 on 25 January 1999, in terms of which English and/or Afrikaans shall be used for communication whenever efficient communication might be jeopardised because of the lack of proficiency of any person concerned in any other official language;
 - (b) the Area Commissioner, Eastern Free State, issued instructions to members of SAPS to desist from using indigenous languages on official police radio channels;
 - (c) these instructions marginalise certain official languages and provide grounds on which police officials may be charged with misconduct if they make efforts "to promote and develop" their languages;
2. AND WHEREAS the complaint was investigated in terms of section 11(4) of the Pan South African Language Board Act, 1995, and it was found –
 - (a) that the Station Order at which the complaint is directed, is based on SAPS Standing Order G.201.2 of 22 May 1995, which Order states that English and/or Afrikaans shall be used for communication within the SAPS whenever efficient communication might be jeopardised because of the lack of proficiency of any person concerned in any other official language;
 - (b) that Station Order 3/1999 was issued to instruct members to use only English and Afrikaans after members of the SAPS failed to attend to complaints that were discussed on official radio channels in indigenous languages;
 - (c) that Standing Order G.201.5 requires that every reasonable effort shall be made to create, wherever practicable, favourable conditions which will promote, develop and facilitate the use of all the official languages at national level and each in its own particular province;

- (d) that the failure to use only English and Afrikaans on official police radio channels, or the use of any indigenous language for purposes of communication on any official police radio channels, may give rise to disciplinary proceedings when an offending member is charged with serious misconduct under Regulation 8(2) of the Disciplinary Regulations;
- (e) that disciplinary proceedings will be instituted for serious misconduct whenever the rendering of an efficient policing service to the public is compromised in any manner due to lack of proficiency in a language;
- (f) that the Police and Prison Civil Rights Union (Popcru) sought a legal order from the Transvaal Provincial Division of the High Court against the National Commissioner of Police and the Minister of Safety and Security;
- (g) that the basis of the application sought by Popcru was that the Standing Order violates the Constitution and is ultra vires and void, but that the SAPS defended the Standing Order on the basis that no less restrictive means exists by means of which effective communication can be achieved;
- (h) that the court turned down the application by Popcru on the following grounds –
 - (i) that the limitation is unavoidable, fair and necessary in the interest of crime detection and prevention;
 - (ii) that the language issue should be an issue for negotiation; and
 - (iii) that the language issue ought not be used as a tool in labour matters or to speed up transformation.

3. THE BOARD HEREBY DECIDES that both Standing Order G.201.2 and Station Order 3/1999 –

- (a) support the policy of multilingualism since section 6 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, requires the state to use of at least two official languages for governmental purposes; and
- (b) fail to comply with the language policy norm contained in section 6(2) of the Constitution, 1996, that the state must take practical measures to improve the status and promote the use of previously marginalised languages.

4. THE BOARD FURTHERMORE DECIDES that –

- (a) since effective communication will not be jeopardised in circumstances where all the users of the radio network are able to use the same indigenous language, Standing Order G.201.2 does not violate the language rights of members of the SAPS;

- (b) that the Station Order restricted the interpretation of the Standing Order by insisting that indigenous languages may not be used on official police radio channels;
- (c) that a restrictive interpretation that limits the scope of the Standing Order to the use of only English and Afrikaans violates the language rights of police officials in circumstances where all the users of the radio network are able to use the same indigenous language.

5. THE BOARD HEREBY ADVISES the SAPS –

- (a) to bring Standing Order G.201.2 and Station-Order 3/1999 into line with all the language policy norms contained in section 6 of the Constitution, so that they permit the use of an indigenous language which all the users of a radio network are capable of using; and
- (b) to ensure that complaints that are logged in an indigenous language are translated into Afrikaans and English, until members of the SAPS acquire adequate proficiency in indigenous languages. This instruction is aimed at preventing a situation where members who lack proficiency in such languages, refuse or fail to investigate certain complaints on account of the existence of language barriers.

KENNISGEWING 101 VAN 2001

BEKENDMAKING VAN 'N BESLUIT INGEVOLGE ARTIKEL 11(7) VAN DIE WET OP DIE PAN-SUID-AFRIKAANSE TAALRAAD, 1995 (WET NO. 59 VAN 1995)

1. NADEMAAL Inspekteur Mandla A. Hlongwane & Inspekteur Makhubo, beide lede van die Suid-Afrikaanse Polisie Diens (SAPD) 'n klagte ingedien het waarvolgens –
 - (a) die Stasiebevelvoerder van die Bethlehem Polisiestasie Stasie-Order 3/1999 van 25 Januarie 1999 ingevoer het, ingevolge waarvan Engels en/of Afrikaans vir kommunikasie gebruik sal word wanneer effektiewe kommunikasie in gevaar gestel mag word weens 'n gebrek aan vaardigheid van enige betrokke persoon in enige ander amptelike taal;

- (b) die Area-Kommissaris, Oos-Vrystaat, lede van die SAPD gelas het om nie inheemse tale op amptelike polisie radiokanale te gebruik nie;
 - (c) hierdie instruksies sekere amptelike tale gemarginaliseer het en gronde verskaf waarop polisiebeamtes van wangedrag aangekla kan word indien hulle pogings sou aanwend om hul tale "te bevorder en te ontwikkel";
2. EN NADEMAAL die klagte ondersoek is ingevolge artikel 11(4) van die Wet op die Pan-Suid-Afrikaanse Taalraad, 1995, en bevind is –
- (a) dat die Stasie Bevel gebaseer is op SAPD Staande Bevel G.201.2 van 22 Mei 1995, welke Bevel bepaal dat Engels en/of Afrikaans vir kommunikasie binne die SAP gebruik sal word wanneer effektiewe kommunikasie in gedrang kom weens 'n gebrek aan vaardigheid van enige betrokke persoon in enige ander amptelike taal;
 - (b) dat Stasie Bevel 3/1999 uitgereik is met die doel om lede te gelas om slegs Engels en Afrikaans te gebruik, nadat lede van die SAPD nagelaat het om klagtes op te volg wat in inheemse tale op die amptelike radiokanale bespreek is;
 - (c) dat Staande Bevel G.201.5 vereis dat alle redelike pogings aangewend moet word om, waar moontlik, gunstige omstandighede te skep om die gebruik van inheemse tale op nasionalevlak en elk in sy betrokke provinsie te bevorder, ontwikkel en fasiliteer;
 - (d) dat die versuim om slegs Engels en Afrikaans op amptelike polisie radiokanale te gebruik, of die gebruik van enige inheemse amptelike tale vir kommunikasie doeleindes op enige amptelike polisie radiokanaal, aanleiding kan gee tot dissiplinêre stapte indien 'n oortreder van 'n ernstige misdryf aangekla word ingevolge Regulasie 8(2) van die Dissiplinêre Regulasies;
 - (e) dat dissiplinêre stapte vir ernstige misdrywe ingestel sal word wanneer die lewering van 'n effektiewe polisiediens aan die gemeenskap op enige wyse in gevaar gestel word vanweë 'n gebrek aan bedrevenheid in enige taal;
 - (f) dat die Vakbond vir Siviele Regte van Polisiebeamtes en Gevangenis (Popcru) 'n hofbevel teen die Nasionale Kommissaris van Polisie en die Minister van Veiligheid en Sekuriteit aangevra het;

- (g) dat die verlangde bevel aangevra is op die basis dat die betrokke Staande Bevel die Grondwet skend en ultra vires en ongeldig is, maar dat die SAPD die aansoek teengestaan het op sterkte daarvan dat effektiewe kommunikasie nie op enige minder beperkende wyse bewerkstellig kan word nie; en
- (h) dat die hof die Vakbond se aansoek afgewys het op die volgende gronde –
 - (i) dat die beperking onvermydelik, regverdig en noodsaaklik is in belang van misdaadopsporing en –voorkoming;
 - (ii) dat die taalkwessie 'n onderhandelde aangeleentheid behoort te wees; en
 - (iii) dat die taalkwessie nie gebruik behoort te word as 'n instrument in arbeidsgeskille of om transformasie te bespoedig nie.

3. DIE RAAD BESLUIT HIERMEE dat beide Staande Bevel G.201.2 en Stasiebevel 3/1999 –

- (a) die beleid van veeltaligheid ondersteun, aangesien artikel 6 van die Grondwet van die Republiek van Suid-Afrika, 1996, van die Staat vereis om ten minste twee amptelike te gebruik vir regeringsdoeleindes; en
- (b) in gebreke bly om te voldoen aan die taalbeleidsnorme soos vervat in artikel 6(2) van die Grondwet, 1996, dat die staat praktiese stappe moet doen om die status van voorheen miskende tale te verhoog en hul gebruik te bevorder.

4. DIE RAAD BESLUIT VOORTS –

- (a) dat aangesien effektiewe kommunikasie nie in gevaar gestel word in omstandighede waar al die gebruikers van 'n radionetwerk in staat is om dieselfde inheemse taal te gebruik nie, en gevvolglik stel Staande Bevel G.201.2 insigself nie 'n aantasting van die klaers se taalregte daar nie;
- (b) dat die Stasiebevel neerkom op 'n eng uitleg van die Staande Bevel deurdat dit daarop aandring dat die inheemse tale nie op amptelike polisieradiokanale gebruik mag word nie; en
- (c) dat 'n eng uitleg van die Staande Bevel, wat die strekwydte daarvan beperk tot die gebruik van slegs Engels en Afrikaans, die taalregte van polisiebeamtes skend in omstandighede waar al die gebruikers van 'n radionetwerk dieselfde inheemse taal magtig is.

5. DIE RAAD BEVEEL HIERMEE AAN DAT DIE SAPD –

- (a) Staande Bevel G.201.2 en Stasiebevel 3/1999 versoen met die taalbeleidsnorme vervat in artikel 6 van die Grondwet, sodat die gebruik van 'n inheemse taal toelaatbaar sal wees indien al die gebruikers van die netwerk daardie taal magtig is; en

- (b) verseker dat klagtes wat in inheemse tale aangemeld word of genoteer word, vertaal sal word in Engels en Afrikaans, tot tyd en wyl lede van die SAPD die inheemse tale bemeester het. Hierdie instruksie is daarop gemik om 'n situasie te voorkom waar lede wat nie vlot is in die inheemse tale nie, kan weier of nalaat om sekere klagtes te ondersoek op sterkte van 'n taalprobleem.
