DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORT*No. 1364*14 December 2001*REQUEST FOR QUOTATION : TRANSLATION SERVICES

The Civil Aviation Authority wishes to obtain quotations from suitably qualified translators who would be interested in tendering for contract work to translate draft additions and amendments to the Civil Aviation Regulations from English into Afrikaans.

Those interested in tendering for this contract work should possess a relevant tertiary educational qualification proving their competency in both English and Afrikaans and should also have extensive experience in translating legislation from English into Afrikaans, and vice versa. A knowledge of Aviation and Aviation Legislation would be an added advantage.

Interested applicants are requested to submit a quotation for supplying this service calculated on a "cost per translated word (of the document being translated)" basis, together with a short Curriculum Vitae.

It is envisaged that this service will be required for an approximate period of six months commencing from 14 January 2002.

Applicants wishing to tender for this contract work should submit the required documentation to the CAA, no later than 03 January 2002, marked for the attention of the Legal Manager, Mr K. C. Marobela at the under-mentioned address :
