Financial Services Industry

MARRIOTT HOLDINGS LTD AND IT SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES ("THE INSTITUTION")

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

1.2 PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL:

This manual is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within the Financial Services Industry as a whole, by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual sets out to provide a generic manual to the Financial Services Industry to deal with the requests in a conforming manner, which will enable the requestors to obtain the records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner. This manual may be adapted by the individual role players in the Financial Services Industry to specifically meet their needs.

Wherever reference is made to "institution" in this manual, it will refer to the private bodies within the Financial Services Industry, for whom this manual is drafted.

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

1.2 PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL:

This manual is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within the Financial Services Industry as a whole, by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual sets out to provide a generic manual to the Financial Services Industry to deal with the requests in a conforming manner, which will enable the requestors to obtain the records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner. This manual may be adapted by the individual role players in the Financial Services Industry to specifically meet their needs.

Wherever reference is made to "institution" in this manual, it will refer to the private bodies within the Financial Services Industry, for whom this manual is drafted.

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

1.2 PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL:

This manual is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within the Financial Services Industry as a whole, by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual sets out to provide a generic manual to the Financial Services Industry to deal with the requests in a conforming manner, which will enable the requestors to obtain the records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner. This manual may be adapted by the individual role players in the Financial Services Industry to specifically meet their needs.

Wherever reference is made to "institution" in this manual, it will refer to Standard Bank Group Limited for whom this manual has been adapted and compiled.

MANUAL FOR RCS PERSONAL FINANCE PROPRIETARY LIMITED

(Registration number 1968/008420/07)

in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No 2 of 2000
("the Act")

Introduction to RCS Personal Finance (Pty) Ltd

RCS Personal Finance (Pty) Ltd ("RCSPF") is a subsidiary of Foschini Limited.

RCSPF offers pre-approved unsecured personal banking loans and financial products to external customer bases forming part of the broad middle-income group throughout South Africa.

The climate of excessive micro-lending interest rates, means that players who are able to accurately assess the credit risk that customer pose, will also be able to offer competitive banking rates as a valuable service to their customers. While the interest rates that RCSPF charges are considered high in the traditional banking market, the rates are very reasonable when compared to other micro lending rates and the reality is that the majority of South Africans do not have ready access to unsecured loan facilities.

RCSPF offers a one-stop shop, where a customer can apply, contract and receive the loan in one easy step. No documentation is required from the customer as RCSPF accurately assesses their credit worthiness prior to mailing.

RCS Personal Finance (Pty) Ltd is a private body as defined in the Act.

1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 ("the Act") came into operation on 9 March 2001. The Act seeks to give natural and/or juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights.

Section 51 of the Act obliges private bodies to compile a Manual which would assist a person to obtain access to information held by such a private body and stipulates the minimum requirements a manual has to comply with. Section 51 requires a manual to contain the following:

- Postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, the electronic mail address of the head of the private body;
- A description of the guide referred to in section 10 of the Act, if available, and how to obtain access to it.
- Categories of information available without formal request, if any.
- A description of the records available in accordance with any other legislation
- A description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject,
- Such other information as may be prescribed.

2. OBJECTIVES OF MANUAL

The objectives of this Manual are:

- To provide a list of all records held by the mentioned companies;
- To set out the requirements with regard to who may request information in terms of the Act as well as the grounds on which a request may be denied;
- To define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted;

3. LIST OF RECORDS AND INFORMATION

The information held by the aforementioned companies has been divided into two hundred categories. These categories have been grouped into twelve subjects, each of which describes a single business entity, for example, "Human Resources". For ease of understanding and navigation, an additional level has been added between the "subject" and "category" levels. This additional level describes more accurately the sub-set of categories that falls under it. For example, under the additional level, the subject "Performance and Remuneration" is made up of information categories describing payroll, bonus and incentives, and employee performance information. The categories of information are not exhaustive but are merely meant to give a broad indication of the information subject and categories held by Vodacom, without specification. A category may therefore contain sub-categories and sub-sets of information, which are not specifically listed. (See Page 9 below)

4. ENTRY POINT FOR REQUESTS

In order to ensure that the mentioned Vodacom companies comply with the Act the managing directors of the mentioned companies have designated Vodacom Customer Care as the only entry point through which any request in terms of the Act must be channelled.

All requests in terms of the Act must be addressed to:

VODACOM CUSTOMER CARE:

5. WHO MAY REQUEST INFORMATION OR RECORDS IN TERMS OF THE ACT

5.1 The Purpose for which Information is required

The Act provides that a person may only request information in terms of the Act, if the information is required for the exercise or protection of a right.

Information will therefore not be furnished unless a person clearly provides sufficient particulars to enable the company to identify the right the requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation of why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

5.2 Requester Categories:

The capacity in which a requester requests information will determine the category he or she falls in. Please note that the requester category has a bearing on the charges pertaining to the access to information. (See Page 31 and Request Fees below).

Requesters have been classified into four categories:

- A Personal Requester: - requests personal information about himself/herself.
- A Representative Requester: - requests information on behalf of someone else.

- A Third Party Requester: - requests personal information of another person.
- A Public Body: - requests information in the public interest.

6. REQUEST PROCEDURE

6.1 Completion of Form C

Any request for information in terms of this Act must be contained in Form C. (See Page 22). This formality is prescribed by the Act.

Form C must be completed in full and returned to Vodacom Customer Care together with any other information that the mentioned companies require in order to consider and decide on the request. A request, which does not comply with the formalities, as prescribed by the Act will be forwarded back to the requester with advice on the necessary steps for compliance. This includes Forms that are not completed in full.

Vodacom Customer Care will not consider a request unless it is contained in Form C. Vodacom Customer Care will make copies of the mentioned form available on request.

6.2 Proof of Identity:

Proof of identity is required to authenticate the request and the requester. In view hereof, a requester will, in addition to Form C, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of their identity document or other legal forms of identity.

6.3 Vodago Certificate

In case where information or records pertaining to any of Vodacom's prepaid products (other than marketing information) is requested, the requester will have to prove ownership of the Prepaid SIM (Subscriber Identity Module) to which the requested information or records relate. Vodacom will therefore, in addition to the proof of identity, require the Vodago Certificate. A requester will also be required to confirm by means of a sworn affidavit (signed before a Commissioner of Oaths) that the information he requests relates to him personally as the holder of a Vodago Pre-paid SIM card..

7. REQUEST FEES

Section 54 of the Act entitles a company to levy a charge or request fee to enable the company to recover the cost of processing a request and giving access to records in terms of the Act. The fees that may be charged have been published by the Minister of Justice and are set out on page 33.

Note that where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

8. GRANTING OR REFUSAL OF REQUESTS

All requests complying with the requirements set out above will be processed and considered expeditiously.

Please note that the Act stipulates the following grounds for refusing requests for information:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person [section 63]
- Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party [section 64]
- Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party [section 65]
- Mandatory protection of safety of individuals and protection of property [section 66]
- Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings [section 67]
- Commercial information of the private body [section 68]
- Mandatory protection of research information of third party and of the private body [section 69].

Whatever decision is taken, the requester will be given notice of the decision in writing. The Act requires that such notification be given within 30 days of the decision being made. In case of a request being refused, the notification will include the reasons for the refusal.

Please note that Vodacom Customer Care may extend the thirty-day notice period if it is necessary due to the nature of the request and the amount of time required to gather the requested information. The requester will however be given notice of the extension prior to the 30 day period's expiry.

9. APPEAL

The Act does not require a company to establish an internal appeal structure for the purpose of allowing a requester who is aggrieved by a decision of the company to appeal such a decision. This requirement only applies to a public body.

A requester aggrieved by Vodacom's decision must therefore approach a court of law.

The Human Rights Commission's Guide might contain information on appeal procedures. It is expected that the mentioned Guide will be published on 15 August 2003.

10. THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION GUIDE

Section 10 of the Act imposes a duty on the Human Rights Commission to "compile in each official language a guide containing such information, in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in the Act. This Guide has to be published on 15 August 2003.

Details on how to obtain access to the mentioned guide were at the time of publication of this Manual not available. The Human Rights Commission may be contacted in this regard on the Human Rights Advice Line at 0860 120 120, during office hours between Monday and Friday.
