NOTICE 4 OF 2003

COMPETITION TRIBUNAL

NOTIFICATION OF DECISION TO APPROVE MERGER

The Competition Tribunal gives notice in terms of rule 35 (5) (b) (ii) of the "Rules for the conduct of proceedings in the Competition Tribunal" as published in Government Gazette No. 22025 of 01 February 2001, that on 12 December 2002 it approved the merger between JD Group Limited and Profurn Limited subject to the following conditions:

1. Each of the Profurn chains must annually in each calendar year of the period, purchase furniture goods from independents in accordance with the purchase percentage for that particular chain, subject to the following qualifications;
 - a. The Profurn chains are not obliged to purchase from independents who supplied the chain prior to the merger and may purchase from other independents who were not previously suppliers of that chain or Profurn;
 - b. A Profurn chain may alter its purchase percentage by purchasing a higher proportion from independents, but not vice versa;
 - c. If a Profurn chain is discontinued during the period, then the total value of the chain's purchases from independents, calculated as at the financial year ending 2002, must be re-allocated to the remaining chains for each calendar year or part thereof, that remains of the period. The manner of the re-allocation is left to the discretion of the merged firm; and
 - d. Each of the JD chains must annually in each calendar year of the period purchase furniture goods in accordance with the purchase percentage for that particular chain. A JD chain may alter its purchase percentage by purchasing a higher proportion from independents, but not vice versa.
2. An independent audit firm, other than the JD Group's auditors must –

- a. Verify the purchase percentages in respect of both the JD and Profurn chains, and supply a certificate to that effect to the Competition Commission, by not later than 31 March 2003;
 - b. In the event that a Profurn chain is discontinued during the period, verify the total value of the chain's purchases from independents, calculated as at the financial year ending 2002 and indicate how that value has been re-allocated amongst the remaining chains; and
 - c. Verify that these conditions are being complied with and supply a certificate to that effect, to the Competition Commission within three months of the end of each year that the condition is in force.
3. The auditors' costs must be borne by the merged firm
 4. These conditions remain in force only for the period.
 5. For the purpose of this order --

"Furniture goods" means household furniture including bedding, white goods and brown goods or case goods and upholstered products, but excluding plastic garden furniture and steel kitchen furniture.

"Independent or independent firm" means any manufacturer of furniture goods in the Republic of South Africa, excluding the Steinhoff Group; its associate firms or any firm in which Steinhoff has a financial interest.

"period" means a period of three calendar years commencing on the 1 January 2003 and ending on 31 December 2005.

"JD" means the JD Group Limited, a company listed on the JSE.

"JD chains" or "JD chain" means Price n Pride, Score, Bradlows, Joshua Doore and Russels

"Profurn" means Profurn Limited, a company listed on the JSE.

"Profurn chains" or "Profurn chain" means Barnetts, Freedom, Protea and Morkels.

"Steinhoff" means Steinhoff International Holdings Ltd, a company listed on the JSE.

"Purchase percentage" means the proportions in which a particular Profurn or JD chain, as the case may be, purchased furniture goods from independents on the one hand and Steinhoff on the other, expressed as a percentage of its total purchases of furniture goods for the calendar year 2002.

ANNEXURE

Explanatory note: Words in square brackets have been added to aid interpretation, and may not be retained, or may be adjusted, once the following is incorporated into the Rules and thus fit into context.

SPECIFIC RULES IN RESPECT OF PROFESSIONAL SINGLE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY ASSESSORS AND CANDIDATE SINGLE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY ASSESSORS

Prescribed examinations in respect of professional single residential property assessors and candidate single residential property assessors

1. (1) The prescribed examinations contemplated in section 20(2)(a)(ii) of the Act in respect of professional single residential property assessors are:

(a) as an academic qualification, the following subjects of the National Diploma in Real Estate (Property Valuation), namely Property Valuation 1, Property Practice 1, Property Economics & Finance 1, Law on Property Valuation, and Principles of Property Law; and

(b) as a test of practical competence, proficiency and experience -

(i) the Council Examination for Professional Single Residential Property Assessors; and

(ii) the Practical Examination for Professional Single Residential Property Assessors, consisting of the performance of a property valuation of a single residential property, including a fully motivated report.

(2) The prescribed examination contemplated in section 20(2)(b)(i) of the Act in respect of candidate single residential property assessors is that referred to in subitem (2)(a).

Practical experience in single residential property valuation required for registration as professional single residential property assessor

2. The practical experience in property valuation contemplated in section 20(2)(a)(iii) of the Act in respect of professional single residential property assessors, is as follows, namely that the applicant concerned -

(a) has attended the council's Practical Workschool for Professional Single Residential Property Assessors, presented by The South African Institute of Valuers, and has passed the examination conducted at the end thereof; and

(b) has gained practical experience of work in property valuation in the Republic of the scope, variety, nature and standard as set out in this Annexure.

Scope, variety, nature and standard of practical experience in single residential property valuation required for registration as professional single residential property assessor

3. (1) It is the responsibility of a candidate [single residential property assessor] and his or her supervisor to ensure that the candidate gains a sufficient scope, variety, nature and standard of practical experience of work in single residential property valuation by having him or her exposed to as many of the following as possible:-

(a) Purposes of property valuations:

- (i) purchase, sale and capital gains tax;
- (ii) rental determination;
- (iii) mortgage bonds and security;
- (iv) investments (pension funds, etc);
- (v) leasebacks;
- (vi) Land Bank;
- (vii) expropriation;
- (viii) endowment;
- (ix) compensation: town-planning schemes;
- (x) rating;
- (xi) deceased estates;
- (xii) financial statements; and
- (xiii) insurance;

(b) Types of properties:

- (i) vacant single residential land;

- (ii) single dwellings;
- (iii) individual flats (sectional title).

(2) For the purposes of this item, "supervisor" means the professional approved in terms of item 6.

Assessment of practical experience in property valuation required for registration as professional single residential property assessor

4. To assess, for the purposes of section 20(2)(a)(iii) of the Act, the practical experience of work in property valuation of an applicant applying in terms of section 20 of the Act in the category of professional single residential property assessor, the relative weights assigned to the various types of single residential properties for the different purposes of property valuations set out in Annexure C [to the Rules for the Property Valuers Profession-attached], shall be applied to the numbers of property valuations provided and substantiated by the applicant in his or her application form submitted by him or her, and shall be processed electronically to determine a total weight, which, together with the various types of single residential properties valued by the applicant for different purposes of property valuations shall form the basis for assessment.

Application of assessment outcome for purposes of registration as professional single residential property assessor

5. As a general norm, the minimum outcome reached in the assessment referred to in [rule 13 of the Rules for the Property Valuers Profession], shall be a credit or weight of 80 and one type of property valued for one purpose of property valuation.

Supervision and control

6. For the purposes of this Annexure, the professional under the supervision and control of whom a candidate single residential property assessor must perform his or her work as provided for in section 19(3) of the Act, shall be a professional valuer or professional associated valuer without restrictions -

- (a) approved by the council; and
- (b) who counter-signs all property valuation reports and other documentation relating to work in the property valuers profession prepared by the candidate or for the candidate, as verification of the fact that the supervisor has exercised the supervision and control contemplated by the said section 19(3) in respect of that work.

Restrictions and conditions

7. (1) A person registered in the category of professional single residential property assessor or candidate single residential property assessor, shall be restricted to the performance of work in property valuation in respect of single residential properties.

(2) The provisions of subitem (1) shall not derogate from the council's powers under section 20(3) of the Act, in respect of any applicant applying [in terms of section 20(1) of the Act] in the category of professional single residential property assessor or candidate single residential property assessor.

Cancellation or variation of restrictions and conditions

8. A person registered in terms of this Annexure who wishes the restrictions and conditions referred to in item 7 to be cancelled or varied, must comply with all the prescribed academic qualification and practical experience requirements applicable to the registration of a candidate valuer as a professional valuer or a professional associated valuer, including any requirements determined by the Council from time to time.

Transitional provision

9. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of items 1 to 7 of this Annexure, any person -

(a) who provides proof to the council that he or she has regularly practised, for a continuous period of not less than five years immediately prior to the commencement of this item, as an estate agent as defined in section 1 of the Estate Agency Affairs Act, 1976 (Act No.112 of 1976); and

(b) who has received exemption, from a Technikon or similar academic institution offering the National Diploma in Real Estate, for the subjects referred to in item 1(1)(a);

(c) who has passed the test of practical competence, proficiency and experience referred to in item 1(b) of this Annexure; and

(d) who has, subject to subitem (2) of this item, complied with the provisions of item 2 of this Annexure; and

(e) who otherwise complies with the provisions of section 20(1) and 20(2)(a)(i) of the Act, may within a period of six months after the commencement of this Annexure, or within such a further period as the council may in a particular case allow, apply to the council, on the prescribed application form, to be registered as a professional single residential property assessor.

(2) For the purposes of item 2(b) of this Annexure, items 3, 4 and 5 of the said Annexure shall with the necessary changes apply, and for such purposes, further, an applicant for registration as a professional single residential property assessor shall be deemed -

(a) to have been registered as a candidate single residential property assessor; and

(b) to have performed the work in property valuation provided and substantiated by the applicant in his or her application form, under the supervision and control of a supervisor.

Definition

10. In this Annexure, "single residential property" means vacant single residential land, single dwellings, and individual single residential sectional title units, corresponding to the types of properties numbered 01, 03 and 05 in Annexure C [to the Rules for the Property Valuers Profession].
