DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTUREFERTILIZER, FARM FEEDS, AGRICULTURAL REMEDIES AND STOCK REMEDIES ACT, 1947
(ACT No. 36 OF 1947)*PROPOSED REGULATIONS REGARDING THE REGISTRATION OF PEST CONTROL
OPERATORS*1. Definitions

Words and phrases in these regulations shall have the meaning assigned hereto in the Act, and unless the context otherwise indicates:

"pest control operator" means a pest control operator who is registered in terms of section 3(2) (c) of the Act;

"the Act" means the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Act, 1947 (Act No 36 of 1947).

PART 1REGISTRATIONApplication for registration

2. (1) An application in terms of Section 3(1) of the Act for the registration of a pest control operator shall be submitted to the registrar on a form which is obtainable from the Registrar for the purpose or on a clearly legible facsimile thereof.

(2) Such application shall -

- (a) be made by a person who is resident in the Republic or who is in possession of a temporary permit issued to him in terms of the Immigration Act 2002 (Act No. 13 of 2002), and who complies with the requirements referred to in subregulation (3);
- (b) be accompanied by the applicable application fee, and
- (c) in the case of a pest control operator referred to in subregulation (3) (b), also be accompanied by any written proof, in the form of an affidavit, that such a person has administered agricultural remedies satisfactorily for at least two years continuously, with an indication of the pest control which were personally performed, the types of pests which were combated and the types of apparatus and agricultural remedies which were used in combating such pests;
- (d) further be accompanied by certified copies of any other documents relating to the skill of the applicant concerned in the administration of agricultural remedies and the handling of the appropriate apparatus.

(3) An application shall be made by a person who -

(a) has obtained a National Certificate accredited with the relevant South African Qualification Authority Body in one of the following subjects, namely:

- (i) aerial application - advisory or application;
- (ii) plant pests and diseases;
- (iii) weed control - agricultural or industrial;
- (iv) structural pest control;
- (v) fumigation - stored products or Marine or soil or structures or furniture
- (vi) wood preservation
- (vii) rodent control; or
- (viii) any other relevant specialisation

(b) in the course of a business in the presence and under the supervision of a registered pest control operator, has administered agricultural remedies continuously for at least two years,

(c) is at least 18 years of age, unless agreed otherwise in writing by the Registrar

Period of registration

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 4, a registration in terms of section 3 of the Act shall in the case of a pest control operator, be valid until 30 June in each year. Provided that if a registration is granted within three months prior to 30 June, it shall be valid until 30 June in the following calendar year.

(2) If the Registrar deems it in the public interest, determine that the registration shall be valid for a shorter period indicated on the certificate of registration concerned.

(3) the holder of the pest control operator certificate shall perform only those uses that the certificate authorises the holder to perform and no other uses.

Renewal of registration

4. (1) An application in terms of section 3(4) (a) of the Act for the renewal of the registration of a pest control operator shall be submitted to the registrar on a form which is obtainable from the Registrar for the purpose or on a clearly legible facsimile thereof.

(2) Such application shall -

(a) be made by a person who possesses a certificate of registration in terms of subregulation 2.

(b) be submitted to the Registrar not later than 14 days prior to the expiry date of the registration concerned but not more than three months prior to such expiry date;

(c) be accompanied by -

- (i) the certificate of registration concerned as issued by the Registrar;

- (ii) the applicable application fee
- (3) An application made in terms of subregulation 4(1) which -
 - (a) is received by the Registrar after 30 June, but not more than 30 days after such expiry date, shall be considered only if it is addition to the applicable application fee referred to in subregulation (2)(c)(ii), also be accompanied by the applicable additional late application fee or
 - (b) which is received by the Registrar after the days of grace referred to in paragraph (a) expired, shall not be considered and an application for the registration of a pest control operator concerned may be made anew in terms of regulation 2: Provided the fact that such pest control operator registered previously, shall not necessarily imply that it will again be acceptable for registration.

Return of certificate of registration

5. A certificate of registration which is returned in terms of section 4A (3) of the Act shall reach the Registrar within 14 days of the date on which -

- (a) the Registrar notified the holder in writing given personally or by post of a suspension or cancellation of the certificate in terms of section 5 of the Act if satisfied that -
 - (i) the holder made a false statement or furnished false information in applying for certificate; or
 - (ii) the holder has been found guilty of an offence against the Act or these regulations or any law relating to pesticides; or
 - (iii) the holder is for any other reason no longer fit and proper to hold a licence.
- (b) the registration of a pest control operator concerned has lapsed in terms of section 4A (2a) or (2B) of the Act, as the case may be.

PART II

APPEALS

Submission of appeals

6. (1) An appeal in terms of section 6 of the Act shall be submitted to the Director-General: Agriculture within 60 days of date of which the reasons for the decision against which is appealed, were furnished in terms of section 5 of the Act.

- (2) Such appeal shall -
 - (a) be in the form of a written statement which is sworn to;
 - (b) state the reference number and date of the document by means of which such applicant or person was given notice of that decision.
 - (c) state the grounds on which the appeal is based;

- (d) be accompanied by the documents relating to the subject of the appeal and;
- (e) be accompanied by the applicable application fee.

(3) If such appeal is submitted by a person other than the person in respect of whom the decision concerned was furnished, the appeal concerned shall be accompanied by a statement in which the person concerned discloses his/her interest in that decision or action.

(4) The amount referred to in subregulation (2) (e) shall be paid by cheque, postal order or money order made out in favour of the Director-General: Agriculture: Provided that if the appeal concerned is delivered by hand, such amount may be paid in cash.

Address for submission of appeals

7. An appeal referred to in regulation 6(1) shall -

- (a) when forwarded by post, be addressed to the Director-General, Department of Agriculture, Private Bag x343, Pretoria 0001; and
- (b) when delivered by hand, be delivered to the Director-General, Department of Agriculture, Agriculture Place, Beatrix Street, Pretoria.

PART III

PEST CONTROL OPERATORS

Skill

8. (1) A pest control operator shall be skilled in -

- (a) the use and calibration of the apparatus used for the application of a particular agricultural remedy;
- (b) the calculation and measurement of the applicable dosages;
- (c) safety precautions and first aid relating to the use of a particular agricultural remedy; and
- (d) the handling of poisonous chemicals.

(2) The registrar may request a pest control operator to do a test in the use of agricultural remedies at the time and place which he/she may determine in order to ascertain whether such pest control operator has the skill as contemplated in subregulation (1) and whether knowledge of the applicable provisions of the Act and of the applicable codes of premise for the use of agricultural remedies, as compiled by the South African Bureau of Standards, is of such a standard that it would be in the public interest that applicant be registered.

Records to be kept

9. (1) A registered pest control operator or business which instructs a pest control operator to administer an agricultural remedy shall in respect of each separate administration of an agricultural remedy, keep comprehensive records of -

- (a) the name and address of the owner or person in charge of the place where agricultural remedy was administered;

- (b) the place where such administration was performed, description and identification of such place;
- (c) the size, expressed in cubic metres, square metres or hectares, as the case may be, of such a place;
- (d) trade name of agricultural remedy used with "L" registration number;
- (e) the purpose for which such place was treated and, if applicable, the crop grown thereon or the commodity kept therein at the time of the administration concerned;
- (f) the approximate extent to which the place, crop or commodity was infected with the pest concerned at the time of the administration concerned;
- (g) the date and time on which the administration concerned commenced;
- (h) the quantity of agricultural remedy which was used and, if applicable, the rate of dilution in the final mixture which was administered;
- (i) the type of apparatus used for the administration concerned;
- (j) the particulars of which the owner or person referred to in paragraph (a) was notified in terms of section 10(1) of the Act: Provided that a copy of the written notice referred to in section 10(2) of the Act may be attached to the particulars to be recorded in terms of this subregulation; and
- (k) if applicable -
 - (i) any spillage of the agricultural remedy concerned which occurred during the administration concerned;
 - (ii) any case of poisoning of a person or animal resulting from the administration concerned; and
 - (iii) any complaint received in connection with the administration concerned.

(2) The documents in which the particulars referred to in subregulation (1) are recorded, shall be preserved at the address of the registered pest control operator or business referred to in subregulation (1) concerned, or at such other place as may on application be approved by the registrar, for at least two years after the day on which the administration concerned was made: Provided that if a complaint was received in connection with such administration, the records in respect thereof shall not be destroyed within two years after the date of such complaint.

PART IV

GENERAL

Offences and penalties

10. Any person who refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Payment of fees

11. (1) The postage on and delivery costs of any application or document submitted in terms of these regulations, as well as on or of anything else pertaining thereto, shall be paid by the consigner.

(2) Any fee payable in terms of these regulations shall be paid by means of a cheque, postal order or money order made out in favour of the Director-General: Agriculture: Provided that if such fee is delivered by hand, it may be paid in cash.

(3) Fees which are paid in terms of these regulations shall subject to section 6 of the Act, not be refundable.

Address for submission of documents

12. Any application or document or anything else pertaining thereto, which is required in terms of these regulations to be submitted to the Registrar shall -

(a) when forwarded by post, be addressed to;

The Registrar: Act No. 36 of 1947, Private Bag X343, Pretoria, 0001.

CHAPTER 1 INTERPRETATION

1. Definitions In these regulations the definitions have the same meaning as in the Disaster Management Act, 2002 (Act No. 57 of 2002), unless the context indicates otherwise-

“the Act” means the Disaster Management Act, 2002 (Act No. 57 of 2002);

“district municipality” means a municipality that has municipal executive and legislative authority in an area that includes more than one municipality and which is described in section 155(1) of the Constitution as a category C municipality;

“emblem” means a distinctive badge that depicts the corporate identity of disaster management;

“essential goods and services” means those products; items; expertise or manufacturers; that are considered of importance or are indispensable when responding to a disaster;

“hazard” means threats to life, well being, material goods or the environment;

“head of the centre” means the person appointed in terms of either section 10 (national level) section 31 (provincial level); or section 45 (municipal level) of the Act;

“metropolitan municipality” means a municipality that has exclusive executive and legislative authority in its area and which is described in section 155(1) of the Constitution as a category A municipality;

“misconduct” means behaviour that is not conforming to prevailing standards;

“municipality” means a local municipality within a district municipality; a district municipality or a metropolitan municipality, as applicable to the relevant municipality;

“municipal disaster management centre” means a facility created at district municipal level to ensure that the requirements of the Act can be implemented and monitored;

“ownership” means an agreement by a role player to identified primary roles in the event of a disaster occurring;

“primary role” means that function for which a specific identified role player is best equipped and qualified to perform;

“role player” means an individual or group in society that can contribute meaningfully to the implementation of disaster management;

“secondary role” means an additional function that is performed by an identified role player in support of a primary role player;

“service” or “service provider” means a municipal cluster, department or division within a municipality that has agreed to accommodate volunteers;

“specialist personal equipment” means any privately owned equipment that is used to prevent or limit a disaster and includes two way radios, rescue equipment and off road vehicles;

“volunteer” means a person who performs or gives his services of his or her free will or a person who renders aid, performs a service or assumes an obligation voluntary, without any guarantee of (financial) reward;

“volunteer unit” means a unit established for volunteers in terms of chapter 7 of the Act;

“vulnerability assessment” means determining the degree to which an individual, family, community or region is at risk of experiencing misfortune following extreme events.

CHAPTER 2

ESTABLISHMENT OF A VOLUNTEER UNIT

2. Establishment of a disaster management volunteer unit (1) A metropolitan or district municipality that has decided on establishing a disaster management volunteer unit must ensure that the following has been considered:

- (a) That a needs analysis has been undertaken, involving identified role players, namely municipal departments, relevant non governmental organisations and relevant ward and community structures; in order to determine the size, categories and purpose of the unit, subject to regulation 4 of these regulations.
- (b) That the needs analysis referred to in sub-regulation (a) be annually re-assessed. Should the re-assessment indicate a need to reduce the number of volunteers, such reductions will only take place when a volunteer requests a transfer in terms of regulation 17, or membership is terminated in terms of regulation 18 of these regulations.

(2) The members of the unit shall be persons who have been appointed by the head of the centre of the metropolitan or district municipality after agreement has been reached with the relevant role players, referred to in sub-regulation 2 (1) (a), and who have complied with the requirements of regulation 3 of these regulations.

3. Membership (1) A person shall be appointed as a member:

- a) if that person-
 - i) applies on the form prescribed in annexure A;
 - ii) resides within the area of jurisdiction of the relevant municipality;
 - iii) is of good character and is physically and mentally capable of rendering service;
 - iv) has reached the age of 16 years;
 - v) has agreed on the said form to render a service and to undergo training in connection with the service;
 - vi) has submitted a health questionnaire in accordance with annexure B in respect of the general state of his or her health to the head of the centre; and
 - vii) has been accepted by the relevant service or group to which the volunteer wishes to be allocated.

- b) A person shall not be appointed as a member if such person is found not suitable during any probation period.

(2) (a) An employee of a municipality who; by reason of the conditions of service and in the course of the exercise of normal duties, performs any work in connection with any matter contemplated in the Act or any specific task related to regulations promulgated in terms of the Act, shall be deemed to have been appointed as a member in terms of these regulations;

(b) The provisions of these regulations shall mutatis mutandis apply to the employee referred to in sub regulation (2)(a), provided that such an employee will not be placed under the control of a volunteer.

4. Nature of volunteer service that a person may apply for (1) Any person that complies with regulation 3 can apply to be appointed as a volunteer in the following categories if the category has been created by the relevant municipality-

- (a) fire fighting;
- (b) fire safety or prevention;
- (c) first aid;
- (d) social welfare including, where necessary sub-categories for emergency housing and feeding; counselling of the bereaved and assisting with stress relief, caring for the very young and elderly;
- (e) assisting with community and environmental health;
- (f) specialist groups such as four wheel drive clubs; mountain rescue; sea rescue and radio amateurs;
- (g) assisting in the staffing of the disaster management centre;
- (h) hospital assistance, including casualty, pharmaceutical, intensive care, medical / labour / recovery wards;
- (i) general medical assistance and planning, such as doctors, specialists and nursing;
- (j) technical related services including: water supply, electricity supply, roads and bridge construction, waste water and solid waste services and emergency vehicle and equipment repairs;
- (k) transport;
- (l) traffic control;
- (m) membership of special rural volunteer teams that have to be established due to extensive time delays that may occur as a result of distances that may have to be covered by other services; and
- (n) any other category of membership that a metropolitan or district municipality may decide upon as being necessary as a result of a needs analysis referred to in regulation 2 (1).

5. Records to be kept and processed by the relevant disaster management centre (1) The head of the centre shall keep a register, in which the following particulars in respect of any person appointed a member in terms of regulation 3, shall be recorded:

- (a) full name, surname and identity number;
- (b) gender;
- (c) age;
- (d) full residential address and telephone number;
- (e) cellular telephone number and e-mail address, if applicable;
- (f) profession;
- (g) full business address and telephone number;
- (h) nature of service to which the volunteer has been committed in terms of regulation 3;
- (i) date of appointment; and
- (j) such other particulars as the head of the centre may deem expedient.

(2) When a volunteer is appointed, the head of the centre shall issue the following to the volunteer-

- (a) an identity card in the form prescribed in annexure C; and
- (b) any applicable protective clothing as detailed in annexure D.

(3) Whenever a volunteer changes address the volunteer shall without delay inform the head of the centre thereof and at the same time furnish full details of the new address.

(4) When a volunteer ceases, in terms of regulation 17, to be a volunteer, the volunteer shall without delay return to the head of the centre the identity card and any protective clothing issued in terms of sub-regulation (2).

(5) The records reflected in regulation 5 (1) (a) to (i) must be forwarded to the National Centre within 21 days of the member's acceptance as a volunteer, in terms of section 58 (3) (b) of the Act.

(6) The records reflected in regulation 5 (1) (a) to (i) must also be forwarded to the relevant service or group that the volunteer has been allocated in terms of sub-regulation 2 (1) (a).

6. National corporate identity for South Africa and volunteers (1) The main emblem will comprise of a blue triangle within a red circle, in accordance with the registration of heraldic representations, published in Government Gazette number 26663, dated 20 August 2004-

- (a) the triangle sides must be of equal dimensions and may not touch the edges of the circle;
- (b) the triangle has as its outer borders a white edge to separate it from the red circle;
- (c) the blue and red colours to be used must be the same colour shade as reflected in the South African National Flag; and

- (d) the main emblem will have lettering around the circle, with the top half reflecting "disaster management" and the bottom half that shall be utilised to reflect "South Africa" or a province in South Africa or a municipality within a province, as reflected in annexure E of these regulations.
- (2) The National Flag may be incorporated on a suitable protective head gear or as a shoulder flash or on an armband, next to the corporate emblem as reflected in annexure F.
- (3) The National Flag may be replaced by the emblem of a specific jurisdiction.
- (4) The emblem on its own or incorporating the South African National Flag or jurisdiction logo can be displayed at entrances to disaster management centres and offices.
- (5) The emblem on its own or incorporating the South African National Flag or jurisdiction logo may also be affixed to vehicles and equipment utilised for disaster management purposes.
- (6) The maximum dimensions of the emblem for use on suitable protective headgear, as shoulder flash, or reflected on an armband are as shown in schedules E and F of these regulations.
- (7) When the emblem is used to reflect the location of disaster management centres or offices, or is affixed to a vehicle or equipment used for disaster management purposes, the maximum dimensions as reflected in sub-regulation (6) will not apply.
- (8) Any dimension changes for the purpose of sub-regulation (7) must be in the same proportion as reflected in annexure E and F of these regulations.

7. Training of volunteers (1) The head of the centre may as it deems fit, in writing direct a volunteer to undergo training in connection with the service for which the volunteer has been accepted.

- (2) Such training-
 - (a) shall take place at the expense, if any, of the municipality;
 - (b) shall be given by the person or at an establishment and at the time and place determined by the head of the centre, providing that the service provider has been registered through a Sector Education and Training Authority;
 - (c) shall be in compliance with the requirements of the South African Qualifications Authority Act, No. 58 of 1995;
 - (d) shall further be in compliance with the guidelines as prescribed in the National Qualifications Framework; and
 - (e) shall be for a total period not exceeding 120 hours per year, unless the volunteer agrees to undergo training for a longer period.

(3) If a municipality (hereafter named the first municipality) maintains or controls an institution which has been approved in terms of regulation 8 (1) of the regulations as an institution for training the first municipality may undertake the training of volunteers of another municipality (hereafter named the second municipality) on such conditions as may be mutually agreed by the first and second municipalities, and the second municipality shall pay any reasonable travel and subsistence allowances of members and such other costs as may directly arise from such training.

(4) The head of the centre shall keep a record of all volunteers that have in terms of sub regulation (1), been directed to undergo training and who have actually undergone training. These records must reflect-

- (a) full name, surname and identity number of the volunteer;
- (b) volunteer membership number;
- (c) course name;
- (d) course dates;
- (e) training institution;
- (f) certificate issued, date and number; and
- (g) expiry date of certificate (if any).

(5) A volunteer who, without adequate reason the burden of proof for which shall rest on the volunteer refuses, neglects or fails to report for training after having been directed to do so, in terms of sub regulation (1), may summarily forfeit volunteer membership, as prescribed in regulation 10 (4) and 18.

8. Training institutions and training provided (1) No training institution shall be used unless that institution is registered through an appropriate SETA.

- (2) No course materials shall be used that is not accredited.
- (3) All training provided must be conducted by qualified and accredited instructors.

9. Duty of employer of a volunteer undergoing training or rendering a service (1) If a volunteer contemplated in regulation 3 is called upon to undergo training in terms of regulation 7, or to render a service in terms of regulation 10, the employer shall grant such leave as may be necessary to undergo such training or to render such service.

- (2) Any employer shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment of a maximum period of six months or a fine not exceeding R3000-00, or both, if such employer-
 - (a) fails to comply with the provisions of sub-regulation (1);
 - (b) dismisses any employee that is a disaster management volunteer from its service;
 - (c) reduces the salary or other remuneration of such a volunteer;
 - (d) alters the position of employment to the volunteer's disadvantage;
 - (e) penalises the volunteer in any other way on account of undergoing training or rendering of service contemplated in sub-regulation (1); or

- (f) attempts to persuade an employee to evade training or service or not to undergo or render such training or service, as the case may be, unless the employer can submit proof that the employee cannot be released due to business commitments at the time.

10. Rendering of service (1) A volunteer is under the authority and discipline of the allocated service or organisation as agreed to by the head of the centre.

(2) A volunteer shall be obliged to report for service, perform the service to which the volunteer has been bound in terms of these regulations and to carry out all lawful commands which may be given in connection with such service when called upon to render service during a locally declared state of disaster or local disaster.

(3) When a volunteer performs the service contemplated in sub-regulation (1) the volunteer shall:

- (a) wear any protective clothing issued in terms of regulation 12;
- (b) carry the identity card referred to in regulation 5 (2) on its person; and
- (c) produce such identity card to any person requesting this.

(4) The relevant service to which a volunteer has been allocated as delegated by the head of the centre shall keep a register, in the form deemed expedient, in which shall be recorded the names of all members called up in terms of sub-regulation (1) to perform service, the nature of such service and the duration thereof.

(5) A volunteer who, without adequate reason refuses, neglects or fails to report for service after having been instructed to do so, in terms of sub-regulation (1), shall cease to be a volunteer.

11. Head of the centre may allow certain other persons to voluntarily render service (1) In the event of a declared local disaster or local disaster within the area of jurisdiction of a municipality the head of the centre may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these regulations, allow any person who:

- (a) is temporarily in the area of jurisdiction of the municipality; and
- (b) is a member of another disaster management volunteer unit, to voluntarily render a service, and during that period, shall be deemed to be a member of the unit of the municipality concerned.

12. Protective clothing (1) Suitable protective clothing must be readily available for use by volunteers when-

- (a) attending training sessions; or
- (b) when called upon to render a service.

(2) Protective clothing may be permanently issued to individual volunteers, at the discretion of the municipality..

(3) Protective clothing must be replaced free of charge to the volunteer, if normal wear and tear makes issued items no longer serviceable.

(4) Recommended protective clothing is listed in annexure D.

(3) All protective clothing issued remains the property of the issuing authority.

13. Equipment issued to volunteers (1) Basic equipment may have to be issued to some volunteers when this is deemed necessary and such issues will remain the property of the issuing authority.

(2) Issue of basic equipment may include the following-

(a) fire extinguishers;

(b) fire beaters;

(c) basic first aid equipment; or

(d) two way radio equipment.

(3) Any equipment issued to volunteers should also be able to cater for groups or teams of volunteers who have been established in high risk or remote rural areas, where speedy response time by professional services is not possible due to distances, accessibility or terrain to be covered, or any combination of the three examples given.

(4) Equipment issued must be checked by the issuing authority at least 6 monthly, for serviceability and possible replenishment.

14. Emblem to be worn by volunteers (1) The emblem to be worn by volunteers must be in compliance with regulation 6 on national corporate identity for disaster management in South Africa and volunteers.

(2) The emblem must be reflected on the identity document referred to in annexure C of these regulations.

(3) Any head gear or hard hat issued to a volunteer must also reflect the emblem in the middle of the front thereof.

(4) An armband or hanging shoulder flash reflecting the emblem as described in the regulation 6 must be issued to each volunteer and must be worn when reporting for training or duty.

15. Command structure of volunteers and responsibilities (1) When a volunteer unit is established a command structure must be instituted to help with the implementation of control measures.

(2) When a command structure for an established volunteer unit is implemented the following shall apply-

- (a) For every component of volunteers established a leader must be appointed; and
- (b) Should a component's size be such that effective management becomes difficult, teams must be established within that component and team leaders must be appointed in each case.

(3) Various leader responsibilities must include the following minimum aspects; but may be extended upon, depending on circumstances and by mutual agreement between the volunteer leader and the relevant municipality-

- (a) maintaining up to date contact details of volunteers;
- (b) knowing when volunteers are not available due to illness, leave or for other extended periods in excess of 3 working days;
- (c) follow up on queries raised by volunteers;
- (d) monitoring of training levels and the need for additional training, where applicable;
- (e) periodically checking on any protective clothing issued to volunteers, to determine serviceability;
- (f) periodically checking on any equipment issued to volunteers, to determine serviceability and availability;
- (g) monitoring of discipline and levels of participation by volunteers;
- (h) acting as liaison officer between volunteers and the relevant service providers on matters needing attention, including measures on possible disciplinary actions;
- (i) call out of volunteers during disaster situations, in conjunction with the relevant service provider; and
- (j) any other matter as agreed upon or requested.

16. Defraying of expenses incurred (1) Any volunteer shall be entitled to claim for expenditure incurred to report for training and duty.

(2) The subsistence and travelling rate applicable to post level 12 in the public service or equivalent, as amended by the National Treasury, shall apply for such claims.

(3) Provision for refunding expenses must be provided for in the municipal budget of the municipality that has recruited volunteers, in compliance with section 44 (1) (g) of the Act, which places a compulsion on municipal disaster management centres to promote recruitment, training and participation of volunteers.

17. Transfer of volunteers (1) Any volunteer may request to be transferred if:

- (a) The volunteer becomes a resident of another municipality.
- (b) The volunteer wishes to become active in another field of activity provided for within the relevant municipalities' disaster management organisation.

(2) When a transfer in terms of sub regulation (1) (a) occurs, the following must be undertaken by the head of the disaster management centre of the municipality releasing the volunteer:

- (a) Forwarding of the volunteers records, including application form, medical questionnaire and training information to the new municipality;
- (b) Notification of the national disaster management centre via the relevant provincial disaster management centre of the release of the volunteer and the new municipality to whom the volunteer has indicated he / she wishes to be transferred to, within 21 days of this occurring; and
- (c) Notification of the relevant service providers or non-governmental organisation of such an outgoing transfer.

(3) When a transfer in terms of sub regulation (1) (b) occurs, the following must be undertaken by the head of the disaster management centre:

- (a) Notifying the leaving services or non governmental organisation of such a transfer;
- (b) Verifying the acceptance of the volunteer by the new service or non governmental organisation; and
- (c) Notifying the national disaster management centre via the provincial disaster management centre of the new details of the volunteer within 21 days of this occurring.

18. Termination of membership (1) A volunteer shall cease to be a volunteer:

- (a) when the appointment is summarily terminated by the head of the centre on account of
 - i) inability to render a service satisfactorily; or

- ii) conduct which, in terms of conditions of service applicable to employees, would be construed as misconduct and as such could not be ignored in the case of a volunteer;
- (b) seven days from the date on which either the head of the centre or the volunteer gave written notice of the termination of such appointment to the volunteer or the head of the centre, as the case may be; or
- (c) from the date on which the volunteer ceased to reside in the area of jurisdiction of the municipality.

19. Insurance cover for volunteers and volunteer specialist equipment (1) Each municipality must make provision for a basic personal insurance cover for volunteers recruited by that municipality,

(2) In the case of a local municipality, the district will have to provide the insurance cover referred to in sub-regulation (1) in consultation with the local municipalities within its area of jurisdiction.

(3) The basic personal insurance cover to be provided for, may not exceed the existing provisions as reflected in the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act, 1993 (Act No. 130 of 1993) as amended and should provide for injuries, disablement and death, as reflected in that Act.

(4) Municipalities who wish to provide additional insurance cover for their enlisted volunteers, should this be deemed necessary in the event of injury, disablement or death; must in the first instance obtain permission from the National Disaster Management Centre, before providing such additional cover.

(5) Any claims must be lodged with the municipality where the volunteer was accepted, within the time frames specified in terms of the personal insurance cover taken out; after the injury, disablement, or death of the volunteer.

(6) A volunteer claiming for injuries could be required to go for a medical examination at a time and place mentioned in a notice to the volunteer and the examination will be at the expense of the municipality issuing that notice.

(7) Objections and appeals against decisions must be submitted to the municipality where the volunteer is registered, within time frames set by the municipality, after such a decision has been taken.

(8) In the event that the accident is attributed to serious and wilful misconduct by the volunteer, the municipality need not proceed to process claims for compensation, unless:

- (a) the accident resulted in serious disablement; or

(b) the volunteer dies in consequence thereof leaving a dependant wholly financially dependant on the volunteer.

(9) Any insurance cover taken out by a municipality must clearly specify the procedures to be followed in the event of a claim being submitted, in particular with regard to sub-regulations (5); (6); (7) and (8).

(10) Each municipality that has an enlisted volunteers for the purpose of being able to call upon such volunteers' specialist personal equipment in the event of a disaster or authorised training exercise, must provide insurance cover for such equipment used in the event of damage or destruction, that is not attributed to negligence or negligent usage of such equipment.

(11) Every insurance policy, must provide cover for volunteers and the use of volunteer authorised or requested specialist equipment, during planned exercises, training and when called upon to render a service in the event of a disaster.

CHAPTER 3

DISASTER MANAGEMENT PLAN

20. Essential records to be kept on prevention and mitigation initiatives (1) Every disaster management centre established in terms of sections 29 and 43 of the Act must maintain records on hazards and vulnerability assessments undertaken for its area of jurisdiction.

(2) The minimum information that must be kept on record in compliance with sub-regulation (1) for each identified hazard, is the following -

- (a) description of hazard;
- (b) area and communities that could be affected by hazard;
- (c) date hazard assessment was undertaken;
- (d) who undertook the hazard assessment; and
- (e) priority that should be given to addressing the hazard and reasons for the priority.

(3) For each identified hazard and vulnerability assessment undertaken, projects and plans must be identified that if implemented could prevent the disaster from occurring, or mitigate the consequences, should a disaster occur.

(4) Identified role players at provincial, municipal and community levels and where applicable, non governmental organisations and commerce and industry must be part of the process to formulate possible projects and plans that could be implemented.

(5) Every disaster management centre established in terms of sections 29 and 43 of the Act must further have ready access to the following information relevant to identified prevention and mitigation projects and plans -

- (a) type of prevention or mitigation or plan;
 - (b) what hazard and vulnerable area would be addressed;
 - (c) what should be achieved if implemented;
 - (d) what the estimated cost implication would be;
 - (e) which communities would benefit;
 - (f) who were the role-players that participated in determining the project or plan;
 - (g) which service would co-ordinate the implementation, should the project or plan be proceeded with;
 - (h) estimated time frame to complete project or plan; and
 - (i) proposed checks and balances at various phases of the project or plan, to enable effective monitoring during its implementation.
- (6) Once a prevention or mitigation plan identified in sub-regulation (5) has been initiated, the following data must be available -
- (a) project or plan name;
 - (b) date commenced;
 - (c) date completed;
 - (d) which service co-ordinated the process;
 - (e) costs incurred to complete project or plan; and
 - (f) any problems encountered during its implementation.

21. Essential records to be kept on development projects (1) Before a development project is implemented by the relevant developer, a copy of a hazard and risk assessment that was undertaken for the development project envisages, must be forwarded to the disaster management centre at national level if this project will impact nationally, or to the relevant provincial or municipal disaster management centre, if it is to only impact on a provincial or municipal level.

(2) When a development project has been commenced with, details on the project must be forwarded to the relevant disaster management centre referred to in sub-regulation (1). These details must contain the following information:

- (a) development project name;
- (b) organisation and person in charge of the project, with contact details;
- (c) date project commenced;
- (d) estimated date of completion;
- (e) any changes to the project during its implementation;
- (f) reasons why changes in the project had to be undertaken;
- (g) date project was completed;

22. Procurement of essential goods and services (1) In order to ensure a standardised approach that will allow for ready access to information on essential goods and services referred to in sub-sections 39 (2) (k) (iii) and 53 (2) (k) (iii) of the Act, the following information must be recorded and be updated from time to time -

- (a) name of essential supplier; manufacturer or service provider;
- (b) street address;
- (c) telephone and fax numbers;
- (d) postal and electronic addresses;
- (e) details of main contact person, reflecting name, position, telephone numbers of home and work, cellular phone number, fax number and electronic address;
- (f) details of an alternative contact person, reflecting the same information as in sub-regulation 22 (1) (f);
- (g) type of manufactured goods, supplies, service;
- (h) any special conditions that may apply to procure manufactured goods, essential goods and services; and
- (i) when last updated.

23. Response planning for identified hazards (1) Each disaster management centre must submit response plans to the national disaster management centre in the event of a disaster occurring as a result of an identified hazard within an area of jurisdiction, in accordance with sections 38 and 39 of the Act for provinces and sections 52 and 53 of the Act for municipalities.

(2) Response plans referred to in sub-regulation (1) must reflect that the following has been attended to for each scenario—

- (a) the identification of all possible tasks that may have to be performed;
- (b) the identification of all role players that may have to perform tasks;
- (c) determining of who are the primary role players and who could be in supporting roles;
- (d) the determination of what each primary role player would require to be able to fulfil its primary role, if called upon;
- (e) that role players have accepted ownership of their identified primary and possible secondary roles; and
- (j) checklists are drawn up as reminders of identified tasks that may have to be performed.
