ACT

To deal effectively with the plight of older persons by establishing a framework aimed at the empowerment and protection of older persons and at the promotion and maintenance of their status, rights, well-being, safety and security; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Constitution establishes a society based on democratic values, social justice and fundamental human rights and seeks to improve the quality of life of all citizens and to free the potential of each person;

AND WHEREAS, in terms of the Bill of Rights as set out in the Constitution, everyone has inherent dignity and the right to have their dignity respected and protected;

AND WHEREAS the State must create an enabling environment in which the rights in the Bill of Rights must be respected, protected and fulfilled;

AND WHEREAS it is necessary to effect changes to existing laws relating to older persons in order to facilitate accessible, equitable and affordable services to older persons and to empower older persons to continue to live meaningfully and constructively in a society that recognises them as important sources of knowledge, wisdom and expertise,

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa,

CHAPTER 1OBJECTS, IMPLEMENTATION, APPLICATION AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES*Objects of Act

- 2. The objects of the Act are to—5
- (a) maintain and promote the status, well-being, safety and security of older persons;
 - (b) maintain and protect the rights of older persons;
 - (c) shift the emphasis from institutional care to community-based care in order to ensure that an older person remains in his or her home within the community for as long as possible;10
 - (d) regulate the registration, establishment and management of services and the establishment and management of residential facilities for older persons; and
 - (e) combat the abuse of older persons.

Implementation of Act

3. (1) Subject to this Act allocating roles and responsibilities, the Act must be implemented by all organs of state rendering services to older persons in the national, provincial and, where applicable, local sphere of government in an integrated, co-ordinated and uniform manner.

(2) Recognising that competing social and economic needs exist, such organs of state must take reasonable measures to the maximum extent of their available resources to achieve the realisation of the objects of this Act.20

(3) To achieve the implementation of this Act in the manner contemplated in subsections (1) and (2), all organs of state must co-operate in the development of a uniform approach aimed at co-ordinating and integrating the services delivered to older persons.25

Application of Act

4. (1) The rights that an older person has in terms of this Act supplement the rights that an older person has in terms of the Bill of Rights.

(2) All organs of state and all officials, employees and representatives of organs of state must respect, protect and promote the rights of older persons contained in this Act.30

(3) This Act binds both natural or juristic persons to the extent that it is applicable, taking into account the nature of the right and the nature of any duty imposed by the right.

General principles

35

- 5. (1) The general principles set out in this section guide—

- (a) the implementation of all legislation applicable to older persons, including this Act; and
- (b) all proceedings, actions and decisions by any organ of state in any matter concerning an older person or older persons in general.40

(2) All proceedings, actions or decisions in a matter concerning an older person must—

- (a) respect, protect, promote and fulfil the older person's rights, the best interests of the older person and the rights and principles set out in this Act, subject to any lawful limitation;45
- (b) respect the older person's inherent dignity;
- (c) treat the older person fairly and equitably; and
- (d) protect the older person from unfair discrimination on any ground, including on the grounds of the health status or disability of the older person.

CREATING AN ENABLING AND SUPPORTIVE ENVIRONMENT FOR OLDER PERSONS

Development of and compliance with national norms and standards

6. (1) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe national norms and standards in order to define the acceptable levels of services that may be provided to older persons and in terms of which services must be monitored and evaluated. 10

(2) Any person who provides a service to an older person must comply with the norms and standards contemplated in subsection (1).

Rights of older persons

7. Older persons enjoy the rights contemplated in section 9 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa and in particular may not be unfairly denied the right to—

- (a) participate in community life in any position appropriate to his or her interests and capabilities;
- (b) participate in inter-generational programmes;
- (c) establish and participate in structures and associations for older persons;
- (d) participate in activities that enhance his or her income-generating capacity;
- (e) live in an environment catering for his or her changing capacities; and
- (f) access opportunities that promote his or her optimal level of social, physical, mental and emotional well being. 25

Support for services delivered by third parties

8. (1) The Minister—

- (a) may, in consultation with the Minister of Finance, provide financial awards to service providers that provide social services to older persons from funds appropriated by Parliament for that purpose; 30
- (b) may for the purposes of paragraph (a) prioritise needs and services for older persons;
- (c) may in the prescribed manner enter into contracts with service providers to ensure that the services contemplated in paragraph (b) are provided;
- (d) must prescribe conditions for the receiving of financial awards, including accounting measures, compliance measures and norms and standards; and 35
- (e) must prescribe remedies for failure to comply with the prescribed conditions contemplated in paragraph (d).

(2) The Minister must open and maintain a register of all assets bought with Government funds and prescribe conditions for the management of such assets. 40

Guiding principles for provision of services

9. Any service must be provided in an environment that—

- (a) recognises the social, cultural and economic contribution of older persons;
- (b) promotes participation of older persons in decision-making processes at all levels;
- (c) recognises the multi-dimensional needs of older persons and therefore promotes inter-sectoral collaboration; 45

Act No. 13, 2006OLDER PERSONS ACT, 2006

- (b) subject to such conditions as he or she may determine, grant authority to the applicant to operate the residential facility for such period, not exceeding 12 months, as the Minister may determine, and direct that a temporary registration certificate specifying those conditions be issued to the applicant in the prescribed form for that period, and after expiration of the said period, or after notice by the applicant in the prescribed manner that the said conditions have been complied with, whichever occurs first, reconsider the application.
- (4) Temporary registration contemplated in subsection (3)(b) may not be extended for more than 12 months under the same conditions.
- (5) The Minister may at any time after one month's notice of his or her intention to do so, and after consideration of any representations received by him or her during such month, amend or cancel a registration certificate issued in terms of subsection (3)(a). 10
- (6) (a) The amendment or cancellation of such registration certificate must be effected by notice to the holder thereof, and takes effect on a date specified in the notice.
- (b) The date specified in the notice may not be earlier than three months for permanent registration and one month for temporary registration after the date of the notice, unless the Minister and the holder of the registration certificate have agreed otherwise. 15
- (7) A person to whom a registration certificate has been issued in terms of subsection (3) may not transfer it to any other person.
- (8) If the registration of a residential facility has been cancelled in terms of subsection (5), or if the operator of a residential facility wishes to close down such facility for any reason, he or she must take reasonable steps to ensure that on the closing down of such facility the older persons concerned are accommodated in another registered residential facility or with persons who, in the opinion of a social worker, are fit and proper persons for accommodating the older person or older persons. 20
- (9) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this section, or of a condition imposed thereunder, is guilty of an offence.
- Compliance with conditions for registration of residential facilities
19. (1) If there is reason to believe that any of the conditions contemplated in section 18(3) have not been complied with, the Minister may order specific measures to be adopted to facilitate compliance with those conditions. 30
- (2) The operator of a registered residential facility must, at all reasonable times, report to the Minister any circumstances which may result in his or her inability to comply fully with any condition contemplated in section 18(3).
- (3) If the registration of a residential facility has been cancelled in terms of section 18(5), or if the operator of a residential facility wishes to close down that residential facility, the operator must— 35
- (a) prior to any decision to close down that residential facility, consult with the Minister on the matter;
 - (b) furnish the Minister with a full report on the accommodation of the older persons concerned required in terms of section 18(7); and 40
 - (c) hand over to the Department all assets bought with Government funds.
- (4) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (3) is guilty of an offence.

Admission to residential facilities

21. (1) No person may unfairly discriminate directly or indirectly against an older person applying for admission to a residential facility on one or more grounds referred 30 to in section 9(3) of the Constitution.

(2) If a person is refused admission to a residential facility, the manager of that residential facility must, on the request of that person, give reasons in writing for such refusal to the person.

(3) (a) An older person may not be admitted to a residential facility without his or her consent, unless his or her mental condition renders him or her incapable of giving such consent, in which case a person authorised to give such consent in terms of any law or in terms of a court order may give the required consent. 35

(b) In the absence of a person contemplated in—

- (i) paragraph (a), the required consent may be given by the spouse or partner of the older person concerned or, in the absence of such spouse or partner, an adult child or sibling of the older person, in the specific order as listed; or
- (ii) paragraph (a) or subparagraph (i), the required consent may be given by the Minister.

(c) The consent contemplated in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii) may only be given after a 45 medical practitioner registered in terms of the Health Professions Act, 1974 (Act No. 56 of 1974), has certified that any delay in the admission of the older person might result in his or her death or irreversible damage to his or her health.

(4) The operator of a residential facility must take all reasonable steps to obtain the older person's consent. 50

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), an older person who is capable of understanding must be informed of the intended admission even if his or her mental condition renders him or her incapable of giving the required consent in terms of that subsection.

CHAPTER 5
PROTECTION FOR OLDER PERSONS

Effect of Act on Domestic Violence Act, 1998

24. The provisions of this Act must not be construed as limiting, amending, repealing or otherwise altering any provision of the Domestic Violence Act, 1998 (Act No. 116 of 5 1998), or as exempting any person from any duty or obligation imposed by that Act or prohibiting any person from complying with any provision of that Act.

Older person in need of care and protection

25. (1) Any person who is involved with an older person in a professional capacity and who on personal observation concludes that the older person is in need of care and 10 protection must report such conclusion to the Director-General.

(2) Any person other than a person in subsection (1) who is of the opinion that an older person is in need of care and protection may report such opinion to a social worker.

(3) The Director-General or the social worker to whom a report has been made must 15 investigate the matter.

(4) If the report is substantiated by the investigation, the Director-General or the social worker concerned may take any one or more of the following actions, namely to—

- (a) facilitate the removal of the older person concerned to a hospital, in case of 20 injury, or to a shelter;
- (b) make a report to a police official requesting the latter to act in terms of section 27;
- (c) take such other steps as may be prescribed to ensure adequate provision for the basic needs and protection of the older person concerned; or
- (d) if the older person concerned is the victim of an offence or crime, assist the 25 older person to see a police official in order to lay a complaint.

- (5) An older person who is in need of care and protection is one who—
 - (a) has his or her income, assets or old age grant taken against his or her wishes or who suffers any other economic abuse;
 - (b) has been removed from his or her property against his or her wishes or who 30 has been unlawfully evicted from any property occupied by him or her;
 - (c) has been neglected or abandoned without any visible means of support;
 - (d) lives or works on the streets or begs for a living;

- (a) the Director-General must investigate the matter and if the suspicion is substantiated by the investigation, section 25(4) applies; and
- (b) the police official must inform the Director-General of the alleged abuse or, if he or she is satisfied that it will be in the best interests of the older person if the alleged offender is removed from the home or place where the older person resides, act in terms of section 27.

(5) Subsection (4)(a) applies with the necessary changes if the Director-General receives information contemplated in subsection (4)(b).

Written notice to alleged offender

27. (1) A police official to whom a report contemplated in section 25(4)(b) has been made or who is satisfied that it will be in the best interests of the older person if the alleged offender is removed from the home or place where the older person resides, must issue a written notice which—

- (a) specifies the names, surname, residential address, occupation and status of the alleged offender;
- (b) calls upon the alleged offender to leave the home or place where the older person resides and refrain from entering such home or place or having contact with the older person until the court hearing specified in paragraph (c);
- (c) calls upon the alleged offender to appear at a magistrates' court having jurisdiction on a date and at a time specified in the written notice to advance reasons why he or she should not be permanently prohibited from entering the home or place where the older person resides: Provided that the date so specified must be the first court day after the day upon which the notice is issued; and
- (d) contains a certificate under the hand of the police official that he or she has handed the original of such written notice to the alleged offender and that he or she has explained to the alleged offender the importance thereof.

(2) The police official must forthwith forward a duplicate original of the written notice to the clerk of the magistrates' court concerned.

30

(3) The mere production to the magistrates' court of the duplicate original referred to in subsection (2) is prima facie proof of the issue of the original thereof to the alleged offender and that such original was handed to the offender.

(4) Section 55 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977) apply, with the necessary changes, to a written notice handed to an alleged offender in terms of subsection (1).

(5) A magistrates' court before which an alleged offender to whom a written notice in terms of subsection (1) has been issued, appears, may summarily inquire into the circumstances which gave rise to the issuing of the notice.

(6) The magistrates' court may, after having considered the circumstances which gave rise to the issuing of the written notice and after having heard the alleged offender—

- (a) issue an order prohibiting the alleged offender from entering the home or place where the older person resides or from having any contact with the older person, or both from entering such home or place and having contact with the older person, for such period of time as the court deems fit;
- (b) order that the alleged offender may enter the home or the place where the older person resides or have contact with the older person upon such conditions as would ensure that the best interests of the older person are served;
- (c) order that the alleged offender will be responsible for the maintenance of his or her family during the period contemplated in paragraph (a); or
- (d) make such other order with regard to the matter as the court deems fit.

45

(7) Misuse of a power referred to in subsection (1) by a police official constitutes grounds for disciplinary proceedings contemplated in section 40 of the South African Police Service Act, 1995 (Act No. 68 of 1995), against such police official.

(8) A person is guilty of an offence if that person—

- (a) has been issued with a written notice contemplated in subsection (1) and—
 - (i) refuses to leave the home or place where the older person resides; or
 - (ii) has contact with the older person in contravention of the written notice;
- (b) contravenes or fails to comply with an order of the magistrates' court issued in terms of subsection 6 or with any condition contained in such order.

Procedure for bringing alleged abuser of older person before magistrate

28. (1) If a social worker or a health care provider submits or makes a written statement under oath or affirmation to a public prosecutor, and in such statement it is alleged that any person within the area of jurisdiction of the magistrate's court to which that public prosecutor is attached abuses an older person, that public prosecutor may, subject to subsection (2), request the clerk of that court to issue a summons informing such first-mentioned person of the allegations against him or her and calling upon him or her to appear, at a time and place specified therein, before a magistrate within that area.

(2) A public prosecutor may not in terms of subsection (1) request a clerk of the court to issue a summons unless he or she has obtained from the social worker or health care provider a report on the alleged abuse of the older person concerned.

15

(3) If on the grounds of a statement under oath or affirmation referred to in subsection (1) the magistrate has reason to suspect that a social worker or health care provider will be prevented or prohibited from going into or entering upon the place where the older person concerned resides to make the necessary investigation for the purposes of a report referred to in subsection (2), or if such social worker or health care provider has been prevented or prohibited from doing so, the magistrate concerned may on the application of the public prosecutor issue a warrant authorising the social worker or health care provider to go into or enter upon that place to make such investigation.

20

(4) A magistrate may in a warrant issued by him or her in terms of subsection (3) authorise the social worker or health care provider to take a police official with him or her for the purposes of an investigation referred to in the said subsection.

25

(5) The Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), applies, with the necessary changes, in relation to the form and manner of service of summonses in criminal cases in lower courts, the time to be allowed to a person summoned to appear, and the manner in which persons who have been summoned to appear may be dealt with if they fail to appear or to remain in attendance, as required, in respect of summonses issued in terms of this section.

30

(6) A person is guilty of an offence if that person—

- (a) obstructs or hinders a social worker or a health care provider in the performance of his or her functions in terms of this section; or
- (b) refuses to furnish to a social worker or a health care provider any information in connection with the alleged abuse of an older person at his or her disposal which such officer requires for the purposes of an investigation referred to in subsection (3).

Enquiry into abuse of older person

29. (1) Subject to this section, a magistrate before whom any person is brought in terms of section 28 must enquire into the correctness or otherwise of the allegations contained in the summons in question.

45

(2) The public prosecutor or any other person designated by the magistrate for the purpose must appear at the enquiry and may call witnesses and cross-examine any other witnesses giving evidence at the enquiry.
