- (c) reduce the number of votes cast in favour of a party or a candidate.
- (7) If the Commission decides to uphold the objection after the result of the election had been declared, the Commission may—
- (a) amend the result; or
  - (b) if it is of the opinion that the seriousness and extent of unlawful conduct or irregularities that occurred may justify the setting aside of the election, refer the objection to the Electoral Court for its decision.
- (8) The Commission must immediately notify the objecting party and any other interested parties involved in the objection of its decision in terms of subsection (5).
- (9) An objecting party or other party involved in the objection who feels aggrieved by the decision of the Commission may, within seven days of the Commission's decision, lodge an appeal to the Electoral Court in terms of section 20 of the Electoral Commission Act and the Rules of the Electoral Court.
- (10) The Electoral Court must—
- (a) consider an appeal contemplated in subsection (9) and either—
    - (i) reject the appeal;
    - (ii) amend the decision of the Commission;
    - (iii) set aside the election; or
    - (iv) make an appropriate order; and
  - (b) notify the parties to the appeal of its decision.
- (11) The Electoral Court—
- (a) may, after having considered an objection referred to it by the Commission in terms of subsection (7)(b), either—
    - (i) reject the objection;
    - (ii) amend the result of the election;
    - (iii) set aside the election; or
    - (iv) make an appropriate order; and
  - (b) must notify the objecting party of its decision.
- (12) The declared result of an election is not suspended by an appeal in terms of subsection (9) or a referral to the Electoral Court in terms of subsection (7)(b).".
