The Essential Services Committee hereby gives notice in terms of section 71(8) of the Labour Relations Act, No 66 of 1995 that the following services provided at all airports in South Africa have been designated as essential services:

Grahame Matthewson
Chairperson: Essential Services Committee

NOTICE 230 OF 2012DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR*AMENDMENT OF NOTICE ISSUED IN TERMS OF SECTION 71(8) OF THE LABOUR RELATIONS ACT, NO 66 OF 1995

The Essential Services Committee gave notice under Government Notice No 1462 published in Government Gazette No 27104 of 24 December 2004 inter alia that "the whole of the services provided by Children's Homes and Places of Care in terms of section 30 of the Child Care Act of 1983" had been declared essential services.

The Child Care Act of 1983 has been repealed by the Children's Act of 2005, as amended.

In terms of section 196 of the Children's Act of 2005, as amended, an existing state operated children's home established or deemed to have been established in terms of the Child Care Act of 1983 must be regarded as having been established in terms of the Children's Act of 2005, as amended, as "a child and youth care centre". The effect of the provisions of section 196 of the Children's Act of 2005, as amended, is that Children's Homes and Places of Care continue ipso iure to operate as Child and Youth Care Centers under that Act.

In order to align the provisions Government Notice 1462 of 24 December 2004 with the amended legal position as contemplated by section 196 of the Children's Act of 2005, as amended, it is imperative to amend the said Notice.

For the above reasons the Essential Services Committee hereby substitutes item 1(b) of Government Notice 1462 of 24 December 2004 with the following:

- "the whole of the services provided by Child and Youth Care Centers in terms of section 196 of the Children's Act of 2005, as amended".

The Commission will conduct its investigation in accordance with the relevant sections of the ITA Act, the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 (the Anti-Dumping Agreement) and the Anti-Dumping Regulations of the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa (ADR). Both the ITA Act and the ADR are available on the Commission's website (www.itac.org.za) or from the Trade Remedies section, on request.

All interested parties are invited to submit comment on the Applicant's comment.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Please note that if any information is considered to be confidential then a non-confidential version of the information must be submitted for the public file, simultaneously with the confidential version. In submitting a non-confidential version the following rules are strictly applicable and parties must indicate:

- X where confidential information has been omitted and the nature of such information;
- X reasons for such confidentiality;

- X in exceptional cases, where information is not susceptible to summary, reasons must be submitted to this effect.

This rule applies to all parties and to all correspondence with and submissions to the Commission, which unless indicated to be confidential and filed together with a non-confidential version, will be placed on the public file and be made available to other interested parties.

If a party considers that any document of another party, on which that party is submitting representations, does not comply with the above rules and that such deficiency affects that party's ability to make meaningful representations, the details of the deficiency and the reasons why that party's rights are so affected must be submitted to the Commission in writing forthwith (and at the latest 14 days prior to the date on which that party's submission is due). Failure to do so timeously, will seriously hamper the proper administration of the investigation, and such party will not be able to subsequently claim an inability to make meaningful representations on the basis of the failure of such other party to meet the requirements.

Subsection 33(1) of the ITA Act provides that any person claiming confidentiality of information should identify whether such information is confidential by nature or is otherwise confidential and, any such claims must be supported by a written statement, in each case, setting out how the information satisfies the requirements of the claim to confidentiality. In the alternative, a sworn statement should be made setting out reasons why it is impossible to comply with these requirements.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The submission of confidential information to the Commission in connection with customs tariff applications is governed by section 3 of the Tariff Investigations Regulations, which regulations can be found on ITAC's website at <http://www.itac.org.za/documents/R.397.pdf>.

These regulations require that if any information is considered to be confidential, then a non-confidential version of the information must be submitted, simultaneously with the confidential version. In submitting a non-confidential version the regulations are strictly applicable and require parties to indicate:

- ❑ Each instance where confidential information has been omitted and the reasons for confidentiality;*
- ❑ A summary of the confidential information which permits other interested parties a reasonable understanding of the substance of the confidential information; and*
- ❑ In exceptional cases, where information is not susceptible to summary, reasons must be submitted to this effect.*

This rule applies to all parties and to all correspondence with and submissions to the Commission, which unless clearly indicated to be confidential, will be made available to other interested parties.

The Commission will disregard any information indicated to be confidential that is not accompanied by a proper non-confidential summary or the aforementioned reasons.

If a party considers that any document of another party, on which that party is submitting representations, does not comply with the above rules and that such deficiency affects that party's ability to make meaningful representations, the details of the deficiency and the reasons why that party's rights are so affected must be submitted to the commission in writing forthwith (and at the latest 14 days prior to the date on which that party's submission is due). Failure to do so timeously will seriously hamper the proper administration of the investigation, and such party will not be able to subsequently claim an inability to make meaningful representations on the basis of the failure of such other party to meet the requirements.
