3. This Act is called the Immigration Amendment Act, 2015, and comes into operation on a date determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE IMMIGRATION AMENDMENT BILL, 2015

1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The Immigration Act, 2002, (Act No. 13 of 2002), (hereinafter referred to as the “principal Act”) in section 50(1), prior to its amendment by section 25 of the Immigration Amendment Act, 2011 (Act No. 13 of 2011), provided that foreigners who left the Republic after the expiry of their permits (now referred to as “visas” as per section 26 of the Immigration Amendment Act, 2011) would be liable to an administrative fine. However, such administrative fines imposed were no longer serving as a deterrent and hence a proposal was made to amend section 30 of the principal Act so as to declare such foreigners who overstayed as undesirable.
- 1.2 In order to give effect to this proposal, section 20 of the Immigration Amendment Act, 2011, amended section 30 of the principal Act by including a new paragraph (h) into subsection (1) of section 30. However, section 30(1)(h) of the principal Act (as amended by section 20 of the Immigration Amendment Act, 2011) provides that a foreigner may be declared undesirable where he or she has overstayed the prescribed number of times.
- 1.3 In practice, this current wording of section 30(1)(h) of the principal Act has created many interpretation challenges as some have interpreted it to mean that foreigners must have overstayed on more than one occasion in order to be declared undesirable. However, it has always been the intention to declare a foreigner undesirable even upon one instance of overstay. Hence, regulation 27 of the Immigration Regulations (dated 22 May 2014 and published in Government Gazette No. 37679) provides for a person who overstays after the expiry his or her visa (even where such person has overstayed for the first time) to be declared undesirable for a certain period of time depending on the length of his or her overstay.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

The purpose of the Bill is to provide for an adequate sanction for foreign nationals who have overstayed in the Republic beyond the expiry date on their visa. Hence, the Bill seeks to amend section 32 of the principal Act in order to more clearly provide that foreign nationals who have overstayed in the Republic beyond the expiry date of their visas, do not qualify for a port of entry visa, a visa, admission into the Republic or a permanent residence permit during the relevant prescribed period.

3. CONTENTS OF THE BILL

3.1 Clause 1 amends section 32 of the principal Act by inserting a new subsection (1A) which clearly provides that illegal foreigners who have overstayed in the Republic, as prescribed, will not qualify for a port of entry visa, a visa, admission into the Republic or a permanent residence permit during the prescribed period

3.2 Clause 2 amends section 50(1) of the principal Act in order to effect a consequential amendment relating to cross-referencing following the insertion of section 32(1A).

3.3 Clause 3 provides for the short title and the commencement date.

4. ORGANISATIONAL AND PERSONNEL IMPLICATIONS

None

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STATE

None

6. DEPARTMENTS, BODIES OR PERSONS CONSULTED

The following stakeholders were consulted—

- Department of Home Affairs

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 7.1 The Committee proposes that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provisions to which the procedures set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution apply.
- 7.2 The Committee is of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
